The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK.

When we learned recently that Cook county inspection bureau had reduced the Arlington Heights fire insurance classification from class 5 to 6, we became a little alarmed, wondering in what way the village had fallen down on its fire protection.

We feel better after reading the full report issued this week. It was stamped confidential information, but we do not think there is anything in the report to hide or keep from the general public.

It is true there is a whole lot of "fairs" in the report, but there are no "bads." Fire inspectors are like postoffice inspectors. They do not think they are earning their money unless they have criticisms. They made a lot of recommendations.

One sentence reads, "It is not expected that all these suggestions can be completed immediately, but definite plans should be made for continued steady improvement." If we know Arlington village board, that is just what it will do.

There are 7 immediate "musts," the most important of which is the purchase of an additional pumper, which is now being consumated.

Fire prevention week, October 9 to 15, is a good time for householders and businessmen to pay strict attention to fire protection rules as advocated by our firemen.

The board of education of the new Roselle high school district has a real task before it. After authorizing a high school building, the voters refused to approve a proper tax levy with which to operate it.

That is nothing new, Roselle. Arlington Heights high school voters turned down a 2½ million dollar school building bond issue a year ago. The building is now going to cost them 3½ million.

What is that term, "hind sight is greater than foresight?"

MEDILL SCHOOL of journalism of Northwestern university has gathered a lot of data on the viewpoint of courts and judges on "Your Right to Know." Some public officials seem to think they have the right to draw down a paper curtain over the operation of their office.

With one or two exceptions such public officials do not live around here. Our reporters have little difficulty gathering facts about things that the public has the right to know. It is usually the small office holder who attempts to draw down the curtain.

This is newspaper week. The slogan that has been adopted throughout the country is "Your Newspaper Fights for Your Right to Know." This newspaper attempts to give to its readers news that its readers have the right to know.

RECREATION PARK in Arlington Heights is nearly 30 years old. It was born in the midst of depression days and is due the foresight of the officials and voters of those days now that it is of its present size. Arlington then had a population of under 5,000.

During the years, by gifts and otherwise, the park district has acquired some other valuable park property. The village has tripled in size. The voters of the early 30's started park facilities. Should not the voters of 1955 be just as foresighted?

The voters of the 1930's provided the swim pool, baseball diamonds, etc., that today's kids are enjoying. Should we not do as much for the kids of tomorrow?

WE USUALLY pick up a tidbit or two for this column from the breakfast club. While lying in the hospital bed, we will miss those tidbits—so will this column.

By the time this is read the world series will be history, but by the grapevine word comes to us that one of the losers paid off his bet with a check drawn on a non-existent Aptakisic Bank.

The loser obligingly cashed the check. Otherwise the winner would have been the loser.

The same grapevine tells us the city manager controversy has made the morning sessions almost as exciting as a village board session.

We have been asked to enter the city manager fray, either for or against. We favored the ordinance plan which failed due to what could be called underground warfare.

We are now faced with the state statute plan, which the present administration said during last spring's political campaign, was preferable. If approved by the voters it will initiate an entire new village government.

Shall we campaign against it? We are between two thorns. We certainly do not want to return to the old antiquated form of government, and evidently the village board does not intend to allow us to retain the moderate form.

There appears to be only one course to follow—sink or swim—a new village government under the state statute plan. Why, oh why, did Alderman Davis start it anyway?

Is man living beyond his usefulness? President Eisenhower is getting all worried about the number of middle-aged men which industry is trying to lay on the shelf.

Many of those 50-year-old men who can't find a job would have a nest egg if Uncle Sam had not taken such a large slice of their income.

The next two broadcasts of this column will come from a room at the Chicago Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat hospital. No "victim" to surgery every entered a hospital more joyously than this editor. We will again be able to recognize our friends when we meet them on the street—we hope.

Bad Check Passer Hits Arlington Exchange For $100

Arlington Heights police this week were assisting FBI agents and out-of-state police in the search for a Colorado man who had cashed more than 50 phony checks across the country.

The man, who gave his name as Bernard Hull of Wray, Colo., cashed a check for $101 at the Arlington Currency Exchange, 6 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights. He purchased $100 worth of Bank of America Travelers checks from Charles Bergmann, manager.

Police urged merchants to watch for travelers checks signed by "Bernard Hull" and hold such a person for local or federal officers.

Another Rand Wreck; September Toll Is 3 Dead, 11 Badly Hurt

Two persons were seriously injured last Thursday in a 2-car collision at Rand rd. and route 58 near Mt. Prospect. They were taken to Resurrection hospital.

The wreck occured when 1 of the cars, traveling at high speed, attempted to cross the intersection on a yellow traffic signal. He plunged into the front end of another car.

This makes the scoreboard for September on Rand rd.; 3 dead, 11 injured seriously.

Ask State, County Aid To Stop Rand Murders

Paddock Publications cannot alone stop the murders that are being committed by speeders on Rand rd., but it is calling the attention of state and country highway officials to the death trap that exists there today.

The newspaper sent the following letter to Gov. Stratton, state highway engineers, members of the county board of commissioners, and William Mortimer, superintendent of highways:

"THE ENCLOSED newspaper clippings tell their own story. We feel that action should be taken to stop the slaughter.

"There are a great many people in this area who are depending upon you to do something that will save the lives of many innocent people.

"We make a lot of noise about a colored boy who was murdered in Mississippi and we do nothing to stop the 'murders' and serious injuries that are being committed almost weekly on Rand rd. We consider that an emergency exists and hope you will give it your attention."

Supporting the publications in its campaign is Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman. He has written Mortimer and asked that some kind of speed limit signs be posted on U. S. 12 until the state acts on the demands of citizens. Although such limits could not be enforced until the state makes them official, Lohman said the "mere presence" of such signs might help temporarily.

NEITHER the sheriff or county board can legally impose an enforceable limit on the highway. Such action can come only from the state, which has frankly said it wasn't enthusiastic about the limit because "there's no one to enforce it."

Lohman tabbed such an excuse "nonsense" and pledged support from the county sheriff's police in patrolling the road if the state will approve a 45-mph limit.

Hoover, Bishop Talk Tonight On Manager Plan, Open To Public

Another "town meeting" discussion on the village manager issue in Arlington Heights is slated for tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m. in the VFW hall.

Discussing manager government will be village trustees John Hoover and Robert Bishop as well as Gerald Chapman, an attorney and co-chairman of the Citizens for a Village Manager. Chapman will outline the duties of a manager under Illinois statute, and the trustees will discuss the plan in general.

Sponsor of the meeting is the Arlington Greens Community association. The public is welcome to attend.

Meanwhile, the Citizens for a Village Manager announced plans for a vast doorbell-ringing campaign as soon as the County court announces the date for a referendum. The group is also helping to provide speakers for community meetings on the manager question.

Barber Shop Harmony Will Aid Hospital

The fifth annual Night of Harmony, starring the Arlington Heights Barber Shoppers, will benefit the Northwest Community Hospital center.

Sponsored by the Arlington Heights Women's club, the show will include personal appearances by the Schmitt Brothers of Two Rivers, Wis., international champions and considered one of the finest harmony quartets in the country.

Also on the bill are the Nota-Belles, a ladies' quartet which placed second in the international contest, and the Mid-States Four of Chicago.

Master of ceremonies, Bob Hager, is a one-man show and known as the "World's Greatest Baritone."

The Night of Harmony is Oct. 23 in the high school gym. Tickets are available from members of the Women's club, the Arlington Heights SPEBSQSA, and Kindler's News stand.

Remove Sprinkling Ban

Residents of Arlington Heights may now sprinkle lawns, trees and shrubs at their own discretion. The ban has been removed as of Tuesday, October 4.

Vote November 5 On Second High School

Saturday, November 5, has been set for the referendum on the anticipated second of Arlington Heights high school's urgently needed building program. The voters will be asked for approval to construct and to finance a second building on land now owned by District 214 on Foundry road north of Mt. Prospect.

Planned in accordance with recommendations of the Citizens Lay Advisory committee a year ago re-affirmed last week, the total cost to house 2,500 students and develop the site would be $3,500,000. Construction of basic facilities and classrooms for approximately 1,500 pupils would be completed by September 1957. The remainder would be built in a continuous construction program to open in the fall of 1958.

VOTER APPROVAL of the full $3,500,000 for both stages of construction will enable longer construction and, as estimated by the architects and leading contractors, will save the taxpayers approximately $150,000 compared with the cost of a 2 bond issue program. Bonds running for periods up to 20 years would be issued partly in 1956 and partly in 1957 as construction progressed to save paying interest on money not yet needed.

The school, equipped, would cost the individual taxpayer an estimated $1.17 per thousand of assessed valuation in taxes paid in 1957 and $2.17 per thousand in 1958. The cost thereafter would decline as bonds were retired.

The building itself a drawing of which appears elsewhere in this issue, was designed by the architectural firm of Nicol and Nicol, a leader in this area in economical school construction and builder of the addition to the Euclid st. building now under way. It will be modern in design, but not extreme or excessive in its use of glass or other materials which have created maintenance and operating problems in some schools.

Actual construction cost is estimated at $12.50 per square foot compared with an average in recent years in Cook county of $14 to $16. The $12.50 per squart foot includes allowances for increasing labor and other costs. The addition to the present school is costing approximately $13 per square foot, the difference being largely due to the necessity of matching the architecture of the existing parts of the building. For the same estimated student capacity, 2,500, the new building will have almost exactly the same total area, 2,500 square feet, as the completed building on Euclid st.

Plans call for the new building on Foundry road to house all freshmen in the district in the school year 1957-58, all freshmen and sophomores in 1958-59, and to operate thereafter as 2-year school with juniors and seniors attending on Euclid st. Administration of the district would continue from the present building. The design and space allowances of the proposed building, however, are such that it could be converted to a 4-year high school with only changes in equipment.

Grade school enrollments, the most accurate barometer of future high school load, continue to increase without slackening. Total enrollment in grades 1 through 8 throughout the high school district increased 1,323, or 25 per cent from September 1953 to September 1954, and this fall it is up 2,069, or 32 per cent, to 8,599.

Further details, including floor plans, will appear in next week's edition of this newspaper. Discussions of the program are being arranged before interested groups and a general public meeting at the high school is being planned.

Plan Bond Issue For Second Fire Station

Ramble Inn Opens; Plans Wednesday-Friday Hours

Ramble Inn, youth center in Arlington Heights with membership open to high school students within school district 214, opened its doors at the field house last week Wednesday with a 7-10 p.m. Wednesday and Friday schedule to be followed.

The youth center has always been a popular spot for high schoolers, with 500-600 memberships taken out in past years. This time evening hours have been changed with 10 o'clock closing instead of the former 11:30. Last year's Saturday night has been switched to Friday, according to Curtis Larsen,

YOUTH CENTER is operated in basement of field house with blessing of park district. Arlington Heights Lions club hires Larsen as director, plus a policeman who will patrol the grounds Wednesday and Friday nights until 10:30, making sure all cars have left by that time.

Grounds are well lighted, providing full supervision of all activities at the center, inside and out. Recreation in the basement includes 5 ping pong machines, juke box and dancing. Concessions operated by the youth center include ice cream, pop, candy, pop corn and 5 different toasted sandwiches. This equipment is owned by the center.

BIG NIGHTS for the youth center this year will be the annual Halloween and New Year's Eve parties. Halloween dance will be a masquerade affair with prizes for best costumes. Carnival atmosphere of previous years has been eliminated.

Homecoming function of past years at youth center is no longer possible, due to earlier closing hours. In fact, Ramble Inn will not be open the nights of home football or basketball games, or school dances. When sports teams are playing away from home the YC will be open.

MEMBERSHIPS cost just $1.50 for the year, with all students at Arlington Heights high school eligible. Also eligible are Heights graduates within 1 year of graduation. Girls in blue jeans, pedal pushers, slacks or Bermuda shorts are not admitted.

The high school, by the way, has no connection with Ramble Inn. In the past many calls have been made to the high school regarding youth center activities. The man to contact is Curtis Larsen, director of the center.

Subdivision Ordinance Passed

Arlington Heights now has an ordinance spelling out to developers of new subdivisions just what they can and can't do in laying out new subdivisions in the village.

The ordinance is comprehensive, specifying just what comprises a subdivision, what public improvements must be made, set back lines, lot sizes, and specifications for public improvements, just to mention a few of the major parts of the ordinance.

The ordinance has been more than a year in preparation. It has been studied by the plan commission, members of the old board, and was discussed at a special meeting of the new board and the plan commission. The original ordinance has been altered and changed as a result of these meetings and also according to recommendations made by the village engineers, and was adopted in its final form Tuesday night.

TRUSTEE Robert Bishop, who made the motion to adopt the ordinance, pointed out to the board there may still be some flaws to be ironed out when the ordinance is put into effect, but there is no way of telling just what will work effectively until it is tried. In the meantime the planning board would have some "solid" ground to work on. The motion was seconded by Trustee John Hoover and passed 5-1.

Trustee Robert F. Davis cast the negative vote, stating he would prefer to hold it over a week or two in order to study it further and iron out some questionable phases of the ordinance.

President Albert W. Goedke, on the recommendation of Hoover, appointed a 3-man committee to serve as a "watch dog" over the new ordinance to see how its application works out. Hoover, Davis and Bishop were appointed to the committee.

'Tricks Or Treats' On Halloween Could Aid Proposed Hospital

A mother of 4 small youngsters urged this paper to suggest that this year the annual Halloween "Tricks or Treats" night be turned into a fund raising project for the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center.

'Just think of how much could be raised from pennies and nickles collected by the tiny Halloween goblins as they threaten to play tricks if no treats are forthcoming," she said. Instead of filling a bag with goodies they can't possibly eat, most of which will end up in the waste basket, they could get pennies or nickles from residents and turn over the 'loot' to the hospital."

This is a wonderful idea for a project, which could be highlighted in every community to be served by the hospital, namely Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Wheeling, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Barrington, not to mention all the outlying subdivisions in the 5 townships the hospital will serve.

Here's a chance for an organization in each community to spearhead the program for their area. Maybe a central "witch's pot" could be erected in each area and the loot brought to the pot during specific hours Halloween night. There are all kinds of possibilities. All that is needed is a promoter and organizer. What are we waiting for?

Daughter of Pioneer Merchant Dies at Home

Mrs. Ray Lemke, nee Henrietta Gieseke, 815 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights, died Tuesday night at home, following a brief illness.

Mrs. Lemke was born and raised in Arlington Heights and she is well known to patrons of Gieske's store, which is operated by her husband. She is the daughter of the late Fred W. Gieseke Sr., who founded the store, which will be observing its 50th anniversary in 1957.

A member of St. Peter Lutheran church, she was an active member of the Mothers club. She has a son, Kenneth, who is a sophomore at DePauw university in Greencastle, Ind., and a daughter, Sandra, a freshman at Arlington Heights high school. Besides her husband and children she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Emma Gieseke, a sister, Mrs. Helena Winkelmann, and a brother, Fred W. Gieseke Jr., all of Arlington Hts.

Mrs. Lemke will be remembered in the hearts of many for her various charitable acts to local churches and organizations. She was always willing to lend a helping hand to any needy cause.

She will be in state at Black's Memorial home commencing Thursday evening. Services will be held Saturday, at 2 p.m., from St. Peter Lutheran church. She will be in state at the church from 12 noon until time for services.

Gieseke's store will be closed all day Saturday in respect to her memory.

Bake Sale Saturday

A bake sale will be held Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m. at Svobodas Men's store, S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, and will continue until all the home baked goodies are sold.

The sale is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Nurses club and proceeds will be used to aid the various nurses club projects, including its famed Lending Closet.

Ask Fire Department To Get Plans, Cost Estimates

Wheels began turning Tuesday for a north side fire station in Arlington Heights.

Trustee Forrest F. Davis moved that the fire department be given authorization to engage an architect to prepare plans and specifications for the proposed building. Approval of the board was unanimous.

It is hoped a bond issue for the improvement can be held at the same special election on which the village manager question is to be voted on in November.

PERMISSION to place sidewalks adjacent to curbs on Fernandez, between Sigwalt and George st., was refused by the board. Builder O. L. Craig requested permission to do this in order to keep the appearance of the subdivision in line with previous improvements.

Several board members feel that coach walks are extremely hazardous and Trustee Robert Bishop moved the request be denied, inasmuch as the walk was just a block away from the proposed new park area and many children would be using it. The motion carried 4-2 with Trustee James Millay voting no on the question and Davis passing his vote.

A new draft of a house moving ordinance had its first reading and has been filed with the clerk for consideration at the October 18 meeting. The ordinance provides for the moving of old homes and relocating them in the village.

The board passed the ordinance granting the variation for a parking lot for Faith church. The lot will be located on the northwest corner of Park and Pine.

PROCEEDINGS for the condemnation of lots on S. Vail and S. Dunton for the purpose of making a municipal parking lot have been instituted. The engineers have now been authorized to draw plans and specifications for the improvement of the lot, as well as to obtain estimates as to how much the project will cost.

The drawing of plans and specifications for the dredging of Weller Creek were held up until the board further studies the matter at a special meeting October 11.

Michael Saar was appointed as a special police officer and will serve as the crossing guard at State rd. and the railroad track, thus reliving a regular policeman for more pressing work.

Arlington Hasn't Kept Pace With Growth: Fire Underwriters

Village officials of Arlington Heights this week received the official report of the Chicago Board of Underwriters, which recently dropped the village from grade 5 to grade 6 in rating its fire protection and fire fighting facilities.

Explaining their rating, the board said facilities have not "kept pace with the rapid growth of the village."

Based on inspections made in July, the report said that "considering the needs of the village, the water works system and fire department are fair."

THE UNDERWRITERS called special attention to possible delay in answering fire calls because of Chicago and North Western railway grade crossings. Plans have been formulated for a second fire station north of the railroad tracks.

Of 16 recommendations made to the village, 9 were listed as of "greatest importance." Their early adoption was "strongly urged."

THE 9 POINTS are:

1—Improve water department records.

2—Inspect all hydrants at least twice a year and keep records of inspections and repairs.

3—Provide at least 2 full-paid firemen on duty at all times with each pumper and increase the paid-on-call membership to at least 25.

4—Consideration should be given to replacing the old 1928 pumper with a new triple combination of at least 750 G.P.M. (This has been done.)

5—Provide additional 2½-inch hose so that there is at least 1000 feet in service with each pumper and 1000 feet in reserve.

6—Test fire hose at least once a year and keep adequate records.

7—Provide additional type "N" and oxygen breathing masks and other necessary minor equipment.

8—Adopt an electrical code.

9—Adopt a fire prevention code and institute an inspection program of all mercantile, manufacturing and public buildings and keep records of inspections and recommendations made.

FIRE DEPARTMENT personnel consists of 21 paid-on-call men, including Chief Elroy J. Winkelman. Two men sleep at the fire station every night. The average response to alarms is 14 men days and 16 nights.

Apparatus consists of a 1948—750 G.P.M. American LaFrance and a 1928-500 G.P.M. Seagrave triple combination pumpers and a 1936—500 G.P.M. General quadruple combination pumper. Also a 1952 panel truck is equipped as an emergency squad truck.

Expand School Music Instruction

Formation of an orchestra is being planned by Arlington Heights public schools.

First step in the program is expansion of music instruction in the schools to include stringed instruments.

For parents and children interested in stringed instruction, a meeting will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in the junior high school cafeteria. A commercial instrument company and the Arlington Heights high school string orchestra will participate in a demonstration of orchestra instruments.

Melvin Kasen, formerly music director at Gibraltar high school, Fish Creek, Wis., is new director of the string program.

'Centennial Week' Opens Sunday At Presbyterian Church

Centennial Week for members of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights opens Sunday, with a special service calling attention to the founding of the church 100 years ago this fall in a barn owned by William H. Dunton, one of the early settlers of this area. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Paul Louis Stumpf, who only recently accepted a call to Arlington Heights.

A congregation, which now numbers 1,284 members will look back, during this coming week, to a meeting just a century ago when 17 persons gathered to organize the Presbyterian Society of Arlington Heights.

EVENTS SUCH as the founding session will be enacted in a special historical play which has been written to dramatize highlights in the 100-year growth of the church. The play will be presented in the church auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday nights, October 12 and 13, at 8 o'clock, and again Sunday afternoon, October 16, at 3:30 o'clock.

The Centennial observance will be climaxed Sunday morning, the 16th, by special anniversary services which will be attended by former ministers of the church. Rev. C. Victor Brown, who served in the pulpit here from March 1, 1947 to February 1, 1955 will preach the sermon, "On This Foundation," at 3 services — at 8 o'clock, 9:30 o'clock, and 11 o'clock.

Other former pastors who will be present are Rev. Herman A. Kossack, now pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Iron River, Wis.; and Rev. Herman G. McCoy, now pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Highland Ind. Reverend Brown is now serving as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gary, Ind.

ADMISSION TO the historical play, "The First One Hundred Years," is free, but tickets must be obtained in advance. They are available now at the church office on a first come, first serve basis until the capacity of the auditorium is filled.

Performers will be costumed in garments typical of the early days of the church, and the entire cast of 40 persons is being coached by Mrs. Dennis Malcolmson, of the Village Theatre. Sets have been designed and executed by Maurice Geye, also of the Village Theatre. Events in the church history will be depicted in flashback as the imaginary Atterbury family of Arlington Heights plans its participation in its own church's Centennial.

The family parts are portrayed by Mildred Froyd, the mother; Robert Hutchinson, the father; Mary Jo Utt, the daughter; and Peter Swanson, the son. Others in the cast include John Calhoun, Kay Hawley, who also is author of the script; Isabelle Burke, Julianne Zimmerman, Jean Sullivan, Barbara Rasmussen Barbara Belle, Alta Hutchinson, Joan Grisell, Roger Burke, Bud Mills, Doug Trout, Linda Burke, Jan Davis, George Sharpe.

Elizabeth Prunty, Kent Kurtz, Judy Cole, Mary Jansen, Sally Jansen, Spencer Ewing, Bob Wellman, Sally Opela, Dennis Malcolmson, Tom Grisell, Dean Bradle, Bob Tindall, Pat Bergstrom, Peter Toffoli, Bob Hawley, and the Rev. Paul Louis Stumpf. A special scene will also be played by a fifth grade group from the church school.

Another Rand Wreck; September Toll Is 3 Dead, 11 Badly Hurt

Two persons were seriously injured last Thursday in a 2-car collision at Rand rd. and route 58 near Mt. Prospect. They were taken to Resurrection hospital.

The wreck occured when 1 of the cars, traveling at high speed, attempted to cross the intersection on a yellow traffic signal. He plunged into the front end of another car.

This makes the scoreboard for September on Rand rd.; 3 dead, 11 injured seriously.

Ask State, County Aid To Stop Rand Murders

Paddock Publications cannot alone stop the murders that are being committed by speeders on Rand rd., but it is calling the attention of state and country highway officials to the death trap that exists there today.

The newspaper sent the following letter to Gov. Stratton, state highway engineers, members of the county board of commissioners, and William Mortimer, superintendent of highways:

"THE ENCLOSED newspaper clippings tell their own story. We feel that action should be taken to stop the slaughter.

"There are a great many people in this area who are depending upon you to do something that will save the lives of many innocent people.

"We make a lot of noise about a colored boy who was murdered in Mississippi and we do nothing to stop the 'murders' and serious injuries that are being committed almost weekly on Rand rd. We consider that an emergency exists and hope you will give it your attention."

Supporting the publications in its campaign is Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman. He has written Mortimer and asked that some kind of speed limit signs be posted on U. S. 12 until the state acts on the demands of citizens. Although such limits could not be enforced until the state makes them official, Lohman said the "mere presence" of such signs might help temporarily.

NEITHER the sheriff or county board can legally impose an enforceable limit on the highway. Such action can come only from the state, which has frankly said it wasn't enthusiastic about the limit because "there's no one to enforce it."

Lohman tabbed such an excuse "nonsense" and pledged support from the county sheriff's police in patrolling the road if the state will approve a 45-mph limit.

Hoover, Bishop Talk Tonight On Manager Plan, Open To Public

Another "town meeting" discussion on the village manager issue in Arlington Heights is slated for tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m. in the VFW hall.

Discussing manager government will be village trustees John Hoover and Robert Bishop as well as Gerald Chapman, an attorney and co-chairman of the Citizens for a Village Manager. Chapman will outline the duties of a manager under Illinois statute, and the trustees will discuss the plan in general.

Sponsor of the meeting is the Arlington Greens Community association. The public is welcome to attend.

Meanwhile, the Citizens for a Village Manager announced plans for a vast doorbell-ringing campaign as soon as the County court announces the date for a referendum. The group is also helping to provide speakers for community meetings on the manager question.

Vote November 5 On Second High School

Saturday, November 5, has been set for the referendum on the anticipated second of Arlington Heights high school's urgently needed building program. The voters will be asked for approval to construct and to finance a second building on land now owned by District 214 on Foundry road north of Mt. Prospect.

Planned in accordance with recommendations of the Citizens Lay Advisory committee a year ago re-affirmed last week, the total cost to house 2,500 students and develop the site would be $3,500,000. Construction of basic facilities and classrooms for approximately 1,500 pupils would be completed by September 1957. The remainder would be built in a continuous construction program to open in the fall of 1958.

VOTER APPROVAL of the full $3,500,000 for both stages of construction will enable longer construction and, as estimated by the architects and leading contractors, will save the taxpayers approximately $150,000 compared with the cost of a 2 bond issue program. Bonds running for periods up to 20 years would be issued partly in 1956 and partly in 1957 as construction progressed to save paying interest on money not yet needed.

The school, equipped, would cost the individual taxpayer an estimated $1.17 per thousand of assessed valuation in taxes paid in 1957 and $2.17 per thousand in 1958. The cost thereafter would decline as bonds were retired.

The building itself a drawing of which appears elsewhere in this issue, was designed by the architectural firm of Nicol and Nicol, a leader in this area in economical school construction and builder of the addition to the Euclid st. building now under way. It will be modern in design, but not extreme or excessive in its use of glass or other materials which have created maintenance and operating problems in some schools.

Actual construction cost is estimated at $12.50 per square foot compared with an average in recent years in Cook county of $14 to $16. The $12.50 per squart foot includes allowances for increasing labor and other costs. The addition to the present school is costing approximately $13 per square foot, the difference being largely due to the necessity of matching the architecture of the existing parts of the building. For the same estimated student capacity, 2,500, the new building will have almost exactly the same total area, 2,500 square feet, as the completed building on Euclid st.

Plans call for the new building on Foundry road to house all freshmen in the district in the school year 1957-58, all freshmen and sophomores in 1958-59, and to operate thereafter as 2-year school with juniors and seniors attending on Euclid st. Administration of the district would continue from the present building. The design and space allowances of the proposed building, however, are such that it could be converted to a 4-year high school with only changes in equipment.

Grade school enrollments, the most accurate barometer of future high school load, continue to increase without slackening. Total enrollment in grades 1 through 8 throughout the high school district increased 1,323, or 25 per cent from September 1953 to September 1954, and this fall it is up 2,069, or 32 per cent, to 8,599.

Further details, including floor plans, will appear in next week's edition of this newspaper. Discussions of the program are being arranged before interested groups and a general public meeting at the high school is being planned.

Barber Shop Harmony Will Aid Hospital

The fifth annual Night of Harmony, starring the Arlington Heights Barber Shoppers, will benefit the Northwest Community Hospital center.

Sponsored by the Arlington Heights Women's club, the show will include personal appearances by the Schmitt Brothers of Two Rivers, Wis., international champions and considered one of the finest harmony quartets in the country.

Also on the bill are the Nota-Belles, a ladies quartet which placed second in the international contest, and the Mid-States Four of Chicago.

Master of ceremonies, Bob Hager, is a one-man show and known as the "World's Greatest Baritone."

The Night of Harmony is Oct. 23 in the high school gym. Tickets are available from members of the Women's club, the Arlington Heights SPEBSQSA, and Kindler's News stand.

Remove Sprinkling Ban

Residents of Arlington Heights may now sprinkle lawns, trees and shrubs at their own discretion. The ban has been removed as of Tuesday, October 4.

Plan Bond Issue For Second Fire Station

Ramble Inn Opens; Plans Wednesday-Friday Hours

Ramble Inn, youth center in Arlington Heights with membership open to high school students within school district 214, opened its doors at the field house last week Wednesday with a 7-10 p.m. Wednesday and Friday schedule to be followed.

The youth center has always been a popular spot for high schoolers, with 500-600 memberships taken out in past years. This time evening hours have been changed with 10 o'clock closing instead of the former 11:30. Last year's Saturday night has been switched to Friday, according to Curtis Larsen,

YOUTH CENTER is operated in basement of field house with blessing of park district. Arlington Heights Lions club hires Larsen as director, plus a policeman who will patrol the grounds Wednesday and Friday nights until 10:30, making sure all cars have left by that time.

Grounds are well lighted, providing full supervision of all activities at the center, inside and out. Recreation in the basement includes 5 ping pong machines, juke box and dancing. Concessions operated by the youth center include ice cream, pop, candy, pop corn and 5 different toasted sandwiches. This equipment is owned by the center.

BIG NIGHTS for the youth center this year will be the annual Halloween and New Year's Eve parties. Halloween dance will be a masquerade affair with prizes for best costumes. Carnival atmosphere of previous years has been eliminated.

Homecoming function of past years at youth center is no longer possible, due to earlier closing hours. In fact, Ramble Inn will not be open the nights of home football or basketball games, or school dances. When sports teams are playing away from home the YC will be open.

MEMBERSHIPS cost just $1.50 for the year, with all students at Arlington Heights high school eligible. Also eligible are Heights graduates within 1 year of graduation. Girls in blue jeans, pedal pushers, slacks or Bermuda shorts are not admitted.

The high school, by the way, has no connection with Ramble Inn. In the past many calls have been made to the high school regarding youth center activities. The man to contact is Curtis Larsen, director of the center.

Subdivision Ordinance Passed

Arlington Heights now has an ordinance spelling out to developers of new subdivisions just what they can and can't do in laying out new subdivisions in the village.

The ordinance is comprehensive, specifying just what comprises a subdivision, what public improvements must be made, set back lines, lot sizes, and specifications for public improvements, just to mention a few of the major parts of the ordinance.

The ordinance has been more than a year in preparation. It has been studied by the plan commission, members of the old board, and was discussed at a special meeting of the new board and the plan commission. The original ordinance has been altered and changed as a result of these meetings and also according to recommendations made by the village engineers, and was adopted in its final form Tuesday night.

TRUSTEE Robert Bishop, who made the motion to adopt the ordinance, pointed out to the board there may still be some flaws to be ironed out when the ordinance is put into effect, but there is no way of telling just what will work effectively until it is tried. In the meantime the planning board would have some "solid" ground to work on. The motion was seconded by Trustee John Hoover and passed 5-1.

Trustee Robert F. Davis cast the negative vote, stating he would prefer to hold it over a week or two in order to study it further and iron out some questionable phases of the ordinance.

President Albert W. Goedke, on the recommendation of Hoover, appointed a 3-man committee to serve as a "watch dog" over the new ordinance to see how its application works out. Hoover, Davis and Bishop were appointed to the committee.

'Tricks Or Treats' On Halloween Could Aid Proposed Hospital

A mother of 4 small youngsters urged this paper to suggest that this year the annual Halloween "Tricks or Treats" night be turned into a fund raising project for the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center.

'Just think of how much could be raised from pennies and nickles collected by the tiny Halloween goblins as they threaten to play tricks if no treats are forthcoming," she said. Instead of filling a bag with goodies they can't possibly eat, most of which will end up in the waste basket, they could get pennies or nickles from residents and turn over the 'loot' to the hospital."

This is a wonderful idea for a project, which could be highlighted in every community to be served by the hospital, namely Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Wheeling, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Barrington, not to mention all the outlying subdivisions in the 5 townships the hospital will serve.

Here's a chance for an organization in each community to spearhead the program for their area. Maybe a central "witch's pot" could be erected in each area and the loot brought to the pot during specific hours Halloween night. There are all kinds of possibilities. All that is needed is a promoter and organizer. What are we waiting for?

Daughter of Pioneer Merchant Dies at Home

Mrs. Ray Lemke, nee Henrietta Gieseke, 815 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights, died Tuesday night at home, following a brief illness.

Mrs. Lemke was born and raised in Arlington Heights and she is well known to patrons of Gieske's store, which is operated by her husband. She is the daughter of the late Fred W. Gieseke Sr., who founded the store, which will be observing its 50th anniversary in 1957.

A member of St. Peter Lutheran church, she was an active member of the Mothers club. She has a son, Kenneth, who is a sophomore at DePauw university in Greencastle, Ind., and a daughter, Sandra, a freshman at Arlington Heights high school. Besides her husband and children she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Emma Gieseke, a sister, Mrs. Helena Winkelmann, and a brother, Fred W. Gieseke Jr., all of Arlington Hts.

Mrs. Lemke will be remembered in the hearts of many for her various charitable acts to local churches and organizations. She was always willing to lend a helping hand to any needy cause.

She will be in state at Black's Memorial home commencing Thursday evening. Services will be held Saturday, at 2 p.m., from St. Peter Lutheran church. She will be in state at the church from 12 noon until time for services.

Gieseke's store will be closed all day Saturday in respect to her memory.

Bake Sale Saturday

A bake sale will be held Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m. at Svobodas Men's store, S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, and will continue until all the home baked goodies are sold.

The sale is sponsored by the Arlington Heights Nurses club and proceeds will be used to aid the various nurses club projects, including its famed Lending Closet.

Ask Fire Department To Get Plans, Cost Estimates

Wheels began turning Tuesday for a north side fire station in Arlington Heights.

Trustee Forrest F. Davis moved that the fire department be given authorization to engage an architect to prepare plans and specifications for the proposed building. Approval of the board was unanimous.

It is hoped a bond issue for the improvement can be held at the same special election on which the village manager question is to be voted on in November.

PERMISSION to place sidewalks adjacent to curbs on Fernandez, between Sigwalt and George st., was refused by the board. Builder O. L. Craig requested permission to do this in order to keep the appearance of the subdivision in line with previous improvements.

Several board members feel that coach walks are extremely hazardous and Trustee Robert Bishop moved the request be denied, inasmuch as the walk was just a block away from the proposed new park area and many children would be using it. The motion carried 4-2 with Trustee James Millay voting no on the question and Davis passing his vote.

A new draft of a house moving ordinance had its first reading and has been filed with the clerk for consideration at the October 18 meeting. The ordinance provides for the moving of old homes and relocating them in the village.

The board passed the ordinance granting the variation for a parking lot for Faith church. The lot will be located on the northwest corner of Park and Pine.

PROCEEDINGS for the condemnation of lots on S. Vail and S. Dunton for the purpose of making a municipal parking lot have been instituted. The engineers have now been authorized to draw plans and specifications for the improvement of the lot, as well as to obtain estimates as to how much the project will cost.

The drawing of plans and specifications for the dredging of Weller Creek were held up until the board further studies the matter at a special meeting October 11.

Michael Saar was appointed as a special police officer and will serve as the crossing guard at State rd. and the railroad track, thus reliving a regular policeman for more pressing work.

Arlington Hasn't Kept Pace With Growth: Fire Underwriters

Village officials of Arlington Heights this week received the official report of the Chicago Board of Underwriters, which recently dropped the village from grade 5 to grade 6 in rating its fire protection and fire fighting facilities.

Explaining their rating, the board said facilities have not "kept pace with the rapid growth of the village."

Based on inspections made in July, the report said that "considering the needs of the village, the water works system and fire department are fair."

THE UNDERWRITERS called special attention to possible delay in answering fire calls because of Chicago and North Western railway grade crossings. Plans have been formulated for a second fire station north of the railroad tracks.

Of 16 recommendations made to the village, 9 were listed as of "greatest importance." Their early adoption was "strongly urged."

THE 9 POINTS are:

1—Improve water department records.

2—Inspect all hydrants at least twice a year and keep records of inspections and repairs.

3—Provide at least 2 full-paid firemen on duty at all times with each pumper and increase the paid-on-call membership to at least 25.

4—Consideration should be given to replacing the old 1928 pumper with a new triple combination of at least 750 G.P.M. (This has been done.)

5—Provide additional 2½-inch hose so that there is at least 1000 feet in service with each pumper and 1000 feet in reserve.

6—Test fire hose at least once a year and keep adequate records.

7—Provide additional type "N" and oxygen breathing masks and other necessary minor equipment.

8—Adopt an electrical code.

9—Adopt a fire prevention code and institute an inspection program of all mercantile, manufacturing and public buildings and keep records of inspections and recommendations made.

FIRE DEPARTMENT personnel consists of 21 paid-on-call men, including Chief Elroy J. Winkelman. Two men sleep at the fire station every night. The average response to alarms is 14 men days and 16 nights.

Apparatus consists of a 1948—750 G.P.M. American LaFrance and a 1928-500 G.P.M. Seagrave triple combination pumpers and a 1936—500 G.P.M. General quadruple combination pumper. Also a 1952 panel truck is equipped as an emergency squad truck.

Expand School Music Instruction

Formation of an orchestra is being planned by Arlington Heights public schools.

First step in the program is expansion of music instruction in the schools to include stringed instruments.

For parents and children interested in stringed instruction, a meeting will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in the junior high school cafeteria. A commercial instrument company and the Arlington Heights high school string orchestra will participate in a demonstration of orchestra instruments.

Melvin Kasen, formerly music director at Gibraltar high school, Fish Creek, Wis., is new director of the string program.

'Centennial Week' Opens Sunday At Presbyterian Church

Centennial Week for members of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights opens Sunday, with a special service calling attention to the founding of the church 100 years ago this fall in a barn owned by William H. Dunton, one of the early settlers of this area. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Paul Louis Stumpf, who only recently accepted a call to Arlington Heights.

A congregation, which now numbers 1,284 members will look back, during this coming week, to a meeting just a century ago when 17 persons gathered to organize the Presbyterian Society of Arlington Heights.

EVENTS SUCH as the founding session will be enacted in a special historical play which has been written to dramatize highlights in the 100-year growth of the church. The play will be presented in the church auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday nights, October 12 and 13, at 8 o'clock, and again Sunday afternoon, October 16, at 3:30 o'clock.

The Centennial observance will be climaxed Sunday morning, the 16th, by special anniversary services which will be attended by former ministers of the church. Rev. C. Victor Brown, who served in the pulpit here from March 1, 1947 to February 1, 1955 will preach the sermon, "On This Foundation," at 3 services — at 8 o'clock, 9:30 o'clock, and 11 o'clock.

Other former pastors who will be present are Rev. Herman A. Kossack, now pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Iron River, Wis.; and Rev. Herman G. McCoy, now pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Highland Ind. Reverend Brown is now serving as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Gary, Ind.

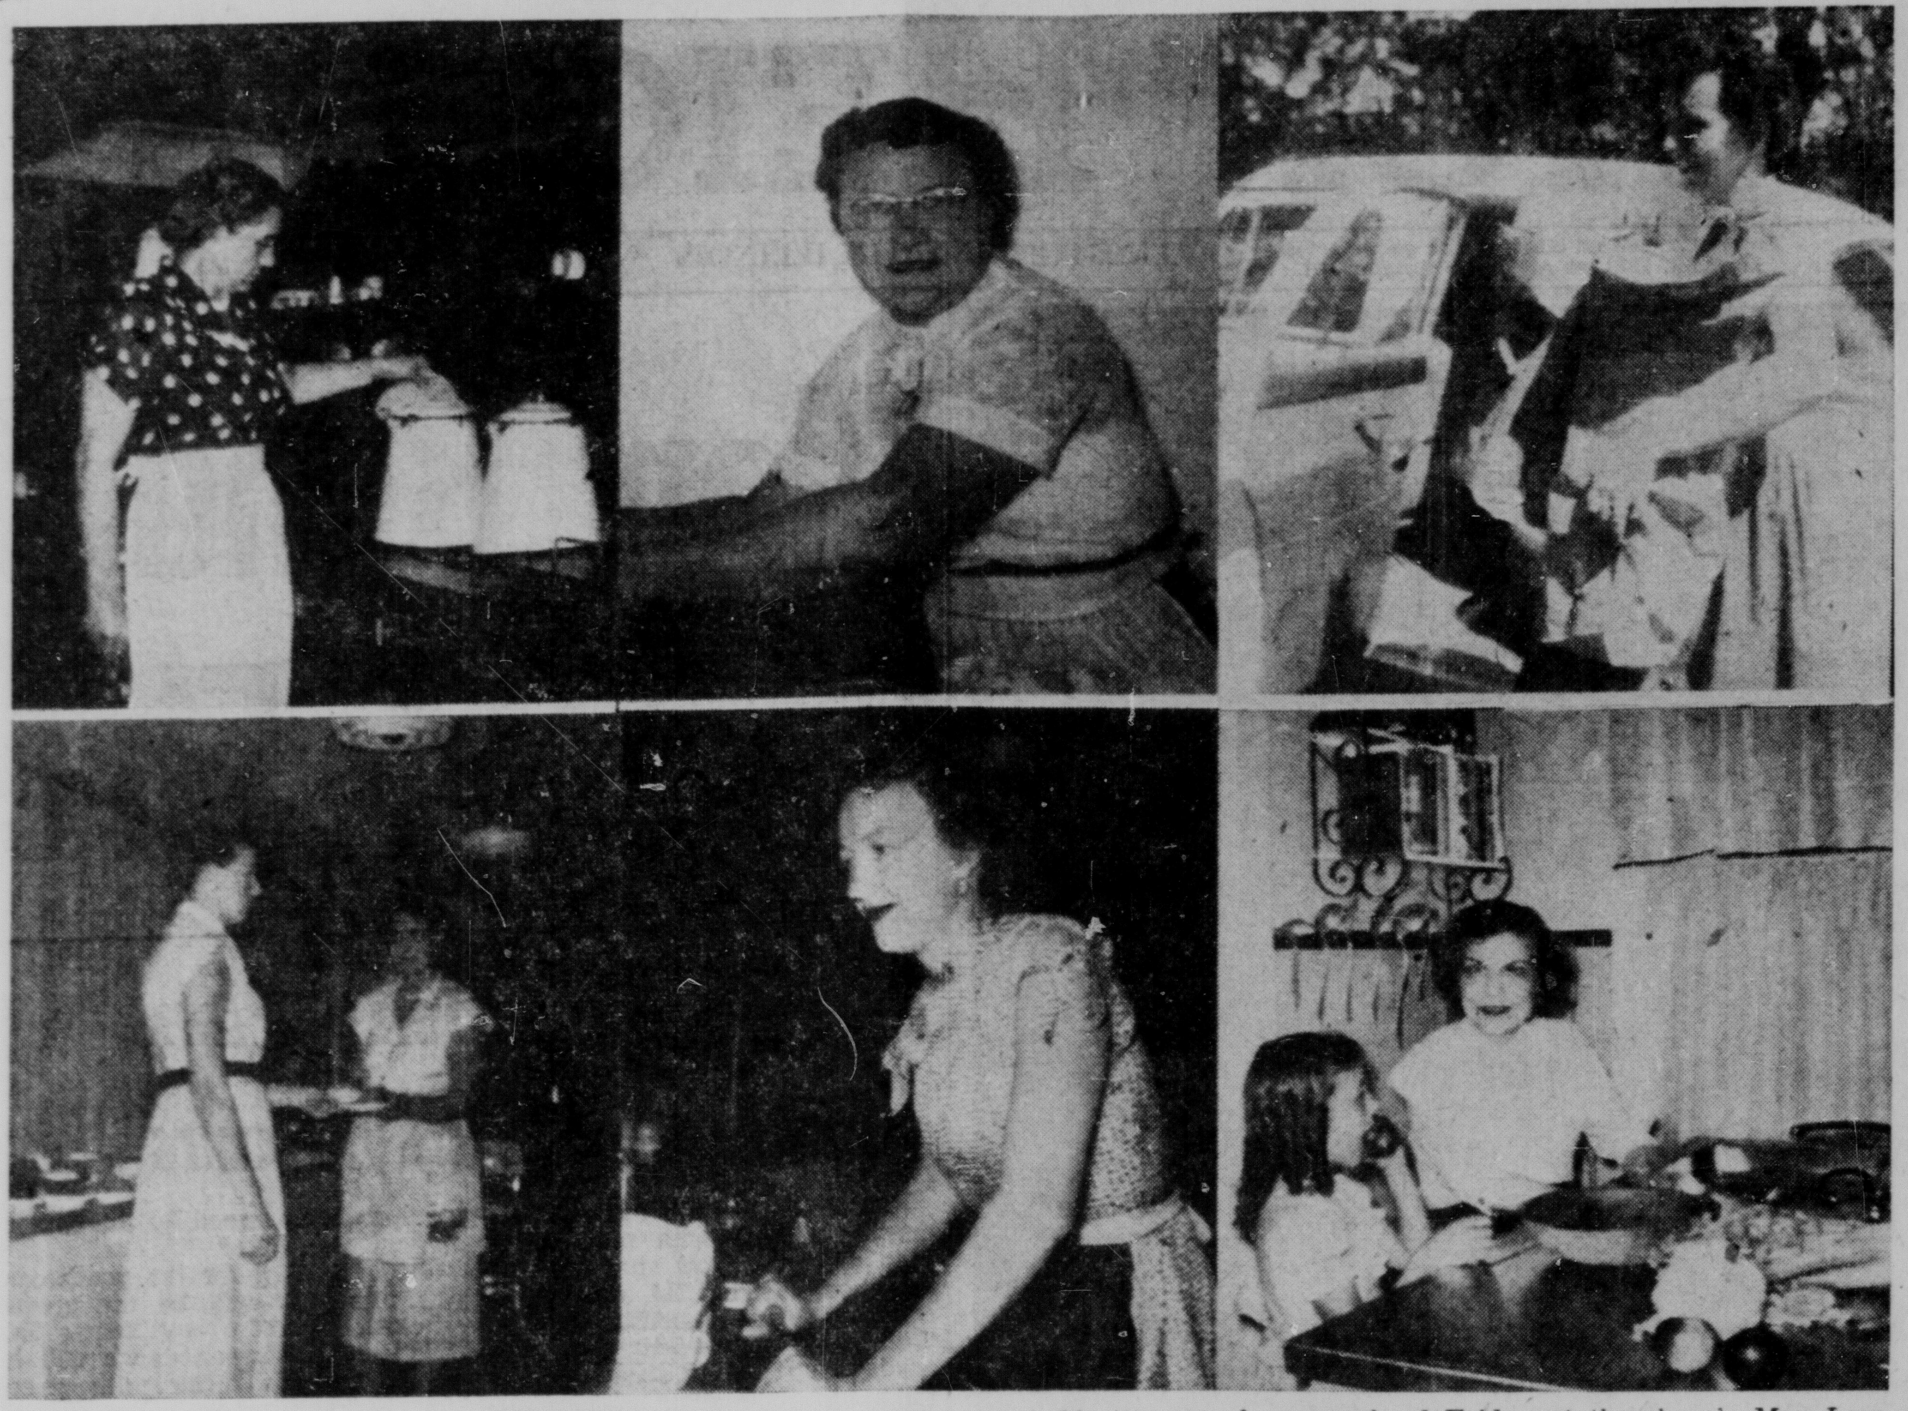
ADMISSION TO the historical play, "The First One Hundred Years," is free, but tickets must be obtained in advance. They are available now at the church office on a first come, first serve basis until the capacity of the auditorium is filled.

Performers will be costumed in garments typical of the early days of the church, and the entire cast of 40 persons is being coached by Mrs. Dennis Malcolmson, of the Village Theatre. Sets have been designed and executed by Maurice Geye, also of the Village Theatre. Events in the church history will be depicted in flashback as the imaginary Atterbury family of Arlington Heights plans its participation in its own church's Centennial.

The family parts are portrayed by Mildred Froyd, the mother; Robert Hutchinson, the father; Mary Jo Utt, the daughter; and Peter Swanson, the son. Others in the cast include John Calhoun, Kay Hawley, who also is author of the script; Isabelle Burke, Julianne Zimmerman, Jean Sullivan, Barbara Rasmussen Barbara Belle, Alta Hutchinson, Joan Grisell, Roger Burke, Bud Mills, Doug Trout, Linda Burke, Jan Davis, George Sharpe.

Elizabeth Prunty, Kent Kurtz, Judy Cole, Mary Jansen, Sally Jansen, Spencer Ewing, Bob Wellman, Sally Opela, Dennis Malcolmson, Tom Grisell, Dean Bradle, Bob Tindall, Pat Bergstrom, Peter Toffoli, Bob Hawley, and the Rev. Paul Louis Stumpf. A special scene will also be played by a fifth grade group from the church school.



When St. Peter Lutheran Mothers club, Arlington Heights, holds its annual smorgasbord Friday at the church, Mrs. Lawrence Kreft, upper left, will use 35 pounds of coffee, 65 gallons of water and 5 gallons of cream to prepare the beverage. In the top center photo, Mrs. Adolph Obermann, wife of the school principal, takes time from her busy day to bake a cake for the smorgasbord. Mrs. Barney Moehling, upper right, whose regular job is preparing meals for her family of 5, is in charge of cooking for an estimated 1,250 smorgasboard guests. Lower left, Mrs. E. W. Meyer and Mrs. A. F. Schroeder give a last minute check before serving time. Center, Mrs. Edward Koelper pushes tray of dishes into dining hall. There are 250 places set at one time. In the photo at right, Mrs. Luther V. Stephan and daughter, Ingrid, prepare a salad for the smorgasboard. Mrs. Stephan, who is "Mrs. Homemaker of 1955," is the wife of the pastor at St. Peter Lutheran church and school. She is also the kindergarten teacher of the school and mother of 7 boys and 2 girls.

More Sidelights

Visits Friends

George Haxton of Los Angeles, formerly a resident of Scarsdale, visited old neighbors and friends on South Bristol lane Saturday, while on a business trip to Chicago.

Scarsdale welcomes newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corbett, 806 S. Lynden, and family, Jimmy, 7, Susan, 4, and Dicky, 1, who moved to Arlington Heights from Chicago several weeks ago. The Corbetts purchased a new home at the above address. Mr. Corbett is an attorney with the Chicago Motor club. Their oldest son, Jimmy, is in second grade at Dryden school.

Birthday Party

Her eighth birthday Saturday will be an occasion for a party for Joanne Basil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnise Basil, 427 Windsor. She has invited 7 classmates and friends, Patricia Cavanaugh, Susy Radcliff, Marianne Jirgal, Eileen Duffy, Mary Horan, Carol Amann, and Patricia Zondrack, for an afternoon party from 2 until 4.

Here is a reminder for the folks living in the Stonegate area, please reserve Saturday evening, Oct. 29, for the Stonegate Association dinner dance, which will be held at the Sportman's club.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Albertson, 102 Wilshire, have as their houseguest, Miss Irene Bothe, their niece from Harrisburg, Pa. She plans to spend the winter with the Albertsons and attends the Ray-Vogue school in Chicago.

Open season has been declared for bridge lovers in Stonegate and Scarsdale. This year 52 couples are participating in the Stonegate bridge tournament which began this month. The Scarsdale bridge group has 72 couples playing in their tournament.

Jimmy Basil, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnise Basil, 427 Windsor, has been convalescing at his home the past month after a prolonged stay in Columbus hospital in Chicago. He is a student at St. James School and would be happy for visits from his friends and classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex T. Gage, 345 S. Bristol, and daughter, Sandra, returned Monday after vacationing for a week at French Lick, Ind.

Association Meeting — Tonight

Just a reminder that the October meeting will be held tonight, Thursday, at the VFW hall, Northwest highway and Yale. High spot of the evening will be the discussion pro and con of the village manager form of government. This is an especially timely and interesting subject to all Arlington Heights residents and for that reason the meeting will be open to the public. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

My "witch-watch" shows that only 2 weeks remain for all potential ghosts and goblins to make ready for the gala Halloween costume dance October 21. Tickets go on sale tonight at the association meeting. Price of admission is $2.50 per couple.

Square Dancing

Now that cool weather is here lessons in square dancing are in progress at the Paddock school in Palatine. Classes meet every other Wednesday and last from 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Couples who take advantage of these lessons need only pay for the classes they attend not for the entire series of lessons. The price per couple per lesson is only $1.25, a small amount for so much fun and enjoyment. This is the last call for potential beginners, so dosee-do right over to your phone and call Ruth Epsky to let her know you are interested. Her number is Clearbrook 3-2780.

The baby shower for Eleanor Goodman, reported in last week's column, came none too soon. This week we are pleased to report that Eleanor and Karl became parents of a baby girl on Saturday night. Their new little daughter weighed 6 pounds 15 ounces when she arrived. Miss Goodman was such a new addition at the time of this writing that she had not as yet been named. While Eleanor is spending a restful week in Ravenswood hospital, Karl is spending his 2-week vacation acquiring dish pan hands and house maid's knee; in other words, he has full charge of the house and the children who are Karlene, Gail, and Dennis.

The eight gals who live on Pine court not only live in a circle but are going around in circles of fun these days. Kay Hedberg, Virginia Berns, Helen Foreman, Lilly Woehlck, Marie Duxbury, Trudy Rateike, Mary Lou Wotruba and Shirley Stanley are members of the newly-formed Canasta club circle. The gals meet at each other's home every 2 weeks on a Wednesday and, as their club name implies, they play canasta. They serve cake and coffee and also collect dues at their meetings which will be used to splurge on a Christmas party for husbands and wives. Sounds like a good idea!

There were 4 anniversaries in the Greens over the weekend, three being on the same date. Saturday, Sally and Earl Stout clebrated 15 years of marriage, Miriam and Bill Anderson 10 years, and Pat and Don Peterson 6 years.

Friday evening Shirley and Junius Zolp honored Jeanne and Ray Thorsen, who have been married 12 years, with a cake and coffee party. The Zolps invited Florence and Warren Horner, Viva and Paul Hembd, Pat and Paul Miresse, Beverley and Bill Foote, Pauline and Don McNamara and Dorothy Braun to help the Thorsen's celebrate.

Trudy Rateike of Pine court entertained 5 neighbors at a morning kaffee klatsch September 27, to benefit the proposed hospital fund. Trudy served coffee, homemade biscuits and coffee cake much to the delight of Kay Hedberg, Marie Duxbury, Virginia Berns, Helen Foreman and Lilly Woehlck.

Thursday morning Helen Foreman also of Pine court had a Kaffee Klatsch at which she served sweet rolls and coffee to Shirley Stanley, Ann McLean, Kay Summer, Franny Brosseit, Dorothy Swoboda, Mary Dahl, June Holst, Mary Lou Wotruba and Fannie Huddelston.

VFW News

George Miller of 643 Clarendon has been appointed Membership chairman of the Arlington Greens area for the VFW. George is also selling tickets for a dance to be held December 3 at the VFW hall for the benefit of the hospital fund. Anyone interested either in membership or in tickets for the coming dance can call George at Clearbrook 3-8078.

Irene and Les Tackes have had a steady stream of company all summer. Their most recent guests were Mrs. Wilbur Dimon and her 2 children who travelled from Virginia to spend 1-week with Irene and Les.

Former residents, Kay and Bob Berger, who now live in Milwaukee arrived here Sunday to spend a few hours with their many friends in the Greens.

Every Monday evening the association's bowling league can be found at the Beverley bowling lanes.

It's Time to Get Ready for the Festive Dates on Your Calendar

We have the pretties that will make your bridge dates, dinner parties and weddings an occasion.

Let's start at the beginning . . . with our FRENCH BASQUES by "PETER PAN" and our Couture Lingerie by "SCHIAPARELLI" for that feeling of luxury. Our frocks are the latest fashion, and the fabrics and tones will steal the scene, and for the final touch of glamour we've some pert little cocktail hats, dainty imported beaded purses, and unusual costume jewelry. They are all priced to pamper your budget. Do stop in and see these things today . . . you'll be glad you did when you're dressing for your next party.

Even though it isn't apparent yet . . . things are really humming along at the new shop at 28 S. Dunton Court. The fixtures are delivered and the workmen are as busy as bees. More news about that next week.

It's Time to Get Ready for the Festive Dates on Your Calendar

We have the pretties that will make your bridge dates, dinner parties and weddings an occasion.

Let's start at the beginning . . . with our FRENCH BASQUES by "PETER PAN" and our Couture Lingerie by "SCHIAPARELLI" for that feeling of luxury. Our frocks are the latest fashion, and the fabrics and tones will steal the scene, and for the final touch of glamour we've some pert little cocktail hats, dainty imported beaded purses, and unusual costume jewelry. They are all priced to pamper your budget. Do stop in and see these things today . . . you'll be glad you did when you're dressing for your next party.

Even though it isn't apparent yet . . . things are really humming along at the new shop at 28 S. Dunton Court. The fixtures are delivered and the workmen are as busy as bees. More news about that next week.

When St. Peter Lutheran Mothers club, Arlington Heights, holds its annual smorgasbord Friday at the church, Mrs. Lawrence Kreft, upper left, will use 35 pounds of coffee, 65 gallons of water and 5 gallons of cream to prepare the beverage. In the top center photo, Mrs. Adolph Obermann, wife of the school principal, takes time from her busy day to bake a cake for the smorgasbord. Mrs. Barney Moehling, upper right, whose regular job is preparing meals for her family of 5, is in charge of cooking for an estimated 1,250 smorgasboard guests. Lower left, Mrs. E. W. Meyer and Mrs. A. F. Schroeder give a last minute check before serving time. Center, Mrs. Edward Koelper pushes tray of dishes into dining hall. There are 250 places set at one time. In the photo at right, Mrs. Luther V. Stephan and daughter, Ingrid, prepare a salad for the smorgasboard. Mrs. Stephan, who is "Mrs. Homemaker of 1955," is the wife of the pastor at St. Peter Lutheran church and school. She is also the kindergarten teacher of the school and mother of 7 boys and 2 girls.

More Sidelights

Visits Friends

George Haxton of Los Angeles, formerly a resident of Scarsdale, visited old neighbors and friends on South Bristol lane Saturday, while on a business trip to Chicago.

Scarsdale welcomes newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corbett, 806 S. Lynden, and family, Jimmy, 7, Susan, 4, and Dicky, 1, who moved to Arlington Heights from Chicago several weeks ago. The Corbetts purchased a new home at the above address. Mr. Corbett is an attorney with the Chicago Motor club. Their oldest son, Jimmy, is in second grade at Dryden school.

Birthday Party

Her eighth birthday Saturday will be an occasion for a party for Joanne Basil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnise Basil, 427 Windsor. She has invited 7 classmates and friends, Patricia Cavanaugh, Susy Radcliff, Marianne Jirgal, Eileen Duffy, Mary Horan, Carol Amann, and Patricia Zondrack, for an afternoon party from 2 until 4.

Here is a reminder for the folks living in the Stonegate area, please reserve Saturday evening, Oct. 29, for the Stonegate Association dinner dance, which will be held at the Sportman's club.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Albertson, 102 Wilshire, have as their houseguest, Miss Irene Bothe, their niece from Harrisburg, Pa. She plans to spend the winter with the Albertsons and attends the Ray-Vogue school in Chicago.

Open season has been declared for bridge lovers in Stonegate and Scarsdale. This year 52 couples are participating in the Stonegate bridge tournament which began this month. The Scarsdale bridge group has 72 couples playing in their tournament.

Jimmy Basil, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnise Basil, 427 Windsor, has been convalescing at his home the past month after a prolonged stay in Columbus hospital in Chicago. He is a student at St. James School and would be happy for visits from his friends and classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex T. Gage, 345 S. Bristol, and daughter, Sandra, returned Monday after vacationing for a week at French Lick, Ind.

ARLINGTON GREENS

Association Meeting — Tonight

Just a reminder that the October meeting will be held tonight, Thursday, at the VFW hall, Northwest highway and Yale. High spot of the evening will be the discussion pro and con of the village manager form of government. This is an especially timely and interesting subject to all Arlington Heights residents and for that reason the meeting will be open to the public. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

My "witch-watch" shows that only 2 weeks remain for all potential ghosts and goblins to make ready for the gala Halloween costume dance October 21. Tickets go on sale tonight at the association meeting. Price of admission is $2.50 per couple.

Square Dancing

Now that cool weather is here lessons in square dancing are in progress at the Paddock school in Palatine. Classes meet every other Wednesday and last from 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Couples who take advantage of these lessons need only pay for the classes they attend not for the entire series of lessons. The price per couple per lesson is only $1.25, a small amount for so much fun and enjoyment. This is the last call for potential beginners, so dosee-do right over to your phone and call Ruth Epsky to let her know you are interested. Her number is Clearbrook 3-2780.

The baby shower for Eleanor Goodman, reported in last week's column, came none too soon. This week we are pleased to report that Eleanor and Karl became parents of a baby girl on Saturday night. Their new little daughter weighed 6 pounds 15 ounces when she arrived. Miss Goodman was such a new addition at the time of this writing that she had not as yet been named. While Eleanor is spending a restful week in Ravenswood hospital, Karl is spending his 2-week vacation acquiring dish pan hands and house maid's knee; in other words, he has full charge of the house and the children who are Karlene, Gail, and Dennis.

The eight gals who live on Pine court not only live in a circle but are going around in circles of fun these days. Kay Hedberg, Virginia Berns, Helen Foreman, Lilly Woehlck, Marie Duxbury, Trudy Rateike, Mary Lou Wotruba and Shirley Stanley are members of the newly-formed Canasta club circle. The gals meet at each other's home every 2 weeks on a Wednesday and, as their club name implies, they play canasta. They serve cake and coffee and also collect dues at their meetings which will be used to splurge on a Christmas party for husbands and wives. Sounds like a good idea!

There were 4 anniversaries in the Greens over the weekend, three being on the same date. Saturday, Sally and Earl Stout clebrated 15 years of marriage, Miriam and Bill Anderson 10 years, and Pat and Don Peterson 6 years.

Friday evening Shirley and Junius Zolp honored Jeanne and Ray Thorsen, who have been married 12 years, with a cake and coffee party. The Zolps invited Florence and Warren Horner, Viva and Paul Hembd, Pat and Paul Miresse, Beverley and Bill Foote, Pauline and Don McNamara and Dorothy Braun to help the Thorsen's celebrate.

Trudy Rateike of Pine court entertained 5 neighbors at a morning kaffee klatsch September 27, to benefit the proposed hospital fund. Trudy served coffee, homemade biscuits and coffee cake much to the delight of Kay Hedberg, Marie Duxbury, Virginia Berns, Helen Foreman and Lilly Woehlck.

Thursday morning Helen Foreman also of Pine court had a Kaffee Klatsch at which she served sweet rolls and coffee to Shirley Stanley, Ann McLean, Kay Summer, Franny Brosseit, Dorothy Swoboda, Mary Dahl, June Holst, Mary Lou Wotruba and Fannie Huddelston.

VFW News

George Miller of 643 Clarendon has been appointed Membership chairman of the Arlington Greens area for the VFW. George is also selling tickets for a dance to be held December 3 at the VFW hall for the benefit of the hospital fund. Anyone interested either in membership or in tickets for the coming dance can call George at Clearbrook 3-8078.

Irene and Les Tackes have had a steady stream of company all summer. Their most recent guests were Mrs. Wilbur Dimon and her 2 children who travelled from Virginia to spend 1-week with Irene and Les.

Former residents, Kay and Bob Berger, who now live in Milwaukee arrived here Sunday to spend a few hours with their many friends in the Greens.

Every Monday evening the association's bowling league can be found at the Beverley bowling lanes.

ScoutNews

Nineteen brownies of troop 260 took over the yard of Mrs. Gus Anderson, 614 N. Beverly, last Tuesday and enjoyed a cook out, probably one of the last of the year with the colder weather beginning to set in.

Cub scouts in den 7 now meet at 722 E. Euclid with John Kelly as their new den father.

Mrs. Leonard Radosti entertained mothers of girls in brownie trooop 6 at a tea last Tuesday in her home, 418 N. Beverly. At this time new leaders for the group were announced: Mrs. Robert Wright and Mrs. Metz.

New Neighbors

Welcome to our new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Braun, 310 N. Lincoln lane, who moved to Eastwood from Maywood 2 weeks ago. Mr. Braun is assistant manager at American Can Co. technical service laboratories in Maywood and Mrs. Braun is personnel supervisor for the American Can Co. research center in Barrington. The couple has twin daughters, both married, and 2 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Braun enjoy gardening and intend to spend a good deal of their spare time right in their own back yard.

Mayor's Proclamation

WHEREAS thousands of Americans lose their lives each year from fires that could be prevented; and

WHEREAS great social and economic losses to our city result from the destruction of homes, business enterprises, industries and natural resources:

THEREFORE, I Albert Goedke, President of the Board of Trustees of Village of Arlington Heights do hereby proclaim the week beginning October 9, 1955, as Fire Prevention Week.

I call upon all departments and agencies of the village government to participate actively in a campaign for improved fire safety. The fire department and the schools of our village can provide effective leadership in the activities of Fire Prevention Week, and I urge them to work with the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations for a successful program.

I earnestly request every citizen of the community to take part in relieving hazardous conditions and making our village a safer community in which to live and work.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Arlington Heights to be affixed.

October 1, 1955.

ALBERT W. GOEDKE
President

Nineteen brownies of troop 260 took over the yard of Mrs. Gus Anderson, 614 N. Beverly, last Tuesday and enjoyed a cook out, probably one of the last of the year with the colder weather beginning to set in.

Cub scouts in den 7 now meet at 722 E. Euclid with John Kelly as their new den father.

Mrs. Leonard Radosti entertained mothers of girls in brownie trooop 6 at a tea last Tuesday in her home, 418 N. Beverly. At this time new leaders for the group were announced: Mrs. Robert Wright and Mrs. Metz.

New Neighbors

Welcome to our new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Braun, 310 N. Lincoln lane, who moved to Eastwood from Maywood 2 weeks ago. Mr. Braun is assistant manager at American Can Co. technical service laboratories in Maywood and Mrs. Braun is personnel supervisor for the American Can Co. research center in Barrington. The couple has twin daughters, both married, and 2 grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Braun enjoy gardening and intend to spend a good deal of their spare time right in their own back yard.

Mayor's Proclamation

WHEREAS thousands of Americans lose their lives each year from fires that could be prevented; and

WHEREAS great social and economic losses to our city result from the destruction of homes, business enterprises, industries and natural resources:

THEREFORE, I Albert Goedke, President of the Board of Trustees of Village of Arlington Heights do hereby proclaim the week beginning October 9, 1955, as Fire Prevention Week.

I call upon all departments and agencies of the village government to participate actively in a campaign for improved fire safety. The fire department and the schools of our village can provide effective leadership in the activities of Fire Prevention Week, and I urge them to work with the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations for a successful program.

I earnestly request every citizen of the community to take part in relieving hazardous conditions and making our village a safer community in which to live and work.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Arlington Heights to be affixed.

Fall Girl Scout Training Schedule

A basic group leadership course for adults new in girl scouting will start Monday evening at Maine township high school at Dempster and Potter rds. There will be 10 sessions, each on Monday evening, and from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The same course, originally scheduled for October at the Central Methodist church, 8225 Kenton, Skokie, will be held November 8, 10, 15, 22, and 29 at the church. Sessions will run from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

For the leader who has had basic training but who is interested in developing her troop program according to the needs and desires of the scouts she is working with, and according to the principles of good girl scouting, the program-building institute to be held October 19 is valuable. The course will take place at the Park Ridge Methodist church at 418 Touhy, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The last session of the basic outdoor course takes place at Girl Scout house next Tuesday.

All girl scout training courses in the area are offered through the planning of the training committee of the council of northwest Cook county. Registrations are made through the various neighborhood chairmen but the council office in Park Ridge may be contacted if a woman does not know the name of a particular chairman. (B5

Cancer Funds Put To Work To Aid Fight

The American Cancer Society, Illinois division, has awarded grants totaling $315,111, it was learned today by Charles J. Walters, 307 N. Bothwell, Palatine, chairman of the Society's Northwest Suburban Chapter.

First in a series of grants to be made from the $1,255,483.63 raised in Illinois during the April 1955 Cancer Crusade, the funds will be used during the coming year by medical institutions and county chapters to assure the continuation and expansion of the Society's programs of public and professional education, research, and service to cancer patients.

NORTHWEST Suburban Chapter will receive $11,735 for its 1955-56 cancer control program. Of this amount, $7,910 has been set aside to maintain the Information Center at 121 S. Emerson, Mt. Prospect. The public education program, which gives the residents of the Northwest suburbs the fullest information about cancer and how to combat it, will receive $3,525. The sum of $300 will go for patient care, which includes the following services to cancer patients: free dressings, $200; the loan of sickroom equipment to patients at home, $50; and transportation services or driving cancer patients to and from the hospitals for treatment, $50.

Walters said that $229,269 of the total amount of $315,111 was allocated to the 22 Chapters where Information Centers are located. The Society supports 24 Information Centers throughout the state, which provide counseling service to individuals seeking help about a personal or family cancer problem. The centers also serve as headquarters for public education, service projects, and fund raising. The 62 other County Chapters which do not have Centers received $39,352 for their programs of education and service.

Eleven medical institutions throughout the state were awarded a total of $26,190 to assist in their operation. (B5

Girl Scout Troop Camp Cleanup Coming Up Soon

"Clean up and stow away" will be the motto of the workers who gather at the Northwest Cook county council troop camp sites, Girl Scout house and Camp Pine, November 3.

Each neighborhood in the council area is being asked for volunteer workers and it is hoped that there will be at least 2 who can come to help from each neighborhood. The work session will be from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Weapons for the fray--if such it can be called--will be a cleaning cloth, dish towel, and a nosebag lunch, to be brought by each worker. The troop camp committee, headed by Mrs. Roy Larson, will serve coffee and cake.

In order to plan the work schedule it is desired that names of volunteers be turned in to the council office by October 20. Any further information may be obtained from Mrs. Larson, Va. 4-6462. (B5

Vienna Academy Chorus To Sing Here Sunday

The celebrated Vienna Academy chorus of 12 female and 12 male voices will highlight the first Arlington Heights Community Concert association program of the season this Sunday, in the new gym of the Arlington Heights high school.

Doors will be open at 7:30 p.m. and the concert begins at 8:15 p.m. Only association members will be admitted. No single admissions are sold.

Since its inception 9 years ago the chorus has developed, under Prof. Ferdinand Grossman, one of the most enviable reputations ever attained by a similar group.

THE CHORUS was chosen from the ranks of the most talented graduates of the Vienna Academy of Music. In his capacity as head of the academy's choral department, Prof. Grossman deemed it necessary that the academy present the results of its training to the public, otherwise they would lose these talented young people to colleges and conservatories.

Vienna immediately took the chorus to its heart, the proof being a soldout season. Word of its success spread and invitations were extended from all over Western Europe. In 1952 the chorus opened the internationally renowned Salzburg Festival. Last year the chorus made its first visit to this country and the success was so great that they were persuaded to come back again this year.

For American audiences, the Vienna Academy chorus has arranged programs designed to give an evening of incomparable music and, at the same time, to display the versatility and artistry that have made these singers the talk of Europe.

A gala finale to the concert features the Vienna that has been so romanticized by Americans. Wearing costumes, the members sing songs of Old Vienna, Schubert's Serenade and the songs of Johann Strauss.

Benefits for Hospital Still Booming

Projects to be held to raise funds for the proposed Northwest Community Hospital Center, as well as receipts from events already held are literally pouring into the office of Paddock Publications.

They are becoming so numerous it is impossible to list them all in one story as has been done the past 3 months. In the future this paper will have a calendar on which dates of coming hospital benefits will be listed on the front page. Articles giving details will be found elsewhere in the paper and a separate item will be written each week telling of the latest contributions.

Arlington Heights Nurses club turned in an additional check for $20, making its total contribution from its "doll of the year" project $1,520.

....ANOTHER CHCK for $10.50 was
ANOTHER CHECK for $10.50 was contributed by a group of ladies who were invited to a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harry J. Phelan, 302 N. Wille st., Mt. Prospect, each contributing 50 cents toward the hospital.

A $1.50 from a "kaffee klatsch" was also turned into this office by Mrs. G. Keller of Arlington Heights.

Orchard Hills, Palatine, which held a rummage sale last Saturday, netted $51.25 for the hospital.

Palatine Nurses club reported a total of $1,242 collected to date from its "kuarter kaffe klatsches." A total of 2,400 women have been reported attending the coffees.

The club wishes to inform Palatine residents that the coffees have officially closed in Palatine, but residents of other communities may continue to hold the parties and submit their receipts and names of those who will hold future coffees to Mrs. W. P. Boswell, 508 E. Wilson, Palatine. Hostesses are again urged when returning their guest list to check the names of only those women who plan to hold coffees.

Prospect Heights youngsters have begun holding "Delicious Dime Dessert" parties as an offspring of the adult coffees. First hostesses were Juel Lea Dietrich and Susan Mitchell. Guests will each hold a party in return, inviting more youngsters to participate. Mt. Prospect Camp Fire Girls have started "Coke" parties to aid the hospital and will follow the same plan as the kaffee klatsches.

Eight couples have already registered for the dance class being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Arlington Heights, under the direction of Muriel Mills. Registration is $10 per person, which includes 10 hours of instruction. All receipts will be turned over to the hospital. The class is limited to 20 couples and will begin October 13. All lessons will be given at the new VFW club house on Northwest hwy., Arlington Hts.

Those desiring to take part in this project call Mrs. Alex Angeloff, Clearbrook 3-4205.

Girl Scout Troop Camp Cleanup Coming Up Soon

"Clean up and stow away" will be the motto of the workers who gather at the Northwest Cook county council troop camp sites, Girl Scout house and Camp Pine, November 3.

Each neighborhood in the council area is being asked for volunteer workers and it is hoped that there will be at least 2 who can come to help from each neighborhood. The work session will be from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Weapons for the fray--if such it can be called--will be a cleaning cloth, dish towel, and a nosebag lunch, to be brought by each worker. The troop camp committee, headed by Mrs. Roy Larson, will serve coffee and cake.

In order to plan the work schedule it is desired that names of volunteers be turned in to the council office by October 20. Any further information may be obtained from Mrs. Larson, Va. 4-6462. (B5

Her "washing's" all done, but—the real work has just started!

Let an ELECTRIC Dryer do the work on washday—

(Costs less to buy—yet you get the cleanest, fastest, dryest heat there is!)

Any woman will tell you: it's the hanging up and taking down a wash that's the real backbreaker.

Why do it? A new automatic electric dryer—complete and installed—costs as little as $2.43 a week. And you can dry a huge wash for just pennies.

In an automatic electric dryer, even the new miracle fabrics are safe, because heat and time controls are extremely accurate. Clothes dry sweet and clean, too. Electric heat is the cleanest, fastest, dryest heat there is! And, you always get an automatic dryer when it's an electric.

Come in this week and find out how easy it is to own an automatic electric dryer. Let an electric dryer do the hard work for your wife on washday, too!

NOW LOW AS $2.43 A WEEK WITH NEW SHARE-THE-COST INSTALLATION PLAN

When you install a new electric clothes dryer, we share the cost of necessary wiring. You can save important money with our New Plan. For example, in a 1-family home an electric dryer installation now costs only about half as much as before. The Plan is available at all electric appliance dealers'. Yours will tell you how much you save. And you save more than money. Your TV picture improves, lights brighten—everything electrical works better. And you can install an electric range, water heater or air conditioner (that requires a 240-volt circuit) quickly and cheaply.

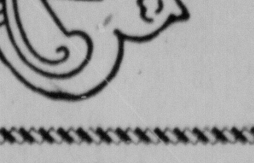
With The Blue Birds



Helping Pixies Bluebirds

Helping Pixies held its first meeting of the season September 20. Election of officers took place with the following girls being chosen: Nancy Staadt, president; Lynne Schomburg, vice president; Rhonda Roberts, secretary; Janet Nicol, treasurer; Nancy Miles, scribe; Carol Lorenzen, sergeant-at-arms. Nancy Lasher was chosen to light the bluebird candle and Rae Landmeier will extinguish the candle. Program committee: Ellyn Dobbins, songs; Dee Ann Dobbins, games; Chris Carle, handicraft; Lynne Brodahl, nature lore; Gail Klingenmaier, folk dancing; Susan Bahr, cleanup. After the girls related their vacation memories, they gathered around the piano to sing a few bluebird songs.

Last Tuesday's meeting was devoted to making new snack plates. After drawing their own designs, the girls applied a first coat of shellac on the paper plates. Treats of chocolate chip cookies were served by Susan Bahr.

Honey Bears Bluebirds

Meeting September 20 at Mrs. Crommelin's home, the Honey Bears elected Kathy Black, president; Mimi Bukowski, vice president; Phyllis Christie, secretary; Kathy Crommelin, treasurer; Jean Ann Stedry, candle keeper. A program committee, headed by the vice president, was also selected. Carolyn Genevich, songs; Lee Green, games; Barbara Johnson, handicraft; Shirley Quinn, treats chairman.

The older girls helped the new bluebirds make their memory scrapbooks. After treats were served by Jean Ann Stedry, several games were played before closing with the friendship circle.

Friendly Bluebirds

Westgate bluebirds from Mrs. Flodin's newly-formed group made bluebird scrapbooks as their first handicraft project. The girls learned two new songs, the bluebird wish and played several games.

Bluebird Wings

Mrs. Leimert's bluebird wings group devoted last Tuesday's meeting to the making of memory scrapbooks. These scrapbooks are kept for the three years that a girl remains in bluebirds. Susan Stoll served the treat and the meeting was brought to a close with the friendship circle.

Blue Angels Group

Blue Angels bluebirds meeting at Mrs. Sand's home, had a discussion on the meaning of each part of the bluebird wish. Several games were played and the girls learned a bluebird song. Jeanne Swanson served the day's treat.

Over 200 delegates attended an area workshop of the Illinois State Division of the American Association of University Women at Maine township high school Saturday. Members of the Northwest Suburban Branch of AAUW were hostesses. Mrs. E. G. Olsen of Park Ridge, president of the northwest branch, presided at the luncheon and introduced the main speaker, Mrs. John T. Even, of Aurora, vice-president of the northeast region of AAUW which includes 5 states. Pictured are some of the branch members acting as official hostesses for the day. Back row, left to right, are Mrs. Tony Kuzich of Des Plaines; Mrs. Roy E. Hammond and Mrs. Lee Gunter Jr., of Mt. Prospect; Mrs. George Bailey of Arlington Heights; Mrs. W. J. Hartman of Mt. Prospect; Mrs. W. H. Fulton Jr., of Park Ridge. Front row, left to right, Mrs. H. B. Bishop of Des Plaines; Mrs. Vern W. Brownell of Mt. Prospect; Miss Joan Shaw of Chicago, and Mrs. K. R. And although but a matter of minutes from the suburbs, Villa d'Este retains an almost untouched natural setting. Rolling wooded hills outline the winding half-mile approach, while from the dining rooms the Fox River Valley presents an ever-changing panorama. A stroll through the grounds before cocktails, down the terraced lawn to the most beautiful of swimming pools, takes diners to a fisherman's paradise—several well-stocked trout ponds where trout thrive in mountain cool water.

Unique Concert Nov. 27 Will Aid Hospital Fund

A young singer and a concert pianist will combine talents Sunday, Nov. 27 for a concert in Maine Township high school auditorium, Des Plaines, to benefit the Northwest Community Hospital center.

Despite a heavy demand for advance sales, a limit of 1,500 tickets has been placed on the concert.

Included in this total are blocks of tickets to be reserved by music students at Chicago area universities.

DONATING their services are Barbara Leichsenring, dramatic soprano, and Willard Straight, young concert pianist who has been hailed as "brilliant" by the Chicago Sun-Times.

Miss Leichsenring, currently studying opera under Maestro Wolfgang Vacano, has studied at the American Conservatory of Music and Roosevelt university. She has sung with the Apollo club chorus, on radio, and done considerable concert and oratorio work in the Chicago area. Her appearance as soloist last spring with the Northwest Symphony was well received.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE this summer described Willard Straight, pianist, as "bold and imaginative" in his appearance as Grant Park concert soloist. A graduate of University of Kansas Straight has studied under Rudolph Ganz and Mollie Margolies and been soloist with the Chicago symphony, Kansas City symphony, and St. Joseph Pops orchestra. He is also a published composer.

Tickets for the program will go on sale Monday.

Drivers License Exam Station Announces New Hours For Week Days

All Cook county drivers examination stations, including Arlington Heights, are now open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier ordered a staggered-hour schedule during the summer months in order to take advantage of longer hours of daylight in an attempt to make it as convenient as possible.

The order affects 10 examination stations in the county.

Womans Study Groups Schedule Meetings

Two study groups of the Arlington Heights Womans club have scheduled meetings for next week. The international relations group will meet Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Mates, 415 S. Bristol lane.

Carl Dahl of Norway, will be the speaker for this meeting. Mr. Dahl is a junior at Northwestern university, having transferred from a university at Oslo. He will talk on education, the political set up, and habits of his country, and will answer questions.

Mrs. Mates will and explain to the group, her collection of Samovar. Co-hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. D. C. Frisk and Mrs. Charles F. Weinreich. Anyone planning to attend the meeting is asked to call one of the hostesses for a reservation.

The conservation and garden study group will visit Morton's Arboretum Thursday, Oct. 13, and then go to the Swedish tea room in Geneva for luncheon. Those who would like to go with the group are to meet at the North Western railway station in Arlington Heights, at 9:30 a.m. The arboretum is at Downers Grove on highway 53.

Anyone desiring transportation or who can furnish transportation, is asked to call Mrs. Charles Brooks, Cl.3-0134 or Mrs. Frank Precilio, Cl. 3-5847. AMC

75 PTA Units To Meet October 12

Representatives from all 75 units of District 21, Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, will convene Wednesday afternoon and evening, October 12, at the Fairview school in Skokie. Registration will take place at 1 p.m., and the meeting will be called to order promptly at 1:30 by the district director, Mrs. E. H. Robinson of Mt. Prospect.

Various aspects of the theme, "Memberships to Have and to Hold," will be discussed by Illinois Congress officers Dr. J. Lloyd Trump, membership and hospitality chairman; Dr. Edward H. Stullken, vice president, department of education; and Mrs. D. H. Decker, legislation and citizenship chairman.

THE EVER-POPULAR "buzz session," where delegates have a chance to exchange ideas and opinions, will be led by Mrs. Malcolm S. Knowles. Workshops on special problems will be led by the speakers listed above, and also by Mrs. Martin Seifert, I. C. P. T. scholarship chairman; Mrs. A. A. Walldin, I. C. P. T. safety chairman; Mrs. Guy Pelton, district parliamentarian; and Mrs. R. K. Wobbe, district publications assistant.

The meeting will resume at 7:45 p.m., following a buffet dinner in the school cafeteria. Musical selections provided by members of the Fairview school faculty will precede a panel discussion on an "action committee." The meeting will be adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

Those who attended last year's conference, which was held in Arlington Heights, well remember the inspiring quality of the program, and found the opportunity to become better acquainted with state leaders, school administrators, and other PTA leaders well worth their time. Anyone wishing to attend this meeting may contact his local PTA president. (B5

Representatives from all 75 units of District 21, Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, will convene Wednesday afternoon and evening, October 12, at the Fairview school in Skokie. Registration will take place at 1 p.m., and the meeting will be called to order promptly at 1:30 by the district director, Mrs. E. H. Robinson of Mt. Prospect.

Various aspects of the theme, "Memberships to Have and to Hold," will be discussed by Illinois Congress officers Dr. J. Lloyd Trump, membership and hospitality chairman; Dr. Edward H. Stullken, vice president, department of education; and Mrs. D. H. Decker, legislation and citizenship chairman.

THE EVER-POPULAR "buzz session," where delegates have a chance to exchange ideas and opinions, will be led by Mrs. Malcolm S. Knowles. Workshops on special problems will be led by the speakers listed above, and also by Mrs. Martin Seifert, I. C. P. T. scholarship chairman; Mrs. A. A. Walldin, I. C. P. T. safety chairman; Mrs. Guy Pelton, district parliamentarian; and Mrs. R. K. Wobbe, district publications assistant.

The meeting will resume at 7:45 p.m., following a buffet dinner in the school cafeteria. Musical selections provided by members of the Fairview school faculty will precede a panel discussion on an "action committee." The meeting will be adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

Those who attended last year's conference, which was held in Arlington Heights, well remember the inspiring quality of the program, and found the opportunity to become better acquainted with state leaders, school administrators, and other PTA leaders well worth their time. Anyone wishing to attend this meeting may contact his local PTA president. (B5

This Week with PTA

Calling All Teachers and Parents

Last week all faculty members and parents received the PTA yearbook and a letter from Mrs. Tadd Wake, membership chairman, announcing the opening of PTA membership drive Monday, October 3. An availability form was enclosed, in order that members might select one or more of the year's projects in which they could assist.

It is hoped that these forms, together with the nominal membership fee of 50 cents per person, have been returned by this time, and that 1956 will set another new record in membership for Arlington Heights PTA.

The drive closes tomorrow afternoon; anyone who failed to receive the letter, the form, or the yearbook may call Mrs. Wake at CL 3-5586. Parents are reminded that in each school the homeroom or class boasting the largest parent membership will receive a $5 prize. In case of a tie, the prize will be duplicated.

Last Call for songbirds —10 x ital..

Tonight at 8:15 the first meeting of the new choral group of mothers and teachers will be held at the Junior high school cafeteria. At last report over 20 persons had registered for the chorus (mostly mothers); it is hoped that the forms returned from the membership drive will bring more interested women.

Teachers are especially urged to lend their voices and moral support, although anyone who would like to join in this "mainly for fun" activity will be welcomed at tonight's meeting, at which meeting dates and other details will be decided. The chorus will be directed by Miss Vivian Erwin, special teacher of vocal music in the elementary schools.

District Meeting Next Wednesday

The 34th annual conference of district 21 of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held Wednesday, Oct. 12 at the Fairview school in Skokie. Complete details will be found elsewhere in this paper, and anyone wishing to attend may call the PTA president, Mrs. Howard Froyd, at CL 3-3810.

Parents Learn at Jr. High Meeting

Parents who attended the Junior high PTA meeting last week probably learned a great deal, not only about the workings of the PTA from Mrs. Kenneth Hood, school chairman, and the future of the high school from Kenneth E. Dougan, of the High School planning board, but also of the purposes, operation, and hopes of the Junior high school curriculum as explained by Donald V. Grote, principal.

Mrs. Hood described the organization of the PTA, which consists of 33 board members, 59 school representatives, and 91 room mothers. She expressed the hope this year would find more teachers, as year would find more teadhers, as well as more parents, attending the meetings—both to hear the excellent programs which have been scheduled, and to exchange ideas and information—the chief purpose, of course, of any Parent-Teacher association.

Mr. Dougan described the unfortunate double session schedule in the high school this year, necessitated by overcrowding, and outlined the plans which have been evolved to avoid any such situation in the future.

His discussion was more fully reported in last week's issue, after his appearance at 2 of the elementary schools. His conclusion was that the bond issue which will be presented to voters this fall, and has been designed to cover all foreseeable needs of the high school, is of primary importance to all children now in Junior high or elementary school—and their voting parents.

Mr. Grote introduced superintendent of schools, Ralph E. Clabaugh, and the members of the faculty, and explained the role of the 3-year Junior high curriculum in preparing students for high school. The varied activity program, said Mr. Grote, serves the double purpose of minimizing breaks in the academic day, and allowing students to test their aptitudes in various fields under the guidance of teachers who share their interest and enthusiasm.

Self-discipline, teamwork and responsibility are the most important traits to be developed at the Junior high school age, stated Mr. Grote, adding that the student council is now formulating a code of ethics for the student body.

Teachers and parents got acquainted over coffee and cake served following the meeting.

Round Robins Ready To Start

Schedules for the Round Robin bridge and canasta tournaments have been arranged and will be mailed out by the end of this week, report Mrs. Robert W. Phillios bridge chairman, and Mrs. George W. Hasbach, canasta chairman

All who registered for these activities are looking forward to a year of fun and conviviality.

Make Room in Your Closets

No matter how many closets a house has, it seems there is never enough room in them. A chance to procure additional space and get rid of outgrown clothing will be given October 20 and 21, when donated garments will be collected at each school, to be sent to needy persons. Clean, wearable, sensible clothing may be taken to school by the children on either of these two Bundle Days.

Art Committee Gets First Job

The PTA art committee, an innovation this year, proved its skill and value this week with the charts and posters for Membership Drive.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frederic G. Suhr of Junior high school, the committee will provide its services throughout the year for the various projects of the Ways and Means committee. Its talented members are Mrs. Samuel Wit of Dryden school, Mrs. Joseph H. Haynsworth of South Ridge school and Mrs. Richard Sims of North school.

Monsignor Cooke To Address Meeting Of Wayside Women

MSGR. COOKE

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Vincent W. Cooke, supervisor of the Catholic Charities of Chicago, will speak on "The Welfare Problems the Church Faces Today" when he addresses the opening meeting of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club, Arlington Heights, on October 13 at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Russell Gilmore, new president, will introduce new officers and committee chairmen and new members will be welcomed by Mrs. Walter J. Schroeder Jr., social chairman, when the guild opens its fourth season in the parish hall.

A sneak preview of "Holiday Fair," a work shop sponsored by the school committee, will be presented at the close of the program. Mrs. John L. Baker is chairman of this special project with Mrs. Matthew J. Brost, assisting. Tea hostess will be Mrs. John Heinz.

Msgr. Cooke, who has spent most of the 25 years of his priestly life in charitable work, was ordained in 1930 and assigned as assistant superintendent of Maryville, a child-care home in Des Plaines. Later he became chaplain and recreation director of a civilian conservation corps unit of 12,000 boys at Ft. Sheridan.

After a year of service as assistant pastor of St. Catherine of Sinea parish, Oak Park, he was appointed director of the Catholic Home Bureau in 1934. In this capacity he was responsible for the supervision of all Catholic adoptions and foster home placements in the archdiocese of Chicago.

In 1940 he was named director of the family care department of the Catholic Charity bureau and retained this post until Cardinal Stritch selected him as supervisor of charities in 1949.

As head of the Catholic charities, Msgr. Cooke supervises the activities of 50 charitable institutions and agencies in the archdiocese of Chicago. He is a past president of the National Conference of Catholic Charities.

Missionary Society To Meet October 11

The Women's Missionary society of the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church will hold its monthly meeting October 11 at 8 p.m. in the parlors of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Harold Halleen of Wheaton, treasurer of the district organization, will speak on the organization and function of the Women's Missionary society at the district and national level. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Norman Virta of Mt. Prospect and several music selections given. Mrs. Earl Genn and Mrs. Harvey Holzem of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Ray Hjelm and Mrs. Jack Lilja of Mt. Prospect will be hostesses. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Senior Choir Of Our Saviour To Hold First Rehearsal Tonight

The senior choir of Our Saviour United Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will hold the first rehearsal of the fall season this evening at 8 o'clock in Dryden school. The choir is a volunteer organization and singers interested in serving with the group are urged to attend this first rehearsal.

Director for the coming year is Marjorie Stedry of Arlington Heights, who has been serving as pianist for the morning worship services for the summer months. Mrs. Stedry, a teacher of piano, is a graduate of Glen Dillard Gunn school of music and has studied with Harold Reever at North Park college and Adelbert Huguelet at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

Plans are being made by the council and the guild of the church for the service of installation October 23, at which time the Rev. John P. Petersen will become the first permanent pastor of the mission congregation. The Rev. George H. Hoog, organizer of the church and present pastor, and Dr. Harmon McGuire, president of the Illinois synod, will both take part in the installation.

Methodist Groups Plan Hayride

In the atmosphere of the October harvest a hayride has been planned Saturday evening for the Kupple's Klub and Tri-S club of the First Methodist church, Arlington Heights.

These groups will meet at the North Shore ranch, Willow and Sanders rds., starting point for the 7:30 o'clock event.

Following the hayride a square dance will be held at the lodge with Bob Bishop calling the dances.

Making all arrangements for the night's activities are the presidents of the participating organizations, Robert Johnson and David Young.

Chicago Community Leader To Speak At St. John Church

The Rev. George Nishimoto of the Kenwood-Ellis Community center and church of Chicago's south side will present an illustrated talk at St. John church, N. Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights, Tuesday, Oct. 11 at 7:45 p.m.

A Community Chest agency, Kenwood-Ellis has received much attention for its work in a changing and multi-racial community. The church is a member of the Evangelical and Reformed denomination.

Rev. Nishimoto is a native of California and played basketball at Stanford university in Palo Alto. He continued his education at Eden seminary, St. Louis, where he was a schoolmate of Pastor Meiners of St. John. Rev. Nishimoto completed work for a postgraduate degree at McCormick seminary in Chicago. Residents of the Arlington Heights area may recall the talk he presented at the interdenominational youth rally in 1954.

This program will be presented by the Friendly circle of the Women's guild. The public is invited.

Conservationist To Speak Sunday To Holy Name Society

The Holy Name society of Our Lady of the Wayside church, Arlington Heights, will be addressed by Roberts Mann, conservationist and naturalist, this Sunday morning after the monthly communion breakfast in the church hall.

Although the members of the society have been receiving communion in body every month through the summer the October through the summer, the October Communion Sunday is the first in the 1955-56 season which features a guest speaker.

A graduate of Bradley Polytechnic institute and Cornell university in civil engineering, Mr. Mann has had a long and distinguishd career. At various times engineer for the Illinois division of highways and several construction companies, Mr. Mann more recently has been in charge of construction and maintenance for the forest preserve district of Cook county. Currently he is superintendent of conservation for the forest preserve district. In line with his present work, Mr. Mann is a member of numerous conservation and nature study organizations.

A noted writer and lecturer on the fields of his interest and a radio and television commentator, Mr. Mann will speak on "Daniel Boone in the City."

Mrs. Ralph Riggs To Address WSCS Oct. 11

"The Christian Mission in a Changing World" will be the subject of Mrs. Ralph Riggs when she speaks before the Womans Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, Arlington Heights, at a 12:45 o'clock luncheon October 11.

As chairman of missionary education and service of the northern district of the Rock River conference, Mrs. Riggs' talk will keynote the organization's theme of the year, "To the Ends of the Earth." Beginning October 18, she will conduct study classes for the women of the church.

In keeping with the missionary emphasis, each of the 10 women's circles of the church will decorate a table to represent a country to be studied.

Preceding this meeting, women are invited to join the prayer group led by Mrs. Charles Kule, spiritual life chairman.

Mrs. Walter Edelblute, Mrs. Roy Benson, and members of Faith circle are making luncheon arrangements.

A nursery attendant will care for children during the meeting. (AM

Cooke, supervisor of the Catholic Charities of Chicago, will speak on "The Welfare Problems the Church Faces Today" when he addresses the opening meeting of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's club, Arlington Heights, on October 13 at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Russell Gilmore, new president, will introduce new officers and committee chairmen and new members will be welcomed by Mrs. Walter J. Schroeder Jr., social chairman, when the guild opens its fourth season in the parish hall.

A sneak preview of "Holiday Fair," a work shop sponsored by the school committee, will be presented at the close of the program. Mrs. John L. Baker is chairman of this special project with Mrs. Matthew J. Brost, assisting. Tea hostess will be Mrs. John Heinz.

Msgr. Cooke, who has spent most of the 25 years of his priestly life in charitable work, was ordained in 1930 and assigned as assistant superintendent of Maryville, a child-care home in Des Plaines. Later he became chaplain and recreation director of a civilian conservation corps unit of 12,000 boys at Ft. Sheridan.

After a year of service as assistant pastor of St. Catherine of Sinea parish, Oak Park, he was appointed director of the Catholic Home Bureau in 1934. In this capacity he was responsible for the supervision of all Catholic adoptions and foster home placements in the archdiocese of Chicago.

In 1940 he was named director of the family care department of the Catholic Charity bureau and retained this post until Cardinal Stritch selected him as supervisor of charities in 1949.

As head of the Catholic charities, Msgr. Cooke supervises the activities of 50 charitable institutions and agencies in the archdiocese of Chicago. He is a past president of the National Conference of Catholic Charities.

Missionary Society To Meet October 11

The Women's Missionary society of the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church will hold its monthly meeting October 11 at 8 p.m. in the parlors of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Harold Halleen of Wheaton, treasurer of the district organization, will speak on the organization and function of the Women's Missionary society at the district and national level. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Norman Virta of Mt. Prospect and several music selections given. Mrs. Earl Genn and Mrs. Harvey Holzem of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Ray Hjelm and Mrs. Jack Lilja of Mt. Prospect will be hostesses. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Senior Choir Of Our Saviour To Hold First Rehearsal Tonight

The senior choir of Our Saviour United Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will hold the first rehearsal of the fall season this evening at 8 o'clock in Dryden school. The choir is a volunteer organization and singers interested in serving with the group are urged to attend this first rehearsal.

Director for the coming year is Marjorie Stedry of Arlington Heights, who has been serving as pianist for the morning worship services for the summer months. Mrs. Stedry, a teacher of piano, is a graduate of Glen Dillard Gunn school of music and has studied with Harold Reever at North Park college and Adelbert Huguelet at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

Plans are being made by the council and the guild of the church for the service of installation October 23, at which time the Rev. John P. Petersen will become the first permanent pastor of the mission congregation. The Rev. George H. Hoog, organizer of the church and present pastor, and Dr. Harmon McGuire, president of the Illinois synod, will both take part in the installation.

Methodist Groups Plan Hayride

In the atmosphere of the October harvest a hayride has been planned Saturday evening for the Kupple's Klub and Tri-S club of the First Methodist church, Arlington Heights.

These groups will meet at the North Shore ranch, Willow and Sanders rds., starting point for the 7:30 o'clock event.

Following the hayride a square dance will be held at the lodge with Bob Bishop calling the dances.

Making all arrangements for the night's activities are the presidents of the participating organizations, Robert Johnson and David Young.

Chicago Community Leader To Speak At St. John Church

The Rev. George Nishimoto of the Kenwood-Ellis Community center and church of Chicago's south side will present an illustrated talk at St. John church, N. Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights, Tuesday, Oct. 11 at 7:45 p.m.

A Community Chest agency, Kenwood-Ellis has received much attention for its work in a changing and multi-racial community. The church is a member of the Evangelical and Reformed denomination.

Rev. Nishimoto is a native of California and played basketball at Stanford university in Palo Alto. He continued his education at Eden seminary, St. Louis, where he was a schoolmate of Pastor Meiners of St. John. Rev. Nishimoto completed work for a post-graduate degree at McCormick seminary in Chicago. Residents of the Arlington Heights area may recall the talk he presented at the interdenominational youth rally in 1954.

This program will be presented by the Friendly circle of the Women's guild. The public is invited.

Conservationist To Speak Sunday To Holy Name Society

The Holy Name society of Our Lady of the Wayside church, Arlington Heights, will be addressed by Roberts Mann, conservationist and naturalist, this Sunday morning after the monthly communion breakfast in the church hall.

Although the members of the society have been receiving communion in body every month through the summer the October through the summer, the October Communion Sunday is the first in the 1955-56 season which features a guest speaker.

A graduate of Bradley Polytechnic institute and Cornell university in civil engineering, Mr. Mann has had a long and distinguishd career. At various times engineer for the Illinois division of highways and several construction companies, Mr. Mann more recently has been in charge of construction and maintenance for the forest preserve district of Cook county. Currently he is superintendent of conservation for the forest preserve district. In line with his present work, Mr. Mann is a member of numerous conservation and nature study organizations.

A noted writer and lecturer on the fields of his interest and a radio and television commentator, Mr. Mann will speak on "Daniel Boone in the City."

Mrs. Ralph Riggs To Address WSCS Oct. 11

"The Christian Mission in a Changing World" will be the subject of Mrs. Ralph Riggs when she speaks before the Womans Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, Arlington Heights, at a 12:45 o'clock luncheon October 11.

As chairman of missionary education and service of the northern district of the Rock River conference, Mrs. Riggs' talk will keynote the organization's theme of the year, "To the Ends of the Earth." Beginning October 18, she will conduct study classes for the women of the church.

In keeping with the missionary emphasis, each of the 10 women's circles of the church will decorate a table to represent a country to be studied.

Preceding this meeting, women are invited to join the prayer group led by Mrs. Charles Kule, spiritual life chairman.

Mrs. Walter Edelblute, Mrs. Roy Benson, and members of Faith circle are making luncheon arrangements.

(Community Camera

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the altar of St. Paul Lutheran church September 17 for the wedding of Miss Carol Lams, daughter of Mt. Prospect Village President Theodore Lams and Mrs. Lams, 117 S. William st., and Floyd Holste, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holste, 216 S. Main st., Mt. Prospect. The candlelight ceremony was held at 7:30 p.m. with the Rev. J. E. A. Mueller officiating.

"As We Before Thine Altar Stand" and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" were the nuptial selections sung by Carol Faulstick. Elmer Jackisch accompanied her at the organ and rendered the wedding music.

Entering the church with her father, the bride wore a floor length white chantilly lace gown over taffeta with sweep train. It was fashioned with long fitted sleeves and trimmed with irridescent sequins and pearls. She wore an elbow-length veil of illusion netting and carried a crescent of white roses, stephanotis, lemon leaves and ivy.

Miss Norinne Lams served as her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Joyce Schmidtke and Miss Beverly Fink. All wore identical gowns of lime crystalette fashioned with back bows and bolero jackets. The maid of honor carried a crescent bouquet of pale coral gladioli with ti leaves while the bridesmaids' bouquets were of a deeper shade of gladioli and ti leaves. Their headpieces were of the same flowers.

Junior bridesmaid was 10-year-old Susan Lams and flower girl was 5-year-old Susan Holste. They wore coral crystalette gowns with head pieces and bouquets of deep coral gladioli and ti leaves.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lams wore a wedgewood blue taffeta dress with light blue accessories. Pink miniature roses made up her corsage. The groom's mother wore a metallic brown taffeta dress complemented with a corsage of tea roses.

James Holste, brother of the groom, was best man and George Scharringhausen and Donald Sporleder were ushers.

Following the double ring ceremony a reception and supper was held in St. Paul Lutheran school. This was followed by an open house at the home of the bride's parents. Two hundred fifty guests attended.

Mr. Holste took his bride to Door couny, Wis. for their wedding trip. They are now residing in an apartment at 111 S. Main st., Mt. Prospect. The bride is the third grade teacher at St. Paul Lutheran school, Mt. Prospect, and the groom is employed as a butcher with the National Tea Co. in Mt. Prospect. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Arlington Heights township high school.

Newlyweds To Live In Arlington Heights

After a honeymoon at Delavan, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Paice are residing at State and Golf rds., Arlington Heights. The couple was married September 24 at Maryville academy in Des Plaines.

The bride is the former Irene Roberta Lyons of Des Plaines and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Paice, also of Des Plaines. The groom is in partnership with his father in the Red Wing cleaners in the Elms shopping center in Arlington Heights.

A shepherdess apron of chantilly lace trimmed the bouffant nylon tulle skirt of her gown. The basque bodice was also of the lace. Her French illusion circular veil was fingertip in length and was attached to a lace cap appliqued with satin hearts and embroidered with seed pearls and irridescent sequins. Tiny white mums with an orchid center composed her bridal bouquet. Jim Lyons gave his sister in marriage.

Modern Etiquette

Q. What type of stationery should be used by people in mourning?

A. White stationery of good quality is correct and this is now generally preferred to black-bordered stationery.

Q. When one receives a formal engraved invitation to some social affair, and is very busy, wouldn't it be all right to telephone the hostess one's acceptance or regrets?

A. Never. A formal invitation always requires a formal reply, handwritten on note paper — and expressed in the third person.

Favorites For Flavor

Chunks of angel food cake comprise the bottom layer of this dessert. Chopped pecans are sprinkled over the cake and a creamy chocolate mixture is poured on top.

The chocolate mixture contains four eggs as well as a half-pint of whipped cream and is very rich, smooth and delicious.

An ice box cake, it is refrigerated for 24 hours. It is an elegant dinner or evening dessert.

The Barnetts live at 713 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. They have two children, Bonnie, 5, and Scott, 1. Mrs. Barnett is a member of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Womans club.

Chocolate Ice Box Cake

1 angel food cake
½ to 1 cup broken pecans
2 packages chocolate chips
3 tablespoons hot water
4 beaten egg yolks
4 beaten egg whites
½ pint whipped cream

Break angel food cake into cubes about 1½ inches square. Place over bottom of greased pan, 10 by 14 inches. Sprinkle with broken pecans.

Melt chocolate chips in three tablespoons hot water. Let cool.

Add beaten egg yolks and fold in beaten egg whites. Fold in whipped cream.

Pour chocolate mixture over cake. Refrigerate for 24 hours.

Winifred Kestner Weds Silvio J. Cipriani

In a 4:30 p.m. ceremony September 17 Miss Winifred Joanne Kestner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Kestner, 800 S. Beverly lane, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Silvio J. Cipriani, son of Mrs. Silvio Cipriani, 4218 W. Augusta blvd., Chicago. The ceremony was held in Our Saviour English Lutheran church in Chicago with the Rev. Jesse E. Thorson officiating.

White flowers decorated the altar and the nuptial selections were "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over satin and a fingertip veil held by a lace cap. Her bouquet was a white orchid with stephanotis and roses.

Mrs. Lois Kestner Lindstrom of Palatine was matron of honor to her sister and wore a ballerina length dress of powder blue crystalette with a band of yellow tea roses in her hair. She carried a crescent of the same flowers. The bride's sister, Charlene Kestner Hampe of Mt. Prospect was bridesmaid and the bride's cousin, Sandra Sue Bjorgo, also of Mt. Prospect, was junior bridesmaid. All wore gowns identical to the matron of honor's gown and also carried the same flowers. The flower girl, 10-year-old Judith Pfeiffer, cousin of the bride, wore a powder blue nylon tulle gown over taffeta and carried a basket of yellow baby mums and yellow rose petals which she scattered down the aisle.

Robert Brey of Chicago was best man to the groom and George Hampe and Robert Brey were ushers.

A reception for 120 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Punch and hors d'oeuvres were served. A buffet dinner was served at 7 p.m. with Mrs. Kestner receiving the guests in a navy blue nylon net and taffeta dress. Mrs. Cipriani was in a black dress and both mothers wore corsages of pink rose buds.

Both the bride and groom attended Austin high school. The groom is now with Motorola, Inc. in Chicago.

Geraldine Thorkilsen Weds Robert Caliento

(Bak Studio

In a 10 a.m. nuptial high mass September 17, Miss Geraldine Thorkilsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thorkilsen, 551 W. Wilson, Palatine, and Robert P. Caliento, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Caliento, 504 S. I-Oka, Mt. Prospect, repeated their marriage vows in a double ring ceremony before Fr. O'Brien in St. Theresa church, Palatine.

White gladioli formed the background for the ceremony during which Mr. Thorkilsen gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white Spanish lace fashioned ballerina length with high neckline, long sleeves and net yoke. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of phaelanopsis, stephanotis and ivy. The bride's only attendant was her friend, Mrs. Leonore Robb of La Grange, who wore a melon-colored ballerina-length dress and carried a bouquet of melon-colored glamellias.

Thomas Theiss of Arlington Heights was the groom's best man.

A wedding breakfast was served to relatives in a Milwaukee ave. restaurant and an open house for 150 guests was held from 3 to 6 p.m. at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. Caliento and his bride honeymooned for a week in Wisconsin and are now residing in their own apartment in Wheeling. Dr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Kennedy, 107 N. Wheeling, Prospect Heights, announce the adoption September 27, of their month-old-daughter, Barbara Lea, who weighs 6 pounds 12 ounces. The new baby girl has a brother, Danny Joe, 8. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Hoy of Waucoma, Iowa and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Kennedy of Des Moines.

Frieda Becker Becomes Bride Of "Doc" Williams

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Freida Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Becker, 237 S. Highland, Arlington Heights, and C. J. "Doc" Williams, 1 N. Hickory ave., Arlington Heights. Judge William Neumann officiated and witnesses were Mrs. O'Brien and Laverne Levin of Arlington Heights.

A wedding dinner was served at the O'Brien home after which the couple left on a brief honeymoon to Michigan City, Ind. They are now residing at 1 N. Hickory.

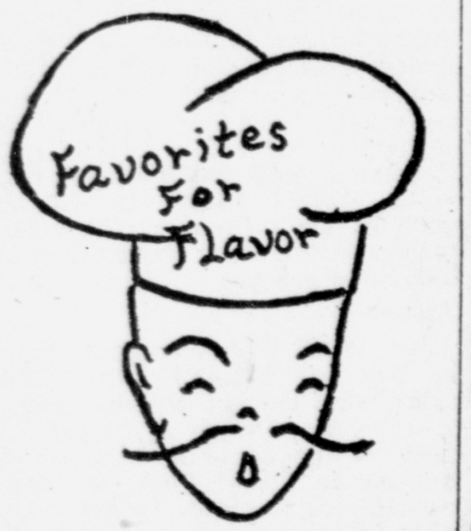
Modern Etiquette

Q. What type of stationery should be used by people in mourning?

A. White stationery of good quality is correct and this is now generally preferred to black-bordered stationery.

Q. When one receives a formal engraved invitation to some social affair, and is very busy, wouldn't it be all right to telephone the hostess one's acceptance or regrets?

A. Never. A formal invitation always requires a formal reply, handwritten on note paper -- and expressed in the third person.



A luscious chocolate ice box cake is Mrs. Mitchell N. Barnett's choice as her favorite dessert.

Chunks of angel food cake comprise the bottom layer of this dessert. Chopped pecans are sprinkled over the cake and a creamy chocolate mixture is poured on top. The chocolate mixture contains four eggs as well as a half-pint of whipped cream and is very rich, smooth and delicious.

An ice box cake, it is refrigerated for 24 hours. It is an elegant dinner or evening dessert.

The Barnetts live at 713 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. They have two children, Bonnie, 5, and Scott, 1. Mrs. Barnett is a member of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Womans club.

Chocolate Ice Box Cake

1 angel food cake
½ to 1 cup broken pecans
2 packages chocolate chips
3 tablespoons hot water
4 beaten egg yolks
4 beaten egg whites
½ pint whipped cream

Break angel food cake into cubes about 1½ inches square. Place over bottom of greased pan, 10 by 14 inches. Sprinkle with broken pecans.

Melt chocolate chips in three tablespoons hot water. Let cool.

Add beaten egg yolks and fold in beaten egg whites. Fold in whipped cream.

Pour chocolate mixture over cake. Refrigerate for 24 hours.

Mr. And Mrs. Geo. Pohlman

After a honeymoon in New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Pohlman are now residing at 215 S. Main st., Mt. Prospect. The couple was married September 17 in Christ Evangelical Lutheran church, Des Plaines, by the Rev. R. K. Wobbe. The bride is the former Dorothy Ann Prochnow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prochnow of Park Ridge and the groom is the son of Mrs. Joseph Lupoli and Wilbert Pohlman, both of Des Plaines.

Pi Phi Alumnae To Meet October 12

The monthly meeting of Pi Beta Phi alumnae club will be held next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Nat T. Burfeind, 1130 N. Harvard rd., Arlington Heights. Mrs. James E. Wood and Mrs. Oscar W. Cagann will be co-hostesses.

Special guests at this meeting will be Miss Jeanne Adams, chapter president, and Miss Phyllis Elliott, chapter vice-president of Illinois Epsilon chapter of Pi Beta Phi fraternity at Northwestern university. Phyllis Elliott is also vice president of the student organization on the campus. Members are looking forward to hearing their discussion of the campus activities and achievements of their chapter at Northwestern.

All Pi Phis in the area are invited to attend this meeting or if unable to come on this date to call Mrs. Karl Gengler Clearbrook 3-5578 to learn the place and program scheduled for other meetings held regularly the second Wednesday evening of each month. (AMP

Busy with final plans for their second meeting October 13 are board members of St. James Mothers club, Arlington Heights. Standing are Mrs. William Harrah, president and Mrs. Edward McGrath, chairman of ways and means. Mrs. John R. Mutti, vice president and program chairman, is seated at left and at right is Mrs. Harold Houskeeper, showing an original collection of hand-woven fabrics for costumes and decorating. Mrs. Houskeeper, hobbiest in weaving and ceramics, is a former fashion artist. She will give a preview of styles designed for many occasions in assortments of textures of cotton, silk and wool at the October 13 meeting. —Staff Photo

To complete plans for the card party to be held October 12 at the Elks club rooms in Des Plaines, committee members of the Ladies of the Elks met at the home of Irene Wade. The party will be held at 8 p. m. and is for members, guests and husbands. In the front row are Mesdames Grace Schuster, Elvera Ladendorf, Dorothy Vleck, Olga Kartschuck and Ellen Moreth. Standing are Mesdames Irene Wade, co-chairman, Frances O'Donnell, chairman, and Elsie Winkleman. Other committee members not in the photo are Kay Necasek, Lois Koulentes, Adath Laurance and Adeline Kavaiet.

Irene Nightingale

The engagement of Miss Irene Nightingale to S/Sgt. Richard L. McGlynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. McGlynn of Bellwood, Ill. is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Nightingale, Church rd., Arlington Heights.

Miss Nightingale is employed at Howard Rotovator Co. in Arlington Heights and Mr. McGlynn is stationed at Castle air force base in Merced, Cal.

The couple will marry January 21.

Zeta Tau Alpha To Commemorate Founding

Founding of the national organization will be commemorated October 17 by the North Shore Alumnae association of Zeta Tau Alpha, women's fraternity, and the college chapter at the chapter house at Northwestern university. Dessert and coffee will be served at 7:15 p.m., followed by the traditional Founders' Day ritual ceremony. In charge of the arrangements are Mrs. Frank Biggam of Chicago, for the alumnae and Miss Janet Klopf, president of the college chapter.

Winifred Kestner Weds Silvio J. Cipriani

In a 4:30 p.m. ceremony September 17 Miss Winifred Joanne Kestner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick O. Kestner, 800 S. Beverly lane, Arlington Heights, became the bride of Silvio J. Cipriani, son of Mrs. Silvio Cipriani, 4218 W. Augusta blvd., Chicago. The ceremony was held in Our Saviour English Lutheran church in Chicago with the Rev. Jesse E. Thorson officiating.

White flowers decorated the altar and the nuptial selections were "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over satin and a fingertip veil held by a lace cap. Her bouquet was a white orchid with stephanotis and roses.

Mrs. Lois Kestner Lindstrom of Palatine was matron of honor to her sister and wore a ballerina length dress of powder blue crystalette with a band of yellow tea roses in her hair. She carried a crescent of the same flowers. The bride's sister, Charlene Kestner Hampe of Mt. Prospect was bridesmaid and the bride's cousin, Sandra Sue Bjorgo, also of Mt. Prospect, was junior bridesmaid. All wore gowns identical to the matron of honor's gown and also carried the same flowers. The flower girl, 10-year-old Judith Pfeiffer, cousin of the bride, wore a powder blue nylon tulle gown over taffeta and carried a basket of yellow baby mums and yellow rose petals which she scattered down the aisle.

Robert Brey of Chicago was best man to the groom and George Hampe and Robert Brey were ushers.

A reception for 120 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Punch and hors d'oeuvres were served. A buffet dinner was served at 7 p.m. with Mrs. Kestner receiving the guests in a navy blue nylon net and taffeta dress. Mrs. Cipriani was in a black dress and both mothers wore corsages of pink rose buds.

Both the bride and groom attended Austin high school. The groom is now with Motorola, Inc. in Chicago.

Geraldine Thorkilsen Weds Robert Caliento

(Bak Studio

In a 10 a.m. nuptial high mass September 17, Miss Geraldine Thorkilsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thorkilsen, 551 W. Wilson, Palatine, and Robert P. Caliento, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Caliento, 504 S. I-Oka, Mt. Prospect, repeated their marriage vows in a double ring ceremony before Fr. O'Brien in St. Theresa church, Palatine.

White gladioli formed the background for the ceremony during which Mr. Thorkilsen gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of white Spanish lace fashioned ballerina length with high neckline, long sleeves and net yoke. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of phaelanopsis, stephanotis and ivy. The bride's only attendant was her friend, Mrs. Leonore Robb of La Grange, who wore a melon-colored ballerina-length dress and carried a bouquet of melon-colored glamellias.

Thomas Theiss of Arlington Heights was the groom's best man.

A wedding breakfast was served to relatives in a Milwaukee ave. restaurant and an open house for 150 guests was held from 3 to 6 p.m. at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. Caliento and his bride honeymooned for a week in Wisconsin and are now residing in their own apartment in Wheeling. The bride was graduated from Palatine high school and is employed by Universal Oil in Des Plaines. Her bridegroom, a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school, attended Lake Forest college and is now employed at Fieldale in Roselle.

The club turned over $1,726 to Mooseheart, proceeds of Moose day at Riverview.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor 2104 South Street CLearbrook 3-8125

How Many?

Soon Rolling Meadowites will know the answer to that question. The first official Rolling Meadows census is under way, and in the very near future residents will know exactly how many people there are in our new city. We think the results will be surprising, not only to our surrounding sister communities, but to Rolling Meadowites themselves. It's very hard to believe the very first families moved into Rolling Meadows less than 2 years ago.

The census is being conducted under the direction of Charlie Martin of Wilke rd. Volunteer workers going from door to door have come from all sections of the community, but particular assistance is being given by the Rolling Meadows Jaycees and the Junior Woman's club. Your cooperation with the census takers is requested, and your prompt and concise answers to their questions will greatly assist their work. You will only be asked for your name, address and ages of all family members. In addition to assist the local school districts in their plans for future classroom needs here in Rolling Meadows each family will be asked whether they plan to send their children to public or parochial school, and if a parochial school, what denomination.

How many of us are there, in your opinion. Why not make a family contest of guessing our population?

Girl Scout News

A very important meeting of all adult "girl scouts" and mothers of girls engaged in the scouting and brownie programs will be held next Wednesday at the Kimball Hill school. The meeting will be held primarily to lay final plans for the official girl scout fund drive which has been set for the end of the month. The local girl scout organization is not permitted any money-making drives or projects other than their one official fund drive and the cookie sale in the spring. All funds for the coming year's operation of the local scouting program must be gained from this one fund campaign. In order to completely canvass the area in the one night set aside for the fund drive, the cooperation of every girl scout and brownie mother is being sought. The meeting will be conducted by Bf White, chairman of the local finance drive. It has been set for 8:30 p.m. in order to permit mothers to get smaller children into bed before attending the meeting. The girl scout group has promised the meeting will not last later than 10 p.m. Be sure to mark your c lendar for next Wednesday. Parents of children engaged in local youth programs are not called upon often to lend their active assistance to the important organizations to which their children belong. This is one of the few, and vitally urgent times that the girl scout organization will ask for parents' help, and the entire fund drive work will take but 2 evening's time. The success of the drive will, to a great extent, determine the success of the local scouting program for the next year.

New Brownie Troops

Through the efforts of the new neighborhood association chairman, Mildred Windsor, 4 new leaders have been secured for brownie troops. Since there has been a waiting list of young girls to these new troops this should come as good news indeed to many families. One of the new brownie troops will meet Monday afternoons at 4:30 o'clock at the Kimball Hill school. This troop will be under the leadership of Donna Alexander with Velma Bozee acting as co-leader. The other new brownie troop will hold its meetings at 4:30 p.m. on Fridays at the school. This troop will have Georgia Schneider as leader with Jeannette Douglas as co-leader. Particular appreciation of the community is due to these 4 women who have volunteered for this important work with our young girls.

Help Needed

The formation of the two new brownie troops brings the total of Rolling Meadows scout troops to 8—5 brownie troops and 3 intermediate girl scout troops. There is still an urgent need for additional leaders, however, and women to act as scout committee mothers are in constant demand. In order to form a new troop at least 2 leaders are needed and 3 committee mothers. With the constant influx of new families into the city the waiting list for scouting activities will be growing every day. If you feel you can help in this gratifying work won't you call Mildred Windsor, neighborhood association chairman, at Clearbrook 5-0862.

Welcome World

Little Kent Michael Jaremus has set an excellent record already, and he is only 1 week old. The first child of Boubene and Renee Jaremus of 2206 Eastman st. arrived right on time, on the very day his parents had expected him, September 30. Sherman hospital in Elgin was the arrival point and he recorded a birth weight of 7 pounds 2 ounces. Kent has chosen an active and civic-minded family as his own. Father "Bo" is an enthusiastic member of the Rolling Meadows zoning and plan commissions. Mother Renee is a past director of the Home Owners' association, and as such had charge of the Rolling Meadows Christmas celebration last year. Renee is also one of the founders and a past president of the Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club.

Billy and Bobby Huffman are pretty excited young men these days! They have a brand-new baby brother, John Patrick, and the 2 little boys are busy telling every family in the neighborhood about the new arrival. The boys are children of Jack and Lois Huffman of 2907 South court. The new family addition arrived at Resurrection hospital in Chicago September 23. A birth weight of 7 pounds 11 ounces was recorded there for little John Patrick who is now enjoying his new home in Rolling Meadows.

"Our first son" is the proud announcement from the home of Al and Monica Glass, 2201 Wing st. David Albert is the name Al and Monie have chosen for their son who "tipped the scales" at 8 pounds 14 ounces on his arrival September 26. St. Anne hospital in Chicago was little David's first residence. He has an older sister, Lita, 2.

September 23 was the birth date for Marc Raymond Mydill. Marc is the new son of Leone and Raymond Mydill, 2502 Meadow dr. Baby Marc's arrival point was Columbus hospital in Chicago and he registered a birth weight of 6 pounds 4 ounces. He has an older brother, Michael, 17 months.

Is This Your Child?

From time to time your editor hears complaints of many types, but one infringment upon neighbors seems to continue. Here in Rolling Meadows where there are so few fences many children, especially the smaller ones who really do not know better, are apt to play not only in their own yards, but in the yards of neighbors' homes as well. Usually, there are other children in the house next door, and the children's "playground" spreading to neighboring homes is not even noticed. Sometimes the habit of playing in other yards, however, becomes almost uncontrolled. This is particularly true in cases where all members of a family work and there is no one at home to watch those prize shrubs and flowers. If your child seems to be always wandering off to the yards of neighbors perhaps they don't really appreciate him or her as much as you might think they do. Especially in cases where you know there is no one at home to keep an eye on things parents are urged to watch their own children. You'd be surprised how much more your neighbors will like your child, and how much happier they will be with their neighbors!

Youth Council

On their regularly scheduled night—the second Thursday of each month—October 13, the Youth Council will hold a meeting at the community barn. The time has been set at 8:30 p.m. All representatives of community groups which participate in the council are urged to be present for this important meeting which should lay plans for an active fall and winter program.

Visitors

Three visitors have been welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglas, 2303 Cardinal dr., this past week. Mrs. Douglas' friend, Mrs. Eva Krahl, who makes her home on Chicago's north side, has been staying in Rolling Meadows for a brief visit. Other visitors at the Douglas' home were Mr. Douglas' cousins, Jessie Lord of Vancouver, B. C., and Nellie Crowther of Los Angeles. The cousins, who had seen Mr. Douglas for the first time in many, many years on their recent visit to Rolling Meadows, were returning from a brief visit to other family members in Winnipeg. The highlight of their return visit, which has now ended, was a family dinner party at the Swedish club. Hosts for the dinner were Mr .and Mrs. Herbert Olson of Arlington Heights. Mrs. Olson is Mr. Douglas' sister, and, of course, also a cousin to the welcome west coast visitors.

It was a double birthday celebration which brought the out-of-town guests to the home of Phylis and Jens Noet, 2301 Meadow dr. The birthday celebration was held for the Noet children, Ricky, 2 years old September 27, and Linda, 5 October 4. Visiting for the special occasion were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Aksel Noet and Mr. and Mrs. William Shanks, all of Milwaukee. Also on hand for the festivities were their uncle, Richard Noet of Milwaukee, and their aunt, Miss Joyce Shanks, and her fiance, Eyler Olson, also of Milwaukee, as well as their brother, Jens, who does not share the same birthday season as his brother and sister.

Green Bay is the home of the recent visitors entertained by Bill and Jeannette Reynders, 2200 Bluebird ln. The visitors were Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Reynders. The occasion for the visit was Bill's birthday which his parents helped him celebrate. Also on hand for the festivities were Bill's sister and brother-in-law and their children, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Johnston with Kay and Richie, of Kankakee.

Junior Woman's Club

Members of the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club are reminded of the regular monthly meeting next Monday evening at Kimball Hill school. A more-detailed story covering details of the meeting is being carried on the front page of this issue. Several vitally important community projects are underway and the assistance of every member is necessary to their success. Dues for the 1955-56 year ($5) are being requested at the meeting, and further dues at each meeting will not be sought. Last year dues were collected fo reach meeting. It is hoped every member will be present for the meeting Monday, which will probably be one of the most important of the entire year.

Christenings

United Evangelical Lutheran church in Oak Park was the christening site for little Steven Paul Fromm last Sunday. Steven Paul is the infant son of Dorothy and Warren Fromm, 2101 Bluebird lane. Sponsors for the christening ceremony were Miss Mary Ann Fromm and Walter Matthey. To celebrate the happy occasion the baby's parents held a buffet supper for 30 people at their Rolling Meadows home following the baptism. Joining the festivities were his grandfather, Otto Ahlers, and his grandmother, Mrs. Adeline Fromm, as well as his sister, Carinne, 3, and brother, David, 1½. Also included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson of Lake Geneva.

October 2 was the christening date for little Daniel Paul Sheetz at Our Lady of the Wayside church in Arlington Heights. Officiating at the baptism service was Father O'Hara, pastor of the church. The baby is the son of Sue and Gordon Sheetz, 2109 Park st. Acting as godparents for Daniel were Paul and Peggy Sheetz. A christening party was held at the Sheetz home following the church services. Present at the happy gathering were the baby's brother and sister, Mary and Billy, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoolehan of Salem, Wis., and Mrs. Mary Sheetz.

Because their present home is Pensacola, Fla., the sponsors at the christening of little Susan Gail Schinkowsky were not able to attend the actual church ceremonies. Acting as proxies for Mr. and Mrs. George Schwartz, the baby's aunt and uncle, were Susan's parents, Earl and Jean Schinkowsky of 2904 South ct. The baptism was held last Sunday at Trinity Lutheran church here in Rolling Meadows during the morning worship service. Officiating was Frederick Koehler, student pastor of the church. A special christening celebration has been postponed temporarily until the baby's sponsors make a contemplated visit from Pensacola during the Christmas holiday season.

Tops

Everyone knows that Rolling Meadows is tops, but now an opportunity has come along to form a Rolling Meadows T.O.P.S. club. For the uninitiated, T.O.P.S. stands for "Take Off Pounds Sensibly." It is a national organization, with headquarters in Milwaukee, devoted to helping people lose weight (or did you guess?). Brief weekly "weigh in" meetings are held to keep members "losing" and to encourage those who have had those extra nibbles the previous week to get back on the reducing swing. The weekly sessions would probably be marked with plenty of black coffee (and we do mean black!) and some "conversation" on the art of losing weight. If sufficient interest is shown in such a project a TOPS club will probably be formed here in the city. If losing weight, be it 5 pounds or 50, is of interest to you, won't you call Patricia Cashin, 2603 Cardinal dr., at CLearbrook 5-1509. She will be glad to talk to you and give you further information about the contemplated group.

Shower

Just to show how wrong a woman can be, Lorie Kramer, 2701 School dr., thought she was going to enjoy an evening of cards last week at the home of Mrs. Carol Kolstedt in Forest Park, her husband Chuck's cousin. To her complete surprise the evening of cards turned out to be a baby shower for the coming addition to the Kramer family. The shower was given by Mrs. Kolstedt and Mrs. Carm Haug of Chicago, Lorie Kramer's dear friend. Many lovely gifts were received for the baby, including a bassinet. Lorie declares she now can welcome the baby royally, and "it" will have one of the best wardrobes in Rolling Meadows.

Women's Bowling

The enthusiastic group which comprises Rolling Meadows only woman's bowling league is really fighting a close race for first place. Only 2 games separate the first place team from the last—a margin which could mean complete upset of the standings in any one week. League standings as of September 28 were:

Bowen Hardware	7	5
Jim's Service Station	6	6
Hedlin's Richer Milk	6	6
Parkway Liquors	5	7

Housewarming

It was a belated but nevertheless surprising housewarming party last Saturday night at the home of Dave and Angie Lack, 2311 Park st. A group of friends and relatives who had not previously visited the Lack home in Rolling Meadows arrived unexpectedly with their arms full of gifts for the home. Special guests for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Goldman of Waukegan, who are moving to the west coast and took this last opportunity to visit their Rolling Meadows friends. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lack, Mr. and Mrs. Rebelsky, Rose and Bertha Fish and Sam Levitt, all of Chicago.

PTA News

Rolling Meadows parents are reminded of the general PTA meeting next Tuesday evening, October 11, at the Paddock school in Palatine. The meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m., will be presided over by Rolling Meadows own Gretchen White, who is the president of the District 15 PTA. The meeting will be conducted as a "mock" school board meeting and will feature Kimball Hill as speaker. The program promises to be one of special interest to all Rolling Meadows families and all members of the PTA as well as other residents are particularly urged to attend.

The district PTA has also initiated work on the formation of a group to work with Exceptional Children (handicapped or retarded youngsters). The chairman of the district group is Mrs. D. R. Zingelman of Palatine, who was active in the formation of the Wheeling Braille school. A survey is being taken in the entire township to determine the number of exceptional children and to ascertain the exact need for such work.

Home Party

It was a lingerie demonstration which brought the recent group of women to the home of Pat Hofmann, 2708 George ct. The home party was held on the evening of September 28. Attending the gathering were a group of Pat's neighbors including Vesla McNerny, Leona Gobeyn, Sis Perry, Lorraine Schoenfeld, Zella Blanco, Eda Hofmann, Nancy Borel and Melita McWhirter.

Junior Hi

It was a scavenger hunt which kept almost 50 Rolling Meadows youngsters busy last Friday evening. The group, composed of Rolling Meadows young people from 10 to 14 of all faiths and backgrounds, had a hilarious time collecting the long list of items presented to them. Membership is open to all children in the community, and if you know of a young teenager not currently attending the Junior Hi club meetings you are urged to ask them to call Bud Conzett, one of their active advisors, at CLearbrook 3-8735. One of the next "big" activities on the agenda for the group is a masquerade party during the Halloween period.

Paper Drive - Bake Sale

Of course you're keeping all those papers and magazines which have a habit of accumulating around the house. October 15, the boy scouts and the Junior Hi group will be happy to take the entire accumulation off your hands. All they ask is that papers and magazines be securely bundled, separately if possible. Collection point will be the bus shelter at Campbell st. and Wilke rd. In addition trucks will tour the area to pick up bundles left at the curb. The girls of the Junior Hi club did not want to be left out of the fund-raising work on that Saturday, and they have announced their own project. It will be a bake sale at the community barn from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. In addition, to be assured of a complete "sell out," the girls will conduct a "mobile sale" starting at 1:30 p.m. traveling throughout the community by truck and selling their home baked products from door to door. Donations for the sale, which will do much to help youth work here in the city, will be gladly accepted. Baked goods donated to the sale will be picked up if a call is made to CLearbrook 3-8735. You may be sure your contributions, not to mention your purchase of baked goods and your donation of papers, will be greatly appreciated by this enthusiastic group of youngsters.

Birthdays

An overflow crowd of 26 people was on hand to mark the important fifth birthday of Pamela Ann Zmich. Pam is the young daughter of Dick and Jerry Zmich, 2404 Bluebird lane. Although her actual birthday fell on Sept. 30, birthday festivities were held October 2, in order to permit Pam's many "admirers" to be on hand. Present for the party were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klaske and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Zmich. Also on hand were her godparents, Mrs. Dorothy Swan and Thomas Zmich Jr. Other guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ferret, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Kertz and Mrs. Alice Gauthier.

Two celebrations for 2 years. That was the record of Little Diane Dewar, daughter of Dick and Linda Dewar, 2305 Wing st. On her actual birth date, September 29, her parents held a family party for her. Present for the celebration were Mrs. Helen Brady, Mrs. Dorothy Schmidt, Mrs. Jean Casselli and her daughters, Patty and Sharon, Dorothy and Doreen Donofrio, and her grandmother Dewar. The following day her parents held another birthday celebration for the little girl, this one attended by a group of her neighborhood friends. Present for this party were Pamela Maszk, Kathy, Larry and Kenny Geimer, Susy and John Flynn, Johnny Northcote and Janice Baumgart.

Eight years were just marked by Jimmy Buchholz, 2109 Robin lane, with a special birthday celebration September 24. Jimmy is the son of Paul and Jerry Buchholz. Present for the birthday festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Ted O'Connor, Jimmy's grandparents. Also on hand were his brother and sister, Kirk and Meredith, and his neighborhood friends Georgie Oreskovitch and David and John Martin.

It was a family party for Donald Williams September 30. Donald marked his eighth birthday last week. He is the son of Ruth and Russel Williams of 2902 Dove st. Joining the birthday fun were his 2 brothers, David and Phillip.

It was a luncheon and birthday party for Janice Lobenhofer October 2. The festive occasion, attended by a group of 14 of her friends, marked her fourth birthday. The party, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lobenhofer, 2504 Kirchhoff rd., was also enjoyed by her sister Barbara. In the evening a further birthday celebration was held for members of the family. There were 13 adults present at the evening party including the little girl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnand and Mrs. Lobenhofer.

Anniversaries

Two neighboring couples have enjoyed "evenings out" in observance of their wedding anniversaries. They are Jerry and Gloria Diduch, 2904 Lark ct., who marked their fifth anniversary September 30. Their neighbors, Jane and Ralph Brunt, 2905 Lark ct., marked their third wedding anniversary October 4, but October 1, was their celebration date. The most exciting feature of the Brunt's anniversary celebration was the rare opportunity to sleep until 9 the following morning—the first such opportunity since the birth 9 months ago of their daughter, Kathy,—since the baby was "visiting" her grandparents overnight.

Church Group To Have Guest Speaker

The Womens association of the Community church of Rolling Meadows reminds members that husbands will be welcomed at the program tonight, Thursday, in the Barn which will be highlighted by W. P. McDowell, Oak Park, who will speak on the subject, "Builders and Destroyers."

Norma Mann, publicity director of the association, reports that the talk should appeal to both men and women. The program will get underway at 8 p.m. with a sitter service for youngsters of parents attending maintained in the nursery. Members of the organization are reminded that the deadline for the payment of the annual $2 dues is October 15.

Still Time To Join PTA During Drive

Residents of Rolling Meadows are signing up this week as members of the Parent-Teachers Association of Consolidated School District 15.

A big enrollment of Rolling Meadows members is expected by the PTA. The consolidated district includes schools in Palatine as well as Rolling Meadows. It is one of the largest PTA groups in the state outside Chicago.

For the first time a Rolling Meadows woman, Mrs. Abiathar White Jr., is chairman of the PTA for the consolidated school district.

Membership fees are $1 for both parents or 50 cents for each parent. Theme of the campaign is "Let's Fly High." Each classroom has an airport poster and when a parent joins each child in the family puts an airplane with his or her name on the poster.

The membership drive, which started Oct. 3, will run through Monday, Oct. 10.

Rolling Meadows Scouts Complete Camporee

Rolling Meadows boy scouts of troop 68 participated last weekend in the Signal Hill district camporee near Barrington. Attending the camporee were 21 scouts of the local troop with 8 adult advisors on hand for assistance and supervision.

District commissioner Pete Keller of Rolling Meadows declared "Troop 68 and Explorer Post 68, without prejudice, presented the sharpest unit in the camp areas. All boys were in full uniform and were a source of pride to Howard Christensen, new scoutmaster, and the other adult leaders. The decorum of the boys was in the best scouting tradition."

Supervising the Rolling Meadow scouts on their Friday night camp out were Bert Trager, Henry Seestadt, Howard Christensen and Orville Rumrey. Saturday night supervisors were Pete Keller, John Jennings, Art Setzer and Larry Hall. Glen Loveless also assisted.

Three scout patrols participated in the work—Pioneer, Bat and Panther. The Pioneer patrol, under the leadership of Ken Keller, patrol leader, and Bob Carlson, assistant, scored 52 points of a possible 60 in the scoutcraft events of the day. This patrol rated second highest at the camporee.

The camporee was highlighted by a "paddle wheel" for adult leader, John Jennings, on the occasion of his birthday. While he did not reveal the exact number of "licks" required for his age he did receive an undoubted surplus from each boy in the course of the ceremony. It appeared Mike Jennings, John's son, enjoyed the proceeding more than anyone.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor — 2104 South Street — CLearbrook 3-8125

How Many?

Soon Rolling Meadowites will know the answer to that question. The first official Rolling Meadows census is under way, and in the very near future residents will know exactly how many people there are in our new city. We think the results will be surprising, not only to our surrounding sister communities, but to Rolling Meadowites themselves. It's very hard to believe the very first families moved into Rolling Meadows less than 2 years ago.

The census is being conducted under the direction of Charlie Martin of Wilke rd. Volunteer workers going from door to door have come from all sections of the community, but particular assistance is being given by the Rolling Meadows Jaycees and the Junior Woman's club. Your cooperation with the census takers is requested, and your prompt and concise answers to their questions will greatly assist their work. You will only be asked for your name, address and ages of all family members. In addition to assist the local school districts in their plans for future classroom needs here in Rolling Meadows each family will be asked whether they plan to send their children to public or parochial school, and if a parochial school, what denomination.

How many of us are there, in your opinion. Why not make a family contest of guessing our population?

Church Group To Have Guest Speaker

The Womens association of the Community church of Rolling Meadows reminds members that husbands will be welcomed at the program tonight, Thursday, in the Barn which will be highlighted by W. P. McDowell, Oak Park, who will speak on the subject, "Builders and Destroyers."

Norma Mann, publicity director of the association, reports that the talk should appeal to both men and women. The program will get underway at 8 p.m. with a sitter service for youngsters of parents attending maintained in the nursery. Members of the organization are reminded that the deadline for the payment of the annual $2 dues is October 15.

Girl Scout News

A very important meeting of all adult "girl scouts" and mothers of girls engaged in the scouting and brownie programs will be held next Wednesday at the Kimball Hill school. The meeting will be held primarily to lay final plans for the official girl scout fund drive which has been set for the end of the month. The local girl scout organization is not permitted any money-making drives or projects other than their one official fund drive and the cookie sale in the spring. All funds for the coming year's operation of the local scouting program must be gained from this one fund campaign. In order to completely canvass the area in the one night set aside for the fund drive, the cooperation of every girl scout and brownie mother is being sought. The meeting will be conducted by Bf White, chairman of the local finance drive. It has been set for 8:30 p.m. in order to permit mothers to get smaller children into bed before attending the meeting. The girl scout group has promised the meeting will not last later than 10 p.m. Be sure to mark your calendar for next Wednesday. Parents of children engaged in local youth programs are not called upon often to lend their active assistance to the important organizations to which their children belong. This is one of the few, and vitally urgent times that the girl scout organization will ask for parents' help, and the entire fund drive work will take but 2 evening's time. The success of the drive will, to a great extent, determine the success of the local scouting program for the next year.

New Brownie Troops

Through the efforts of the new neighborhood association chairman, Mildred Windsor, 4 new leaders have been secured for brownie troops. Since there has been a waiting list of young girls to these new troops this should come as good news indeed to many families. One of the new brownie troops will meet Monday afternoons at 4:30 o'clock at the Kimball Hill school. This troop will be under the leadership of Donna Alexander with Velma Bozee acting as co-leader. The other new brownie troop will hold its meetings at 4:30 p.m. on Fridays at the school. This troop will have Georgia Schneider as leader with Jeannette Douglas as co-leader. Particular appreciation of the community is due to these 4 women who have volunteered for this important work with our young girls.

Help Needed

The formation of the two new brownie troops brings the total of Rolling Meadows scout troops to 8 --5 brownie troops and 3 intermediate girl scout troops. There is still an urgent need for additional leaders, however, and women to act as scout committee mothers are in constant demand. In order to form a new troop at least 2 leaders are needed and 3 committee mothers. With the constant influx of new families into the city the waiting list for scouting activities will be growing every day. If you feel you can help in this gratifying work won't you call Mildred Windsor, neighborhood association chairman, at Clearbrook 5-0862.

Welcome World

Little Kent Michael Jaremus has set an excellent record already, and he is only 1 week old. The first child of Boubene and Renee Jaremus of 2206 Eastman st. arrived right on time, on the very day his parents had expected him, September 30. Sherman hospital in Elgin was the arrival point and he recorded a birth weight of 7 pounds 2 ounces. Kent has chosen an active and civic-minded family as his own. Father "Bo" is an enthusiastic member of the Rolling Meadows zoning and plan commissions. Mother Renee is a past director of the Home Owners' association, and as such had charge of the Rolling Meadows Christmas celebration last year. Renee is also one of the founders and a past president of the Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club.

Billy and Bobby Huffman are pretty excited young men these days! They have a brand-new baby brother, John Patrick, and the 2 little boys are busy telling every family in the neighborhood about the new arrival. The boys are children of Jack and Lois Huffman of 2907 South court. The new family addition arrived at Resurrection hospital in Chicago September 23. A birth weight of 7 pounds 11 ounces was recorded there for little John Patrick who is now enjoying his new home in Rolling Meadows.

"Our first son" is the proud announcement from the home of Al and Monica Glass, 2201 Wing st. David Albert is the name Al and Monie have chosen for their son who "tipped the scales" at 8 pounds 14 ounces on his arrival September 26. St. Anne hospital in Chicago was little David's first residence. He has an older sister, Lita, 2.

September 23 was the birth date for Marc Raymond Mydill. Marc is the new son of Leone and Raymond Mydill, 2502 Meadow dr. Baby Marc's arrival point was Columbus hospital in Chicago and he registered a birth weight of 6 pounds 4 ounces. He has an older brother, Michael, 17 months.

Is This Your Child?

From time to time your editor hears complaints of many types, but one infringment upon neighbors seems to continue. Here in Rolling Meadows where there are so few fences many children, especially the smaller ones who really do not know better, are apt to play not only in their own yards, but in the yards of neighbors' homes as well. Usually, there are other children in the house next door, and the children's "playground" spreading to neighboring homes is not even noticed. Sometimes the habit of playing in other yards, however, becomes almost uncontrolled. This is particularly true in cases where all members of a family work and there is no one at home to watch those prize shrubs and flowers. If your child seems to be always wandering off to the yards of neighbors perhaps they don't really appreciate him or her as much as you might think they do. Especially in cases where you know there is no one at home to keep an eye on things parents are urged to watch their own children. You'd be surprised how much more your neighbors will like your child, and how much happier they will be with their neighbors!

Youth Council

On their regularly scheduled night—the second Thursday of each month—October 13, the Youth Council will hold a meeting at the community barn. The time has been set at 8:30 p.m. All representatives of community groups which participate in the council are urged to be present for this important meeting which should lay plans for an active fall and winter program.

Visitors

Three visitors have been welcomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglas, 2303 Cardinal dr., this past week. Mrs. Douglas' friend, Mrs. Eva Krahl, who makes her home on Chicago's north side, has been staying in Rolling Meadows for a brief visit. Other visitors at the Douglas' home were Mr. Douglas' cousins, Jessie Lord of Vancouver, B. C., and Nellie Crowther of Los Angeles. The cousins, who had seen Mr. Douglas for the first time in many, many years on their recent visit to Rolling Meadows, were returning from a brief visit to other family members in Winnipeg. The highlight of their return visit, which has now ended, was a family dinner party at the Swedish club. Hosts for the dinner were Mr .and Mrs. Herbert Olson of Arlington Heights. Mrs. Olson is Mr. Douglas' sister, and, of course, also a cousin to the welcome west coast visitors.

It was a double birthday celebration which brought the out-of-town guests to the home of Phylis and Jens Noet, 2301 Meadow dr. The birthday celebration was held for the Noet children, Ricky, 2 years old September 27, and Linda, 5 October 4. Visiting for the special occasion were their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Aksel Noet and Mr. and Mrs. William Shanks, all of Milwaukee. Also on hand for the festivities were their uncle, Richard Noet of Milwaukee, and their aunt, Miss Joyce Shanks, and her fiance, Eyler Olson, also of Milwaukee, as well as their brother, Jens, who does not share the same birthday season as his brother and sister.

Green Bay is the home of the recent visitors entertained by Bill and Jeannette Reynders, 2200 Bluebird ln. The visitors were Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Reynders. The occasion for the visit was Bill's birthday which his parents helped him celebrate. Also on hand for the festivities were Bill's sister and brother-in-law and their children, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Johnston with Kay and Richie, of Kankakee.

Junior Woman's Club

Members of the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club are reminded of the regular monthly meeting next Monday evening at Kimball Hill school. A more-detailed story covering details of the meeting is being carried on the front page of this issue. Several vitally important community projects are underway and the assistance of every member is necessary to their success. Dues for the 1955-56 year ($5) are being requested at the meeting, and further dues at each meeting will not be sought. Last year dues were collected fo reach meeting. It is hoped every member will be present for the meeting Monday, which will probably be one of the most important of the entire year.

Christenings

United Evangelical Lutheran church in Oak Park was the christening site for little Steven Paul Fromm last Sunday. Steven Paul is the infant son of Dorothy and Warren Fromm, 2101 Bluebird lane. Sponsors for the christening ceremony were Miss Mary Ann Fromm and Walter Matthey. To celebrate the happy occasion the baby's parents held a buffet supper for 30 people at their Rolling Meadows home following the baptism. Joining the festivities were his grandfather, Otto Ahlers, and his grandmother, Mrs. Adeline Fromm, as well as his sister, Carinne, 3, and brother, David, 1½. Also included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson of Lake Geneva.

October 2 was the christening date for little Daniel Paul Sheetz at Our Lady of the Wayside church in Arlington Heights. Officiating at the baptism service was Father O'Hara, pastor of the church. The baby is the son of Sue and Gordon Sheetz, 2109 Park st. Acting as godparents for Daniel were Paul and Peggy Sheetz. A christening party was held at the Sheetz home following the church services. Present at the happy gathering were the baby's brother and sister, Mary and Billy, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoolehan of Salem, Wis., and Mrs. Mary Sheetz.

Because their present home is Pensacola, Fla., the sponsors at the christening of little Susan Gail Schinkowsky were not able to attend the actual church ceremonies. Acting as proxies for Mr. and Mrs. George Schwartz, the baby's aunt and uncle, were Susan's parents, Earl and Jean Schinkowsky of 2904 South ct. The baptism was held last Sunday at Trinity Lutheran church here in Rolling Meadows during the morning worship service. Officiating was Frederick Koehler, student pastor of the church. A special christening celebration has been postponed temporarily until the baby's sponsors make a contemplated visit from Pensacola during the Christmas holiday season.

Tops

Everyone knows that Rolling Meadows is tops, but now an opportunity has come along to form a Rolling Meadows T.O.P.S. club. For the uninitiated, T.O.P.S. stands for "Take Off Pounds Sensibly." It is a national organization, with headquarters in Milwaukee, devoted to helping people lose weight (or did you guess?). Brief weekly "weigh in" meetings are held to keep members "losing" and to encourage those who have had those extra nibbles the previous week to get back on the reducing swing. The weekly sessions would probably be marked with plenty of black coffee (and we do mean black!) and some "conversation" on the art of losing weight. If sufficient interest is shown in such a project a TOPS club will probably be formed here in the city. If losing weight, be it 5 pounds or 50, is of interest to you, won't you call Patricia Cashin, 2603 Cardinal dr., at CLearbrook 5-1509. She will be glad to talk to you and give you further information about the contemplated group.

Shower

Just to show how wrong a woman can be, Lorie Kramer, 2701 School dr., thought she was going to enjoy an evening of cards last week at the home of Mrs. Carol Kolstedt in Forest Park, her husband Chuck's cousin. To her complete surprise the evening of cards turned out to be a baby shower for the coming addition to the Kramer family. The shower was given by Mrs. Kolstedt and Mrs. Carm Haug of Chicago, Lorie Kramer's dear friend. Many lovely gifts were received for the baby, including a bassinet. Lorie declares she now can welcome the baby royally, and "it" will have one of the best wardrobes in Rolling Meadows.

Women's Bowling

The enthusiastic group which comprises Rolling Meadows only woman's bowling league is really fighting a close race for first place. Only 2 games separate the first place team from the last—a margin which could mean complete upset of the standings in any one week. League standings as of September 28 were:

Bowen Hardware	7	5
Jim's Service Station	6	6
Hedlin's Richer Milk	6	6

Housewarming

It was a belated but nevertheless surprising housewarming party last Saturday night at the home of Dave and Angie Lack, 2311 Park st. A group of friends and relatives who had not previously visited the Lack home in Rolling Meadows arrived unexpectedly with their arms full of gifts for the home. Special guests for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Goldman of Waukegan, who are moving to the west coast and took this last opportunity to visit their Rolling Meadows friends. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lack, Mr. and Mrs. Rebelsky, Rose and Bertha Fish and Sam Levitt, all of Chicago.

PTA News

Rolling Meadows parents are reminded of the general PTA meeting next Tuesday evening, October 11, at the Paddock school in Palatine. The meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m., will be presided over by Rolling Meadows own Gretchen White, who is the president of the District 15 PTA. The meeting will be conducted as a "mock" school board meeting and will feature Kimball Hill as speaker. The program promises to be one of special interest to all Rolling Meadows families and all members of the PTA as well as other residents are particularly urged to attend.

The district PTA has also initiated work on the formation of a group to work with Exceptional Children (handicapped or retarded youngsters). The chairman of the district group is Mrs. D. R. Zingelman of Palatine, who was active in the formation of the Wheeling Braille school. A survey is being taken in the entire township to determine the number of exceptional children and to ascertain the exact need for such work.

Home Party

It was a lingerie demonstration which brought the recent group of women to the home of Pat Hofmann, 2708 George ct. The home party was held on the evening of September 28. Attending the gathering were a group of Pat's neighbors including Vesla McNerny, Leona Gobeyn, Sis Perry, Lorraine Schoenfeld, Zella Blanco, Eda Hofmann, Nancy Borel and Melita McWhirter.

Junior Hi

It was a scavenger hunt which kept almost 50 Rolling Meadows youngsters busy last Friday evening. The group, composed of Rolling Meadows young people from 10 to 14 of all faiths and backgrounds, had a hilarious time collecting the long list of items presented to them. Membership is open to all children in the community, and if you know of a young teenager not currently attending the Junior Hi club meetings you are urged to ask them to call Bud Conzett, one of their active advisors, at CLearbrook 3-8735. One of the next "big" activities on the agenda for the group is a masquerade party during the Halloween period.

Paper Drive - Bake Sale

Of course you're keeping all those papers and magazines which have a habit of accumulating around the house. October 15, the boy scouts and the Junior Hi group will be happy to take the entire accumulation off your hands. All they ask is that papers and magazines be securely bundled, separately if possible. Collection point will be the bus shelter at Campbell st. and Wilke rd. In addition trucks will tour the area to pick up bundles left at the curb. The girls of the Junior Hi club did not want to be left out of the fund-raising work on that Saturday, and they have announced their own project. It will be a bake sale at the community barn from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. In addition, to be assured of a complete "sell out," the girls will conduct a "mobile sale" starting at 1:30 p.m. traveling throughout the community by truck and selling their home baked products from door to door. Donations for the sale, which will do much to help youth work here in the city, will be gladly accepted. Baked goods donated to the sale will be picked up if a call is made to CLearbrook 3-8735. You may be sure your contributions, not to mention your purchase of baked goods and your donation of papers, will be greatly appreciated by this enthusiastic group of youngsters.

Birthdays

An overflow crowd of 26 people was on hand to mark the important fifth birthday of Pamela Ann Zmich. Pam is the young daughter of Dick and Jerry Zmich, 2404 Bluebird lane. Although her actual birthday fell on Sept. 30, birthday festivities were held October 2, in order to permit Pam's many "admirers" to be on hand. Present for the party were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klaske and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Zmich. Also on hand were her godparents, Mrs. Dorothy Swan and Thomas Zmich Jr. Other guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ferret, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Kertz and Mrs. Alice Gauthier.

Two celebrations for 2 years. That was the record of Little Diane Dewar, daughter of Dick and Linda Dewar, 2305 Wing st. On her actual birth date, September 29, her parents held a family party for her. Present for the celebration were Mrs. Helen Brady, Mrs. Dorothy Schmidt, Mrs. Jean Casselli and her daughters, Patty and Sharon, Dorothy and Doreen Donofrio, and her grandmother Dewar. The following day her parents held another birthday celebration for the little girl, this one attended by a group of her neighborhood friends. Present for this party were Pamela Maszk, Kathy, Larry and Kenny Geimer, Susy and John Flynn, Johnny Northcote and Janice Baumgart.

Eight years were just marked by Jimmy Buchholz, 2109 Robin lane, with a special birthday celebration September 24. Jimmy is the son of Paul and Jerry Buchholz. Present for the birthday festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Ted O'Connor, Jimmy's grandparents. Also on hand were his brother and sister, Kirk and Meredith, and his neighborhood friends Georgie Oreskovitch and David and John Martin.

It was a family party for Donald Williams September 30. Donald marked his eighth birthday last week. He is the son of Ruth and Russel Williams of 2902 Dove st. Joining the birthday fun were his 2 brothers, David and Phillip.

It was a luncheon and birthday party for Janice Lobenhofer October 2. The festive occasion, attended by a group of 14 of her friends, marked her fourth birthday. The party, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lobenhofer, 2504 Kirchhoff rd., was also enjoyed by her sister Barbara. In the evening a further birthday celebration was held for members of the family. There were 13 adults present at the evening party including the little girl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnand and Mrs. Lobenhofer.

Anniversaries

Two neighboring couples have enjoyed "evenings out" in observance of their wedding anniversaries. They are Jerry and Gloria Diduch, 2904 Lark ct., who marked their fifth anniversary September 30. Their neighbors, Jane and Ralph Brunt, 2905 Lark ct., marked their third wedding anniversary October 4, but October 1, was their celebration date. The most exciting feature of the Brunt's anniversary celebration was the rare opportunity to sleep until 9 the following morning--the first such opportunity since the birth 9 months ago of their daughter, Kathy,--since the baby was "visiting" her grandparents overnight.

Still Time To Join PTA During Drive

Residents of Rolling Meadows are signing up this week as members of the Parent-Teachers Association of Consolidated School District 15.

A big enrollment of Rolling Meadows members is expected by the PTA. The consolidated district includes schools in Palatine as well as Rolling Meadows. It is one of the largest PTA groups in the state outside Chicago.

For the first time a Rolling Meadows woman, Mrs. Abiathar White Jr., is chairman of the PTA for the consolidated school district.

Membership fees are $1 for both parents or 50 cents for each parent. Theme of the campaign is "Let's Fly High." Each classroom has an airport poster and when a parent joins each child in the family puts an airplane with his or her name on the poster.

The membership drive, which started Oct. 3, will run through Monday, Oct. 10.

Rolling Meadows Scouts Complete Camporee

Rolling Meadows boy scouts of troop 68 participated last weekend in the Signal Hill district camporee near Barrington. Attending the camporee were 21 scouts of the local troop with 8 adult advisors on hand for assistance and supervision.

District commissioner Pete Keller of Rolling Meadows declared "Troop 68 and Explorer Post 68, without prejudice, presented the sharpest unit in the camp areas. All boys were in full uniform and were a source of pride to Howard Christensen, new scoutmaster, and the other adult leaders. The decorum of the boys was in the best scouting tradition."

Supervising the Rolling Meadow scouts on their Friday night camp out were Bert Trager, Henry Seestadt, Howard Christensen and Orville Rumrey. Saturday night supervisors were Pete Keller, John Jennings, Art Setzer and Larry Hall. Glen Loveless also assisted.

Three scout patrols participated in the work—Pioneer, Bat and Panther. The Pioneer patrol, under the leadership of Ken Keller, patrol leader, and Bob Carlson, assistant, scored 52 points of a possible 60 in the scoutcraft events of the day. This patrol rated second highest at the camporee.

The camporee was highlighted by a "paddle wheel" for adult leader, John Jennings, on the occasion of his birthday. While he did not reveal the exact number of "licks" required for his age he did receive an undoubted surplus from each boy in the course of the ceremony. It appeared Mike Jennings, John's son, enjoyed the proceeding more than anyone.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor 2104 South Street CLearbrook 3-8125

Kaffee Klatsches

Official Rolling Meadows total this week from Kuarter Kaffee Klatsches for the benefit of the local hospital fund was announced at $293. This amount represents only the results of one "chain" of coffee parties, and with at least 3 other "chains" known to have traveled through the community the total from Rolling Meadows can be but guessed. You may be assured, however, that it will represent a goodly portion of the total which is finally announced--a total stated to be in the neighborhood of $1,300 this week. After this week if further "Kaffee Klatsches" are wanted in the community a special call will be needed to have further "papers" giving instructions sent out. Collections, of course, will still be received, but an end to the drive must be set at some point. Mrs. Ruth Gruenbaum, Clearbrook 5-0856, official Rolling Meadows collector, will be glad to hear from you, however, if you desire to continue the chain beyond this week. Most sections of the city have been well saturated with parties, but there are certain areas where the "Koffee Klatsches" have just begun, and in these sections, of course, the parties can and should be continued. Special thanks to the women of Rolling Meadows has been extended by the Palatine Nurses group for their enthusiastic response to the Kaffee Klatsches. Certainly greater support could not have been given.

Community Church News

Saturday Movie

The movie for this week is "Bullfighter and the Lady" starring Robert Stack, Joy Page, Gilbert Roland, Virginia Grey, John Hubbard and Katy Jurado. It's an exciting film and well worth seeing. Movie time is set as usual at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the Barn.

Women's Association

A special invitation has been issued by the Women's association to men of the community for their meeting October 6. W. P. McDowell of the Oak Park Savings and Loan association will speak on the subject "Builders and Destroyers" telling how the people themselves can be the builders or destroyers of their own town. Nursery service will be available. The meeting has been set for 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the regular program.

Work Crews

Work crews to complete work on the Barn are in the process of being organized. Each crew will be assigned a specific task, that crew and that crew alone will be responsible to finish. Work will be under the supervision of Al Garms. Work will go on at the Barn almost every afternoon and evening. If you have just a few hours you feel you can devote to this important community project won't you call Al Garms at Clearbrook 3-8961 who will give you any further information or accept your name as a volunteer.

Sympathy

Friends and neighbors have expressed their sincere sympathy to Al Haase and his family over the loss of his father, Walter Ernest Haase. Funeral services for Mr. Haase were held October 3. He died September 29.

Lutheran Church News

The meeting of the Lutheran Ladies September 27, was devoted almost exclusively to a discussion of the coming Christmas Bazaar to be sponsored by that group. The bazaar will be held November 5, at the Kimball Hill school. There will be a bake sale in addition to a wide assortment of hand work for Christmas shopping. Christmas cards will also be available. Coffee and cake will be served by the women to those in attendance. It is hoped residents throughout the entire city will attend the gala affair, which the women have worked on for almost a year.

Thanks

Sam Bol of Oriole lane has again proved himself a true "good neighbor". Upon learning the mimeograph machine owned by the Home Owners association was not working properly, Sam promptly put it in top-notch working order. The mimeograph machine is currently serving a double purpose. Not only is it used by the Home Owners association for their newsletters and material, but it is also put to almost constant use by city clerk Eda Zimmerman for the reproduction of the many new city ordinances. This is just one additional item that the city has not been called upon to purchase thanks to the generosity of the Home Owners association.

Flags

The Rolling Meadows Home Owners association and the Arlington Heights VFW have joined forces to supply the Kimball Hill school with badly-needed American Flags. The VFW post will present a large outdoor flag to the school to be flown from the soon-to-be-erected flagpole. The Home Owners will present indoor flags for each classroom making it possible for every school child to daily learn respect and devotion to his country and flag. The presentation of the flags will be set for the near future with the Rifle Squad of the VFW post present for the ceremonies.

Neighborhood Party

It was a delicious outdoor steak fry which brought a group of neighbors to the home of Eda Zimmerman, 2804 Meadow dr., last Sunday night. Joining the "cook out" were Mr. and Mrs. C. Paeglow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brynelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brandenburg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Preta.

More Birthdays

Billy Zorn, son of Harold and Betty Zorn, 2503 Park st., celebrated his birthday twice. Although his birthday is September 27, he had a party for his friends September 24. Present at the ninth birthday celebration were Dick Henne, John Burk, Donald Walker, Kenneth Heinrich, Gregory Buczynsky, Billy Beck, Jay Hines and Michael Greisman. Also present were Billy's sisters and brother, Patsy, Darlene and Hal. Highlights of the party were ice cream, cake and prizes which all apparently enjoyed. Billy's second celebration was held September 25. Relatives arrived from North Lake and Billy's aunt Betty arrived from Denver. Of the three Herzog children who attended, Tommy, Eddie and Linda, it was also a celebration for Eddie, who was 10 September 21.

October 1, was the date for a double birthday party at the home of Barbara and Leo Larson, 2406 Park st. Their 2 young daughters marked their birthdays only 10 days apart. Marlene's birthday was September 28 and Patty's was October 8. A party for their little neighborhood friends was held with Susan Jensen, Cynthia Munn, Barbara and Janice Lobenhofer, and Diane Buczynski of Rolling Meadows and Barbara Stahnke of Stonegate. October 2 a family party was held for the 2 girls with 15 guests. On hand for the festivities were the girls' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Light and Mrs. E. B. Mann.

Jeannette and Doug Douglas, 2307 School dr., made sure their daughter, Beverly Jean, had a good time on her second birthday. In honor of the special occasion, which fell September 25; the Douglas family entertained weekend guests from Chicago--Bob and Dotty Mitchell and their children, Randy and Jody. The unusual highlight for the birthday celebration was a doll cake baked by her mother. The lovely little doll was holding Beverly's 2 birthday candles in each hand, and the cake-dress was decorated to exactly match the beautiful new red-and-white dress worn by Beverly herself.

Four years were marked by Debbie Wells October 3, but the birthday celebration given by her parents, Onnie and Lamar Wells, 2205 Flicker lane, was held the previous Saturday. A group of 9 of her playmates joined the party in honor of Debbie's birthday, enjoying the ice cream and special birthday cake.

Davy Crockett was present at the seventh birthday celebration of Mickey Valentine--at least in spirit. Fourteen of Mickey's young friends joined the "frontier" party October 1. The most important gifts received by the young son of Shirley and Art Valentine, 2008 St. James st., were pieces of football gear which already are being put to good use.

Guys & Dolls Teen Club

Hey! Better mark your calendars, teenagers. The Guys & Dolls teen club has set October 29, as the night of their Halloween party. The "shindig" will be held at the community barn, and an active committee is busy laying plans for a really festive affair. Plans are also being laid for a hayrack party to be held by the group soon. A special invitation is extended by the club itself and by the sponsoring community Youth Council to all teenagers in the community to join in the activities conducted by the club. Membership in Guys & Dolls is open to every young person in the city between the ages of 15 and 18. The club is not affiliated with any church or particular group, but is sponsored jointly by all local churches, youth groups, and civic organizations through the Youth Council. The teenagers really have proved to be a capable group, and bigger and better plans seem to be forthcoming after each meeting.

Here Kitty, Kitty

Is your pet kitten missing? A little kitten was mistakenly returned to the home of August and Talitha Krecker, 2603 School dr., last week. She (we think) is a sleek fat, well-cared for little thing, completely housebroken, and apparently missing from a Rolling Meadows home. The little kitten, described by Mrs. Krecker as "cute as a button," is white and gray. Is it yours? Why don't you call Clearbrook 5-1735 if so.

Ladies Bible Class

The Rolling Meadows Ladies Bible class has opened again after a summer vacation period. The first meeting of the class will be held October 10, at the home of the class teacher, Eileen Wertheimer, 2304 School dr. The class normally lasts for only one hour, starting at 7:30 p.m., giving the women a chance to participate in Bible study in spite of their many varied busy personal schedules. The first meeting of the class will review the first 6 chapters of the Gospel of St. John. Further information regarding the class may be had by calling Mrs. Wertheimer at Clearbrook 3-4778 or Mrs. Alice Swetman at Clearbrook 3-8136. An invitation is extended to all women of the community to participate in the Bible study class which is completely non-denominational and open to all.

Elk Grove Manor

Sunday afternoon, September 25, 45 relatives and friends visited the George Horbus home where they had a house warming. Guests began to arrive at two o'clock and a buffet supper was served at 5:30.

Family teamwork really pays off, as evidence by the housepainting job done last weekend on the Ted DePalama home. Mr. DePalma's 3 brothers and their families came out from Chicago early Sunday, and before leaving that evening, the home had a new coat of white paint. The women folk, of course, were kept busy feeding the hungry workmen.

John Kappa and Johnnie attended the recent football game at Arlington Heights when the team defeated Hinsdale. Mary Kaiser was also there with friends cheering for the team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zender drove to Elkhorn, Wis., Wednesday. They were guests of Mrs. Charles Miller of Park Ridge who took them to visit at the home of a son who owns a ranch near Elkhorn.

Bob Horbus, 17, left September 29 to begin a 4-year term in the navy. Mr. and Mrs. George Horbus, and Guy drove him to Chicago to the processing station on Rush street. It is expected that Bob will be at Great Lakes for some time.

After being inactive during the summer months, art classes were resumed September 28 at the home of Mrs. Ed Ostrowski.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sword were dinner guests at the Ed Ostrowski home last Sunday.

September 24 a group of relatives and friends helped Mrs. Erling Blast celebrate her birthday and also the Blast's wedding anniversary which fell October 2. Among the guests were Mrs. Blast's mother, brother, sister, and their families: Mrs. Alpha Esvang, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Esvang and daughter, Robin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murbach. Also Mr. Blast's oldest friend, Wally Ebeling. To add to the enjoyment of the occasion was the news that Mrs. Blast's brother, Bob, and his family would be moving from New York to Chicago in the near future.

Harry Steging celebrated his 70th birthday September 20 with a small family party at the Steging home in the evening. Present were their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wasburg, Fox River Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mick of Wood Dale.

Happy birthday to Thomas Wuestenfeld who will be 10 October 11.

Mrs. Ernest Brezinski and Mrs. George Horbus attended the Cook County Farm Bureau meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Farm Bureau building in Arlington Heights. They attended as guests but are planning to become members at the first opportunity. Mrs. Horbus is co-leader of the Future Homes 4-H Club this season, assisting Mrs. Noel Foss.

Rummage Sale

Elk Grove Mothers' club made a profit of $163 on its rummage sale Friday. Many mothers worked hard to make the sale the success it was. Among them were Mesdames Christine Anderson, Lorraine Altenburg, Lorraine Bretag, Bessie Carter, Martha Ciolac, Jo Dierking, Dolores Folkman, Kae Gates, Florence Fredin, Pat Benbrook, Hilda Landmeier, Myrtle Lemke, Pearl Malanik, Violet Miller, Marge McCammon, Evelyn Moellenkamp, Lorraine Nelson, Lee Rogowski, and Hazel Schnell. Mrs. Folkman, chairman of the rummage sale, donated a cake which was served to the workers in the afternoon. After the sale Mr. Folkman and Mr. Rogowski cleaned up the auditorium.

Grade 7-2 of Elk Grove school has elected officers for the school year. Tom Heimsoth is president, Dierra Krieder is vice president and Sally Wichman is secretary-treasurer.

First Edition

The school newspaper, the "Voice of the Elks," was published Friday. Reporters on the paper are Grade 6-1, Robert Gates; Grade 6-2 Bill Johnson; Grade 7-1, Betty Malanik; Grade 7-2 Patti Folkman; and Grade 8, Linda Glassie. Tom Heimsoth is the sports' editor of the paper. In the 8th grade news it was reported that the class had a meeting and decided to buy class rings with E.G.S. engraved on them.

Mr. Rabattini has secured some footballs and helmets and football practice will begin very soon. The cheerleaders have decided on grey sweaters and red full length skirts for their cheerleading outfits. The girls practice every day and will cheer for the team when the basketball season starts.

TNT 4-H club went on a tour of the J. C. Penney store in Elgin October 1. A tour of the dry goods section of the store, and an explanation of fibers, weaves, and new material highlighted the tour.

The stunt night that the club had planned has been cancelled.

Patti Folkman, Dierra Krieder, Diane Schulze, Sally Wichman, and Theona Popp presented a skit Tuesday based on the book "Julie" by Margaret Maze Craig, to the Language Arts class at Elk Grove school.

Lynn Landmeier was on the land judging team for Arlington Heights high school at the "Farm Progress Show" in Belvidere.

Patti Folkman was elected president of her Camp Fire Girls group in Mt. Prospect. The group recently went to Elk Grove to see the elk.

Ronnie Schulze was elected president of the FFA at Arlington Heights high school. Don Schroeder was elected vice president.

Cub scouts held a pack meeting September 29 and presented "Robin Hood" skits. After the skits refreshments were served.

Elk Grove baseball team has won its third and fourth games of this school year. They defeated St. James 7-1 under the fine pitching of Mondo Poloma. Last Friday Jose Ortiz was the winning pitcher when Elk Grove defeated Wheeling 10-9. The team captain, Lester Landmeier, was ill at the time with the flu.

School will be closed for IEA Lake Shore Division meeting Friday, October 14. All teachers will attend this meeting in Evanston.

Roy Mecklenburg was separated from the army September 25. He was stationed in Korea with the United Nations Command, Military Armistice Commission. He now plans to go to Michigan State University in January to continue his studies there.

Thank Helpers

Mrs. Lee Rogowski and Mrs. Vance Folkman, co-chairmen of the recent Mothers' club rummage sale, wish to thank mothers who worked and helped make the sale the success it was.

Charlotte Popp, Meyer rd., celebrated her 13th birthday Sunday with a party for neighborhood friends. Guests also came from Chicago.

New Neighbors

Welcome to Maureen and Donald Ludwig, new residents at 827 N. Hickory. Maureen and Donald were married September 17 and after a week's honeymoon in the Smokie mountains moved here September 25. Both are from Chicago's northwest side. Donald is assistant to the cost accountant at Baxter laboratories in Morton Grove and Maureen was a librarian before her marriage, but at present is busy getting their first home in order.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher of Long Beach, Cal. arrived October 3 to stay a few days with the Everett Nelson's, 817 N. Hickory. The Gallaghers are looking for a place to live in the Chicago area while he studies chiropody.

Kaffee Klatsches

Mrs. Frank Henry, 1009 N. Beverly started this week's round of kaffee klatsches by entertaining 6 neighbors September 27. Eleven ladies brought their quarters to the home of Mrs. Francis Beem, 815 N. Hickory, where coffee was served by Mrs. Beem and Mrs. Maurice Umbdenstock, 801 N. Hickory, September 28. Also on September 28 Mrs. Edward Kreusch, 1006 N. Hickory, served 5 guests the kuarter kaffee.

Mrs. S. Clemmons, 906 N. Dryden, furthered the hospital cause by entertaining 7 ladies September 29. Mrs. Lawrence Moss, 1018 N. Hickory, also chose that day to hold a kaffee klatsch for 5 friends.

Birthdays

Mrs. Robert A. Anderson, 909 E. Oakton, served 6 small boys birthday cake and ice cream for Micchael's fourth birthday. On hand to share the fun were Randy Hall, Donny Ellis, Mark Kramer, David Kitto, Mark Johnson and Hanky Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prafke, 1013 n. hickory, entertained grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins at a family party September 24 to celebrate Michael's first birthday which actually is September 26.

September 30 Chris Ahnen, 902 N. Beverly, observed his fourth birthday. Mother, Mrs. R. A. Ahnen, served the 4 small guests lunch of hamburgers, birthday cake and ice cream. Michael Main, Steven Kaminski, Valarie Green, and Elizabeth Jaacks helped Chris celebrate.

Eligible veterans interested in joining the VFW should contact Robert Carter, CLearbrook 3-3283, who is general membership chairman of the forthcoming membership drive.

Association Membership Drive

October is the month of the annual membership drive of the Arlington Terrace Owners association. During the next few weeks block captains will contact you regarding membership in the association for this year.

For sure no minutes bring us more content than those in pleasing, useful studies spent.

Virginia Terrace News

Association News

Last Monday night the interim committee for the Virginia Terrace Improvement association held a meeting. The next open meeting is tentatively set for November 7, at the VFW hall located on the northeast corner of Northwest highway and Yale ave. This will be a meeting for the election of the board of directors.

Plans are being made to complete the drive for membership in the association this weekend, October 7-9. The drive has met with success with over 70 per cent of the residents as members, or about 182 homes. There are still homes to be contacted in the 12 distircts of Virginia Terrace, Anyone wishing to join may contact any member of the committee or call Gerry Williams, CL 3-8584.

Before tthe meeting tentatively set for November 7, there will be a nomination ballot with a letter explaining the procedure delivered to all members.

In Minnesota

Jane and Joe Lennon, 1401 Clareudon, and their little girls, Kathleen and Sally Jo, combined a business and pleasure trip to Minneapolis vicinity. They visited some business acquaintances.

Mrs. Herb Trowe, 1240 W. Chicago, and her son, Bradley, returned Sunday from Norfolk, Va. "Hal" and Bradley spent 10 days with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rawles.

Joan and Harry Stevens, 1681 Oakton, recently spent a weekend at the Wisconsin Dells.

Thank You

Jeannine Kearney, 1413 N. Wilke, wants to thank all those who helped make the Newcomers hospital benefit card party at the VFW hall such a big success. There will be a Newcomers luncheon October 12 at Peterson's at 12:30. Those wishing to make reservations may call Mrs. Lester Cordef, CL 3-8075.

Jeanne Kellogg, 1341 N. Wilke, will celebrate her third birthday Saturday. Guests at her afternoon party will be Debbie Gerstein, Jenny and Jackie Rollefson, Eric and Lee Johnstone, Robin Morrell. More guests are her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Whitney, and their daughter, Beuia, of Elgin and Jeanne's grandmother, Mrs. Vivia Whitney of Arlington Heights and her brother Whitney.

Marianne Crouch, 1228 N. Chicago, celebrated her fourth birthday at the end of September. At the circus motif party were Johnny Noerenberg, Jeanne Crouch, Patricia and Jo Anne Cavanaugh, Susan Weinacht, George and Susie Herbert, Suzan and Jimmy Nelli, Bruce Wayne and Henry Silver.

The VFW commander has appointed Augie Meyer, 1217 N. Chicago, the VFW membership chairman for Virginia Terrace. Anyone interested in joining the Arlington VFW may call Mr. Meyers at CL 5-0228.

Tickets are now being sold for the hospital fund dance, December 3, sponsored by the Arlington VFW club, post 981.

There are two new cub scout den mothers. They are Mrs. Donald Gardner, 1302 N. Yale and Mrs. "Kelly" Forsberg, 1110 N. Yale.

The time for the Wilson school fair October 14 at the field house will be 2 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Friends, former neighbors and relatives of the Frank Brodnans surprised them Sunday with a house warming party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grismer Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Stan Luczak, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jevne, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gorr, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brodnan, Mrs. Christine Brodnan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schroeder. Cards and bunco were played followed by the serving of refreshments later. Everyone gave money to them to buy something for their new home on 1111 W. Wing st.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Keller and daughter, Charlotte, drove to Madison, Wis., Sunday afternoon to attend the christening of Joan Grocan, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Paul Grocan.

Welcome Neighbor

We welcome our new neighbors, the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Paice Jr., to our community, who moved into their new apartment on S. State rd., October 1. This was the former apartment of the Frank Brodnans. Everyone wishes them much happiness in their new home.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor 2104 South Street CLearbrook 3-8125

Kaffee Klatsches

Official Rolling Meadows total this week from Kuarter Kaffee Klatsches for the benefit of the local hospital fund was announced at $293. This amount represents only the results of one "chain" of coffee parties, and with at least 3 other "chains" known to have traveled through the community the total from Rolling Meadows can be but guessed. You may be assured, however, that it will represent a goodly portion of the total which is finally announced--a total stated to be in the neighborhood of $1,300 this week. After this week if further "Kaffee Klatsches" are wanted in the community a special call will be needed to have further "papers" giving instructions sent out. Collections, of course, will still be received, but an end to the drive must be set at some point. Mrs. Ruth Gruenbaum, Clearbrook 5-0856, official Rolling Meadows collector, will be glad to hear from you, however, if you desire to continue the chain beyond this week. Most sections of the city have been well saturated with parties, but there are certain areas where the "Koffee Klatsches" have just begun, and in these sections, of course, the parties can and should be continued. Special thanks to the women of Rolling Meadows has been extended by the Palatine Nurses group for their enthusiastic response to the Kaffee Klatsches. Certainly greater support could not have been given.

Community Church News

Saturday Movie

The movie for this week is "Bullfighter and the Lady" starring Robert Stack, Joy Page, Gilbert Roland, Virginia Grey, John Hubbard and Katy Jurado. It's an exciting film and well worth seeing. Movie time is set as usual at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the Barn.

Women's Association

A special invitation has been issued by the Women's association to men of the community for their meeting October 6. W. P. McDowell of the Oak Park Savings and Loan association will speak on the subject "Builders and Destroyers" telling how the people themselves can be the builders or destroyers of their own town. Nursery service will be available. The meeting has been set for 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the regular program.

Work Crews

Work crews to complete work on the Barn are in the process of being organized. Each crew will be assigned a specific task, that crew and that crew alone will be responsible to finish. Work will be under the supervision of Al Garms. Work will go on at the Barn almost every afternoon and evening. If you have just a few hours you feel you can devote to this important community project won't you call Al Garms at Clearbrook 3-8961 who will give you any further information or accept your name as a volunteer.

Sympathy

Friends and neighbors have expressed their sincere sympathy to Al Haase and his family over the loss of his father, Walter Ernest Haase. Funeral services for Mr. Haase were held October 3. He died September 29.

Lutheran Church News

The meeting of the Lutheran Ladies September 27, was devoted almost exclusively to a discussion of the coming Christmas Bazaar to be sponsored by that group. The bazaar will be held November 5, at the Kimball Hill school. There will be a bake sale in addition to a wide assortment of hand work for Christmas shopping. Christmas cards will also be available. Coffee and cake will be served by the women to those in attendance. It is hoped residents throughout the entire city will attend the gala affair, which the women have worked on for almost a year.

Thanks

Sam Bol of Oriole lane has again proved himself a true "good neighbor". Upon learning the mimeograph machine owned by the Home Owners association was not working properly, Sam promptly put it in top-notch working order. The mimeograph machine is currently serving a double purpose. Not only is it used by the Home Owners association for their newsletters and material, but it is also put to almost constant use by city clerk Eda Zimmerman for the reproduction of the many new city ordinances. This is just one additional item that the city has not been called upon to purchase thanks to the generosity of the Home Owners association.

Flags

The Rolling Meadows Home Owners association and the Arlington Heights VFW have joined forces to supply the Kimball Hill school with badly-needed American Flags. The VFW post will present a large outdoor flag to the school to be flown from the soon-to-be-erected flagpole. The Home Owners will present indoor flags for each classroom making it possible for every school child to daily learn respect and devotion to his country and flag. The presentation of the flags will be set for the near future with the Rifle Squad of the VFW post present for the ceremonies.

Neighborhood Party

It was a delicious outdoor steak fry which brought a group of neighbors to the home of Eda Zimmerman, 2804 Meadow dr., last Sunday night. Joining the "cook out" were Mr. and Mrs. C. Paeglow, Mr. and Mrs. W. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brynelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brandenburg, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Preta.

More Birthdays

Billy Zorn, son of Harold and Betty Zorn, 2503 Park st., celebrated his birthday twice. Although his birthday is September 27, he had a party for his friends September 24. Present at the ninth birthday celebration were Dick Henne, John Burk, Donald Walker, Kenneth Heinrich, Gregory Buczynsky, Billy Beck, Jay Hines and Michael Greisman. Also present were Billy's sisters and brother, Patsy, Darlene and Hal. Highlights of the party were ice cream, cake and prizes which all apparently enjoyed. Billy's second celebration was held September 25. Relatives arrived from North Lake and Billy's aunt Betty arrived from Denver. Of the three Herzog children who attended, Tommy, Eddie and Linda, it was also a celebration for Eddie, who was 10 September 21.

October 1, was the date for a double birthday party at the home of Barbara and Leo Larson, 2406 Park st. Their 2 young daughters marked their birthdays only 10 days apart. Marlene's birthday was September 28 and Patty's was October 8. A party for their little neighborhood friends was held with Susan Jensen, Cynthia Munn, Barbara and Janice Lobenhofer, and Diane Buczynski of Rolling Meadows and Barbara Stahnke of Stonegate. October 2 a family party was held for the 2 girls with 15 guests. On hand for the festivities were the girls' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Light and Mrs. E. B. Mann.

Jeannette and Doug Douglas, 2307 School dr., made sure their daughter, Beverly Jean, had a good time on her second birthday. In honor of the special occasion, which fell September 25, the Douglas family entertained weekend guests from Chicago--Bob and Dotty Mitchell and their children, Randy and Jody. The unusual highlight for the birthday celebration was a doll cake baked by her mother. The lovely little doll was holding Beverly's 2 birthday candles in each hand, and the cake-dress was decorated to exactly match the beautiful new red-and-white dress worn by Beverly herself.

Four years were marked by Debbie Wells October 3, but the birthday celebration given by her parents, Onnie and Lamar Wells, 2205 Flicker lane, was held the previous Saturday. A group of 9 of her playmates joined the party in honor of Debbie's birthday, enjoying the ice cream and special birthday cake.

Davy Crockett was present at the seventh birthday celebration of Mickey Valentine--at least in spirit. Fourteen of Mickey's young friends joined the "frontier" party October 1. The most important gifts received by the young son of Shirley and Art Valentine, 2008 St. James st., were pieces of football gear which already are being put to good use.

Guys & Dolls Teen Club

Hey! Better mark your calendars, teenagers. The Guys & Dolls teen club has set October 29, as the night of their Halloween party. The "shindig" will be held at the community barn, and an active committee is busy laying plans for a really festive affair. Plans are also being laid for a hayrack party to be held by the group soon. A special invitation is extended by the club itself and by the sponsoring community Youth Council to all teenagers in the community to join in the activities conducted by the club. Membership in Guys & Dolls is open to every young person in the city between the ages of 15 and 18. The club is not affiliated with any church or particular group, but is sponsored jointly by all local churches, youth groups, and civic organizations through the Youth Council. The teenagers really have proved to be a capable group, and bigger and better plans seem to be forthcoming after each meeting.

Here Kitty, Kitty

Is your pet kitten missing? A little kitten was mistakenly returned to the home of August and Talitha Krecker, 2603 School dr., last week. She (we think) is a sleek fat, well-cared for little thing, completely housebroken, and apparently missing from a Rolling Meadows home. The little kitten, described by Mrs. Krecker as "cute as a button," is white and gray. Is it yours? Why don't you call Clearbrook 5-1735 if so.

Ladies Bible Class

The Rolling Meadows Ladies Bible class has opened again after a summer vacation period. The first meeting of the class will be held October 10, at the home of the class teacher, Eileen Wertheimer, 2304 School dr. The class normally lasts for only one hour, starting at 7:30 p.m., giving the women a chance to participate in Bible study in spite of their many varied busy personal schedules. The first meeting of the class will review the first 6 chapters of the Gospel of St. John. Further information regarding the class may be had by calling Mrs. Wertheimer at Clearbrook 3-4778 or Mrs. Alice Swetman at Clearbrook 3-8136. An invitation is extended to all women of the community to participate in the Bible study class which is completely non-denominational and open to all.

Elk Grove Manor

Sunday afternoon, September 25, 45 relatives and friends visited the George Horbus home where they had a house warming. Guests began to arrive at two o'clock and a buffet supper was served at 5:30.

Family teamwork really pays off, as evidence by the housepainting job done last weekend on the Ted DePalama home. Mr. DePalma's 3 brothers and their families came out from Chicago early Sunday, and before leaving that evening, the home had a new coat of white paint. The women folk, of course, were kept busy feeding the hungry workmen.

John Kappa and Johnnie attended the recent football game at Arlington Heights when the team defeated Hinsdale. Mary Kaiser was also there with friends cheering for the team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zender drove to Elkhorn, Wis., Wednesday. They were guests of Mrs. Charles Miller of Park Ridge who took them to visit at the home of a son who owns a ranch near Elkhorn.

Bob Horbus, 17, left September 29 to begin a 4-year term in the navy. Mr. and Mrs. George Horbus, and Guy drove him to Chicago to the processing station on Rush street. It is expected that Bob will be at Great Lakes for some time.

After being inactive during the summer months, art classes were resumed September 28 at the home of Mrs. Ed Ostrowski.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sword were dinner guests at the Ed Ostrowski home last Sunday.

September 24 a group of relatives and friends helped Mrs. Erling Blast celebrate her birthday and also the Blast's wedding anniversary which fell October 2. Among the guests were Mrs. Blast's mother, brother, sister, and their families: Mrs. Alpha Esvang, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Esvang and daughter, Robin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murbach. Also Mr. Blast's oldest friend, Wally Ebeling. To add to the enjoyment of the occasion was the news that Mrs. Blast's brother, Bob, and his family would be moving from New York to Chicago in the near future.

Harry Steging celebrated his 70th birthday September 20 with a small family party at the Steging home in the evening. Present were their daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wasburg, Fox River Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mick of Wood Dale.

Happy birthday to Thomas Wuestenfeld who will be 10 October 11.

Mrs. Ernest Brezinski and Mrs. George Horbus attended the Cook County Farm Bureau meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Farm Bureau building in Arlington Heights. They attended as guests but are planning to become members at the first opportunity. Mrs. Horbus is co-leader of the Future Homes 4-H Club this season, assisting Mrs. Noel Foss.

Rummage Sale

Elk Grove Mothers' club made a profit of $163 on its rummage sale Friday. Many mothers worked hard to make the sale the success it was. Among them were Mesdames Christine Anderson, Lorraine Altenburg, Lorraine Bretag, Bessie Carter, Martha Ciolac, Jo Dierking, Dolores Folkman, Kae Gates, Florence Fredin, Pat Benbrook, Hilda Landmeier, Myrtle Lemke, Pearl Malanik, Violet Miller, Marge McCammon, Evelyn Moellenkamp, Lorraine Nelson, Lee Rogowski, and Hazel Schnell. Mrs. Folkman, chairman of the rummage sale, donated a cake which was served to the workers in the afternoon. After the sale Mr. Folkman and Mr. Rogowski cleaned up the auditorium.

Grade 7-2 of Elk Grove school has elected officers for the school year. Tom Heimsoth is president, Dierra Krieder is vice president and Sally Wichman is secretary-treasurer.

First Edition

The school newspaper, the "Voice of the Elks," was published Friday. Reporters on the paper are Grade 6-1, Robert Gates; Grade 6-2 Bill Johnson; Grade 7-1, Betty Malanik; Grade 7-2 Patti Folkman; and Grade 8, Linda Glassie. Tom Heimsoth is the sports' editor of the paper. In the 8th grade news it was reported that the class had a meeting and decided to buy class rings with E.G.S. engraved on them.

Mr. Rabattini has secured some footballs and helmets and football practice will begin very soon. The cheerleaders have decided on grey sweaters and red full length skirts for their cheerleading outfits. The girls practice every day and will cheer for the team when the basketball season starts.

TNT 4-H club went on a tour of the J. C. Penney store in Elgin October 1. A tour of the dry goods section of the store, and an explanation of fibers, weaves, and new material highlighted the tour.

The stunt night that the club had planned has been cancelled.

Patti Folkman, Dierra Krieder, Diane Schulze, Sally Wichman, and Theona Popp presented a skit Tuesday based on the book "Julie" by Margaret Maze Craig, to the Language Arts class at Elk Grove school.

Lynn Landmeier was on the land judging team for Arlington Heights high school at the "Farm Progress Show" in Belvidere.

Patti Folkman was elected president of her Camp Fire Girls group in Mt. Prospect. The group recently went to Elk Grove to see the elk.

Ronnie Schulze was elected president of the FFA at Arlington Heights high school. Don Schroeder was elected vice president.

Cub scouts held a pack meeting September 29 and presented "Robin Hood" skits. After the skits refreshments were served.

Elk Grove baseball team has won its third and fourth games of this school year. They defeated St. James 7-1 under the fine pitching of Mondo Poloma. Last Friday Jose Ortiz was the winning pitcher when Elk Grove defeated Wheeling 10-9. The team captain, Lester Landmeier, was ill at the time with the flu.

School will be closed for IEA Lake Shore Division meeting Friday, October 14. All teachers will attend this meeting in Evanston.

Roy Mecklenburg was separated from the army September 25. He was stationed in Korea with the United Nations Command, Military Armistice Commission. He now plans to go to Michigan State University in January to continue his studies there.

Thank Helpers

Mrs. Lee Rogowski and Mrs. Vance Folkman, co-chairmen of the recent Mothers' club rummage sale, wish to thank mothers who worked and helped make the sale the success it was.

Charlotte Popp, Meyer rd., celebrated her 13th birthday Sunday with a party for neighborhood friends. Guests also came from Chicago.

New Neighbors

Welcome to Maureen and Donald Ludwig, new residents at 827 N. Hickory. Maureen and Donald were married September 17 and after a week's honeymoon in the Smokie mountains moved here September 25. Both are from Chicago's northwest side. Donald is assistant to the cost accountant at Baxter laboratories in Morton Grove and Maureen was a librarian before her marriage, but at present is busy getting their first home in order.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher of Long Beach, Cal. arrived October 3 to stay a few days with the Everett Nelson's, 817 N. Hickory. The Gallaghers are looking for a place to live in the Chicago area while he studies chiropody.

Kaffee Klatsches

Mrs. Frank Henry, 1009 N. Beverly started this week's round of kaffee klatsches by entertaining 6 neighbors September 27. Eleven ladies brought their quarters to the home of Mrs. Francis Beem, 815 N. Hickory, where coffee was served by Mrs. Beem and Mrs. Maurice Umbdenstock, 801 N. Hickory, September 28. Also on September 28 Mrs. Edward Kreusch, 1006 N. Hickory, served 5 guests the kuarter kaffee.

Mrs. S. Clemmons, 906 N. Dryden, furthered the hospital cause by entertaining 7 ladies September 29. Mrs. Lawrence Moss, 1018 N. Hickory, also chose that day to hold a kaffee klatsch for 5 friends.

Birthdays

Mrs. Robert A. Anderson, 909 E. Oakton, served 6 small boys birthday cake and ice cream for Michael's fourth birthday. On hand to share the fun were Randy Hall, Donny Ellis, Mark Kramer, David Kitto, Mark Johnson and Hanky Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prafke, 1013 n. hickory, entertained grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins at a family party September 24 to celebrate Michael's first birthday which actually is September 26.

September 30 Chris Ahnen, 902 N. Beverly, observed his fourth birthday. Mother, Mrs. R. A. Ahnen, served the 4 small guests lunch of hamburgers, birthday cake and ice cream. Michael Main, Steven Kaminski, Valarie Green, and Elizabeth Jaacks helped Chris celebrate.

Eligible veterans interested in joining the VFW should contact Robert Carter, CLearbrook 3-3283, who is general membership chairman of the forthcoming membership drive.

Association Membership Drive

October is the month of the annual membership drive of the Arlington Terrace Owners association. During the next few weeks block captains will contact you regarding membership in the association for this year.

Reveal King, Queen Candidates For Homecoming, Parade October 14

Jack Ebert, John Sujack, Wayne Malzan, Bill Summers, and Dennis Striegel were named candidates for king.

The whole student body will select the king and queen from this list of candidates, with the winners being announced at a special coronation assembly Thursday, October 13. This assembly will be presented during one of the lunch periods in order that all students may be present.

A MAXIMUM of 36 floats will be built for the Homecoming parade, Friday, October 14, by groups made up from the counseling classes, one half of a girls' counseling class combining talents with one half of a boys' class. Each group will be supervised by 2 teachers.

Assembly of materials for floats has already begun, but the actual construction of the float on the vehicles is restricted to Wednesday and Thursday nights before the parade. Expenses for each float are restricted to $15.

Floats will be assembled for the parade Friday morning on the streets adjacent to the high school under the supervision of members of the faculty homecoming committee, who will remain on the job while most teachers attend the sectional meeting of the Illinois Educational association.

The parade will get under way early in the afternoon moving east from the school on Euclid to Vail, south on Vail to Sigwalt, east on Sigwalt to Evergreen, north on Evergreen to Wing, east on Wing to State, north on State to Euclid, and west on Euclid to the school.

16 Seniors To Compete In Multi-Million Dollar Scholarship Program

Arlington Heights high school will nominate 16 outstanding seniors to compete in the new, multi-million dollar National Merit Scholarship program, the guidance department announced this week.

These students will be aiming at some 200 4-year college scholarships that can carry up to full tuition and living expenses, depending upon the financial need of each winner. Winners will be chosen on the basis of their ability to profit from a higher education.

The scholarship program is conducted by the National Merit Scholarship corporation, an independent, non-profit educational organization set up by grants of $20,500,000. Aimed at discovering and helping the most talented students in the country, the merit program permits the winners, known as merit scholars, to choose any accredited college or university and any course of study.

Some 800 runners-up in the competition will be awarded certificates of merit, and their names will be announced to all colleges and other scholarship agencies as students of unusual ability.

In return for educating the merit scholar, the college chosen can receive a grant up to $3,000.

The National Merit Scholarship corporation offers its facilities and services without charge to organizations and individuals interested in offering scholarships and conforming to its standards. Such scholarships will bear the name of the sponsoring company.

Discuss Plans For New High School At PTA Tonight

Attention will be focused on the proposed new high school on Foundry rd. tonight, 8 p.m. at Central school when the Mt. Prospect PTA opens its second fall meeting. Members of the Arlington Heights Township high school board will be on hand to present the facts and discuss the "pros and cons' of the planned building.

Sharing the spotlight on the program tonight will be the Harmonettes, the talented singing group of Arlington high students under the able leadership of Miss June Leick.

Presentation of colors will be made by boy scout troop 23 to open the proceedings. The business meeting will be presided over by Mrs. R. C. Becker, president.

FOLLOWING a capella selections by the Harmonettes, Mrs. Donald Brownell, program chairman, will present the high school board members. This will be the first time that members of the high school board have participated in a PTA meeting in Mt. Prospect.

George Shepherd of Prospect Heights, president of the board, will discuss the make-up of the district. H. L. Slichenmyer, superintendent of the high school, will explain how elementary schooling prepares children for high school. Mrs. Robert Fontaine and William Hartmann of Mt. Prospect, assisted by K. E. Dougan of Arlington Heights, will then discuss the bond issue necessary to finance the planned school. Pictures of how the school is to look, both inside and out will also be shown.

SINCE THIS issue of a new school will be decided at the polls on November 5, it is to the interest of every Mt. Prospect parent to attend this meeting.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. M. Burns, Mrs. L. Bertok, Mrs. F. A. Miller of Central school; Mrs. F. D. Butler of Busse school; Mrs. A. K. Heinemann of Fairview; Mrs. Paul Ward, Mrs. O. Morris, Mrs. R. Bender of Lincoln.

Two meeting attendance banners are being awarded to each school during the PTA program. The banners are given to the classrooms having the highest percentage of parents in attendance at the PTA meeting. The classes that received the banners for the September meeting were: Busse school—first place, Mrs. White's 10:30 kindergarten, 2nd place, Mrs. Martin's 4th and 5th grade; Central school—first place, Mrs. McCaleb's sixth grade, 2nd place, Mrs. Lamprecht's 2nd grade; Fairview—Mrs. Farley's third grade took first place, Miss Cavett's fourth grade took second place; Lincoln—Mrs. Burns' third grade in first place and Mrs. Egan's second grade in second place.

Membership in the Mt. Prospect PTA is by no means closed, although the membership total has now exceeded 2100 parents. A few classrooms need only one more membership to give them their 100% quota.

High School Youth Sponsor Memorials To Peter Holloway

Students at Arlington Heights high school this week honored the memory of an 18-year-old alumnus, victim of bulbar polio.

The forensics class and student council both initiated memorial projects for Peter Holloway, late son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holloway, 1004 Oakton st., Arlington Heights. He died Sept. 29 in Des Moines, Iowa, where he was rushed from Grinnell college after being stricken.

A "Peter Holloway Memorial Plaque," honoring each year a senior student outstanding in service, character, and citizenship qualities, has been established by forensics students. Each year the student's name will be added to the plaque, to be displayed in the school.

The award was financed by voluntary contribution. More than $25 was contributed the first day, assuring the project's success. Holloway was an outstanding student debator at the high school.

Student council this week organized the school polio fund drive early as a memorial to the polio victim. It is now under way.

Leo Rodell Elected President Of Windsor Heights Association

Leo Rodell was recently elected president of Windsor Heights association with Dudley Hansen, civic vice president; Ray Krekel, social vice president; Bob Perschbacher, secretary and Bud Metz, treasurer.

New officers were elected at a board meeting following the annual barbecue held at Busse Woods September 17.

The fall and winter social program of the organization began with a square and modern street dance held on N. Derbyshire lane Saturday. Cider, donuts, and coffee were served during the intermissions.

Next association events are a men's golf outing October 8 and a family breakfast cook-out at the Euclid-Lake Forest preserve October 15 at 8 a.m.

Holiday October 14 For Students; Teachers To Attend IEA Confab

Students of Arlington Heights high school will have a holiday October 14, not because it is the school's homecoming day, but because of the sectional meeting of the Lakeshore Division of the Illinois Educational Association at Maine township high school.

Three outstanding speakers will address the meeting.

Walter H. Judd, congressman from Minnesota an outstanding authority on the Far East, will speak on the topic "Education for Diplomation."

Charles H. Percy, president of Bell and Howell Company, and widely recognized as an outstanding business executive, will speak on "Education for Automation."

Dr. John Schindler, winner of the Christopher Award and author of the currest bestseller, "How to Live 365 Days a Year," will speak on "Education for Maturation."

Also of great interest to teachers will be the address of Phil Quigley, student of Niles township high school, entitled "In Defense of My Generation."

Square Dance

A square dance at 8 p.m. Saturday will be sponsored by the Twosome club of Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, in the church basement. Lester Rush will call the dances.

The committee in charge for the evening, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Michaels, also includes Mr. and Mrs. Walter Damm, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ellingsen and Mr. and Mrs. William Wested.

2 Boys 'Win Hearts' Of Many On Tag Day

At the close of the "Red Heart Tag Day" held in Arlington Heights Saturday by the Volunteers of America to aid destitute mothers with children in care of the organization in this state, Mrs. O. R. Larsen, who had charge of the affair, reports that Kenny Clark was entitled to the first prize having secured $3169. The second prize was won by Keith Zimmermann who had $26.86. The third winner had $21.60. The other workers were made happy with movie tickets.

The sponsors are grateful to those who worked so faithfully all day and to every one who contributed in any way toward the success of the occasion.

Kids Out Early Monday So Teachers Can Confer

The Arlington Heights public elementary schools will have an early afternoon dismissal October 10.

The Junior high will go home at 2:06 p.m. and kindergarten through fifth at 2:35 p.m.

Monday will be the first of 8 days throughout the year when the children will go home early and the teachers will stay on for a series of in-service training sessions. The early dismissal plan has been adopted to replace the 3 all day dismissals held last year.

The school system this year will study its offerings in the general field of language-arts. Teachers will attempt to discover more effective ways of teaching language skills.

R. E. Clabaugh, superintendent and Martha Sapp, curriculum director, will provide over-all guidance and direction for the meetings, and building principals will act as consultants to the teacher groups.

League Of Women Voters To Study Village Manager Government

The Provisional League of Women Voters of Arlington Heights is in the process of learning league program and technique. They are in a period of catching up in league know-how with already established leagues.

They are limited in their action, however, and cannot take a stand on local issues. No league can take a position with out first studying and discussing the issue thoroughly and securing substantial agreement from its members.

The Arlington Heights league has set up a workshop to study the village manager form of government. Fact-finding is the first part of the job and making the information available to the public the last. This is done through Voters Service. Voters service will explain the proposed referendum and inform the public about registration and voting procedure. (B5

Presbyterian Women Plan Workshop

Friday, Oct. 7, a district program workshop for the northwest terian will be held at the Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights. At 9:30 a film entitled "Day of Decision," with an Indian American theme, will be presented.The regular workshop program will follow from 10:30 to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Ralph Pino of Detroit, a member of the Presbyterian board of Christian Education, will speak on the 1956 program theme "In All And Through All."

Shopping Center To Be Erected In Barrington

A new shopping and medical center will be erected at route 59 and Northwest hwy near Barrington for $320,000. A food market, drug store, bakery, hardware, and children's wear store are among leases expected. A medical center will be erected adjacent to the stores.

Show Entry

A large number of Illinois entries have been received by the International quarter horse show which will be held in conjunction with the international dairy show and world's championship rodeo slated for the Amphitheatre of the Chicago stock yards Oct. 8 through 15.

Among entries is one by V. J. Cuddy of Bartlett.

Planning a dessert bridge party to benefit the Infant Welfare society and its stations are, left to right, Mrs. Wallace Anderson, Mt. Prospect, project chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Sophie, publicity; Mrs. J. C. Flora and Mrs. Craig Olsen, candle committee chairman. Other Mt. Prospest committee members not in the photo are Mrs. Ed Schoeneberger, memorial and honor, and Mrs. Edwin Gilroy, membership. The dessert bridge will be served at 1:15 p. m. November 2 at the VFW hall in Mt. Prospect. It is open to the public. Anyone wishing to attend may purchase tickets from Mrs. Al Rancke, 307 We- Go trail, Mt. Mt. Prospect's new ground level reservoir adjacent to the number 5 well, will hold a million gallons of water. This, together with the million gallon elevated tower to be constructed on the old tower site, will give the village nearly 3 million gallons storage capacity by next summer.

From the Police Blotter . . .

Vandals played havoc with trucks belonging to Hill-Behan Lumber Co., Arlington Heights, Sunday night. Every truck that was parked in the yard had its windows smashed. Many had deflated tires, gravel in gas tanks, headlights broken, and glass on the dash panel smashed. They also entered the material section of the building and smashed 12 house job windows and slashed 20 bundles of insulation. Nails were also scattered throughout the yard. Damage was estimated at $1,500.

Other vandalism this week included damage to a home being built by Trude Land Development at 902 S. Dunton. Mrs. M. Gallagher, 412 Bristol lane, reported to police that someone had stolen a hub cap off her 1953 Chevrolet while it was parked in her driveway.

A mother reported that a man had made indecent remarks to her 10-year-old daughter as she was on her way home from school. The incident occurred on South st., between State and Evergreen. The girl said the man was driving a black 1949 Chevy and he had pock marks on his face.

Steve Hedberg, 7, of 1104 N. Pine court, was injured when he collided with a car driven by Camilla Elliott, George and Clarence st., Arlington Heights, at State and Miner st.

Mrs. Elliott told police she turned off State rd., on to Miner st. and all of a sudden the boy ran out from between 2 parked cars. As he attempted to run back he struck the auto on the left front fender and fell to the ground.

He was taken to Dr. Ralph Ruthenberg for treatment and later taken to Dr. Herman Carr's office for X-rays. He suffered bruises on his chest, arm and forehead.

A 13-year-old girl was injured when she fell off a bike she was riding double with another child. She was taken to Dr. Robert Kloempken for treatment.

Police were kept busy this week and arrest tickets issued went over the 100 mark. Most violations were for speeding and credit is due the new electric timing device that has made the many arrests possible. The apparatus is portable and is being used in many areas where police have received numerous complaints regarding speeders.

Tickets were also given for passing on right, failure to yield right-of-way, stop sign, and no chauffeur's license.

A frisky dog cost his mistress an $8 fine for running at large, plus another $11 to replace a pair of slacks he ruined when he tried to nip a young girl in the ankle.

Barbara Schaefer, a guest, and hostesses, Juel Lea Dietrich and Susan Mitchell, each put her money into container at "Delicious Dime Dessert" held at Susan's home in Prospect Heights. Money collected will benefit Northwest Community hospital project. Barbara had her party 2 days after the first dessert September 27.

Feehanville School

J. W. Alstrin, principal, reports that the book award for PTA attendance last month went to the 7th-8th grade room, who had a 96% attendance. Miss Dalton's room had 93%, Mrs. Cavett's room had 81% and Miss Hobson's room had 73% attendance. There were 95 at the meeting. Of the 114 children enrolled in the school, 92 have taken the insurance.

The first issue of the "Feehanville Snooper," published by the 7th and 8th grades, was distributed last week. The staff consists of Bruce Murdock, editor; Dennis Buttner, assistant editor; Cathy Kirste, cover; Paul Cully, jokes; Frank Sullivan, reporter; Deane Bradley, literature; Carol Ann Follett, puzzles; Betty Sue Henk, birthdays; John Goggin and Bill Nichols, ditto operators; Judy Dziwota, movies; Sylvia Durso and Janet Ramsey, proof readers; Betty Sue Henk, Cynthia Wehlacz and Vernette Follett, printers; Craig Copeland, distributor; Elaine Hanson, sports.

J. W. Alstrin, and Mrs. W. C. Cavett, Miss Laveta Hobson and Miss Jo Ann Dalton, teachers, attendedthe Cook County teachers institute at the Ideal school in La Grange last week Friday. Nobel J. Puffer, county superintendent and David Aurand, superintendent of district 105, gave the welcoming speeches. Miss Maura Conlisk, assistant state superintendent in charge of physical education, held a physical education workshop wherein she instructed the teachers present on folk dances and games to be played in the rooms. After the luncheon there was a panel discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the new reading methods being taught, with Wilbur A. Yauch, head of department of education, Northern Illinois State college, DeKalb, as moderator, and Charles E. Wingo, superintendent of schools in Argo, Mrs. Lucille D. Cavanaugh, primary supervisor at Homewood, and Miss Martha Slyter, assistant county superintendent of Grundy county, as panelists. Dr. Yauch also made a speech on "How Good Is Your School?" after the panel discussion.

The same group of teachers plus representatives from Prospect Heights attended an institute at Wilson school when they heard a representative from Zaner-Bloser company speak on the development of hand-writing schools, and the importance on teaching hand writing in the lower grades.

Feehanville softball team lost its second game of the season last Friday when they played with the team from Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic school in Arlington Heights.

Civic Association

Mrs. Betty Arkell, chairman of the fall festival committee (composed of John Snelton, Richard Henning, James Brewer, Jules Miske, Mrs. Michael Zeravich, Mrs. Jeanne Duncanson and Mrs. A. R. Hanson), reported at the last Civic association meeting that plans are shaping up very well for the coming event. She said, "work has been delegated to each member of the committee, but we may have to call on other members of the association to help out on the night of the festival. In publicity emphasis will be put on getting acquainted and having fun rather than raising funds."

Mrs. Richard Kozel, secretary, reported that she had been asked to call the bus company to see if something could be done to get the morning bus started earlier as several parents of high school students had complained to the directors that the children were arriving late at school every day. After several calls to the high school and to the bus company she had been assured that this situation would be remedied.

After the business meeting Mrs. Letha Swiatowy, refreshment chairmen, and the hostesses, Mrs. Jules Miske and Mrs. James Mantas, served refreshments.

Scouts

Brownie troop 231 hiked to the home of Mrs. Marge Houser last week Tuesday where they had a marshmallow roast. Their project for the day was making plaster casts of leaves. They had 2 guests at that meeting, Mrs. Blanche Osri, a brownie leader from East Maine, and Deborah Rose of Alton road, who will be a brownie next year.

Mrs. Marge Houser was leader pro tem at the last meeting of the intermediate troop 233. The troop welcomed a new member, Barbara Eannerino, who has transferred here from troop 475 in Chicago. One of the scouts, Mary Katherine Edgeworth, has missed the last 2 meetings as she was injured when she fell off her bicycle 2 weeks ago.

Fire Department

The firemen are planning a fire prevention program at the community hall for October 14. The public is invited.

The firemen entertained their wives with a party on September's fifth Thursday. They played charades, several contest games and danced. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitz furnished the prizes. Included among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Badalamenti, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kozel, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bucaro, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swiatowy, Mr. and Mrs. James Mantas, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zeravich, Mr. and Mrs. John Snelton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buttner and James Brewer. Refreshments were brought by the firemen. At midnight they sang "Happy anniversary" to the Ed Buttners, who were then celebrating their sixteenth wedding anniversary.

Forest River Church

Last Sunday was promotion day at the Sunday school when many pupils were promoted to another class. It was also the first day of a contest that will continue to the end of October. Winners of the contest will be decided on the point system and will be given a party by the losers.

Because the weather turned too cold the Stockade decided to forego their camp-out planned for last Friday night and attended a football game instead where they watched Maine win 2 games from Arlington Heights. Stockaders who were able to attend were George Grossi, Bobby Broberg, John Armstrong, John Alexander, Peter Wilming, Larry and Barry Bischof and Arthur Leark. Adults in charge were Bernard Shimmin and John Hanson.

The TFC's tried out their skill last Saturday night when the group went bowling in Park Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Red Bischof were the chaperones, and the young people were Bonnie LeVine, Robert Martens, Gail Wiltshire, Barbara Stehman, John Hanson, Cindy Shimmin, Elaine Hanson, Carol LeVine, Janet Sandquist, Marlene Olson and Margie Kirste. After rolling up good high scores the group went to the Bischof home where they had refreshments and home movies. Mr. and Mrs. Jack LeVine joined the party at the bowling establishment.

The memory of the menu at the last banquet of the Forest River church still brings a sparkle to the eye, and the memory of the program brings a reminiscent smile to the lips. The decorations were in the autumn theme with small wheelbarrows full of colorful leaves as centerpieces and tiny bushel baskets as nut cups. The Hi-Neighbor program card was decorated with a picture of a rake, basket and falling leaves. Jenne Kramer was chairman of the decoration committee, with Mrs. William Martens, Bid LeVine and Marlene Olson serving on her committee. The meal was served by a group of young people, Robert Martens, John Hanson, Bonnie LeVine, Bid LeVine, Margie Kirste, Janet Sandquist, Elaine Hanson, Bonnie Mitchell, Marlene Olson and Barbara Eannerino.

Community News

The James Mantas have returned from their vacation spent in Waterloo and Cedar Falls, Ia. While there they visited William Storm brother of Mrs. Mantas and his daughter.

George and John Williams of Elmhurst arrived at the Richard Kozels' early last week for an extended visit and were joined later by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and their new brother, Thomas.

Word has been received from the Kenneth Karnuths, who left here in August. They have settled in a mobile park in a grove of eucalyptus trees on a bayou in Florida. They say the view out the back door is a small lake, complete with frogs and fish and ringed with ferns and tall pine trees dripping with Spanish moss. Their lot contains the trailer, aluminum cabana (which Ken built), car and flower garden, which includes some orange trees. Ronnie attends a beautiful, modern school, built all on one level — a series of 3 wings connected at one end by hallways that are just roofed to protect from the rain. The walls of the classrooms are all windows. They, too have bus service and hot lunches. The Karnuths are joining the PTA there, and their first meeting was a covered dish supper.

Gail Messner entertained Betty Broberg and Carol Milos at a supper party last week to celebrate her birthday. Other birthday celebrants this week were Nancy L. Brewer who was 6 on September 29, Candy Lou Deering, who was 10 on the 30th, Diane Snelton, who was 3 on the 30th, Robert Kleinke, who was 9 on the first and Nancy Doetsch who was 3 on the first, Thomas Pritts who was 1 on the fourth, Timothy Richard Alsup, who will be 1 today and Virginia Cossey, who will be 5 today.

Lessons In . . . . English

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "The dog runs like he was hurt." Say, "The dog runs as if he were hurt."

The use of "stand," as, "I can't stand it," and "I won't stand his coming late every morning," is a colloquialism and should not be used in formal English. It is better to say, "I can't endure it," and, "I won't tolerate his coming late."

Do not say, "We stopped in Minneapolis for a few days." Say, "We stayed in Minneapolis."

Do not say, "It looks like rain." This is a colloquial contraction for, "It looks as if it would rain."

Do not say, "He was with us throughout the whole week." "Throughout" means from end to end of, or in every part of. Therefore, omit "whole."

It is better to say, "He feels somewhat discouraged," instead of, "He feels kind of discouraged."

Words Often Mispronounced

Fidelity, Pronounce first i either as in fin or as in fine, with the former being recommended.

Catechize. Pronounce katt-e-kize, accent on first syllable.

Nomad, Preferred pronunciation is noe-madd, accent first syllable.

Marquee (rooflike canopy projecting above a doorway). Pronounce mar-kee, accent on second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Malefactor, observe the e; malfeasance, no e. Either "alignment" or "alinement" is correct. Straightened (made straight), straitened (restricted; confined; as, in straitened circumstances). Marquisette (the fabric). Opulence, one p; opportune, two p's. Venal (capable of being bribed); venial (trivial; excusable; pardonable).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabularly by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

INCITATION; that which incites to action; incentive. (Accent third syllable). "These incitations spurred him on to his goal."

MODULATE; to vary in tone, as the voice. "An actor should have the ability to modulate his voice."

CONTENTIOUS; quarrelsome. "The two countries became contentious over the matter of tariffs."

DECOROUS; becoming; proper; seemly. (Accent first syllable). "His suave, decorous manner was pleasing."

ENTITY; something that has a real existence. "Fame has no real entity."

DECIDUOUS; shedding or falling off seasonably or at maturity. "In autumn, deciduous trees lose their leaves."

About Your Health

Even though the cause and method of transmission of typhoid fever are known, this serious disease is still a problem. While the number of cases has dwindled from several thousands to a few hundred a year, the disease is so infectious that one person may be responsible for an epidemic that will result in many deaths, according to the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society.

The trouble starts when the typhoid bacillus enters the body through the mouth. Some ten or fourteen days later, the infected person complains of fatigue, headache, loss of appetite, fever and diarrhea. A rose-colored rash may develop.

TYPHOID FEVER is a filth-borne disease, for it develops in communities having inadequate sanitation and sewage disposal. The germ is expelled from the infected person's body through his bowels and bladder. Because the germ multiplies rapidly and the sewage disposal system is faulty, it invades milk and water supplies. It is also spread by other contaminated food.

Persons responsible for the transmission of disease are those currently sick; those who are convalescing from the condition, and those who have recovered but who still harbor the typhoid germ. The last group is the most dangerous, for the carrier no longer shows any symptoms, but is daily distributing the germ through his bowel and bladder excretions. Thus wells, streams and other water sources may be contaminated. If a carrier is a dairy employee or other food handler, he may be spreading the disease through his own faulty habits of hygiene, particularly in the inadequate cleansing of his hands after he has been to the bathroom.

COMMON FLY is an offender in the spread of typhoid, for it feeds on anything that is unsanitary, depositing its filth on kitchen and eating utensils. The disease may also be acquired by swallowing water when swimming in polluted water, handling soiled clothing, linens, blankets, improperly washed dishes and eating utensils, and possibly using fever thermometers that have not been sterilized.

Control of typhoid fever is a community project. Special attention to water supplies, disposal of sewage, pasteurization of milk and the control of typhoid carriers on an individual and community basis are necessary. In addition the education of the public to good community and individual hygiene is an important factor.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois,

Members of the 84th congress passed 390 public laws during the 1955 session, dealing with everything from how to airmail live scorpions to federal subsidies for farmers, according to a report from Tax Foundation.

The Illinois general assembly enacted 973 new laws in less time, not counting bills vetoed.

During the congressional session, 11,914 pieces of legislation were introduced - 3,070 by the 96 senators and 8,844 by the 435 representatives. Among the unsuccessful bills was one that directed the erection of a statue of "David" Crockett in the National Statuary Hall in Washington.

The proceedings of the two houses combined cover 11,330 pages in the Congressional Record. A recent estimate put the cost of printing a page in the Record at $80, making the total cost of the Record for the 1955 session about $1½million.

On the financial side, congress passed 19 money laws appropriating some $50 billion for government spending. It also extended the present corporation income and excise tax rates, and extended the "temporary" $6 billion increni esa "temporary" $6 billion increase in the statutory debt limit of $275 billion.

With all this big-time legislation, congress didn't get to act on a bill providing that any television broadcast of a political speech must include an announcement telling whether or not the speaker is using facial makeup.

Malefactor, observe the e; malfeasance, no e. Either "alignment" or "alinement" is correct. Straightened (made straight), straitened (restricted; confined; as, in straitened circumstances). Marquisette (the fabric). Opulence, one p; opportune, two p's. Venal (capable of being bribed); venial (trivial; excusable; pardonable).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabularly by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

INCITATION; that which incites to action; incentive. (Accent third syllable). "These incitations spurred him on to his goal."

MODULATE; to vary in tone, as the voice. "An actor should have the ability to modulate his voice."

CONTENTIOUS; quarrelsome. "The two countries became contentious over the matter of tariffs."

DECOROUS; becoming; proper; seemly. (Accent first syllable). "His suave, decorous manner was pleasing."

ENTITY; something that has a real existence. "Fame has no real entity."

DECIDUOUS; shedding or falling off seasonably or at maturity. "In autumn, deciduous trees lose their leaves."

About Your Health

Even though the cause and method of transmission of typhoid fever are known, this serious disease is still a problem. While the number of cases has dwindled from several thousands to a few hundred a year, the disease is so infectious that one person may be responsible for an epidemic that will result in many deaths, according to the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society.

The trouble starts when the typhoid bacillus enters the body through the mouth. Some ten or fourteen days later, the infected person complains of fatigue, headache, loss of appetite, fever and diarrhea. A rose-colored rash may develop.

TYPHOID FEVER is a filth-borne disease, for it develops in communities having inadequate sanitation and sewage disposal. The germ is expelled from the infected person's body through his bowels and bladder. Because the germ multiplies rapidly and the sewage disposal system is faulty, it invades milk and water supplies. It is also spread by other contaminated food.

Persons responsible for the transmission of disease are those currently sick; those who are convalescing from the condition, and those who have recovered but who still harbor the typhoid germ. The last group is the most dangerous, for the carrier no longer shows any symptoms, but is daily distributing the germ through his bowel and bladder excretions. Thus wells, streams and other water sources may be contaminated. If a carrier is a dairy employee or other food handler, he may be spreading the disease through his own faulty habits of hygiene, particularly in the inadequate cleansing of his hands after he has been to the bathroom.

COMMON FLY is an offender in the spread of typhoid, for it feeds on anything that is unsanitary, depositing its filth on kitchen and eating utensils. The disease may also be acquired by swallowing water when swimming in polluted water, handling soiled clothing, linens, blankets, improperly washed dishes and eating utensils, and possibly using fever thermometers that have not been sterilized.

Control of typhoid fever is a community project. Special attention to water supplies, disposal of sewage, pasteurization of milk and the control of typhoid carriers on an individual and community basis are necessary. In addition the education of the public to good community and individual hygiene is an important factor.

TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois,

Members of the 84th congress passed 390 public laws during the 1955 session, dealing with everything from how to airmail live scorpions to federal subsidies for farmers, according to a report from Tax Foundation.

The Illinois general assembly enacted 973 new laws in less time, not counting bills vetoed.

During the congressional session, 11,914 pieces of legislation were introduced - 3,070 by the 96 senators and 8,844 by the 435 representatives. Among the unsuccessful bills was one that directed the erection of a statue of "David" Crockett in the National Statuary Hall in Washington.

The proceedings of the two houses combined cover 11,330 pages in the Congressional Record. A recent estimate put the cost of printing a page in the Record at $80, making the total cost of the Record for the 1955 session about $1½million.

On the financial side, congress passed 19 money laws appropriating some $50 billion for government spending. It also extended the present corporation income and excise tax rates, and extended the "temporary" $6 billion increni esa "temporary" $6 billion increase in the statutory debt limit of $275 billion.

With all this big-time legislation, congress didn't get to act on a bill providing that any television broadcast of a political speech must include an announcement telling whether or not the speaker is using facial makeup.

Feehanville School

J. W. Alstrin, principal, reports that the book award for PTA attendance last month went to the 7th-8th grade room, who had a 96% attendance. Miss Dalton's room had 93%, Mrs. Cavett's room had 81% and Miss Hobson's room had 73% attendance. There were 95 at the meeting. Of the 114 children enrolled in the school, 92 have taken the insurance.

The first issue of the "Feehanville Snooper," published by the 7th and 8th grades, was distributed last week. The staff consists of Bruce Murdock, editor; Dennis Buttner, assistant editor; Cathy Kirste, cover; Paul Cully, jokes; Frank Sullivan, reporter; Deane Bradley, literature; Carol Ann Follett, puzzles; Betty Sue Henk, birthdays; John Goggin and Bill Nichols, ditto operators; Judy Dziwota, movies; Sylvia Durso and Janet Ramsey, proof readers; Betty Sue Henk, Cynthia Wehlacz and Vernette Follett, printers; Craig Copeland, distributor; Elaine Hanson, sports.

J. W. Alstrin, and Mrs. W. C. Cavett, Miss Laveta Hobson and Miss Jo Ann Dalton, teachers, attendedthe Cook County teachers institute at the Ideal school in La Grange last week Friday. Nobel J. Puffer, county superintendent and David Aurand, superintendent of district 105, gave the welcoming speeches. Miss Maura Conlisk, assistant state superintendent in charge of physical education, held a physical education workshop wherein she instructed the teachers present on folk dances and games to be played in the rooms. After the luncheon there was a panel discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the new reading methods being taught, with Wilbur A. Yauch, head of department of education, Northern Illinois State college, DeKalb, as moderator, and Charles E. Wingo, superintendent of schools in Argo, Mrs. Lucille D. Cavanaugh, primary supervisor at Homewood, and Miss Martha Slyter, assistant county superintendent of Grundy county, as panelists. Dr. Yauch also made a speech on "How Good Is Your School?" after the panel discussion.

The same group of teachers plus representatives from Prospect Heights attended an institute at Wilson school when they heard a representative from Zaner-Bloser company speak on the development of hand-writing schools, and the importance on teaching hand writing in the lower grades.

Feehanville softball team lost its second game of the season last Friday when they played with the team from Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic school in Arlington Heights.

Civic Association

Mrs. Betty Arkell, chairman of the fall festival committee (composed of John Snelton, Richard Henning, James Brewer, Jules Miske, Mrs. Michael Zeravich, Mrs. Jeanne Duncanson and Mrs. A. R. Hanson), reported at the last Civic association meeting that plans are shaping up very well for the coming event. She said, "work has been delegated to each member of the committee, but we may have to call on other members of the association to help out on the night of the festival. In publicity emphasis will be put on getting acquainted and having fun rather than raising funds."

Mrs. Richard Kozel, secretary, reported that she had been asked to call the bus company to see if something could be done to get the morning bus started earlier as several parents of high school students had complained to the directors that the children were arriving late at school every day. After several calls to the high school and to the bus company she had been assured that this situation would be remedied.

After the business meeting Mrs. Letha Swiatowy, refreshment chairmen, and the hostesses, Mrs. Jules Miske and Mrs. James Mantas, served refreshments.

Scouts

Brownie troop 231 hiked to the home of Mrs. Marge Houser last week Tuesday where they had a marshmallow roast. Their project for the day was making plaster casts of leaves. They had 2 guests at that meeting, Mrs. Blanche Osri, a brownie leader from East Maine, and Deborah Rose of Alton road, who will be a brownie next year.

Mrs. Marge Houser was leader pro tem at the last meeting of the intermediate troop 233. The troop welcomed a new member, Barbara Eannerino, who has transferred here from troop 475 in Chicago. One of the scouts, Mary Katherine Edgeworth, has missed the last 2 meetings as she was injured when she fell off her bicycle 2 weeks ago.

Fire Department

The firemen are planning a fire prevention program at the community hall for October 14. The public is invited.

The firemen entertained their wives with a party on September's fifth Thursday. They played charades, several contest games and danced. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitz furnished the prizes. Included among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Badalamenti, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kozel, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bucaro, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Swiatowy, Mr. and Mrs. James Mantas, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zeravich, Mr. and Mrs. John Snelton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buttner and James Brewer. Refreshments were brought by the firemen. At midnight they sang "Happy anniversary" to the Ed Buttners, who were then celebrating their sixteenth wedding anniversary.

Forest River Church

Last Sunday was promotion day at the Sunday school when many pupils were promoted to another class. It was also the first day of a contest that will continue to the end of October. Winners of the contest will be decided on the point system and will be given a party by the losers.

Because the weather turned too cold the Stockade decided to forego their camp-out planned for last Friday night and attended a football game instead where they watched Maine win 2 games from Arlington Heights. Stockaders who were able to attend were George Grossi, Bobby Broberg, John Armstrong, John Alexander, Peter Wilming, Larry and Barry Bischof and Arthur Leark. Adults in charge were Bernard Shimmin and John Hanson.

The TFC's tried out their skill last Saturday night when the group went bowling in Park Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Red Bischof were the chaperones, and the young people were Bonnie LeVine, Robert Martens, Gail Wiltshire, Barbara Stehman, John Hanson, Cindy Shimmin, Elaine Hanson, Carol LeVine, Janet Sandquist, Marlene Olson and Margie Kirste. After rolling up good high scores the group went to the Bischof home where they had refreshments and home movies. Mr. and Mrs. Jack LeVine joined the party at the bowling establishment.

The memory of the menu at the last banquet of the Forest River church still brings a sparkle to the eye, and the memory of the program brings a reminiscent smile to the lips. The decorations were in the autumn theme with small wheelbarrows full of colorful leaves as centerpieces and tiny bushel baskets as nut cups. The Hi-Neighbor program card was decorated with a picture of a rake, basket and falling leaves. Jenne Kramer was chairman of the decoration committee, with Mrs. William Martens, Bid LeVine and Marlene Olson serving on her committee. The meal was served by a group of young people, Robert Martens, John Hanson, Bonnie LeVine, Bid LeVine, Margie Kirste, Janet Sandquist, Elaine Hanson, Bonnie Mitchell, Marlene Olson and Barbara Eannerino.

Community News

The James Mantas have returned from their vacation spent in Waterloo and Cedar Falls, Ia. While there they visited William Storm brother of Mrs. Mantas and his daughter.

George and John Williams of Elmhurst arrived at the Richard Kozels' early last week for an extended visit and were joined later by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and their new brother, Thomas.

Word has been received from the Kenneth Karnuths, who left here in August. They have settled in a mobile park in a grove of eucalyptus trees on a bayou in Florida. They say the view out the back door is a small lake, complete with frogs and fish and ringed with ferns and tall pine trees dripping with Spanish moss. Their lot contains the trailer, aluminum cabana (which Ken built), car and flower garden, which includes some orange trees. Ronnie attends a beautiful, modern school, built all on one level — a series of 3 wings connected at one end by hallways that are just roofed to protect from the rain. The walls of the classrooms are all windows. They, too have bus service and hot lunches. The Karnuths are joining the PTA there, and their first meeting was a covered dish supper.

Gail Messner entertained Betty Broberg and Carol Milos at a supper party last week to celebrate her birthday. Other birthday celebrants this week were Nancy L. Brewer who was 6 on September 29, Candy Lou Deering, who was 10 on the 30th, Diane Snelton, who was 3 on the 30th, Robert Kleinke, who was 9 on the first and Nancy Doetsch who was 3 on the first, Thomas Pritts who was 1 on the fourth, Timothy Richard Alsup, who will be 1 today and Virginia Cossey, who will be 5 today.

Church Teachers Workshop To Be This Sunday

The theme of the Sunday school teachers' and workers' rally of the Arlington Heights region of the Evangelical and Reformed church to be held Sunday is "Go, Teach with Power,".

The rally will be held from 2:30 to 8 p.m. at the Christ church in Des Plaines, 1 of the 23 churches included in the region. Churches in Addison township, Arlington Heights, Barrington, Bartlett, Bensenville, Deerfield, Hanover township, Lake Zurich, Long Grove, Northbrook, Palatine, Plum Grove and Prospect Heights are others in the Paddock Publication area within the regional group.

Serving as general chairman for the rally is Mrs. Robert Klepper, associate pastor of the Prospect Heights Community church.

Developing the theme of the rally in a talk to the assemblage will be Dr. Rudolph Schade of Elmhurst college. Mr. Schade will also conduct the adult section of the workshop. He is a professor of philosophy and Greek at the college, author of many biblical articles and teacher in Community Teachers' training schols.

The intermediate and young people's workship will be headed by Dr. Eugene Wehrli, professor of religion at Elmhurst college and a teacher in the training school.

Also teachers in the training school are Mrs. Mabel Brehm, head of the junior workshop; Miss Bonnie Miller, primary workshop leader; and Mrs. Florence Schultz, nursery and kindergarten workshop leader. Mrs. Brehm is the author of the text, "Church Around the World" and other junior lesson materials, and superintendent of the junior department of the Congregational church of Des Plaines.

Visitor Describes Audience With Pope Pius XII

Jeannette Paddock Nichols who attended the recent International Congress of Historical Sciences in Rome describes an audience given that group by Pope Pius XII. Mrs. Nichols is compelled to use crutches during this European trip.

The special audience with Pope Pius XII, was a very impressive affair. For sometime, because of Rome's summer heat, audiences have been allowed only at his summer residence, Castle Gondolfo. But some 2,500 historians from all over the world were in attendance at the International Congress of Historical Sciences, and His Holiness typed out (himself, on a small typewriter, according to a friend of his reporting to me), a special speech 50 minutes long.

We upset some of our program moving some speeches to other days, to enable everyone to attend that afternoon. I had delivered my speech that morning, and therefore was all set to feel free of any preoccupation and to enjoy everything to the hilt.

We went to the Papal Palace an hour and a half early, to watch other people come in and to sit near the throne. When our bus reached the palace, the Swiss guards offered me the use of the Papal elevator, because of my crutches. A handsome, marble stairway and incline are used by most people going to a special audience, and an ante-chamber is passed through before you reach the throne room itself. Also, the famous "Sistine Chapel" has a special door into the end section of the audience ante-chamber and they had, for our benefit, the inner floodlights to illuminate the marvelous ceiling painted by Michael Angelo.

SEVEN CARDINALS came in separately, with each escorted down the long aisle of the audience room, backless wooden benches stretching back on each side, with not very ornate walls. The red and gold Papal throne, topped by a red velvet canopy, stands on a dais. Red and gold chairs for the Cardinals were arranged on each side of the platform where the dais is located and on benches on one side of the platform were seated the officers of our congress.

The ambassadors to the Vatican had been invited and got chairs in front of our audience benches. Our bench, and about 6 rows of other front benches, had green cloth covers which made them less hard than what most people had to sit on. The Cardinals, of course, wore red robes and small red caps. The diplomats wore striped pants and morning coats and carried silk hats. The historians wore everything under the sun and a few of of the women even were hatless. Most of them had V necks, but none had bare arms, which in Spain and some other parts of Europe nowadays are considered more unsuited to church than a bare head.

Suddenly there was a clang, the great windows on one side of that long room were closed and their draperies were drawn shut. We all rose and turned toward the back where 4 bearers clad in medieval costumes bore aloft a red and gold chair in which sat the Pope, dressed in a white robe with small gold buttons close together down the front of the skirt.

A HANDSOME gold cross on a gold chain hung around his neck. His little cap of course, was white, and as he was carried down the long aisle, he blessed on alternate sides continually and stopped to touch to his forehead a cap similiar to his stretched out by a spectator. At the platform steps, his chair was lowered, he walked to his throne and sat down. He at once began reading into 2 microphones.

When the Pope wished to emphasize his points on church history, he gestured vigorously with either hand and tapped with a red-slippered foot. He is remarkably vigorous for a person of his years, has a strong face and long, slender fingers. After he stopped speaking, the guests on the platform were presented to him, those who were Roman Catholics kissed his ring; the others shook hands. He was presented a 7-volume set of our historical reports. Then he mounted his chair and was borne out as he had entered.

As my seat was on the aisle, I saw him very closely. He has a strong personality and as the audience ended, we all felt we had participated in an historic affair. The Vatican gave each of us a copy of his speech next day.

Young Republicans To Meet Senior GOP At Dinner

A joint dinner meeting of members of the Young Republican organization of Cook county and the Republican Central committee of Cook county will be held October 13, at 6:30 p.m. in the assembly room of the Sherman hotel.

According to Frank Regan of 246 N. Plum Grove, Palatine, president of the Palatine township Young Republicans, the affair marks the first occasion when regular party leaders and Young Republicans have met to discuss common problems.

Regan explained that Young Republicans may secure tickets to the dinner, at a cost of $5 each, by writing junior GOP headquarters, 173 W. Madison, Chicago 2.

Annual Pow-Wow Oct. 9

Cub Scout leaders from the fifteen communities which comprise the northwest suburban council will have the opportunity to learn the latest in cub scouting activities, handicraft, unit administration, ceremonies and games at the 4th annual cub scout leaders, pow wow, to be held Sunday, October 9, at the new North school on River Road, east of the 5 corners in Des Plaines.

The Pow Wow is open to all cub scout leaders, den mothers, cub scout unit committeemen and parents of cub scouts. Doors will be open at 1:00 p.m. Registration will begin at 1:15.

Registration fee for the Pow Wow, which will include the Blue and Gold Banquet and program materials, is 50 cents.

Look In Future Slated For TV Progress Show

An authentic glimpse into the future, 2 decades from today, will form the dramatic framework of an NBC "telementary" to make its world premier Sunday at 3:30 p.m.

A telementary?

That's the word which, according to NBC's president, Sylvester Weaver, will be in common use 20 years from now. It means a television super-documentary.

An authoritative picture of America in 1976 — 200th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence will be presented on the program on Channel 5.

The show will offer a composite picutre of what scientific pioneers plan for America's future — not guesswork or fiction. Featuring top TV stars, combining gaiety with drama and pinpointed prediction, the presentation will mark the beginning of Oil Progress week.

Local Schools Assist Chiefs In Fire Week

Fire Prevention week 1955 is being observed in Arlington Heights and Palatine Oct. 9 to 15.

Its purpose is to direct community attention to the lives and property destroyed by fire and to the safety measures which can help reduce the tragic toll in future years.

Arlington Heights fire department is cooperating with public schools in promoting Fire Prevention week. All schools will be visited and material distributed to pupils. A special film is being shown at the Arlington theater, and posters displayed throughout the village.

Fire drills in all Palatine schools will be staged during the week with the deputy state fire marshall present to study the results.

Palatine fire department is also sponsoring its annual fire prevention poster contest for children in the fifth through eighth grades. Each grade competes on its own level only, and ribbons will be awarded for the first 5 places in each of the 4 grades.

All posters will be on display at the fire department's open house Oct. 15 from 1 to 4 p.m. The open house, at which the fire fighting facilities of the village will be shown, climaxes Fire Prevention week in Palatine.

Visitor Describes Audience With Pope Pius XII

Jeannette Paddock Nichols who attended the recent International Congress of Historical Sciences in Rome describes an audience given that group by Pope Pius XII. Mrs. Nichols is compelled to use crutches during this European trip.

The special audience with Pope Pius XII, was a very impressive affair. For sometime, because of Rome's summer heat, audiences have been allowed only at his summer residence, Castle Gondolfo. But some 2,500 historians from all over the world were in attendance at the International Congress of Historical Sciences, and His Holiness typed out (himself, on a small typewriter, according to a friend of his reporting to me), a special speech 50 minutes long.

We upset some of our program moving some speeches to other days, to enable everyone to attend that afternoon. I had delivered my speech that morning, and therefore was all set to feel free of any preoccupation and to enjoy everything to the hilt.

We went to the Papal Palace an hour and a half early, to watch other people come in and to sit near the throne. When our bus reached the palace, the Swiss guards offered me the use of the Papal elevator, because of my crutches. A handsome, marble stairway and incline are used by most people going to a special audience, and an ante-chamber is passed through before you reach the throne room itself. Also, the famous "Sistine Chapel" has a special door into the end section of the audience ante-chamber and they had, for our benefit, the inner floodlights to illuminate the marvelous ceiling painted by Michael Angelo.

SEVEN CARDINALS came in separately, with each escorted down the long aisle of the audience room, backless wooden benches stretching back on each side, with not very ornate walls. The red and gold Papal throne, topped by a red velvet canopy, stands on a dais. Red and gold chairs for the Cardinals were arranged on each side of the platform where the dais is located and on benches on one side of the platform were seated the officers of our congress.

The ambassadors to the Vatican had been invited and got chairs in front of our audience benches. Our bench, and about 6 rows of other front benches, had green cloth covers which made them less hard than what most people had to sit on. The Cardinals, of course, wore red robes and small red caps. The diplomats wore striped pants and morning coats and carried silk hats. The historians wore everything under the sun and a few of of the women even were hatless. Most of them had V necks, but none had bare arms, which in Spain and some other parts of Europe nowadays are considered more unsuited to church than a bare head.

Suddenly there was a clang, the great windows on one side of that long room were closed and their draperies were drawn shut. We all rose and turned toward the back where 4 bearers clad in medieval costumes bore aloft a red and gold chair in which sat the Pope, dressed in a white robe with small gold buttons close together down the front of the skirt.

A HANDSOME gold cross on a gold chain hung around his neck. His little cap of course, was white, and as he was carried down the long aisle, he blessed on alternate sides continually and stopped to touch to his forehead a cap similiar to his stretched out by a spectator. At the platform steps, his chair was lowered, he walked to his throne and sat down. He at once began reading into 2 microphones.

When the Pope wished to emphasize his points on church history, he gestured vigorously with either hand and tapped with a red-slippered foot. He is remarkably vigorous for a person of his years, has a strong face and long, slender fingers. After he stopped speaking, the guests on the platform were presented to him, those who were Roman Catholics kissed his ring; the others shook hands. He was presented a 7-volume set of our historical reports. Then he mounted his chair and was borne out as he had entered.

As my seat was on the aisle, I saw him very closely. He has a strong personality and as the audience ended, we all felt we had participated in an historic affair. The Vatican gave each of us a copy of his speech next day.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Womens Auxiliary

September 28 the womens auxiliary of the Prospect Meadows Home Owners association held its first meeting of the season. Officiating were Joyce Ruther, president; Kay Wilson, vice president and program chairman; Virginia Richardson, secretary and Pat Wrath, terasurer. It was decided that future meetings of the auxiliary will be held the fourth Thursday of each month, with one exception, rather than on the fourth Wednesday as in the past. The meetings will continue to be held in the Mt. Prospect village hall.

The meeting night exception will be during the month of October when the meeting will be on the fourth Wednesday, October 26, at the Arlington Heights field house. Kay Wilson, arranged a program for the October meeting. Miss Jane Kissel, an interior decorator associated with the Martin-Senour Paint Co., will present a home fashion color show. Anyone with a decorating problem may find the solution with the help of Miss Kissel. Those with no present problems may get valuable information and be better prepared the next time decorating is undertaken. The public is invited.

At the September meeting it was also decided to have a Halloween dance. To make the necessary plans, the following committee was formed: Kay Sepke, chairman, Virginia Richardson, Pat Wrath and Gert Derning. Problems of the welcoming committee were discussed and it was decided to add 2 members, Jean Seeber and Lorraine Heinz, to work with Anne Incinelli, Ethel Larson and Nora Roths to welcome new residents of Prospect Meadows.

After the business meeting the ladies played cards and Ruth Larson, Virginia Richardson, Rosemary Vosburgh and Kay Sepke were winners of prizes.

Tiling the Ditch

The work of tiling the ditch on Forrest ave. is well underway and the Till Construction Co. expects to be finished with the job some time next week.

Chicago Residents

Bill and Betty Wagner are feeling quite lonesome this week. Their son, Bill, his wife, Ruth, and their daughter, Cynthia, moved to Chicago October 1. Their new address is 4305 N. Damen. Bill and his family had been living with the senior Wagners on Oriole lane since February when Bill was released from the army.

Betty Wagner attended a kuarter kaffee klatsch Thursday evening at the home of Elizabeth Syoen in Arlington Heights.

The appearance of a moving van at 407 Oriole spread the word that Bill and Delores Ardinger were leaving Prospect Meadows. The Ardingers have been building a home in Lake Forest which they hope will be completed by the end of January. They are making their home temporarily with Bill's parents at 3004 N. 76th ave., Elmwood Park. As new owners of 407 Oriole, Mr. and Mrs. Meisel of Springfield, and their 2 children, are anxious to get settled in their new home. The Ardinger boys, Peter and Scott, will miss their playmates on Oriole lane.

Kay and Andy Bischoff and Ralph and Helena Woodruff spent an evening playing bingo at the VFW in Park Ridge, where Andy is a member.

Dinner Dance

Mr. and Mrs. G. Webber and Mr. and Mrs. S. Abbinanti attended a dinner dance sponsored by the Arlington Heights Friday Night Twilight Golfing league at the Union hotel in Wheeling Saturday evening. The men have been enjoying twilight golf together this year.

Welcome New Neighbors

September 30, the Prospect Meadows welcoming committee, Anne Incinelli, Ethel Larson and Nora Roths, called at the homes of 2 new residents of the Meadows, the Durec family and the Heinz family.

Rita and Charles Durec live in the new bi-level house at 403 Bob-O-Link rd. They have 3 children—Michael, 6, Christopher 4, and Kathleen 2. Before moving to the Meadows they lived on the northwest side of Chicago.

Lorraine and Tom Heinz live at 400 Oriole. They have 4 daughters, Marylee, 6, Nancy, 4, Barbara 2, and Judy 10 months. Before moving to the Meadows they lived in Berwyn. At the present time Mr. Heinz is in a sanitorium and everyone in the Meadows extends a wish for his speedy recovery and hopes he will be back with his family soon.

Birthday

A double birthday celebration was held Sunday at the home of Rosemary and Bill Vosburgh. Their daughter, Donna, who will soon be 1 year old, shared her birthday cake with her cousin, David Crockett, who was just 3. Also enjoying the party was Donna's sister, Marcy, Bill's mother Mrs. Marie Vosburgh, his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crockett, and their other 2 sons, Roger and Dicky.

A 10th wedding anniversary was celebrated by Jean and Ray Seebber last Sunday. They entertained the following relatives and friends with an anniversary supper to help them celebrate the occasion: Mr. and Mrs. J. Seeber, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ristau, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seeber, Des Plaines, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lang, Mt. Prospect.

The weekend of September 24 Mr. and Mrs. I. Manda of Bob-O-Link drove to Mankato, Minn. to visit friends.

Friends and neighbors were happy to see Chi Chi Brogini come home last Tuesday after undergoing surgery at St. Mary of Nazareth hospital in Chicago September 19. Chi Chi is feeling quite well again and will be up and around very soon. She would like to thank everyone for sending the cheerful get-well cards which meant so much to her during her illness.

Entertaining

Weekend guests were entertained by John and Alma Berchmans when Alma's nephew and his family, Roger and Mildred Walstrom and their children, Ricky and Christy, came from Princeton, for a visit. Berchman's neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ehlke, have 2 children, also named Rickey and Christy, who are about the same age as the Walstrom children.

The Burt family, Daryl and Ruth and their children, Billy and Cynthia Ann, were happy to have Ruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl of Alliance, Ohio, visit them last week. They also spent a week at the home of Ruth's sister, Mrs. Fred Prather in Arlington Heights.

Three young ladies were weekend guests at the Toner residence. Vi Toner entertained the three daughters of former neighbors in Chicago: Kathleen, Kaaren and Kay Marie Pikrone. Vi's 3 boys, twins Barry and Larry and Billy enjoyed the company of the girls very much, and the combination made for a very active weekend. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Don Pikrone had dinner with the group and took their daughters home.

The Roths of Bob-O-Link also entertained weekend guests. Their former neighbors in Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rehan and their 3-year-old son, Randy, were on their way to Minneapolis and stopped off for a visit with Ray and Nora and their boys, Ray and Marty.

Jane and Bud Redeen have been happy to have Jane's mother, Mr. N. C. Ploetz of Wausau, Wis., visit them for a week. Jane, who is employed in the Merchandise Mart took a week's vacation from work to stay home with her mother. Mrs. Ploetz left for Wausau on Monday.

Kaffee Klatsch

Elsie Leonhardt, of Bunting, entertained September 27. Her guests were Ruth Middleton, Elizabeth Gutzmer, Edna Vartanian, Beth Meigel and Pearl Anderson.

Lynn Nye of Bunting entertained September 29. Her guests were Kay Wehrheim, Chris Pettetier, Edith Schroeder, and 2 ladies from Mt. Prospect, Betty Bornhoeft and Mary Clark.

Lis Wells of Bob-O-Link entertained October 4. Her guests were Elaine Tanney, Marge Blim, Nora Roths, Betty Nelson and Pearl Moeller.

Cub Scouts

September 30 den 12 and den 13 of Prospect Meadows attended the meeting of cub scout pack 232 at the North school in Arlington Heights.

Den 12 won the gold pack flag because it had the highest number of points of all dens belonging to the pack and will be allowed to keep the flag until another den earns the right to take it from them. Points are awarded for the cubs participation in handicrafts, the number of personal award achievements and for the number of parents attending pack meetings with their sons. Mr. Brody, cub scout master, complimented the den for being active most of the summer because it enabled them to make such a good showing at the pack meeting.

The following members of den 12 received awards: Bobby Webber, 3 silver arrows, 1 gold arrow, a wolf badge and denner's stripes; Dean Valentine, assistant denner's stripe; Evans Wells, 2 silver arrows and 1 gold arrow; Richard Moeller, wolf badge and Daniel Wills, wolf badge. Richard Hehnen and Tom Hemesath were inducted into the cub scouts and members of den 12 participated in the induction ceremony.

Three boys, Tommy Seymour, Billy Cody and Jimmy Kandul filled out applications for membership to den 13. They will join active cubs Michael Doyle, denner; Wayne Harland, assistant denner and Larry Richardson.

Lease-Purchase Of Postal Buildings At High Level

Contracts for leasing or long-term purchase of new buildings to be used by the post office department have been signed at a rate of over one and one-half per working day during the past 18 months, postmaster general Arthur E. Summerfield reported.

Through the department's commercial leasing program and its lease-purchase method for obtaining new modern buildings, the post office department has either occupied or will occupy, upon completion, approximately 600 new units at an estimated construction cost of about $49 million dollars.

This new construction is not part of a federal public works building program. As a matter of fact, no appropriations for federal construction of public buildings for postal use have been made since 1938.

Heights Girl Scout Wins In Canoe Regatta

GAIL SMITH AND JOHN RUSING

The regatta is an annual event for girl and boy scouts and explorers in the Chicagoland area. Gail is senior girl scout in troop 95 in Arlington Heights. Her partner belongs to Explorer post 2966 in Chicago, whose advisor is an Arlington Heights resident, Norbert Donarski.

Sponsors of the regatta are the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross water safety department, the Chicago Park district and the Lincoln Park boat club.

Beginning last Saturday at Skokie lagoon a 6-session, 20-hour canoe course is being held for girl scouts and their leaders. Senior scouts and leaders, 18 years or older, will be qualified as instructors and those under 18 as basic canoeists upon successfully completing the course. Sessions are from 1 through 4 p.m. (B5

News Of Prospect Meadows

Womens Auxiliary

September 28 the womens auxiliary of the Prospect Meadows Home Owners association held its first meeting of the season. Officiating were Joyce Ruther, president; Kay Wilson, vice president and program chairman; Virginia Richardson, secretary and Pat Wrath, terasurer. It was decided that future meetings of the auxiliary will be held the fourth Thursday of each month, with one exception, rather than on the fourth Wednesday as in the past. The meetings will continue to be held in the Mt. Prospect village hall.

The meeting night exception will be during the month of October when the meeting will be on the fourth Wednesday, October 26, at the Arlington Heights field house. Kay Wilson, arranged a program for the October meeting. Miss Jane Kissel, an interior decorator associated with the Martin-Senour Paint Co., will present a home fashion color show. Anyone with a decorating problem may find the solution with the help of Miss Kissel. Those with no present problems may get valuable information and be better prepared the next time decorating is undertaken. The public is invited.

At the September meeting it was also decided to have a Halloween dance. To make the necessary plans, the following committee was formed: Kay Sepke, chairman, Virginia Richardson, Pat Wrath and Gert Derning. Problems of the welcoming committee were discussed and it was decided to add 2 members, Jean Seeber and Lorraine Heinz, to work with Anne Incinelli, Ethel Larson and Nora Roths to welcome new residents of Prospect Meadows.

After the business meeting the ladies played cards and Ruth Larson, Virginia Richardson, Rosemary Vosburgh and Kay Sepke were winners of prizes.

Tiling the Ditch

The work of tiling the ditch on Forrest ave. is well underway and the Till Construction Co. expects to be finished with the job some time next week.

Chicago Residents

Bill and Betty Wagner are feeling quite lonesome this week. Their son, Bill, his wife, Ruth, and their daughter, Cynthia, moved to Chicago October 1. Their new address is 4305 N. Damen. Bill and his family had been living with the senior Wagners on Oriole lane since February when Bill was released from the army.

Betty Wagner attended a kuarter kaffee klatsch Thursday evening at the home of Elizabeth Syoen in Arlington Heights.

The appearance of a moving van at 407 Oriole spread the word that Bill and Delores Ardinger were leaving Prospect Meadows. The Ardingers have been building a home in Lake Forest which they hope will be completed by the end of January. They are making their home temporarily with Bill's parents at 3004 N. 76th ave., Elmwood Park. As new owners of 407 Oriole, Mr. and Mrs. Meisel of Springfield, and their 2 children, are anxious to get settled in their new home. The Ardinger boys, Peter and Scott, will miss their playmates on Oriole lane.

Kay and Andy Bischoff and Ralph and Helena Woodruff spent an evening playing bingo at the VFW in Park Ridge, where Andy is a member.

Dinner Dance

Mr. and Mrs. G. Webber and Mr. and Mrs. S. Abbinanti attended a dinner dance sponsored by the Arlington Heights Friday Night Twilight Golfing league at the Union hotel in Wheeling Saturday evening. The men have been enjoying twilight golf together this year.

Welcome New Neighbors

September 30, the Prospect Meadows welcoming committee, Anne Incinelli, Ethel Larson and Nora Roths, called at the homes of 2 new residents of the Meadows, the Durec family and the Heinz family.

Rita and Charles Durec live in the new bi-level house at 403 Bob-O-Link rd. They have 3 children—Michael, 6, Christopher 4, and Kathleen 2. Before moving to the Meadows they lived on the northwest side of Chicago.

Lorraine and Tom Heinz live at 400 Oriole. They have 4 daughters, Marylee, 6, Nancy, 4, Barbara 2, and Judy 10 months. Before moving to the Meadows they lived in Berwyn. At the present time Mr. Heinz is in a sanitorium and everyone in the Meadows extends a wish for his speedy recovery and hopes he will be back with his family soon.

Birthday

A double birthday celebration was held Sunday at the home of Rosemary and Bill Vosburgh. Their daughter, Donna, who will soon be 1 year old, shared her birthday cake with her cousin, David Crockett, who was just 3. Also enjoying the party was Donna's sister, Marcy, Bill's mother Mrs. Marie Vosburgh, his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crockett, and their other 2 sons, Roger and Dicky.

A 10th wedding anniversary was celebrated by Jean and Ray Seeber last Sunday. They entertained the following relatives and friends with an anniversary supper to help them celebrate the occasion: Mr. and Mrs. J. Seeber, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ristau, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Seeber, Des Plaines, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lang, Mt. Prospect.

The weekend of September 24 Mr. and Mrs. I. Manda of Bob-O-Link drove to Mankato, Minn. to visit friends.

Friends and neighbors were happy to see Chi Chi Brogini come home last Tuesday after undergoing surgery at St. Mary of Nazareth hospital in Chicago September 19. Chi Chi is feeling quite well again and will be up and around very soon. She would like to thank everyone for sending the cheerful get-well cards which meant so much to her during her illness.

Entertaining

Weekend guests were entertained by John and Alma Berchmans when Alma's nephew and his family, Roger and Mildred Walstrom and their children, Ricky and Christy, came from Princeton, for a visit. Berchman's neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ehlke, have 2 children, also named Rickey and Christy, who are about the same age as the Walstrom children.

The Burt family, Daryl and Ruth and their children, Billy and Cynthia Ann, were happy to have Ruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl of Alliance, Ohio, visit them last week. They also spent a week at the home of Ruth's sister, Mrs. Fred Prather in Arlington Heights.

Three young ladies were weekend guests at the Toner residence. Vi Toner entertained the three daughters of former neighbors in Chicago: Kathleen, Kaaren and Kay Marie Pikrone. Vi's 3 boys, twins Barry and Larry and Billy enjoyed the company of the girls very much, and the combination made for a very active weekend. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Don Pikrone had dinner with the group and took their daughters home.

The Roths of Bob-O-Link also entertained weekend guests. Their former neighbors in Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rehan and their 3-year-old son, Randy, were on their way to Minneapolis and stopped off for a visit with Ray and Nora and their boys, Ray and Marty.

Jane and Bud Redeen have been happy to have Jane's mother, Mr. N. C. Ploetz of Wausau, Wis., visit them for a week. Jane, who is employed in the Merchandise Mart took a week's vacation from work to stay home with her mother. Mrs. Ploetz left for Wausau on Monday.

Kaffee Klatsch

Elsie Leonhardt, of Bunting, entertained September 27. Her guests were Ruth Middleton, Elizabeth Gutzmer, Edna Vartanian, Beth Meigel and Pearl Anderson.

Lynn Nye of Bunting entertained September 29. Her guests were Kay Wehrheim, Chris Pettetier, Edith Schroeder, and 2 ladies from Mt. Prospect, Betty Bornhoeft and Mary Clark.

Lis Wells of Bob-O-Link entertained October 4. Her guests were Elaine Tanney, Marge Blim, Nora Roths, Betty Nelson and Pearl Moeller.

Cub Scouts

September 30 den 12 and den 13 of Prospect Meadows attended the meeting of cub scout pack 232 at the North school in Arlington Heights.

Den 12 won the gold pack flag because it had the highest number of points of all dens belonging to the pack and will be allowed to keep the flag until another den earns the right to take it from them. Points are awarded for the cubs participation in handicrafts, the number of personal award achievements and for the number of parents attending pack meetings with their sons. Mr. Brody, cub scout master, complimented the den for being active most of the summer because it enabled them to make such a good showing at the pack meeting.

The following members of den 12 received awards: Bobby Webber, 3 silver arrows, 1 gold arrow, a wolf badge and denner's stripes; Dean Valentine, assistant denner's stripe; Evans Wells, 2 silver arrows and 1 gold arrow; Richard Moeller, wolf badge and Daniel Wills, wolf badge. Richard Hehnen and Tom Hemesath were inducted into the cub scouts and members of den 12 participated in the induction ceremony.

Three boys, Tommy Seymour, Billy Cody and Jimmy Kandul filled out applications for membership to den 13. They will join active cubs Michael Doyle, denner; Wayne Harland, assistant denner and Larry Richardson.

Lease-Purchase Of Postal Buildings At High Level

Contracts for leasing or long-term purchase of new buildings to be used by the post office department have been signed at a rate of over one and one-half per working day during the past 18 months, postmaster general Arthur E. Summerfield reported.

Through the department's commercial leasing program and its lease-purchase method for obtaining new modern buildings, the post office department has either occupied or will occupy, upon completion, approximately 600 new units at an estimated construction cost of about $49 million dollars.

This new construction is not part of a federal public works building program. As a matter of fact, no appropriations for federal construction of public buildings for postal use have been made since 1938.

Heights Girl Scout Wins In Canoe Regatta

GAIL SMITH AND JOHN RUSING

The regatta is an annual event for girl and boy scouts and explorers in the Chicagoland area. Gail is senior girl scout in troop 95 in Arlington Heights. Her partner belongs to Explorer post 2966 in Chicago, whose advisor is an Arlington Heights resident, Norbert Donarski.

Sponsors of the regatta are the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross water safety department, the Chicago Park district and the Lincoln Park boat club.

Beginning last Saturday at Skokie lagoon a 6-session, 20-hour canoe course is being held for girl scouts and their leaders. Senior scouts and leaders, 18 years or older, will be qualified as instructors and those under 18 as basic canoeists upon successfully completing the course. Sessions are from 1 through 4 p.m. (B5

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

CHICAGO BEARS have provided plenty of tears to local fans already this year, with the season only 2 games old. When George Halas announced his retirement "after 1 more year" players, fans and sports publicitor Frank Korch all announced the boys would "win this one for George." Only trouble is, the boys haven't looked like big league football players except for 1 half against Cleveland Browns.

George Halas

Even George doesn't know why his team lost at Green Bay. "You saw the game, we've got the potential, but the Packers were inspired," said Halas. We agreed with him but wondered how a team with outstanding players at many positions could appear so disinterested in winning.

We know the Packers, and this means everyone in town up there, counts beating the Bears the greatest event of the year. But it still doesn't solve the quesion of why the northerners had the drive, the spirit, the ability to make fools of the Bears Sunday.

Thoughts expressed by fans were varied: same plays 25 years, automatic Blanda, out late the night before, and many others. Halas has been on the pan before, will live through it and is forgotten by those same fans when he is right.

But just how a group of paid, adult players can blow hot and cold is a mystery to us.

Perhaps we've been right when we've often said, "Only difference between high school and pro ball is that the pros are older and heavier." They make the same mistakes, have the same emotions, but are playing for money, not athletic awards.

ARLINGTON REDWINGS are still playing ball. They took it on the chin Sunday, but will try again against the same team this Sunday at Recreation park. Dick Bokelman has hung up his glove until next spring, enabling a couple of Bensenville players to take the mound.

Bob Thollander, Fenton high grad, twirled Sunday. He looked good for 6 innings, then developed a blister and the visitors took the game.

Probably taking the mound for the Redwings this Sunday will be Glen Van Proyan, frosh-soph grid mentor at Fenton. He has 2 years minor league ball behind him, twirling for Anderson, S. C., and Pine Bluff, Ark., of Baltimore Orioles chain.

Versatile sportsman with the Redwings is Joe Jankers of Bensenville. He played football with the Travelers semi-pro outfit Saturday night, then worked behind the plate for the Redwings Sunday.

THE NEW SCOREBOARD at Arlington Heights high school donated by the "A" club is gaining plenty of favorable comments from fans. It cost the club about $1,800, but is well worth it, with score, quarter, down, yards, possession and remaining time ticking off by the second.

Our appreciation for it was especially noticeable when we watched the Bear-Packer game at Green Bay without benefit of any scoreboard whatsoever.

The Heights board is official timer, by the way, as are all West Suburban league boards. Heights high school men responsible for the timing are Rusty Dowell and Donald Fyfe. Announcing the Heights home games is Howard Lester, who's relaxed countenance you'll be seeing when basketball season starts.

ATHLETIC DIRECTORS of West Suburban conference met Tuesday at Maine, discussing schedules and policies, and making a change in chairmen of various sports within the league.

In past years various coaches at different schools have had charge of sports scores, standings, etc.

This year chairmen of the various sports will be varsity coaches of just 1 school. The schools take turns, with Sam Marzulo and his staff at Maine doing the honors for '55-'56.

SPECULATION that Joliet will be the site of one of those "super-sectional" basketball tourney games next spring is subsiding in the wake of a guess by Al Willis, IHSA secretary, that McGraw fieldhouse at Northwestern will house the game in this area . . . Five state wrestling champions are freshmen at Illinois, including Mel Towers of Hirsch at 120, Bob Salata of Waukegan at heavy, Don Paarlberg of Thornton at 165, Werner Holzer of Schurz at 138 and Rex Whitlach of Urbana at 112 . . . Salata is currently out for frosh football, with all-state fullback rating behind him . . . Bob McKown of LaGrange twisted his ankle badly in practice at Illinois last week.

There's little seniority among North Suburban football coaches where the 8 men have had a total of 12 years league experience . . . Barrington's Tom Frederick leads with 5.

Varsity line coach at Maine and frosh-soph mentor at Downers are brothers . . . Glenbard has 8 lettermen reporting for cross country, headed by Dick Pond, Phil Shepherd, Tom Dodd and Tom Craig . . . This quote from Zupke: "A first-class line and a poet in the press box can make an All-American star out of any third rate halfback."

ILLINI RAY ELIOT is again serving on UP football coaches rating board, along with Brennan of Notre Dame, Daugherty of Michigan State, Evashevski of Iowa and Holcomb of Purdue . . . In a recent issue of Sports Illustrated Herman Hickman, the slick's football man, called attention to Arlington's Dick Winterbauer as one of the top candidates at quarter for Yale . . . Bill Beckman, Arlington's perennial weight coach for the track team, will have a tough row to hoe this year in competition with new track man Bernie Fleener at Riverside . . . Fleener, also serving as line coach and basketball mentor, coached state shot champ and third place discus men at Galesburg, Ill.

Beckman has had exceptional luck coaching Arlington boys in the weights, with Dick Winterbauer, state record holder, a prime example.

Five frosh cagers enrolling at Iowa stand 6' 7" or taller . . . They hail from Louisiana, Wyoming, Nebraska, California, and even one from Iowa . . . Enrollment at Niles this year is 1,815 . . . Little League speaker at Des Plaines recently was Guy Bush.

Glenbrook travels in style, including 3 field phones and a portable tower for observation and movie cameras . . . The tower goes up in minutes and provides quite a surprise for the uninitiated.

One of the starters for Beloit is guard Bill Mack of Crystal Lake . . . Arlington's Denny Maher is a frosh football candidate at Yale, and hopes to help his mates run up their third straight unbeaten season . . . Yale frosh opens against Columbia Saturday . . . Harlem Magicians, including Goose Tatum, Marques and 10 other colored basketball wizards, will stage a game Friday night, Nov. 4, in Arlington Heights high school gym under auspices of Heights Jaycees.

May See New Faces In Lineup For Pirates

by G. A. McELROY

Coach Charley Feutz is working his Palatine Pirates hard this week in preparation for the game at Grayslake Saturday afternoon. Feutz has scouted the Rams and reports a big tough line and a hard running fullback in 220 pound Bill Moore. Grayslake has a veteran team which has scored 3 touchdowns a week while holding the opposition scoreless, but the improving Pirates plan to make the game an even one.

Palatine was forced to settle for a tie with Grant but played much improved ball both on offense and defense. The passing attack is improving and Grabowy and Hess are doing some nice running on end sweeps. George Beyer's passing was a heavy factor in Friday's game. Palatine has a lot of positions wide open. A number of seniors have not come up to expectations in the line and may find younger boys getting the call in a wide open scrap for starting assignments.

GRAYSLAKE LOOMS as the only serious competitor the Glenbrook Spartans will have this season and with Wauconda and Gene Jaskot coming to Palatine for homecoming next week Coaches Feutz and Moylan will have their hands full getting the team ready for no worse than an even break with these two strong outfits.

Ailing John Dilks saw limited action last week and will be a big help this week. Leonard Rohde may still be out of action this week with his injured knee. Jeff Lehmann is lost for the season at end.

FENTON, WHICH LOST to Wauconda 32-0 will be up against a team Saturday which beat Wauconda last week, 12-7. Ela-Vernon was primed for Wauconda and few teams can be "hepped" to the limit 2 weeks in a row. Fenton could give the Ela Bears a real tough ball game, though the odds will be against them on the basis of past performances. Coach Tom Meneguin had numerous injuries at Wauconda and 5 boys missed action against Glenbrook.

Fenton fans are hoping some of the injured Bisons will be able to see action at Ela. Froelich and Langguth definitely will be available. D'Hooge and Fritz may see action, while Yarke is still unavailable. Ela-Vernon is big, and powers through the line between the tackles, time after time. Fenton doesn't appear to have the horses to stop this.

THIS WEEK Antioch has the dubious honor of providing cannon fodder for the Glenbrook big guns Friday night. Antioch is small and fast, but Glenbrook will score about the same as in their 2 previous 32-0 and 40-0 conference victories. The Spartans have been getting things under control early and allowing reserves to see a lot of action. Antioch does not rate any stronger than Palatine and Bensenville as far as holding Glenbrook is concerned.

Saturday night Wauconda will go after victory number 2 against winless Grant up at Fox Lake. The passing combination of Bill Weinberg to Gene Jaskot will be the deciding factor in a Wauconda victory. Grant has limited material but the football traditions of Grant, where the grid sport is the main interest, give the Bulldogs a playing spirit which makes them a lot tougher competition than some folks expect. Wauconda-Grant game will be a singleton, starting at 8:00 under the arcs.

Arlington All Star Little Leaguers And Coaches At Picnic

Parents of the All Star team of Arlington Heights Little League showed their appreciation to boys of the team, their manager and coaches by giving them an outing at Deer Grove Sunday. The boys placed second among 54 teams in the Little League all star tournament at Thillens stadium.

Boys enjoyed a picnic lunch, ice cream and soft drinks donated by Arlington Milk Co. and Arlington Beverage Co. Climax of the day was a presentation of gift certificates from the boys for manager Fink and coaches Frohne, Haiduke and Beckman.

Fenton high school has finally "arrived" with a new building, gymnasium, and everything that goes with them. Show here are lockers and equipment drying room. Carpenters and painters still aren't finished in the new building located just east of route 83 and south of Milwaukee road tracks.

Doors dividing the gym in half when needed were being installed last week. Seating capacity will be about 900 in permanent bleachers along one side of the gym, with additional seats awaiting demand and cash in the future.

Cards Fail To Take Advantage Of Breaks At Maine, Lose 20-6

Arlington gave the game away, Maine attempted to give it back, but Heights couldn't take advantage of the offer.

That best sums Friday night's tilt at Maine with the Demons landing on top, 20-6. The win kept Maine in first place in West Suburban league play, and relegated Heights to a 4-way tie for third.

ARLINGTON couldn't take advantage of the breaks, while Maine did. Lew Green stood too far back for a punt in the first quarter as the line failed to hold. Punt was blocked, giving the winners first and 10 on the local's 15. Tom Anderson ran across with the TD for Maine.

Heights previously scored one of its own. Starting from the 45 Dan Vittum caught the kickoff and carried to the Maine 49. John Sujack moved a yard. Jim Summers picked up 9. Jack Ebert picked up 11. So did Sujack. A pass moved the ball to the 11, with Summers carrying to the 2 in 2 plays. Two plays later Denny Thill snuck across.

MAINE RECEIVED the punt, came back to the 30, thence to the Heights 35 before fumbling. Arlington recovered but 4 plays later came the blocked punt, pushing the ball back to the 15. Sujack ran the ensuing kickoff from the 15 to the 40, from where Heights advanced into the second quarter, reaching the Maine 20, was then penalized 15 yards. A pass lost 10 yards and Cards punted.

After an exchange of punts Arlington fumbled at midfield, from where Maine scored in 5 plays with Ron Rutkowski carrying the final 4 yards. An 18-yard dash by Dan Grace was included in this series.

JIM SUMMERS ran the kickoff from the 15 to Maine's 45, but Heights was stopped, punting to the 20. A penalty put Maine back on its 15. Ball was moved to the 35 when half ended. Maine fumbled to open the third quarter, Arlington moving to the 24 in 2 plays, one of the plays a Sujack-Weber pass for 20 yards. A 15 yard penalty and punt gave the ball back to Maine, which fumbled on its own 14 but Heights went nowhere.

After an exchange of punts Maine fumbled on its own 30, but Heights entered into the fun by fumbling twice, the second time the ball being recovered by Blue Demons. The winners advanced 69 yards for a touchdown by Rutkowski again, longest play being a 34 yard pass from Rutkowski to George Cappetta.

AFTER KICKOFF Heights fumbled again in Maine territory, then held. Game ended with Arlington on the Maine 41. The Cardinals played fair ball other than the fumbles, with Sujack giving his usual good performance.

Arlington won some of the statistics, particularly first down, 12-9. Heights completed 8 of 15 passes, Maine 1 of 3. Maine lost all 4 fumbles, Heights 2 of 4. Locals had the ball for 60 plays, Maine 43.

Grant Surprises By Tying Palatine On Pirate Field

by TERRY MOORE

Underdog Grant scored an upset by tying Palatine 6-6 at the Palatine field Friday night.

Both touchdowns were scored in the fourth quarter, both within one minute of play. Palatine scored on a 36 yard pass from George Beyer to John Grabowy, while Grant's touchdown came on the following kickoff when Gaylor went 80 yards for the touchdown.

The Pirates were out fought by the Grant team, especially in the line where the Bulldogs continually out charged the Palatine players.

IN THE FIRST quarter Grant drove down to the Pirate 16 from their own 39 but lost the ball when they failed to make a first down. A 40 yard pass from Autschbach to Scott put the ball on the Pirate 24. In two plays Autschbach drove to the 16. On the next play DeYoung went 4 yards for the first down. The Pirate line held for the next four downs and the threat ended.

Palatine drove deep down into Grant territory in the second quarter. In 16 plays the Pirates went from their own 26 to the Grant 13. Palatine likewise failed to make a first down as the Grant line held.

Neither team could get a drive started in the third quarter.

IN THE FOURTH quarter a Grant fumble gave Palatine the ball on their own 33. Following a one yard gain, Grabowy went 14 yards for the first down. Two plays later Bob Coates passed to Grabowy for a 20 yard gain and a first down on the Grant 36. On the next play Beyer passed to Grabowy who went 36 yards for the touchdown. The extra point try was missed and Palatine led 6-0.

Steve Cornwell kicked off for Palatine on the following play to the Grant 20. Gaylor received the kick and ran 80 yards for the touchdown. Grant also missed their extra point try.

EARLY in the game Palatine had a 97 yard touchdown run by Grabowy called back because of a double penalty.

Palatine had 10 first downs to Grant's 4, and the Pirates outgained the Grant team 203 yards to 133, but it was determination that enabled Grant to tie the score.

Redwings To Play Sunday At Arlington

Arlington Redwings will play the second tilt of a 3-game schedule against Chicaog Vets, one of the stronger colored teams in Chicago, Sunday afternoon at Recreation par. Game time is 2 p.m.

Sports Author

Dr. William A. Healey, professor of physical education and head basketball coach at Northern Illinois state college, is the author of an article appearing in the magazine Progressive Education. At the same time he has been named chairman of the committee on public relations and education for the national association of intercollegiate athletics.

Arlington Could Win Before 'A' Men's Crowd

Arlington's football Cardinals will have their work cut out for them Friday night when they entertain Downers Grove, West Suburban league's fastest team.

And the pressure will be on from the stands, too, as dozens of former football lettermen sit in the stands as guests of the school in the annual "A" men's night. Former major "A" winners were invited to the game by athletic director Wally Grace.

PASS DEFENSE was the main order of business this week for Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's Cardinals. Downers has a good passing attack, a constant threat to "the enemy." Glenbard tied Downers last weekend after a Downers TD was called back. Penalties totalling 95 yards against Downers also helped even that game.

This will be Arlington's fifth football game against Downers, the visitors having won 4 of them. Only Card victory over Downers was an 18-15 affair 2 years ago. Past scores:

51—Downers 7, Arlington 0.
52—Downers 27, Arlington 0.
53—Arlington 18, Downers 15.
54—Downers 25, Arlington 0.

VICTORY for Heights in this game would move the locals into second place, now held by Downers Grove. In other West Suburban games, league leading Maine travels to Riverside, Hinsdale plays at York and LaGrange will be host to Glenbard. Only the Heights affair is a Friday night tilt, with other games Saturday.

Frosh-soph game could be an even affair. Downers has lost to LaGrange, 18-0, and was tied by Glenbard, 18-all. Arlington lost to Hinsdale, 26-13, and Maine, 39-0, though Coach Beckman almost cleared the bench in that third quarter when Maine tallied 4 times. Beckman is planning a couple of changes in starting lineup against Downers, but these changes were not known early in the week.

Tickets Ready For 'A' Men's Game

Major "A" sports winners of Arlington Heights high school will again be guests at the annual "A" men's game. Cardinals will be host to Downers Grove Friday night, Oct. 7, with the "A" men as guests.

Major "A" winners are asked to contact athletic director Wally Grace by card, phone or in person to receive the complimentary ducats. (Sp

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

CHICAGO BEARS have provided plenty of tears to local fans already this year, with the season only 2 games old. When George Halas announced his retirement "after 1 more year" players, fans and sports publicitor Frank Korch all announced the boys would "win this one for George." Only trouble is, the boys haven't looked like big league football players except for 1 half against Cleveland Browns.

George Halas

Even George doesn't know why his team lost at Green Bay. "You saw the game, we've got the potential, but the Packers were inspired," said Halas. We agreed with him but wondered how a team with outstanding players at many positions could appear so disinterested in winning.

We know the Packers, and this means everyone in town up there, counts beating the Bears the greatest event of the year. But it still doesn't solve the quesion of why the northerners had the drive, the spirit, the ability to make fools of the Bears Sunday.

Thoughts expressed by fans were varied: same plays 25 years, automatic Blanda, out late the night before, and many others. Halas has been on the pan before, will live through it and is forgotten by those same fans when he is right.

But just how a group of paid, adult players can blow hot and cold is a mystery to us.

Perhaps we've been right when we've often said, "Only difference between high school and pro ball is that the pros are older and heavier." They make the same mistakes, have the same emotions, but are playing for money, not athletic awards.

ARLINGTON REDWINGS are still playing ball. They took it on the chin Sunday, but will try again against the same team this Sunday at Recreation park. Dick Bokelman has hung up his glove until next spring, enabling a couple of Bensenville players to take the mound.

Bob Thollander, Fenton high grad, twirled Sunday. He looked good for 6 innings, then developed a blister and the visitors took the game.

Probably taking the mound for the Redwings this Sunday will be Glen Van Proyan, frosh-soph grid mentor at Fenton. He has 2 years minor league ball behind him, twirling for Anderson, S. C., and Pine Bluff, Ark., of Baltimore Orioles chain.

Versatile sportsman with the Redwings is Joe Jankers of Bensenville. He played football with the Travelers semi-pro outfit Saturday night, then worked behind the plate for the Redwings Sunday.

THE NEW SCOREBOARD at Arlington Heights high school donated by the "A" club is gaining plenty of favorable comments from fans. It cost the club about $1,800, but is well worth it, with score, quarter, down, yards, possession and remaining time ticking off by the second.

Our appreciation for it was especially noticeable when we watched the Bear-Packer game at Green Bay without benefit of any scoreboard whatsoever.

The Heights board is official timer, by the way, as are all West Suburban league boards. Heights high school men responsible for the timing are Rusty Dowell and Donald Fyfe. Announcing the Heights home games is Howard Lester, who's relaxed countenance you'll be seeing when basketball season starts.

ATHLETIC DIRECTORS of West Suburban conference met Tuesday at Maine, discussing schedules and policies, and making a change in chairmen of various sports within the league.

In past years various coaches at different schools have had charge of sports scores, standings, etc.

This year chairmen of the various sports will be varsity coaches of just 1 school. The schools take turns, with Sam Marzulo and his staff at Maine doing the honors for '55-'56.

SPECULATION that Joliet will be the site of one of those "super-sectional" basketball tourney games next spring is subsiding in the wake of a guess by Al Willis, IHSA secretary, that McGraw fieldhouse at Northwestern will house the game in this area . . . Five state wrestling champions are freshmen at Illinois, including Mel Towers of Hirsch at 120, Bob Salata of Waukegan at heavy, Don Paarlberg of Thornton at 165, Werner Holzer of Schurz at 138 and Rex Whitlach of Urbana at 112 . . . Salata is currently out for frosh football, with all-state fullback rating behind him . . . Bob McKown of LaGrange twisted his ankle badly in practice at Illinois last week.

There's little seniority among North Suburban football coaches where the 8 men have had a total of 12 years league experience . . . Barrington's Tom Frederick leads with 5.

Varsity line coach at Maine and frosh-soph mentor at Downers are brothers . . . Glenbard has 8 lettermen reporting for cross country, headed by Dick Pond, Phil Shepherd, Tom Dodd and Tom Craig . . . This quote from Zupke: "A first-class line and a poet in the press box can make an All-American star out of any third rate halfback."

ILLINI RAY ELIOT is again serving on UP football coaches rating board, along with Brennan of Notre Dame, Daugherty of Michigan State, Evashevski of Iowa and Holcomb of Purdue . . . In a recent issue of Sports Illustrated Herman Hickman, the slick's football man, called attention to Arlington's Dick Winterbauer as one of the top candidates at quarter for Yale . . . Bill Beckman, Arlington's perennial weight coach for the track team, will have a tough row to hoe this year in competition with new track man Bernie Fleener at Riverside . . . Fleener, also serving as line coach and basketball mentor, coached state shot champ and third place discus men at Galesburg, Ill.

Beckman has had exceptional luck coaching Arlington boys in the weights, with Dick Winterbauer, state record holder, a prime example.

Five frosh cagers enrolling at Iowa stand 6' 7" or taller . . . They hail from Louisiana, Wyoming, Nebraska, California, and even one from Iowa . . . Enrollment at Niles this year is 1,815 . . . Little League speaker at Des Plaines recently was Guy Bush.

Glenbrook travels in style, including 3 field phones and a portable tower for observation and movie cameras . . . The tower goes up in minutes and provides quite a surprise for the uninitiated.

One of the starters for Beloit is guard Bill Mack of Crystal Lake . . . Arlington's Denny Maher is a frosh football candidate at Yale, and hopes to help his mates run up their third straight unbeaten season . . . Yale frosh opens against Columbia Saturday . . . Harlem Magicians, including Goose Tatum, Marques and 10 other colored basketball wizards, will stage a game Friday night, Nov. 4, in Arlington Heights high school gym under auspices of Heights Jaycees.

May See New Faces In Lineup For Pirates

by G. A. McELROY

Coach Charley Feutz is working his Palatine Pirates hard this week in preparation for the game at Grayslake Saturday afternoon. Feutz has scouted the Rams and reports a big tough line and a hard running fullback in 220 pound Bill Moore. Grayslake has a veteran team which has scored 3 touchdowns a week while holding the opposition scoreless, but the improving Pirates plan to make the game an even one.

Palatine was forced to settle for a tie with Grant but played much improved ball both on offense and defense. The passing attack is improving and Grabowy and Hess are doing some nice running on end sweeps. George Beyer's passing was a heavy factor in Friday's game. Palatine has a lot of positions wide open. So did Sujack. A pass moved the ball to the 11, with Summers carrying to the 2 in 2 plays. Two plays later Denny Thill snuck across.

MAINE RECEIVED the punt, came back to the 30, thence to the Heights 35 before fumbling. Arlington recovered but 4 plays later came the blocked punt, pushing the ball back to the 15. Sujack ran the ensuing kickoff from the 15 to the 40, from where Heights advanced into the second quarter, reaching the Maine 20, was then penalized 15 yards. A pass lost 10 yards and Cards punted.

After an exchange of punts Arlington fumbled at midfield, from where Maine scored in 5 plays with Ron Rutkowski carrying the final 4 yards. An 18-yard dash by Dan Grace was included in this series.

JIM SUMMERS ran the kickoff from the 15 to Maine's 45, but Heights was stopped, punting to the 20. A penalty put Maine back on its 15. Ball was moved to the 35 when half ended. Maine fumbled to open the third quarter, Arlington moving to the 24 in 2 plays, one of the plays a Sujack-Weber pass for 20 yards. A 15 yard penalty and punt gave the ball back to Maine, which fumbled on its own 14 but Heights went nowhere.

After an exchange of punts Maine fumbled on its own 30, but Heights entered into the fun by fumbling twice, the second time the ball being recovered by Blue Demons. The winners advanced 69 yards for a touchdown by Rutkowski again, longest play being a 34 yard pass from Rutkowski to George Cappetta.

AFTER KICKOFF Heights fumbled again in Maine territory, then held. Game ended with Arlington on the Maine 41. The Cardinals played fair ball other than the fumbles, with Sujack giving his usual good performance.

Arlington won some of the statistics, particularly first down, 12-9. Heights completed 8 of 15 passes, Maine 1 of 3. Maine lost all 4 fumbles, Heights 2 of 4. Locals had the ball for 60 plays, Maine 43.

Grant Surprises By Tying Palatine On Pirate Field

by TERRY MOORE

Underdog Grant scored an upset by tying Palatine 6-6 at the Palatine field Friday night.

Both touchdowns were scored in the fourth quarter, both within one minute of play. Palatine scored on a 36 yard pass from George Beyer to John Grabowy, while Grant's touchdown came on the following kickoff when Gaylor went 80 yards for the touchdown.

The Pirates were out fought by the Grant team, especially in the line where the Bulldogs continually out charged the Palatine players.

IN THE FIRST quarter Grant drove down to the Pirate 16 from their own 39 but lost the ball when they failed to make a first down. A 40 yard pass from Autschbach to Scott put the ball on the Pirate 24. In two plays Autschbach drove to the 16. On the next play DeYoung went 4 yards for the first down. The Pirate line held for the next four downs and the threat ended.

Palatine drove deep down into Grant territory in the second quarter. In 16 plays the Pirates went from their own 26 to the Grant 13. Palatine likewise failed to make a first down as the Grant line held.

Neither team could get a drive started in the third quarter.

IN THE FOURTH quarter a Grant fumble gave Palatine the ball on their own 33. Following a one yard gain, Grabowy went 14 yards for the first down. Two plays later Bob Coates passed to Grabowy for a 20 yard gain and a first down on the Grant 36. On the next play Beyer passed to Grabowy who went 36 yards for the touchdown. The extra point try was missed and Palatine led 6-0.

Steve Cornwell kicked off for Palatine on the following play to the Grant 20. Gaylor received the kick and ran 80 yards for the touchdown. Grant also missed their extra point try.

EARLY in the game Palatine had a 97 yard touchdown run by Grabowy called back because of a double penalty.

Palatine had 10 first downs to Grant's 4, and the Pirates outgained to the Grant team 203 yards to 133, but it was determination that enabled Grant to tie the score.

Redwings To Play Sunday At Arlington

Arlington Redwings will play the second tilt of a 3-game schedule against Chicaog Vets, one of the stronger colored teams in Chicago, Sunday afternoon at Recreation par. Game time is 2 p.m.

Arlington Could Win Before 'A' Men's Crowd

Arlington's football Cardinals will have their work cut out for them Friday night when they entertain Downers Grove, West Suburban league's fastest team.

And the pressure will be on from the stands, too, as dozens of former football lettermen sit in the stands as guests of the school in the annual "A" men's night. Former major "A" winners were invited to the game by athletic director Wally Grace.

PASS DEFENSE was the main order of business this week for Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's Cardinals. Downers has a good passing attack, a constant threat to "the enemy." Glenbard tied Downers last weekend after a Downers TD was called back. Penalties totalling 95 yards against Downers also helped even that game.

This will be Arlington's fifth football game against Downers, the visitors having won 4 of them. Only Card victory over Downers was an 18-15 affair 2 years ago. Past scores:

51—Downers 7, Arlington 0.
52—Downers 27, Arlington 0.
53—Arlington 18, Downers 15.
54—Downers 25, Arlington 0.

VICTORY for Heights in this game would move the locals into second place, now held by Downers Grove. In other West Suburban games, league leading Maine travels to Riverside, Hinsdale plays at York and LaGrange will be host to Glenbard. Only the Heights affair is a Friday night tilt, with other games Saturday.

Frosh-soph game could be an even affair. Downers has lost to LaGrange, 18-0, and was tied by Glenbard, 18-all. Arlington lost to Hinsdale, 26-13, and Maine, 39-0, though Coach Beckman almost cleared the bench in that third quarter when Maine tallied 4 times. Beckman is planning a couple of changes in starting lineup against Downers, but these changes were not known early in the week.

Tickets Ready For 'A' Men's Game

Major "A" sports winners of Arlington Heights high school will again be guests at the annual "A" men's game. Cardinals will be host to Downers Grove Friday night, Oct. 7, with the "A" men as guests.

Major "A" winners are asked to contact athletic director Wally Grace by card, phone or in person to receive the complimentary ducats. (Sp

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

A YOUNG FELLOW up at Wauconda high is on his way to convincing sports writers, fans, and players he is the best football player in the Northwest conference.

Gene Jaskot

"Gene" Jaskot is playing his fourth year of varsity football at Wauconda. He has had all-conference recognition the past two seasons. Jaskot stands six feet two, weighs 185 and is strictly a team player who makes no special effort to gain glory for himself. Last week the Chicago American gave "Gene" the honor of "lineman of the week" on the basis of his catching three touchdown passes and another for an extra point against Bensenville. The week before his pass catching helped Wauconda come from behind to nip Maryville. This past weekend Jaskot scored only one point but his defensive play was outstanding as, playing linebacker, he made 25 tackles against Ela-Vernon.

TWO WEEKS of Northwest conference play has narrowed the field to only one challenger to the outstanding Glenbrook team. Grayslake has scored three touchdowns a week for three weeks while holding the opposition to nothing to assume the position of favorite for second place. This writer and few others think Glenbrook has much chance of having even a close game this season.

The rest of the league, outside of Glenbrook and Grayslake, has shown only flashes of good football and appears to be quite evenly matched. Wauconda is probably the best of the remaining teams. Excessive fumbling brought them defeat at the hands of Ela last Saturday.

THE TEAMS looking the best all have veteran quarterbacks in Duane Harms at Glenbrook, Bill Weinberg at Wauconda, and Gale Peregrin at Grayslake. Also, they have a good passing as well as running attack. Glenbrook scored all six of their touchdowns against Bensenville Friday night on plays which started 20 or more yards from the goal. Downfield blocking is one of the strong points of the Glenbrook eleven.

Antioch has a fine new scoreboard time clock combination donated to the school by the Antioch Lions Club out of receipts from sponsorship of a Harlem Globe Trotter game last winter. Saturday night the board was not too attractive to fans of the Sequoits as it showed 20-6 in the frosh-soph game and 18-0 in the varsity with Antioch on the short end of the tally.

Palatine high is planning on holding an invitational wrestling tournament during the Christmas holidays with eight teams entered in an affair to be held an afternoon and evening and a following evening with medals for three places in each weight class.

TO ALL APPEARANCES the North Suburban conference is weak in football this year. Barrington beat Palatine 14-7, was in turn beaten by one touchdown by Crystal Lake who last week was tied by Libertyville. Grant tied Libertyville in the opening game, lost 19-0 to Grayslake, and tied Palatine 6-6.

Grayslake walloped Warren 20-0 who lost by one TD to Barrington. Glenbrook beat Lake Forest 30-6 who lost 25-20 to Zion and beat Woodstock. To us all this adds up to Grayslake and Glenbrook being better than any of the North Suburban teams.

Maine appears to be the class of the West Suburban conference and Arlington Heights has the best team since they entered the league. Evanston will probably cop the big Suburban league. Leyden rated a good chance this year in the South Suburban this year was tied 7-7, by Kankakee Friday night.

FIVE YEARS FROM NOW the lineup of schools in the various suburban athletic conference will be much different than at present. The seven conferences have an organization known as the Association of Suburban Conferences formed for the purpose of realignment. While the organization has had a realignment committee of which this writer is a member, there has been only one meeting in the past two years while 4 schools are forced to free lance with no chance of a league membership.

These are Elmwood Park, Wheaton, Round Lake, and North Chicago. Several more new schools will be in operation next year. Meanwhile, some schools are gaining too much enrollment to continue in their present conferences for long.

A real study of the situation has to be made and plans made more than a year ahead of any change as athletic schedules are usually set up on a two year ahead basis. Of course athletic policies, fan interest, and sports facilities must be considered as well as enrollment in planning for changes.

Glenbrook Mauls Fenton; 40-0 Rout

by BILL RIPPERGER

The powerful Glenbrook Spartans swept over Fenton Sunday evening at Bensenville's Memorial field, as they scored 6 touchdowns and 4 extra points.

Early in the game Bacon, Spartans' fullback, scampered 66 yards into the end zone, but the play was nullified as a result of a clipping penalty. Quarterback Duane Harms carried the pigskin 41 yards on the following play, however, giving the Spartans a 6-0 lead at the end of the first speriod.

IN THE OPENING minute of the second period Gary Windels took the ball 35 yards around left end and into pay dirt. Bob Boyd kicked the conversion. Later, in the same period, Boyd snared a pass from Harms good for 41 yards and a Spartan TD. Boyd also kicked the conversion successfully and the halftime score stood 20-0, Glenbrook.

The Spartans really ran wild in the third quarter. Quarterback Harms pitched two touchdown passes to Reed, a substitute end, both from about 25 yards out. The third touchdown of the period was scored by another substitute, Don Powers, when he broke into the clear and sprinted 25 yards to the goal line. Bob Boyd kicked two extra pints in the period, one after each of Reed's tallies.

The torrid scoring pace evidently tired the Glenbrook squad, however, for in the final period neither team was able to score. Final was 40-0.

Grayslake Wins 3rd In Row At Antioch

Grayslake convinced most observers Saturday night that they have the only football team in the league capable of playing with the Glenbrook Spartans as they won their third in a row of the season 18-0 at Antioch. The Grayslake frosh-sophs also won, taking a 20-6 decision.

Coach Rooney's Grayslake Rams took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter when a drive ended with quarterback Gale Peregrin sneaking over from the two yard line. In the third period Peregrin snared an Antioch pass and ran it back 39 yards for a touchdown. In the final quarter a Grayslake drive bogged down on the Antioch 15 yard line. A field goal was attempted but the ball was low and fumbled by Antioch and recovered by Grayslake on the two yard line. Big Bill Moore, Grayslake fullback plunged over on the first play.

It was Grayslake's third straight win. They beat Warren of the North Suburban 20-0 in the opener, whipped Grant 19-0 last week, and got three touchdowns for the third straight week to top Antioch. Next Saturday afternoon the Rams will be host to the Palatine Pirates in a double bill starting at 12:30.

Fumbles Help Ela In Victory Over Wauconda

Ela-Vernon's football jinx over Wauconda asserted itself again Saturday afternoon as the Bears whipped the Bulldogs 12-7. According to Wauconda fans it was a gift, for Wauconda fumbled the ball away to Ela six times during the afternoon and one time they did it on their own one yard line and let Ela score a touchdown.

This first touchdown made by Ronnie Soos from the one yard stripe was certainly a gift but still Wauconda would have won had they held onto the ball on 2 other occasions. In the last half, trailing by 12-0 due to a 15-yard run by Al Bathrick, in the second period, Wauconda got a score when Duke Beyer plunged 8 yards. Gene Jaskot made the extra point on a pass from Bill Weinberg.

WAUCONDA dominated the last half play but could not get the touchdown needed to win. On one occasion Beyer had an open field and with no one near him dropped the ball on Ela-Vernon's 12-yard line. Another time in the waning minutes of the game Wauconda marched from their own 25 and had first down on Ela's 5-yard line but fumbled and Ela recovered.

Lee Bathrick at tackle for Ela and Gene Jaskot at line backer on defense for Wauconda were standout players for their respective teams.

Ela won the frosh-soph preliminary 18-7.

Card Frosh Blank Maine

If spirit and determination are any gauge in football, look out for Arlington's gridiron heroes a couple of years from now.

That was evident Monday as the Cardinal freshmen showed Coach Curtis Larsen they've got what it takes to win a ball game.

The local yearlings scored early in the first quarter, then successfully defended their own goal line the rest of the game against Maine. Margin was 6-0.

CARD FROSH started from their own 50 and marched to the 2. Left halfback Dave Buren then carried across for the touchdown. Allan Sander attempted to carry the point after, but didn't make it.

Arlington had other scoring opportunities but couldn't make the grade. At one time the locals had third down, 1 foot to go, on the 12, but 2 quarterback sneaks didn't pick up the necessary inches. Arlington's defense was good, stopping several Maine threats within the Heights 10.

BLOCKING and tackling were better for Heights. Spirit and determination were up. A big difference in all-around play was evident, with good organization helping the cause.

Jeff Heintz played a good defensive game, as did Ed Whitelaw and Don Gerken in the line. Gerken had been suffering from a sore toe, seeing action for the first time against Maine.

Arlington won on first downs, 9-5, and total yardage, 208-193. Heights completed 4 of 8 passes, a good mark compared to Maine's 1 of 7. Maine's 4 fumbles didn't help the Des Plaines cause though Arlington picked up only 1 of these.

Heights Sophs Fail To Improve, Lose 39-0

Arlington's sophomore football squad opened on the victory trail Friday night at Maine, but lost its way after a 63 yard march and lost, 39-0. In that time the young Cardinals marched from their own 20 to the Maine 17, where they lost the ball on downs. Next play Pagel ran 83 yards to hit pay dirt for Maine.

Maine picked up speed the third quarter with 4 TDs. Two were passes, 1 a 17-yard run by Gruber, the fourth a Heights fumble on its own 15 which Maine picked up and ran across. Maine scored its final tally in the final period on a long run.

COACH BECKMAN was disappointed in the play of his sophomores. "We'd hoped the improvement from the Hinsdale game would carry over, but there was no further improvement evident in this one," stated Bill. The local sophomores didn't even play the kind of ball they had shown during the week, though they racked up some statistics that looked good.

Both teams made 8 first downs. Maine won on rushing, 326-223. Heights won on punting yardage, 192-38, but this is certainly not positive action. The scoreboard pays off only on touchdowns, and Arlington had nary a one to offer.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

A YOUNG FELLOW up at Wauconda high is on his way to convincing sports writers, fans, and players he is the best football player in the Northwest conference. "Gene" Jaskot is playing his fourth year of varsity football at Wauconda. He has had all-conference recognition the past two seasons. Jaskot stands six feet two, weighs 185 and is strictly a team player who makes no special effort to gain glory for himself. Last week the Chicago American gave "Gene" the honor of "lineman of the week" on the basis of his catching three touchdown passes and another for an extra point against Bensenville. The week before his pass catching helped Wauconda come from behind to nip Maryville. This past weekend Jaskot scored only one point but his defensive play was outstanding as, playing linebacker, he made 25 tackles against Ela-Vernon.

Gene Jaskot

TWO WEEKS of Northwest conference play has narrowed the field to only one challenger to the outstanding Glenbrook team. Grayslake has scored three touchdowns a week for three weeks while holding the opposition to nothing to assume the position of favorite for second place. This writer and few others think Glenbrook has much chance of having even a close game this season.

The rest of the league, outside of Glenbrook and Grayslake, has shown only flashes of good football and appears to be quite evenly matched. Wauconda is probably the best of the remaining teams. Excessive fumbling brought them defeat at the hands of Ela last Saturday.

THE TEAMS looking the best all have veteran quarterbacks in Duane Harms at Glenbrook, Bill Weinberg at Wauconda, and Gale Peregrin at Grayslake. Also, they have a good passing as well as running attack. Glenbrook scored all six of their touchdowns against Bensenville Friday night on plays which started 20 or more yards from the goal. Downfield blocking is one of the strong points of the Glenbrook eleven.

Antioch has a fine new scoreboard time clock combination donated to the school by the Antioch Lions Club out of receipts from sponsorship of a Harlem Globe Trotter game last winter. Saturday night the board was not too attractive to fans of the Sequoits as it showed 20-6 in the frosh-soph game and 18-0 in the varsity with Antioch on the short end of the tally.

Palatine high is planning on holding an invitational wrestling tournament during the Christmas holidays with eight teams entered in an affair to be held an afternoon and evening and a following evening with medals for three places in each weight class.

TO ALL APPEARANCES the North Suburban conference is weak in football this year. Barrington beat Palatine 14-7, was in turn beaten by one touchdown by Crystal Lake who last week was tied by Libertyville. Grant tied Libertyville in the opening game, lost 19-0 to Grayslake, and tied Palatine 6-6.

Grayslake walloped Warren 20-0 who lost by one TD to Barrington. Glenbrook beat Lake Forest 30-6 who lost 25-20 to Zion and beat Woodstock. To us all this adds up to Grayslake and Glenbrook being better than any of the North Suburban teams.

Maine appears to be the class of the West Suburban conference and Arlington Heights has the best team since they entered the league. Evanston will probably cop the big Suburban league. Leyden rated a good chance this year in the South Suburban this year was tied 7-7 by Kankakee Friday night.

FIVE YEARS FROM NOW the lineup of schools in the various suburban athletic conference will be much different than at present. The seven conferences have an organization known as the Association of Suburban Conferences formed for the purpose of realignment. While the organization has had a realignment committee of which this writer is a member, there has been only one meeting in the past two years while 4 schools are forced to free lance with no chance of a league membership.

These are Elmwood Park, Wheaton, Round Lake, and North Chicago. Several more new schools will be in operation next year. Meanwhile, some schools are gaining too much enrollment to continue in their present conferences for long.

A real study of the situation has to be made and plans made more than a year ahead of any change as athletic schedules are usually set up on a two year ahead basis. Of course athletic policies, fan interest, and sports facilities must be considered as well as enrollment in planning for changes.

Glenbrook Mauls Fenton; 40-0 Rout

by BILL RIPPERGER

The powerful Glenbrook Spartans swept over Fenton Sunday evening at Bensenville's Memorial field, as they scored 6 touchdowns and 4 extra points.

Early in the game Bacon, Spartans' fullback, scampered 66 yards into the end zone, but the play was nullified as a result of a clipping penalty. Quarterback Duane Harms carried the pigskin 41 yards on the following play, however, giving the Spartans a 6-0 lead at the end of the first speriod.

IN THE OPENING minute of the second period Gary Windels took the ball 35 yards around left end and into pay dirt. Bob Boyd kicked the conversion. Later, in the same period, Boyd snared a pass from Harms good for 41 yards and a Spartan TD. Boyd also kicked the conversion successfully and the halftime score stood 20-0, Glenbrook.

The Spartans really ran wild in the third quarter. Quarterback Harms pitched two touchdown passes to Reed, a substitute end, both from about 25 yards out. The third touchdown of the period was scored by another substitute, Don Powers, when he broke into the clear and sprinted 25 yards to the goal line. Bob Boyd kicked two extra pints in the period, one after each of Reed's tallies.

The torrid scoring pace evidently tired the Glenbrook squad, however, for in the final period neither team was able to score. Final was 40-0.

Grayslake Wins 3rd In Row At Antioch

Grayslake convinced most observers Saturday night that they have the only football team in the league capable of playing with the Glenbrook Spartans as they won their third in a row of the season 18-0 at Antioch. The Grayslake frosh-sophs also won, taking a 20-6 decision.

Coach Rooney's Grayslake Rams took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter when a drive ended with quarterback Gale Peregrin sneaking over from the two yard line. In the third period Peregrin snared an Antioch pass and ran it back 39 yards for a touchdown. In the final quarter a Grayslake drive bogged down on the Antioch 15 yard line. A field goal was attempted but the ball was low and fumbled by Antioch and recovered by Grayslake on the two yard line. Big Bill Moore, Grayslake fullback plunged over on the first play.

It was Grayslake's third straight win. They beat Warren of the North Suburban 20-0 in the opener, whipped Grant 19-0 last week, and got three touchdowns for the third straight week to top Antioch. Next Saturday afternoon the Rams will be host to the Palatine Pirates in a double bill starting at 12:30.

Fumbles Help Ela In Victory Over Wauconda

Ela-Vernon's football jinx over Wauconda asserted itself again Saturday afternoon as the Bears whipped the Bulldogs 12-7. According to Wauconda fans it was a gift, for Wauconda fumbled the ball away to Ela six times during the afternoon and one time they did it on their own one yard line and let Ela score a touchdown.

This first touchdown made by Ronnie Soos from the one yard stripe was certainly a gift but still Wauconda would have won had they held onto the ball on 2 other occasions. In the last half, trailing by 12-0 due to a 15-yard run by Al Bathrick, in the second period, Wauconda got a score when Duke Beyer plunged 8 yards. Gene Jaskot made the extra point on a pass from Bill Weinberg.

WAUCONDA dominated the last half play but could not get the touchdown needed to win. On one occasion Beyer had an open field and with no one near him dropped the ball on Ela-Vernon's 12-yard line. Another time in the waning minutes of the game Wauconda marched from their own 25 and had first down on Ela's 5-yard line but fumbled and Ela recovered.

Lee Bathrick at tackle for Ela and Gene Jaskot at line backer on defense for Wauconda were standout players for their respective teams.

Ela won the frosh-soph preliminary 18-7.

Card Frosh Blank Maine

If spirit and determination are any gauge in football, look out for Arlington's gridiron heroes a couple of years from now.

That was evident Monday as the Cardinal freshmen showed Coach Curtis Larsen they've got what it takes to win a ball game.

The local yearlings scored early in the first quarter, then successfully defended their own goal line the rest of the game against Maine. Margin was 6-0.

CARD FROSH started from their own 50 and marched to the 2. Left halfback Dave Buren then carried across for the touchdown. Allan Sander attempted to carry the point after, but didn't make it.

Arlington had other scoring opportunities but couldn't make the grade. At one time the locals had third down, 1 foot to go, on the 12, but 2 quarterback sneaks didn't pick up the necessary inches. Arlington's defense was good, stopping several Maine threats within the Heights 10.

BLOCKING and tackling were better for Heights. Spirit and determination were up. A big difference in all-around play was evident, with good organization helping the cause.

Jeff Heintz played a good defensive game, as did Ed Whitelaw and Don Gerken in the line. Gerken had been suffering from a sore toe, seeing action for the first time against Maine.

Arlington won on first downs, 9-5, and total yardage, 208-193. Heights completed 4 of 8 passes, a good mark compared to Maine's 1 of 7. Maine's 4 fumbles didn't help the Des Plaines cause though Arlington picked up only 1 of these.

Heights Sophs Fail To Improve, Lose 39-0

Arlington's sophomore football squad opened on the victory trail Friday night at Maine, but lost its way after a 63 yard march and lost, 39-0. In that time the young Cardinals marched from their own 20 to the Maine 17, where they lost the ball on downs. Next play Pagel ran 83 yards to hit pay dirt for Maine.

Maine picked up speed the third quarter with 4 TDs. Two were passes, 1 a 17-yard run by Gruber, the fourth a Heights fumble on its own 15 which Maine picked up and ran across. Maine scored its final tally in the final period on a long run.

COACH BECKMAN was disappointed in the play of his sophomores. "We'd hoped the improvement from the Hinsdale game would carry over, but there was no further improvement evident in this one," stated Bill. The local sophomores didn't even play the kind of ball they had shown during the week, though they racked up some statistics that looked good.

Both teams made 8 first downs. Maine won on rushing, 326-223. Heights won on punting yardage, 192-38, but this is certainly not positive action. The scoreboard pays off only on touchdowns, and Arlington had nary a one to offer.

Palatine Sophs Blank Grant

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine frosh-soph eleven marched over their conference opponents, the Grant Bulldogs, by a score of 27-0 at Palatine's Community Park field Friday night.

Jordon Danforth caught a touchdown pass when it deflected off the hands of one of Grant's defensive halfbacks. The play went for 39 yards. Two of the other touchdowns came on 43 and 51 yard runs around end by Richard Wisner. The final touchdown came when Jerry Segebrecht intercepted a pass on Grant's 20 yard line and ran for a touchdown.

PALATINE halfbacks Bob Nordin and Don Teegan were great factors in Palatine getting their victory. Don intercepted a pass which set up one of Palatine's touchdown. Bob's runs around end were important in getting first downs and setting up touchdowns.

Statistics showed the Palatine running attack gained 333 yards to Grant's 75. The reason for Grant's not gaining a lot of yardage was Palatine's good defensive line play. Other statistics were, Palatine's passing yardage 55 to Grant's 14 and Palatine with 11 first downs to Grant's 6. However. Grant's penalties were only 5 yards to Palatine's 65 yards.

Sizzling On The

College Grid

Northwestern's embattled Wildcats, victims of successive setbacks by Miami, Ohio, and Tulane, open their Big Ten season against an old rival, Minnesota, at Dyche stadium Saturday, October 8.

The Wildcats will be strengthened for the Gopher engagement by the return of halfbacks Ollie Lindborg and Jerry Weber, who missed the Tulane game because of injuries. The pair constitute the fastest backs on the squad and their presence will add speed to the Purple attack which was lacking against Tulane.

Biggest stumbling-block to the Purple cause has been the penalty department. Against Tulane, the Wildcats were assessed 13 penalties for a total of 125 yards. Many of the infractions came after lengthy gains which repeatedly hamstrung the attack.

Saban is particularly disappointed with the Wildcat aerial game which has been used but sparingly to date. Veteran quarterbacks Dale Pienta and Jack Ellis have failed to hit their 1954 form as they have completed but 5 passes out of 20 attempts between them. Three of their aerials have been intercepted.

Sophomore quarterback Neil Erickson who completed 1 pass out of 3 attempts in a brief appearance against Tulane, may see increasing action against the Gophers. He also has made Northwestern's longest run from scrimmage this season, a 40-yard sprint against Tulane.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN and Northern Illinois State will vie for their first IIAC wins of the year when they clash at Mt. Pleasant, Mich., on Saturday afternoon.

Northern's Huskies came up with a 7-7 tie against Illinois Normal in league play last Saturday, while the Chips were upset, 14-13, by Southern Illinois University. Central is the IIAC defending co-champion.

The Northern and Central rosters provide sharp contrasts. While the Chips have 20 lettermen including 11 seniors on their squad, Bob Kahler's Huskies have 13 freshmen among their ranks. The frosh are important factors in Kahler's offensive patterns.

PURDUE'S DEFENSE, which has yielded an average net of only 132 yards from scrimmage in a pair of narrow margin opening wins, will be severely tested by the high-geared Wisconsin attack that has run rough shod over Marquette and Iowa as the Boilermakers open their home Big Ten season against the Badgers here Saturday.

The Boilermakers, who have been particularly impressive with their defense against running plays, allowing College of the Pacific a net of only 99 yards on the ground and Minnesota only 51 yards, will be bucking up against an explosive Badger offense that has averaged 422.5 yards from scrimmage in the 2 starts to date.

Wisconsin will present a versatile, balanced attack that has been equally effective on the ground and in the air. On running plays, Charles Thomas, fullback who has taken up where Alan Ameche left off, is ably supported by halfbacks Pat Levenhagen and Billy Lowe. Aerially, the Badgers pack a one-two punch in quarterbacks Jim Miller and Jim Haluska. Haluska has completed 14 of his 19 overhead attempts so far this season for a net of 220 yards and 3 touchdowns.

"OHIO STATE could have beaten Stanford as easily as it lost and will be on the rebound this week. That will pose a tough problem for Illinois at Columbus Saturday." Coach Leo Johnson, who has scouted the Buckeyes in their 2 1955 games, reports.

"Woody Hayes' team made more first downs, more total yardage, and was even in all other statistical departments, but just couldn't seem to get going when it counted against a 'sky-high' Stanford," Johnson said. "That can mean nothing but trouble for Illinois when Ohio buckles down for its conference season."

"THIS WILL BE a far better running attack than Illinois has met so far. Cassady is always dangerous and both Roseboro and Harkrader have break-away speed," Johnson said.

He characterized Ohio's line as "very tough defensively. It gave up only 139 yards to Stanford by rushing; it's big and hard to move. Standouts are Ken Vargo, 196-pound center and linebacker; Jim Parker, 242-pound guard who also operates as a linebacker on defense, and Francis Machinsky, 209-pound right tackle."

Glenbrook Sophs Whitewash Fenton

by MAX ZOLLNER

Glenbrook's frosh-sophs copped their first conference win by defeating Fenton, 14-0 Friday evening.

Early in the first period Spartan Rudolph snagged a 30 yard pass which placed the Glenbrook eleven on the Bison 2 yard line. Thomas, Spartan quarterback then carried the ball for the touchdown. Nicoll converted, giving Glenbrook a 7 point edge.

In the second and third quarters the ball changed hands many times but neither Spartans nor the Bisons scored.

Nicoll, Spartan left half, scampered 21 yards after receiving a pass from quarterback Thomas late in the final stanza. Bullying his way up the middle, Nicoll scored on the next play. Nicoll converted, making the final tally Glenbrook 14, Fenton 0.

Travelers Swamp Rockford, 35-6; At Delavan This Sunday

Elmhurst Travelers won their 3rd football game in the Bi State League Saturday night at Bensenville by defeating Rockford Golden Eagles, 35-6.

This was the first time the Travelers have defeated Rockford in 7 starts - Earl Napier, who is a sure cinch for all-league this season played a bang-up game.

After a slow start the Travelers took off in the second half to roll up a 35-6 win.

Next Sunday the Travelers will go to Lake Geneva to play the powerful Delavan Red Devils. Delavan has won 5 out of 7 this season and even tho it is an exhibition game, the local squad is out for its 5th win of the 55 season.

Heights JVs Lose

Larry Long dashed 30 yards for a TD to put Arlington's JV football squad ahead at Maine Monday, 7-0, but the Blue Demons came back strong with 2 touchdowns both the second and third quarters, followed by a safety the final period, for a 28-7 win. Schimmel scored the point after for Heights on a quick pass. That ended the threat, however, for Coach Art Serfling's JV squad.

Palatine Sophs Blank Grant

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine frosh-soph eleven marched over their conference opponents, the Grant Bulldogs, by a score of 27-0 at Palatine's Community Park field Friday night.

Jordon Danforth caught a touchdown pass when it deflected off the hands of one of Grant's defensive halfbacks. The play went for 39 yards. Two of the other touchdowns came on 43 and 51 yard runs around end by Richard Wisner. The final touchdown came when Jerry Segebrecht intercepted a pass on Grant's 20 yard line and ran for a touchdown.

PALATINE halfbacks Bob Nordin and Don Teegan were great factors in Palatine getting their victory. Don intercepted a pass which set up one of Palatine's touchdown. Bob's runs around end were important in getting first downs and setting up touchdowns.

Statistics showed the Palatine running attack gained 333 yards to Grant's 75. The reason for Grant's not gaining a lot of yardage was Palatine's good defensive line play. Other statistics were, Palatine's passing yardage 55 to Grant's 14 and Palatine with 11 first downs to Grant's 6. However, Grant's penalties were only 5 yards to Palatine's 65 yards.

Sizzling On The
College Grid

Northwestern's embattled Wildcats, victims of successive setbacks by Miami, Ohio, and Tulane, open their Big Ten season against an old rival, Minnesota, at Dyche stadium Saturday, October 8.

The Wildcats will be strengthened for the Gopher engagement by the return of halfbacks Ollie Lindborg and Jerry Weber, who missed the Tulane game because of injuries. The pair constitute the fastest backs on the squad and their presence will add speed to the Purple attack which was lacking against Tulane.

Biggest stumbling-block to the Purple cause has been the penalty department. Against Tulane, the Wildcats were assessed 13 penalties for a total of 125 yards. Many of the infractions came after lengthy gains which repeatedly hamstrung the attack.

Saban is particularly disappointed with the Wildcat aerial game which has been used but sparingly to date. Veteran quarterbacks Dale Pienta and Jack Ellis have failed to hit their 1954 form as they have completed but 5 passes out of 20 attempts between them. Three of their aerials have been intercepted.

Sophomore quarterback Neil Erickson who completed 1 pass out of 3 attempts in a brief appearance against Tulane, may see increasing action against the Gophers. He also has made Northwestern's longest run from scrimmage this season, a 40-yard sprint against Tulane.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN and Northern Illinois State will vie for their first IIAC wins of the year when they clash at Mt. Pleasant, Mich., on Saturday afternoon.

Northern's Huskies came up with a 7-7 tie against Illinois Normal in league play last Saturday, while the Chips were upset, 14-13, by Southern Illinois University. Central is the IIAC defending co-champion.

The Northern and Central rosters provide sharp contrasts. While the Chips have 20 lettermen including 11 seniors on their squad, Bob Kahler's Huskies have 13 freshmen among their ranks. The frosh are important factors in Kahler's offensive patterns.

PURDUE'S DEFENSE, which has yielded an average net of only 132 yards from scrimmage in a pair of narrow margin opening wins, will be severely tested by the high-geared Wisconsin attack that has run rough shod over Marquette and Iowa as the Boilermakers open their home Big Ten season against the Badgers here Saturday.

The Boilermakers, who have been particularly impressive with their defense against running plays, allowing College of the Pacific a net of only 99 yards on the ground and Minnesota only 51 yards, will be bucking up against an explosive Badger offense that has averaged 422.5 yards from scrimmage in the 2 starts to date.

Wisconsin will present a versatile, balanced attack that has been equally effective on the ground and in the air. On running plays, Charles Thomas, fullback who has taken up where Alan Ameche left off, is ably supported by halfbacks Pat Levenhagen and Billy Lowe. Aerially, the Badgers pack a one-two punch in quarterbacks Jim Miller and Jim Haluska. Haluska has completed 14 of his 19 overhead attempts so far this season for a net of 220 yards and 3 touchdowns.

"OHIO STATE could have beaten Stanford as easily as it lost and will be on the rebound this week. That will pose a tough problem for Illinois at Columbus Saturday." Coach Leo Johnson, who has scouted the Buckeyes in their 2 1955 games, reports.

"Woody Hayes' team made more first downs, more total yardage, and was even in all other statistical departments, but just couldn't seem to get going when it counted against a 'sky-high' Stanford," Johnson said. "That can mean nothing but trouble for Illinois when Ohio buckles down for its conference season."

"THIS WILL BE a far better running attack than Illinois has met so far. Cassady is always dangerous and both Roseboro and Harkrader have break-away speed," Johnson said.

He characterized Ohio's line as "very tough defensively. It gave up only 139 yards to Stanford by rushing; it's big and hard to move. Standouts are Ken Vargo, 196-pound center and linebacker; Jim Parker, 242-pound guard who also operates as a linebacker on defense, and Francis Machinsky, 209-pound right tackle."

Glenbrook Sophs Whitewash Fenton

by MAX ZOLLNER

Glenbrook's frosh-sophs copped their first conference win by defeating Fenton, 14-0 Friday evening.

Early in the first period Spartan Rudolph snagged a 30 yard pass which placed the Glenbrook eleven on the Bison 2 yard line. Thomas, Spartan quarterback then carried the ball for the touchdown. Nicoll converted, giving Glenbrook a 7 point edge.

In the second and third quarters the ball changed hands many times but neither Spartans nor the Bisons scored.

Nicoll, Spartan left half, scampered 21 yards after receiving a pass from quarterback Thomas late in the final stanza. Bullying his way up the middle, Nicoll scored on the next play. Nicoll converted, making the final tally Glenbrook 14, Fenton 0.

Travelers Swamp Rockford, 35-6; At Delavan This Sunday

Elmhurst Travelers won their 3rd football game in the Bi State League Saturday night at Bensenville by defeating Rockford Golden Eagles, 35-6.

This was the first time the Travelers have defeated Rockford in 7 starts - Earl Napier, who is a sure cinch for all-league this season played a bang-up game.

After a slow start the Travelers took off in the second half to roll up a 35-6 win.

Next Sunday the Travelers will go to Lake Geneva to play the powerful Delavan Red Devils. Delavan has won 5 out of 7 this season and even tho it is an exhibition game, the local squad is out for its 5th win of the 55 season.

Heights JVs Lose

Larry Long dashed 30 yards for a TD to put Arlington's JV football squad ahead at Maine Monday, 7-0, but the Blue Demons came back strong with 2 touchdowns both the second and third quarters, followed by a safety the final period, for a 28-7 win. Schimmel scored the point after for Heights on a quick pass. That ended the threat, however, for Coach Art Serfling's JV squad.

Arlington Harriers Lose To Maine, Leyden

Arlington Heights high school cross country squad dropped 2 meets the past week, falling before Maine, 20-46, Sept. 30 and losing to Leyden, 19-55, Oct. 4.

Bill Palmer, the Cardinals No. 1 runner, nosed out Liedholm of Maine to take first in 9:56.9. First 5 finishers for Heights included Wayne Haemker 7th, Ted Geocaris 11th, Tom Jacobsen 13th, Alan Hutchinson 14th.

Finishing 2nd through 6th for Maine were Liedholm, Fleming., Piening, Chase and Osborne. First 4 are seniors.

Bill Palmer finished second against Leyden Tuesday. Others who counted for Coach Russ Attis included Haemker 11th, Hutchinson 13th, Dick Koopman 14th, Jacobsen 15th. Finishing 1-3-4-5-6 for Leyden were Schmidt, Burkowski, Shanks, Vonesh and Ecklund.

Q. Are desserts always eaten with the fork?

A. This depends upon the dessert. Some desserts are just too soft to be handled with the fork, A good rule to follow is to use your fork whenever possible—but use good judgment, too.

Q. Are desserts always eaten with the fork?

A. This depends upon the dessert. Some desserts are just too soft to be handled with the fork, A good rule to follow is to use your fork whenever possible—but use good judgment, too.

Annual Care Seen Best Insurance For Healthy Trees

When planning your family budget, don't forget your trees.

Year-around maintenance of trees is a home owner's best insurance for having healthy trees, according to J. M. McNees, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. There will be less strain on the budget if he sets aside a regular amount for tree and shrub care.

This planned care should include a reasonable amount for spraying, feeding, pruning and bracing, basic needs for most trees. After two or three years of such maintenance, many home owners find they can reduce their tree budgets because trees are now healthy and vigorous.

While by no means a cure all, good annual maintenance is probably the best protection the home owner has against such scourges as Dutch elm disease. Dutch elm and many other tree diseases are spread by insect pests of one kind or another. Thus annual spray programs tend to keep tree ills of this kind at a minimum.

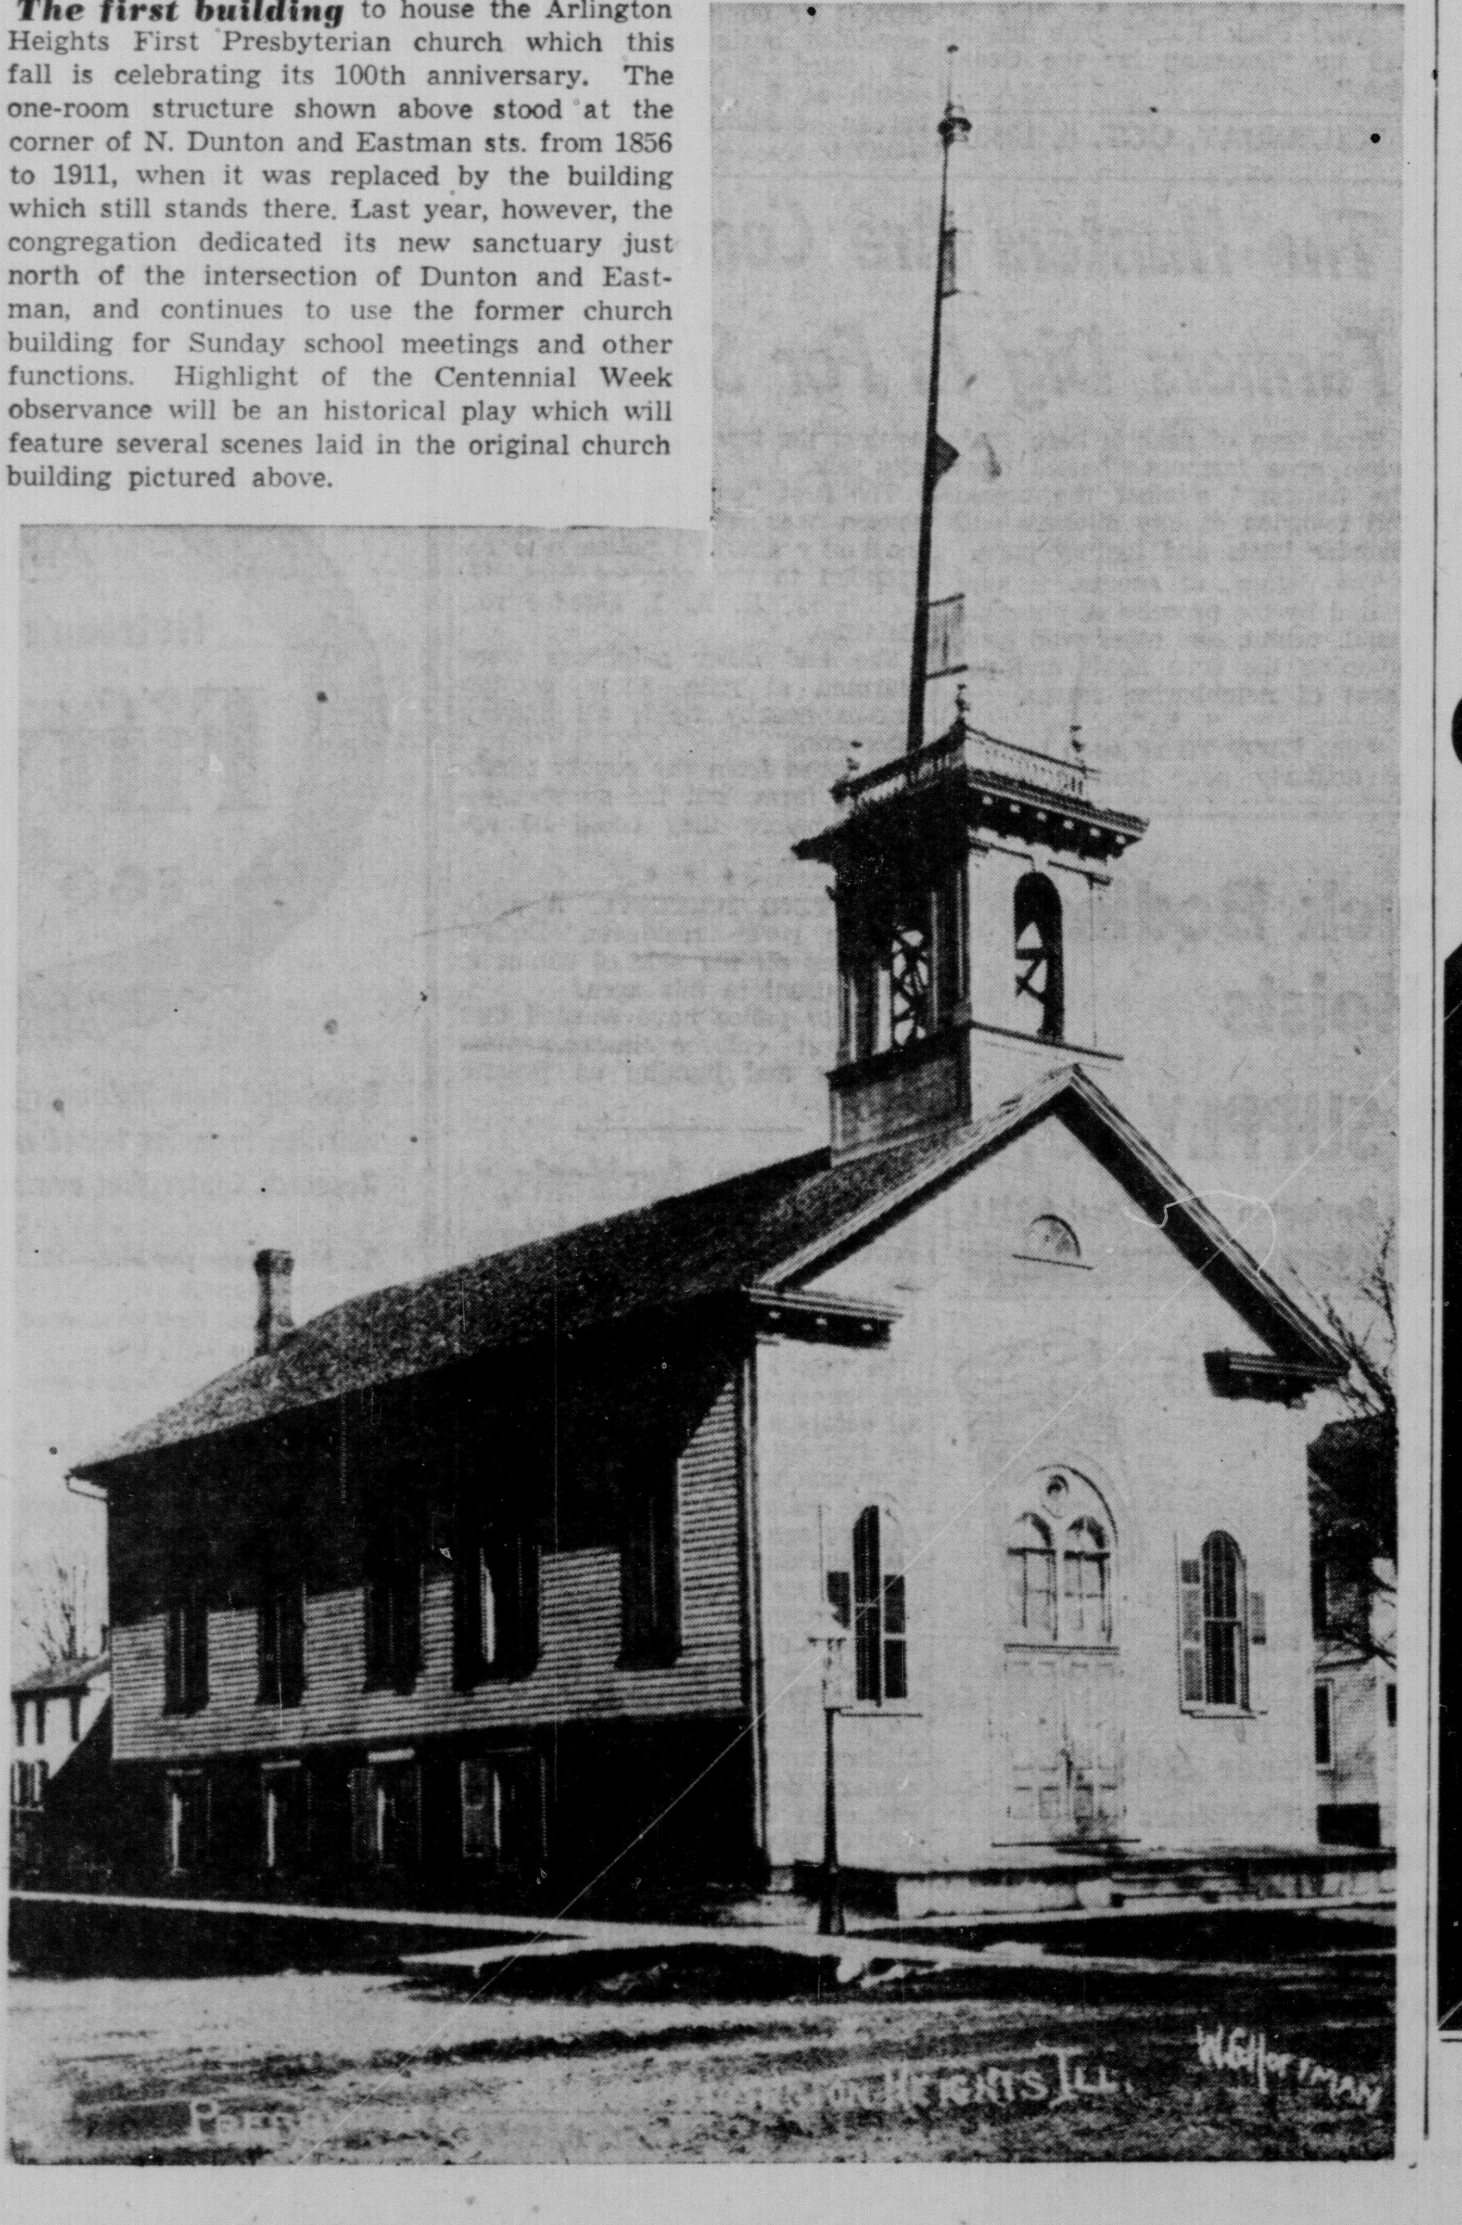
Experts believe periodic feeding is a major maintenance item because city and suburban trees don't have available the natural foods of the woodlands.

Trees on new home sites, going through a difficult transition period from wild to domestic life, are particularly in need of regular inspection and care. (DL

Abolitionist Relic Found In Walls Of Old Razed House

A Lake Villa resident recently uncovered a relic of abolitionist days from inner walls of an old house razed a year ago.

William B. Daly found the relic among newspapers used to insulate the inner walls of the house before sheathing. Among them was the masthead of "The Western Citizen," dated April 10, 1849. The newspaper, a strong anti-slavery organ in pre-Civil war days, was published in Chicago.



The first building to house the Arlington Heights First Presbyterian church which this fall is celebrating its 100th anniversary. The one-room structure shown above stood at the corner of N. Dunton and Eastman sts. from 1856 to 1911, when it was replaced by the building which still stands there. Last year, however, the congregation dedicated its new sanctuary just north of the intersection of Dunton and Eastman, and continues to use the former church building for Sunday school meetings and other functions. Highlight of the Centennial Week observance will be an historical play which will feature several scenes laid in the original church building pictured above.

Arlington Heights Womans club committee chairmen who will serve for this year are, back row, left to right, Mrs. A. Burton Noyes, education; Mrs. Jack Aldrich, literature; Mrs. W. E. Fritz, family finance; Mrs. Richard Brownwell, American citizenship and legislation; Mrs. H. L. Berthold Jr., conservation and garden and Mrs. W. G. Inman, hospitality. Middle row, Mrs. J. Alton Reitzel, friends of the library; Mrs. Wier Swanson, program; Mrs. Robert T. van Ee, American home; Mrs. Richard Mates, Indian affairs; Mrs. Hugh Hoym, music, and Mrs. W. H. Spears, art. Bottom row, Mrs. Bradford Carlton, veterans service; Mrs. Paul V. Colianni, membership and courtesy; Mrs. William E. Sauer, civil defense. Committee chairmen not in picture are Mrs. M. L. Kurtz, revisions; Mrs. R. E. Drechsel, Jr. club sponsor; Mrs. G. F. Andrus, public welfare; Mrs. Robert Marsh, pressbook; Mrs. L. P. Swanson, international relations; Mrs. Walter G. Edelblute, infantile paralysis; Mrs. G. O. Gullickson, Park Ridge School for Girls; Mrs. Milton F. Daniels, historian; Mrs. Charles Stadelman, community achievement; Mrs. James L. Annual Care Seen Best Insurance For Healthy Trees

Year-around maintenance of trees is a home owner's best insurance for having healthy trees, according to J. M. McNees, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co. There will be less strain on the budget if he sets aside a regular amount for tree and shrub care.

This planned care should include a reasonable amount for spraying, feeding, pruning and bracing, basic needs for most trees. After two or three years of such maintenance, many home owners find they can reduce their tree budgets because trees are now healthy and vigorous.

While by no means a cure all, good annual maintenance is probably the best protection the home owner has against such scourges as Dutch elm disease. Dutch elm and many other tree diseases are spread by insect pests of one kind or another. Thus annual spray programs tend to keep tree ills of this kind at a minimum.

Experts believe periodic feeding is a major maintenance item because city and suburban trees don't have available the natural foods of the woodlands.

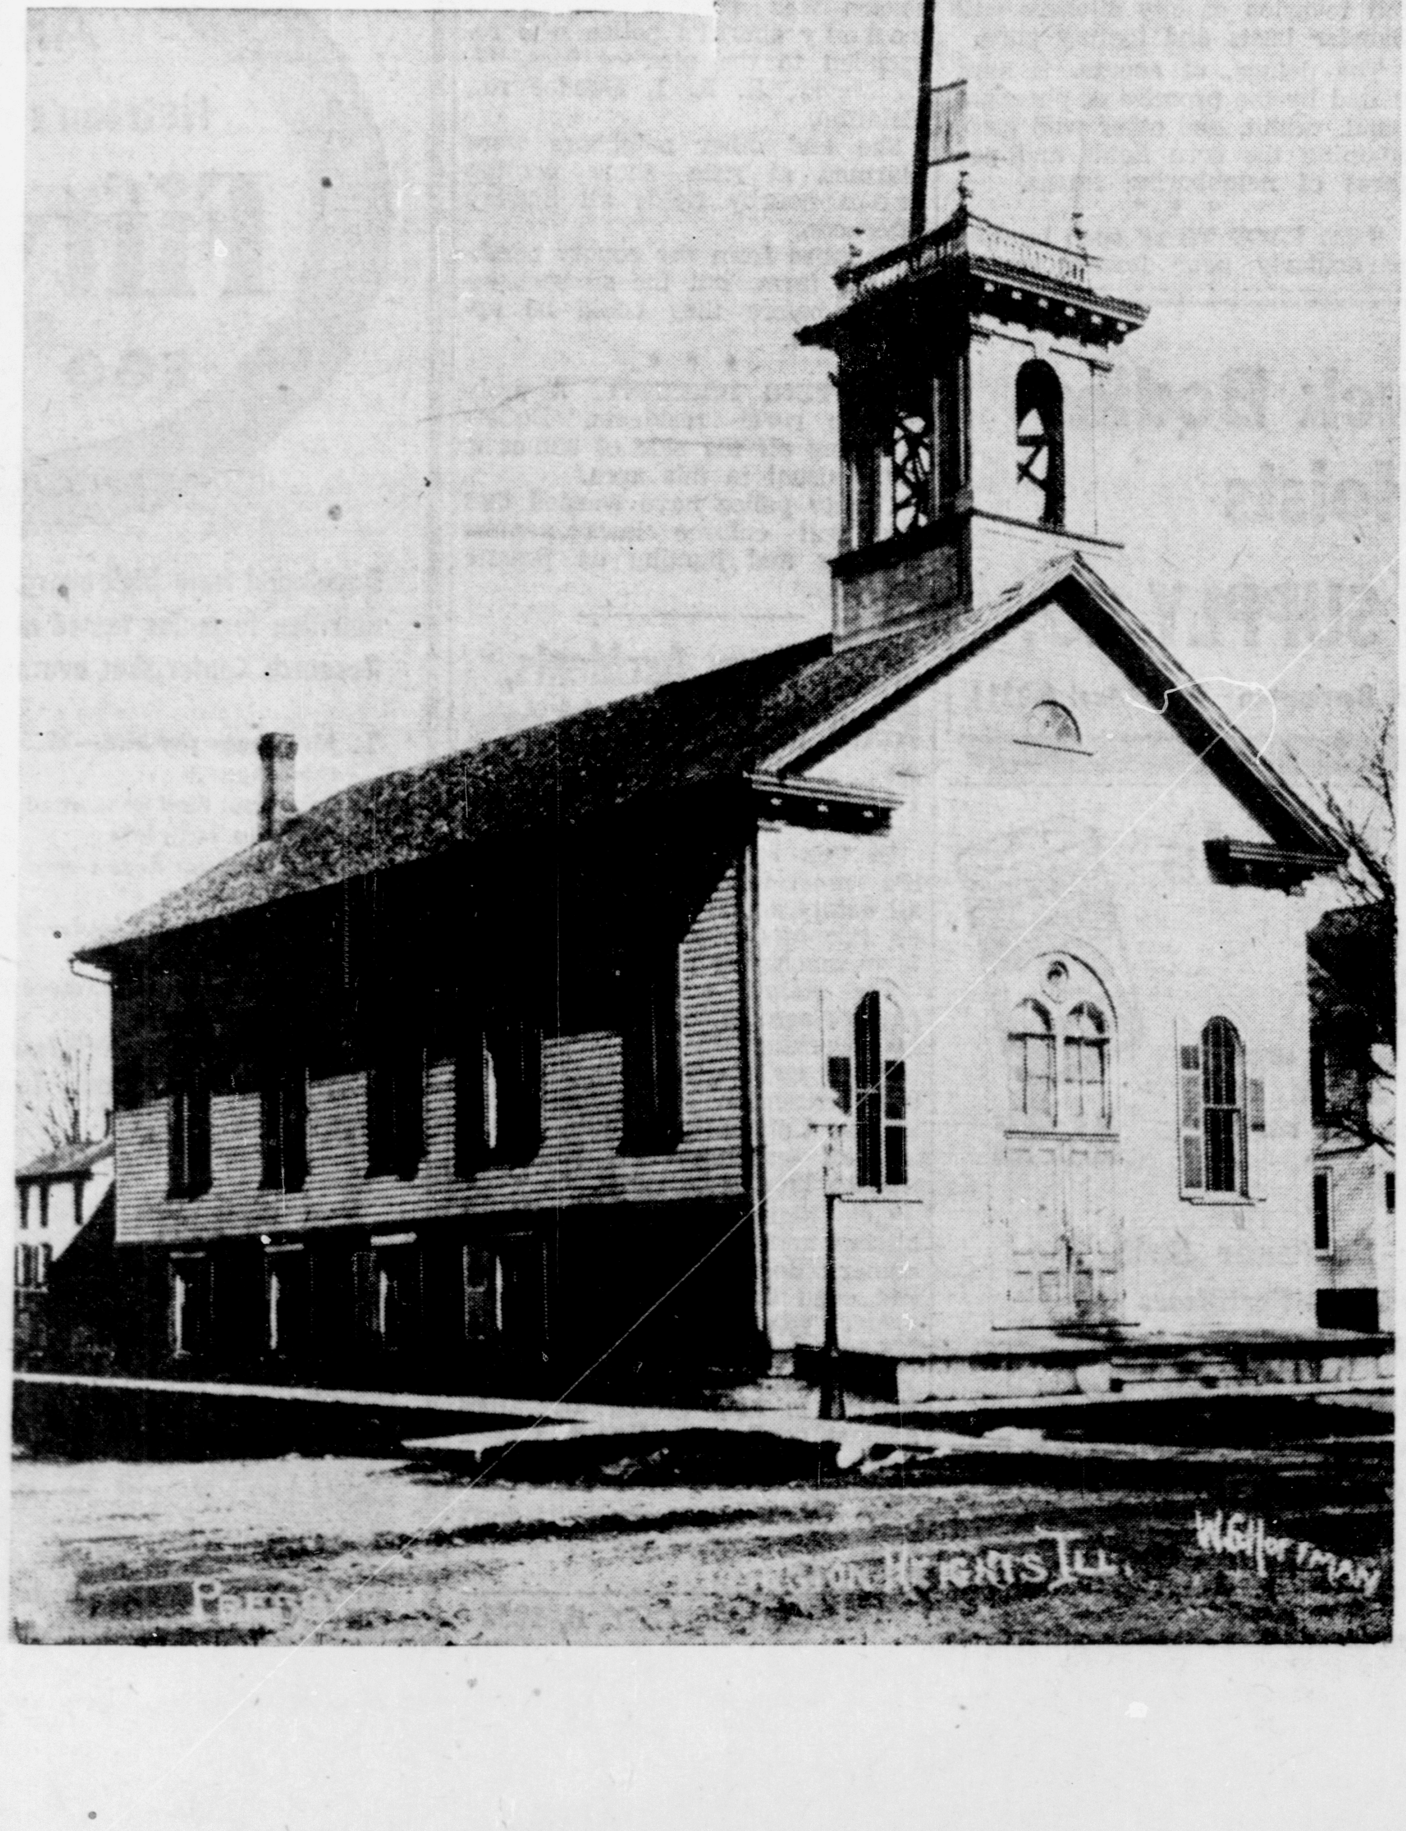
Trees on new home sites, going through a difficult transition period from wild to domestic life, are particularly in need of regular inspection and care. (DL

Abolitionist Relic Found In Walls Of Old Razed House

A Lake Villa resident recently uncovered a relic of abolitionist days from inner walls of an old house razed a year ago.

William B. Daly found the relic among newspapers used to insulate the inner walls of the house before sheathing. Among them was the masthead of "The Western Citizen," dated April 10, 1849. The newspaper, a strong anti-slavery organ in pre-Civil war days, was published in Chicago.

The first building to house the Arlington Heights First Presbyterian church which this fall is celebrating its 100th anniversary. The one-room structure shown above stood at the corner of N. Dunton and Eastman sts. from 1856 to 1911, when it was replaced by the building which still stands there. Last year, however, the congregation dedicated its new sanctuary just north of the intersection of Dunton and Eastman, and continues to use the former church building for Sunday school meetings and other functions. Highlight of the Centennial Week observance will be an historical play which will feature several scenes laid in the original church building pictured above.



Arlington Heights Womans club committee chairmen who will serve for this year are, back row, left to right, Mrs. A. Burton Noyes, education; Mrs. Jack Aldrich, literature; Mrs. W. E. Fritz, family finance; Mrs. Richard Brownwell, American citizenship and legislation; Mrs. H. L. Berthold Jr., conservation and garden and Mrs. W. G. Inman, hospitality. Middle row, Mrs. J. Alton Reitzel, friends of the library; Mrs. Wier Swanson, program; Mrs. Robert T. van Ee, American home; Mrs. Richard Mates, Indian affairs; Mrs. Hugh Hoym, music, and Mrs. W. H. Spears, art. Bottom row, Mrs. Bradford Carlton, veterans service; Mrs. Paul V. Colianni, membership and courtesy; Mrs. William E. Sauer, civil defense. Committee chairmen not in picture are Mrs. M. L. Kurtz, revisions; Mrs. R. E. Drechsel, Jr. club sponsor; Mrs. G. F. Andrus, public welfare; Mrs. Robert Marsh, pressbook; Mrs. L. P. Swanson, international relations; Mrs. Walter G. Edelblute, infantile paralysis; Mrs. G. O. Gullickson, Park Ridge School for Girls; Mrs. Milton F. Daniels, historian; Mrs. Charles Stadelman, community achievement; Mrs. James L. Beef Cattle Helped By Drop In Corn Prices

Bright spot in the beef cattle picture is the price of corn, which will average well under prices during the 1954-55 feeding season.

Illinois Farm bureau farm management records show that a 25 per cent fall in the price of corn is equal to a $1 to $1.25 increase in the price of fat cattle, depending on how big the cattle are when bought and on how much corn they eat.

M. B. KIRTLEY, University of Illinois farm economist, reports that feeder cattle are costing about the same as last fall, and that fat cattle a year from now are expected to bring about the same amount or slightly less than they are bringing this fall.

Feeder cattle prices started off higher this year than last, but they have fallen to about the same level as a year ago. Normally, feeder prices would fall further, but because of heavy seed supplies Kirtley says the chances are that they won't fall as much as normally.

Lower corn prices make the most difference in long-fed steer calves. According to FBFM records, a 400-pound calf will eat an average of 48 bushels of corn and gain an average of 520 pounds. At 25 cents a bushel that amounts to a saving of $12 or almost $1.30 per 100 pounds when spread over 920 pounds of selling weight.

GOOD AND choice 650 pound steers to go on long feed make the next best saving. One of these steers will eat 54 bushels of corn to produce 450 pounds of gain. Savings of 25 cents a bushel on corn amount to almost $1.25 per 100 pounds of selling weight.

Short-fed 450-pound yearling steers to be fed for only seven months will eat 44 bushels each to gain about 350 pounds. Corn at 25 cents less a bushel will result in savings of about $1.10 per 100 pounds of selling weight.

Heavy 850-pound steers, fed for six months, will eat 47 bushels of corn in gaining 300 pounds, saving about one dollar per 100 pounds of selling weight.

High Producing Cows Save Money For Dairymen

High-producing cows are the only kind a dairyman can afford to own.

G. W. Harpestad, extension dairy specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says that high-producing cows usually produce milk at lower cost and bring higher net returns than their lower producing sisters.

A study of DHIA records shows that it costs more to feed high-producing cows, but the value of product is so much higher than it more than offsets the high feed costs.

A GROUP of herds averaging 7,880 pounds of milk per cow had an average feed cost of $145 per cow. A second group of herds that averaged 13,290 pounds of milk had an average feed cost of $189 per cow.

On the other hand, the net return for the low-producing herds was $143, while those producing at a higher level returned $349 per cow, or almost 2½ times as much. This study shows that it is the high producing cow that makes the profit for the dairyman.

Results of another study of DHIA records made several years ago—but still true today—show that it takes 4 cows each producing 200 pounds of butterfat or 2 cows each producing 300 pounds to equal the returns over feed cost of 1 cow producing 500 pounds of butterfat in one year.

THE LARGEST HERDS do not always make the highest net returns. Sometimes it is profitable to have an empty stall. It certainly is if you have only a low producer to put into it.

Dairymen today are in a very bad cost-price squeeze. The best thing the individual dairyman can do to overcome this situation is to keep only high-producing cows. The greatest single factor in profitable dairying is the level of production of the cows.

Times Change But Farm Labor Needs Remain

It still takes lots of work to produce the animals that put the meat on the dinner table says National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock publication.

The many labor-saving devices introduced for farmers during the past half-century have not materially reduced the workload of the live stock man.

Live stock now takes about 40 per cent of all farm labor — about the same amount required 50 years ago.

FARM WAGES have quadrupled since World War II but labor requirements for livestock have gone down only 7%. Crop labor inputs were cut 34% during this period.

A USDA study indicates that milk cows, as might be expected, are the biggest labor users. It takes an average of 61.7 man-hours to produce $100 worth of milk.

Some other man-hour requirements per $100 of product are: 15.9 man-hours for hogs; 15.8 for beef cattle; and 26.8 man-hours for sheep.

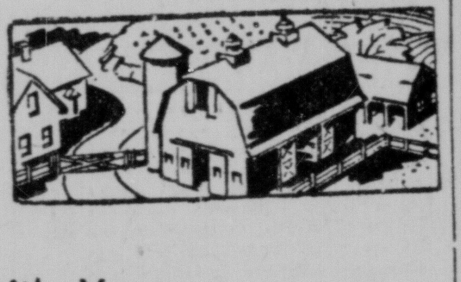
DOWN ON THE FARM



with Your

Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

I attended the farm progress show at the Whitman-Taylor farm at Belvidere sponsored by Prairie Farmer, WLS Station.

Reports were that there were more than 10,000 people, in attendance in the 3 days. Those of you that attended saw a great display. There were many fine lessons presented during these three days. I was particularly interested in the University of Illinois display, together with the research as conducted by the University on the trend toward the meat type hog.

It is today's housewife that determines what kind of hogs we should produce. She wants a lean type of meat. I can not blame her at all, because I like lean meat myself. One can produce a lean type hog just as economically as the lard type. Lard has been a drug on the market ever since the war. That is the reason lard type hogs are selling for less than the meat type. I think within a few years you will see as much as a $1.00 spread on the market between lard and bacon type hogs.

There were also displays in agricultural engineering, entomology-landscaping, farm management, forestry, etc.

THE ONE EXHIBIT that I was primarily interested in was the number of vocations the University of Illinois had to offer in the field of Agriculture. The number of students enrolled at the college of agriculture at the University of Illinois has not been great enough for a number of years, in other words there are more jobs than there are graduates from the college of agriculture to fill the jobs.

If you have a son interested in going to college it would be well for him to consider the college of agriculture at the University of Illinois, it is an outstanding school.

There were many commercial exhibits on display. Each feed, fertilizer and fuel company had displayed in their booths the advantages of their products together with the use of a good management program. One thing I liked about the show was there was not a great deal of advertising connected with the booths. You cannot blame a company for putting it's name on their products, but otherwise there was very little advertising.

I BELIEVE there was more farm machinery at this show than at many of the county and state fairs. At least, that is what the people tell me.

There was one piece of machinery I was interested in, a self propelled piece of machinery where one could use the same chassis for a picker-sheller, hay baler and combine. By the use of this equipment one could save considerable money over the conventional type. I do not mean to imply though that it was a saving, because you would have a sizable investment if you purchased all three pieces of equipment.

There were several experiments conducted on the phase of wide row spacing of corn plant population as it affects yields. The corn on this farm yielded as much as 99 bushels per acre even in this dry year, however, I do believe that they had more rain in that area than we had in our own local area.

THEY HAD an irrigation project set up on the field planted to corn and the yield of corn on this plot was 127 bushels per acre. I do not know whether the increase in yield would off-set the cost of irrigation, this was not explained on the poster that showed the results. I do know that even 99 bushels of corn per acre is a good yield. I also know that if we try to increase our yields and our acreage at the same time we will have more of a surplus of corn than we already have.

I think that we should strive for economic production, but if we strive for over production in the end it will depress the price to such an extent that we will make less rather than more. I could go on and on telling you of the things at the show, but this is all of the space I can afford to take this week. If you did not attend this show this year, I would suggest that next year you plan to attend. I saw a good many people from Cook County at the show the day I was there.

Steer calves wintered on corn silage, hay and protein supplement should gain from 1¼ to 1½ pounds a head daily, according to specialists at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station.

'The Hunters Are Coming' Farmers Dig In For Siege

That time of year is here again when area farmers "batten down the hatches" against the annual fall invasion of city slickers with blunder busts and tommy guns.

The deluge, of course, is stimulated by the promise of pheasant, quail, rabbit, and other wild game roaming the corn fields and pastures of neighboring farms.

THE FACT THAT such hunting, particularly near farmhouses, is against the law does not deter the city folk.

The first "call for help" of the season was relayed Sunday to county sheriff's police who responded to the plea of Mrs. W. H. Meyer, R. R. 1, Dundee rd., Palatine.

She and other neighbors were alarmed at rifle shots coming from nearby fields all Sunday afternoon.

Deputies from the county combed the farm, but the slickers escaped before they could be apprehended.

HUNTING PRESENTS A problem to rural residents. Bullets bouncing off the side of homes is not unusual in this area.

County police have warned that they will enforce laws against shooting and hunting on private property.

Avoid Farm Accidents, Keep Safety Shield In Place On Machinery

In this busy fall work season, it's smart to play safe by having all safety shields in place on power take-offs and other moving farm machinery parts.

The stakes are too high to gamble against having an accident by working around machinery without guards, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture. If you lose, it's too late to be sorry.

Get standard power take-off hitches and shields from your machinery dealer, Hogsett suggests. But even the best shield will not protect you if you don't put it on.

Some manufacturers are putting on nonremovable power take-off shields to help protect operators against negligence. You can open these shields for servicing or inspection.

"Remember that accidents don't respect age or experience," he concludes.

High Producing Cows Save Money For Dairymen

High-producing cows are the only kind a dairyman can afford to own.

G. W. Harpestad, extension dairy specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says that high-producing cows usually produce milk at lower cost and bring higher net returns than their lower producing sisters.

A study of DHIA records shows that it costs more to feed high-producing cows, but the value of product is so much higher than it more than offsets the high feed costs.

A GROUP of herds averaging 7,880 pounds of milk per cow had an average feed cost of $145 per cow. A second group of herds that averaged 13,290 pounds of milk had an average feed cost of $189 per cow.

On the other hand, the net return for the low-producing herds was $143, while those producing at a higher level returned $349 per cow, or almost 2½ times as much. This study shows that it is the high producing cow that makes the profit for the dairyman.

Results of another study of DHIA records made several years ago—but still true today—show that it takes 4 cows each producing 200 pounds of butterfat or 2 cows each producing 300 pounds to equal the returns over feed cost of 1 cow producing 500 pounds of butterfat in one year.

THE LARGEST HERDS do not always make the highest net returns. Sometimes it is profitable to have an empty stall. It certainly is if you have only a low producer to put into it.

Dairymen today are in a very bad cost-price squeeze. The best thing the individual dairyman can do to overcome this situation is to keep only high-producing cows. The greatest single factor in profitable dairying is the level of production of the cows.

Times Change But Farm Labor Needs Remain

It still takes lots of work to produce the animals that put the meat on the dinner table says National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock publication.

The many labor-saving devices introduced for farmers during the past half-century have not materially reduced the workload of the live stock man.

Live stock now takes about 40 per cent of all farm labor — about the same amount required 50 years ago.

FARM WAGES have quadrupled since World War II but labor requirements for livestock have gone down only 7%. Crop labor inputs were cut 34% during this period.

A USDA study indicates that milk cows, as might be expected, are the biggest labor users. It takes an average of 61.7 man-hours to produce $100 worth of milk.

Some other man-hour requirements per $100 of product are: 15.9 man-hours for hogs; 15.8 for beef cattle; and 26.8 man-hours for sheep.

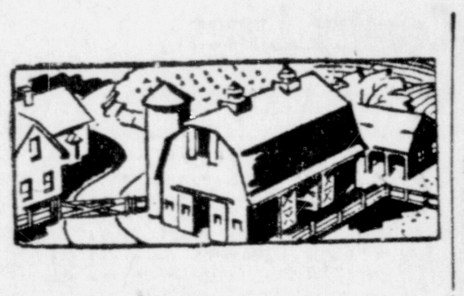
DOWN ON THE FARM



with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

I attended the farm progress show at the Whitman-Taylor farm at Belvidere sponsored by Prairie Farmer, WLS Station.

Reports were that there were more than 10,000 people, in attendance in the 3 days. Those of you that attended saw a great display. There were many fine lessons presented during these three days. I was particularly interested in the University of Illinois display, together with the research as conducted by the University on the trend toward the meat type hog.

It is today's housewife that determines what kind of hogs we should produce. She wants a lean type of meat. I can not blame her at all, because I like lean meat myself. One can produce a lean type hog just as economically as the lard type. Lard has been a drug on the market ever since the war. That is the reason lard type hogs are selling for less than the meat type. I think within a few years you will see as much as a $1.00 spread on the market between lard and bacon type hogs.

There were also displays in agricultural engineering, entomology-landscaping, farm management, forestry, etc.

THE ONE EXHIBIT that I was primarily interested in was the number of vocations the University of Illinois had to offer in the field of Agriculture. The number of students enrolled at the college of agriculture at the University of Illinois has not been great enough for a number of years, in other words there are more jobs than there are graduates from the college of agriculture to fill the jobs.

If you have a son interested in going to college it would be well for him to consider the college of agriculture at the University of Illinois, it is an outstanding school.

There were many commercial exhibits on display. Each feed, fertilizer and fuel company had displayed in their booths the advantages of their products together with the use of a good management program. One thing I liked about the show was there was not a great deal of advertising connected with the booths. You cannot blame a company for putting it's name on their products, but otherwise there was very little advertising.

I BELIEVE there was more farm machinery at this show than at many of the county and state fairs. At least, that is what the people tell me.

There was one piece of machinery I was interested in, a self propelled piece of machinery where one could use the same chassis for a picker-sheller, hay baler and combine. By the use of this equipment one could save considerable money over the conventional type. I do not mean to imply though that it was a saving, because you would have a sizable investment if you purchased all three pieces of equipment.

There were several experiments conducted on the phase of wide row spacing of corn plant population as it affects yields. The corn on this farm yielded as much as 99 bushels per acre even in this dry year, however, I do believe that they had more rain in that area than we had in our own local area.

THEY HAD an irrigation project set up on the field planted to corn and the yield of corn on this plot was 127 bushels per acre. I do not know whether the increase in yield would off-set the cost of irrigation, this was not explained on the poster that showed the results. I do know that even 99 bushels of corn per acre is a good yield. I also know that if we try to increase our yields and our acreage at the same time we will have more of a surplus of corn than we already have.

I think that we should strive for economic production, but if we strive for over production in the end it will depress the price to such an extent that we will make less rather than more. I could go on and on telling you of the things at the show, but this is all of the space I can afford to take this week. If you did not attend this show this year, I would suggest that next year you plan to attend. I saw a good many people from Cook County at the show the day I was there.

Corn Silage

'The Hunters Are Coming' Farmers Dig In For Siege

That time of year is here again when area farmers "batten down the hatches" against the annual fall invasion of city slickers with blunder busts and tommy guns.

The deluge, of course, is stimulated by the promise of pheasant, quail, rabbit, and other wild game roaming the corn fields and pastures of neighboring farms.

THE FACT THAT such hunting, particularly near farmhouses, is against the law does not deter the city folk.

The first "call for help" of the season was relayed Sunday to county sheriff's police who responded to the plea of Mrs. W. H. Meyer, R. R. 1, Dundee rd., Palatine.

She and other neighbors were alarmed at rifle shots coming from nearby fields all Sunday afternoon.

Deputies from the county combed the farm, but the slickers escaped before they could be apprehended.

HUNTING PRESENTS A problem to rural residents. Bullets bouncing off the side of homes is not unusual in this area.

County police have warned that they will enforce laws against shooting and hunting on private property.

Avoid Farm Accidents, Keep Safety Shield In Place On Machinery

In this busy fall work season, it's smart to play safe by having all safety shields in place on power take-offs and other moving farm machinery parts.

The stakes are too high to gamble against having an accident by working around machinery without guards, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture. If you lose, it's too late to be sorry.

Get standard power take-off hitches and shields from your machinery dealer, Hogsett suggests. But even the best shield will not protect you if you don't put it on.

Some manufacturers are putting on nonremovable power take-off shields to help protect operators against negligence. You can open these shields for servicing or inspection.

"Remember that accidents don't respect age or experience," he concludes.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How spiritual understanding of divine law brings freedom from discord of every kind will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday, October 9.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:2): "The law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

The importance of coping with sin is emphasized in selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (315:16): "The likeness of God we lose sight of through sin, which beclouds the spiritual sense of Truth; and we realize this likeness only when we subdue sin and prove man's heritage, the liberty of the sons of God."

Readings from the Old and New Testaments of the Bible will include Christ Jesus' parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15).

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How spiritual understanding of divine law brings freedom from discord of every kind will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday, October 9.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:2): "The law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

The importance of coping with sin is emphasized in selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (315:16): "The likeness of God we lose sight of through sin, which beclouds the spiritual sense of Truth; and we realize this likeness only when we subdue sin and prove man's heritage, the liberty of the sons of God."

Readings from the Old and New Testaments of the Bible will include Christ Jesus' parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15).

Architect's sketch of proposed second high school building as seen looking south from Foundry rd. At right, to the west, is a 3-story academic wing designed for greatest economy and concentration of traffic. It will contain half of the total floor space. At the left, to the east, are shops with the physical education facilities to the rear facing play and athletic areas on 3 sides. Connecting and facing the curved drive will be the cafeteria, heating plant, home economics and music classrooms, and a multi-purpose room.

Designed to accommodate 2,500 when completed in 2 stages of construction, it will be almost identical in size to the completed Euclid st. school. Detailed floor plans will be shown next week.

Record crowds have jammed Rhodes, Inc., new warehouse and sales building during the firm's grand opening celebration this week. More than 6,000 appliance shoppers thronged the center the first weekend. A drawing for winners of a $1,000 college scholarship and 20 other prizes will be made Friday at 9 p. m. Honeymooners, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bracke, land a 7 foot 2 inch sail fish caught while deep sea fishing in the Gulf. Mrs. Bracke hooked the sailfish but her husband took over to land it. After their marriage September 3 in Traverse City, Mich., the couple chartered a boat out of Miami Beach. They are having the fish mounted in Miami and expect to receive it in about 3 months. The bride is the former Peggy Elliott of Chicago, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Elliott of Buckley, Mich. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. R. F. Bracke of Arlington Heights.

Red Cross several weeks ago began a campaign for daytime volunteer nurse's aides to serve at VA Research hospital on Chicago's near north side. The number needed was 60. The result of the campaign—one, just one volunteer. And the lone volunteer, Mrs. Robert Lodge, 1312 N. Dearborn, Chicago, wonders how she can do the job of 60 women.

The 60 volunteer nurse's aides are needed at VA Research, which will soon be operating at capacity, to aid the professional staff in giving the veteran-patients the best possible care. Somewhere there must be 59 women interested in nursing who can serve one day a week at VA research hospital. Any woman interested should call the Chicago Red Cross chapter, WAbash 2-7850.

Curtiss Farm's Model Home Featured In National Magazine

"House Beautiful's" October issue features a local home located on Trout Valley of Curtiss Farms. Curtiss Farms central entrance is on Main st., 9/10 of a mile west of the Cary North Western railroad station. The "House Beautiful" Model Home is open from 1 to 5 on Saturday and Sunday afternoons or by appointment.

Built by the Maxon Construction company of Barrington, the house has 4 bedrooms and 2 full baths. It is a ranch type home containing 2180 square feet and is built on a beautiful naturally wooded lot of more than an acre.

Features include a screened porch, double carport with storage wall, walnut paneling in living room and hall, colored bath fixtures, oak parquet flooring, and luxury built-in kitchen appliances.

Never regard study as a duty, but as the enviable opportunity to learn to know the liberating influence of beauty in the realm of the spirit for your own personal joy and to the profit of the community to which your later work belongs.

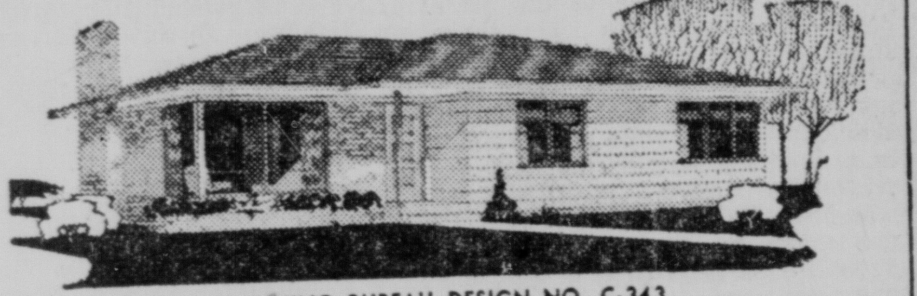
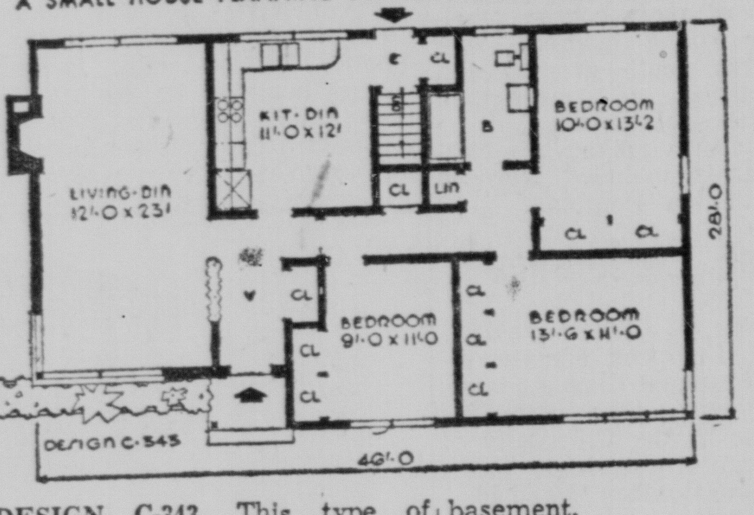
New Ideas In Homes



A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-343



DESIGN C-343. This type of house has become very popular, with good reason. The plan is compact and the rooms are not large, but all have excellent wall space for furniture.

Closets for every need are distributed throughout the house, from coat closets at the entrances to wardrobes in the bedrooms.

The plan includes a large living room with three-way exposure, three bedrooms, a bath, a combination kitchen-dinette and a full basement.

The exterior finish combines wide siding with stone facing from the fireplace to the entrance, asphalt shingles on a hip roof, picture windows, a planter and a covered front door. Floor area is 1218 sq. ft. and cubage is 23,142 cu. ft.

For further information about DESIGN C-343, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

New Ordinance Aids Rural Home Buyers

An ordinance designed to protect buyers of homes in unincorporated areas of Cook county against faulty septic tanks went into effect September 26.

The ordinance requires a $2,500 bond of every builder of a home served by a septic tank. The bond must be posted when the building permit is applied for. It remains in effect 2 years after approval of the septic tank installation.

If the tank fails any time in the 2-year period, the builder must remedy the defect--or forfeit the bond.

The ordinance providing for the bond requirement was passed by the county board September 6.

Muliflora Hedges Provide Cover For Wildlife, Slow Soil Erosion

After some ten years of promotion, the Illinois Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs is beginning to see widespread results in its campaign to secure more wildlife cover; particularly is this true with multiflora rose hedges, now showing up, full grown all over the state.

Some of the most satisfactory hedges were those planted in the fall of the year, usually in late October, in November or December. By planting in the fall the farmer finds he can do the job at a time when the pressure of other work is lightest and his seedlings get a month or two head start. Multiflora rose is an early starting plant so if it's in the ground when early spring comes around it grows ahead of competing weeds and grasses.

In most of Illinois the danger of heaving from frost is not very great, especially if the seedlings are set to slightly above the crown. Heaving can be definitely avoided if the seedlings are mulched when planted with straw or ground corn cobs or similar mulching material.

....PREPARATION of the ground for fall planting should begin now. Plpwong a space four to six feet wide with discing just before planting will insure a good seed bed. An erroneous conception that multiflora rose was so hardy that it needed no care whatsoever got started sometime ago. Rose is very hardy but the young seedlings do need a good starting seed bed and freedom from weed and grass competition for at least the first year Fall planting gives it a better chance to outdistance the weeds.

In cases where multiflora rose is to be planted in existing fence rows by hand, a chemical treatment of the area will produce good results. Most fence rows are in grass so a spraying in summer with some grass killer like Dow Chemical's "Dalapon" will be worthwhile preparation.

Besides being the cheapest fence available, multiflora rose is slowing wind erosion, providing needed cover for all forms of wildlife and song birds and serving as an emergency food supply in periods of deep snow.

A democracy can only be strong if all the citizens are properly educated and careers are freely open to all the talented.

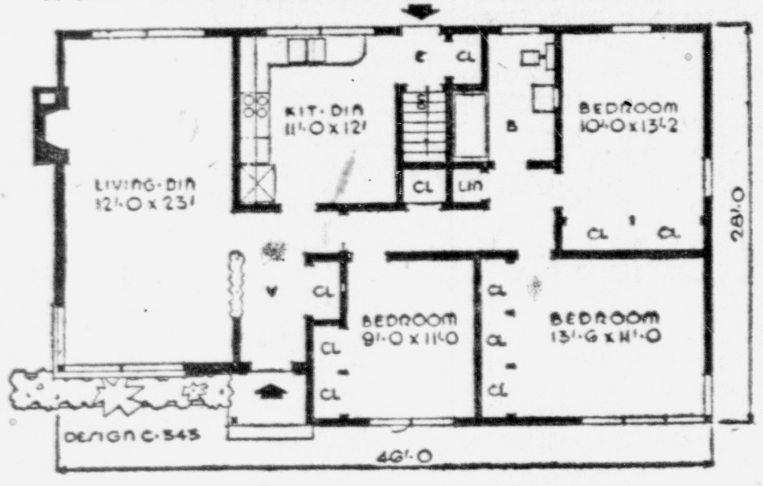
A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-343



DESIGN C-343. This type of house has become very popular, with good reason. The plan is compact and the rooms are not large, but all have excellent wall space for furniture.

Closets for every need are distributed throughout the house, from coat closets at the entrances to wardrobes in the bedrooms.

The plan includes a large living room with three-way exposure, three bedrooms, a bath, a combination kitchen-dinette and a full basement.

The exterior finish combines wide siding with stone facing from the fireplace to the entrance, asphalt shingles on a hip roof, picture windows, a planter and a covered front door. Floor area is 1218 sq. ft. and cubage is 23,142 cu. ft.

For further information about DESIGN C-343, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

GROUND LEVEL

Plan a modern garage apartment for extra income, one of smart appearance that will lend itself to any neighborhood. Ground level provides storage space and two 1-car garages with handy shelving. On the second floor are 2 small, but efficient 2-room apartments. (DL

In The Future

One pipe stem, made of gold-plated aluminum, comes with as many as nine removable bowls . . An electronic dingbat for signaling when a shaft or bearing is wobbling can be attached to any machine which must operate for long periods . . . An aluminum device to be attached to a fishing line between hook and sinker is supposed to help the rig miss submerged obstacles as it's retrieved . . . A folding picnic table, complete with two benches, seats 16 persons.

New Ordinance Aids Rural Home Buyers

An ordinance designed to protect buyers of homes in unincorporated areas of Cook county against faulty septic tanks went into effect September 26.

The ordinance requires a $2,500 bond of every builder of a home served by a septic tank. The bond must be posted when the building permit is applied for. It remains in effect 2 years after approval of the septic tank installation.

If the tank fails any time in the 2-year period, the builder must remedy the defect--or forfeit the bond.

The ordinance providing for the bond requirement was passed by the county board September 6.

Muliflora Hedges Provide Cover For Wildlife, Slow Soil Erosion

After some ten years of promotion, the Illinois Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs is beginning to see widespread results in its campaign to secure more wildlife cover; particularly is this true with multiflora rose hedges, now showing up, full grown all over the state.

Some of the most satisfactory hedges were those planted in the fall of the year, usually in late October, in November or December. By planting in the fall the farmer finds he can do the job at a time when the pressure of other work is lightest and his seedlings get a month or two head start. Multiflora rose is an early starting plant so if it's in the ground when early spring comes around it grows ahead of competing weeds and grasses.

In most of Illinois the danger of heaving from frost is not very great, especially if the seedlings are set to slightly above the crown. Heaving can be definitely avoided if the seedlings are mulched when planted with straw or ground corn cobs or similar mulching material.

....PREPARATION of the ground for fall planting should begin now. Plpwong a space four to six feet wide with discing just before planting will insure a good seed bed. An erroneous conception that multiflora rose was so hardy that it needed no care whatsoever got started sometime ago. Rose is very hardy but the young seedlings do need a good starting seed bed and freedom from weed and grass competition for at least the first year Fall planting gives it a better chance to outdistance the weeds.

In cases where multiflora rose is to be planted in existing fence rows by hand, a chemical treatment of the area will produce good results. Most fence rows are in grass so a spraying in summer with some grass killer like Dow Chemical's "Dalapon" will be worthwhile preparation.

Besides being the cheapest fence available, multiflora rose is slowing wind erosion, providing needed cover for all forms of wildlife and song birds and serving as an emergency food supply in periods of deep snow.

The new Continental Mark II, to be introduced by Ford Motor company this month, is a prestige automobile manufactured in low volume with special attention. to quality, styling and detail. The "modern formal" design emphasizes functional use of chrome, steel and glass. The hood is almost 6 feet long, and the car is more than 18 feet long over-all. Only 4 feet 8 inches high, it is believed to be the lowest of production cars with both a front and rear seat. A new frame design and the 6½-foot width of the Continental provide ample room for all occupants.

Retires

Several hundred friends and associates of George A. Sim Jr., 239 Roselle Rd., Roselle, attended a dinner party. in his honor recently at The Greatest restaurant, 5722 W. 16th st. The party marked his retirement October 1 from Commonwealth Edison company after 38 consecutive years of service. Power supply engineer in the power supply office, Mr. Sim started with the company in 1917 as a substation operator and transferred to power supply in 1922.

Roselle police magistrate since 1926, Mr. Sim has served as chairman of the Roselle zoning board of appeals since 1931 and is a trustee of the Roselle Methodist church. He is active in Masonic organizations and is past master of Northern Du Page lodge, A.F. & A.M. and 3 times past patron of Rosedale chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

In 1916 Mr. Sim served with General Pershing in Mexico, was an army instructor with the Illinois national guard in 1922 and 1923, and during World War II was chairman of the Roselle township rationing board.

Mr. Sim and his wife, Myrtle, are looking forward to a six-week vacation trip to Mexico, California, Arizona and New Mexico. They have a daughter, Myrtle, now Mrs. Arthur Hudson, and three sons. George, II lives in Appleton, Neal is a recent member of Edison's power supply office and Jack is a machinist with the utility's construction department. There are also eleven grandchildren. (BB

Payntar To Promote Do-it-yourself Show

Payntar Advertising Agency, Northbrook, north shore sales promotion and merchandising specialists, have been appointed to handle the promotion for the Chicago Do-it-yourself show to be held October 30 through November 6.

This is the second consecutive year the Payntar agency has received the appointment. Newspapers, radio, TV, outdoor posters and exhibitors tie-in material will and exhibitors, tie-in material will be used.

According to Payntar, the Chicago do-it-yourself show is the largest of many similar productions held throughout the country under the name of "Do-it-yourself show."

Over 100,000 visitors are expected at the Chicago show this year.

Insurance Award

Among the 204 insurance men and women who were awarded the chartered property casualty underwriter (CPCU) designation at the conferment in San Francisco September 29 is Donald J. McNamara, 662 E. Clarendon, Arlington Heights. Donald is underwriter supervisor with Allstate Insurance company, 4750 Sheridan, Chicago.

The American institute for property and liability underwriters, which awards the CPCU designation is sponsored by the insurance industry and has as its purpose: (1) the establishment of education standards at a professional level for the persons engaged in the property and casualty insurance business; (2) the encouragement and fostering of training in educational institutions for career underwriters; (3) the cooperation with educational institutions in general property and casualty insurance education; and (4) the recognition of properly-qualified underwriters with a professional designation. Home Sales Up

Home sales, after a two-month lull, have picked up again. When June and July saw new-home starts falling below the like months of 1954 — the first such year-to-year decline in several years — some commentators hastened to say the vast housing boom was beginning to taper off.

August starts, just now being counted, reversed the brief dip. With 123,000 starts — 8,000 more than in July — it was the best August since 1950. While the upturn seemed to be in the face of the slightly more stringent terms on housing loans, put into effect July 30, those terms were not effective for most August started homes. That is because the new regulations exempted homes for which commitments on the older basis had already been made.

Bits O' Business

Auto dealers sold 5.1 million new cars and 7.0 million used ones in the first eight months of 1955 . . . The Labor day weekend cut 87,617 cars off weekly loadings, said the Association of American Railroads . . . Department store sales in the September 10 week were 11 per cent above the year before period.

Business Briefs

Inventories Up Sharply But Supplies Short

Although business inventories rose sharply in the second quarter of 1955, stocks are still in short supply relative to sales. Thus, the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago observes, additional investment in inventories can be counted upon as a strong plus factor in the business picture at least through the end of this year.

Stocks are particularly short in most metal-using industries. In past months, strong demand has encouraged metal product makers to produce at close to full capacity. Moreover, recent substantial price increases for steel and copper indicate that current stocks are inadequate to meet the continued high-level demand.

PART OF the scarcity of hard goods at the manufacturers' level has resulted from a surge in orders for machinery and transportation equipment. The tremendous volume of construction also has helped use up hard goods as fast as they were made available. In many areas, shortages of steel, cement, gypsum board and other items have limited construction activity.

The midwest has a special stake in inventory movements because of the great importanceof capital goods and other metal-fabricating industries in this area. These lines play a dominant role in inventory swings. Among the major retail lines, inventories of auto dealers show by far the largest fluctuations. Although stocks of autodealers and hard goods manufacturers together amount to about one-third of total business inventories, they account for two-thirds of all inventory movements.

IN CONTRAST to the robust grains which are in prospect for producers' stocks, retail inventories are likely to continue to increase only moderately in the months ahead. Department stores had sufficient goods on hand to meet the excellent sales levels established in midsummer without generally depleting stocks

For the first time in years, widespread price increases for processed goods loom as a possible motive for buying more than is required to meet current needs. A number of markups have already been noted, with many announced price hikes coming soom after the negotiation of new wage agreements.

More Dividends From Oak Park Federal

More than $51,000,000 will be paid in dividends this year to holders of savings accounts in the 189 insured savings and loan associations in Chicago and Cook county, announced John P. Domeier, president and chairman of the board of fast growing $55,000,000 Oak Park Federal savings and loan association, which is taking part in the second annual "Start to Save Week," October 2 to 8.

A $24,000,000 divident was paid in the first half of the year and another $26,000,000 is expected for the second semi-annual period.

Savings increased in the first four months of this year, for example, by $100,000,000. This growth was equivalent to the increase of the entire year of 1950. The average saving account is about $1,800.00. (BB

THURSDAY, OCT. 6, 1955

Banker Given Award

Banks of Illinois were honored Wednesday for their outstanding service to the state's farmers when the Illinois bankers association was presented with the 1,000-point rating award of the agricultural commission of the American bankers association. The award was presented in Chicago at the 81st annual convention of the American bankers association.

The 1000-point rating award is presented each year to the state bankers associations of those states whose banks have been of notable service to agriculture during the preceding year. This is the 15th consecutive year that the Illinois bankers association has received the award. The IBA score was 1575. Points toward the award are given by the ABA for such activities as promotion of soil conservation and land management, sponsorship of short course scholarships for young farmers, support of farm youth groups, and other programs to strengthen banker-farmer relationships.

Key agriculture bankers for 1954-1955 in Illinois included Norman Dewey, Arlington Heights.

To Attend Conference

Dr. Charles A. Esser, veterinarian at Mt. Prospect, plans to attend the 36th annual Illinois conference and extension short course for veterinarians at the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine in Urbana October 13 and 14.

At the conference, visiting speakers, practicing veterinarians and staff members of the College of Veterinary Medicine will discuss many of the new techniques in fighting livestock and poultry diseases.

Veterinarians will hear about new diagnostic and surgical procedures, as well as methods for the prevention and control of animal and poultry disease. Television demonstrations, movies and illustrated talks ranging from dental examination of cattle to caesarian sections for sows are on the program.

Other conference events will include a banquet, class reunions and inspection of the college's new large animal clinic.

The new Continental Mark II, to be introduced by Ford Motor company this month, is a prestige automobile manufactured in low volume with special attention to quality, styling and detail. The "modern formal" design emphasizes functional use of chrome, steel and glass. The hood is almost 6 feet long, and the car is more than 18 feet long over-all. Only 4 feet 8 inches high, it is believed to be the lowest of production cars with both a front and rear seat. A new frame design and the 6½-foot width of the Continental provide ample room for all occupants.

Retires

Several hundred friends and associates of George A. Sim Jr., 239 Roselle Rd., Roselle, attended a dinner party in his honor recently at The Greatest restaurant, 5722 W. 16th st. The party marked his retirement October 1 from Commonwealth Edison company after 38 consecutive years of service. Power supply engineer in the power supply office, Mr. Sim started with the company in 1917 as a substation operator and transferred to power supply in 1922.

Roselle police magistrate since 1926, Mr. Sim has served as chairman of the Roselle zoning board of appeals since 1931 and is a trustee of the Roselle Methodist church. He is active in Masonic organizations and is past master of Northern Du Page lodge, A.F. & A.M. and 3 times past patron of Rosedale chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

In 1916 Mr. Sim served with General Pershing in Mexico, was an army instructor with the Illinois national guard in 1922 and 1923, and during World War II was chairman of the Roselle township rationing board.

Mr. Sim and his wife, Myrtle, are looking forward to a six-week vacation trip to Mexico, California, Arizona and New Mexico. They have a daughter, Myrtle, now Mrs. Arthur Hudson, and three sons. George, II lives in Appleton, Neal is a recent member of Edison's power supply office and Jack is a machinist with the utility's construction department. There are also eleven grandchildren. (BB

Insurance Award

Among the 204 insurance men and women who were awarded the chartered property casualty underwriter (CPCU) designation at the conferment in San Francisco September 29 is Donald J. McNamara, 662 E. Clarendon, Arlington Heights. Donald is underwriter supervisor with Allstate Insurance company, 4750 Sheridan, Chicago.

The American institute for property and liability underwriters, which awards the CPCU designation is sponsored by the insurance industry and has as its purpose: (1) the establishment of education standards at a professional level for the persons engaged in the property and casualty insurance business; (2) the encouragement and fostering of training in educational institutions for career underwriters; (3) the cooperation with educational institutions in general property and casualty insurance education; and (4) the recognition of properly-qualified underwriters with a professional designation. Home Sales Up

Home sales, after a two-month lull, have picked up again. When June and July saw new-home starts falling below the like months of 1954 — the first such year-to-year decline in several years — some commentators hastened to say the vast housing boom was beginning to taper off.

August starts, just now being counted, reversed the brief dip. With 123,000 starts — 8,000 more than in July — it was the best August since 1950. While the upturn seemed to be in the face of the slightly more stringent terms on housing loans, put into effect July 30, those terms were not effective for most August started homes. That is because the new regulations exempted homes for which commitments on the older basis had already been made.

Bits O' Business

Auto dealers sold 5.1 million new cars and 7.0 million used ones in the first eight months of 1955 . . . The Labor day weekend cut 87,617 cars off weekly loadings, said the Association of American Railroads . . . Department store sales in the September 10 week were 11 per cent above the year before period.

Business Briefs

Inventories Up Sharply But Supplies Short

Although business inventories rose sharply in the second quarter of 1955, stocks are still in short supply relative to sales. Thus, the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago observes, additional investment in inventories can be counted upon as a strong plus factor in the business picture at least through the end of this year.

Stocks are particularly short in most metal-using industries. In past months, strong demand has encouraged metal product makers to produce at close to full capacity. Moreover, recent substantial price increases for steel and copper indicate that current stocks are inadequate to meet the continued high-level demand.

PART OF the scarcity of hard goods at the manufacturers' level has resulted from a surge in orders for machinery and transportation equipment. The tremendous volume of construction also has helped use up hard goods as fast as they were made available. In many areas, shortages of steel, cement, gypsum board and other items have limited construction activity.

The midwest has a special stake in inventory movements because of the great importanceof capital goods and other metal-fabricating industries in this area. These lines play a dominant role in inventory swings. Among the major retail lines, inventories of auto dealers show by far the largest fluctuations. Although stocks of autodealers and hard goods manufacturers together amount to about one-third of total business inventories, they account for two-thirds of all inventory movements.

IN CONTRAST to the robust grains which are in prospect for producers' stocks, retail inventories are likely to continue to increase only moderately in the months ahead. Department stores had sufficient goods on hand to meet the excellent sales levels established in midsummer without generally depleting stocks

For the first time in years, widespread price increases for processed goods loom as a possible motive for buying more than is required to meet current needs. A number of markups have already been noted, with many announced price hikes coming soom after the negotiation of new wage agreements.

More Dividends From Oak Park Federal

More than $51,000,000 will be paid in dividends this year to holders of savings accounts in the 189 insured savings and loan associations in Chicago and Cook county, announced John P. Domeier, president and chairman of the board of fast growing $55,000,000 Oak Park Federal savings and loan association, which is taking part in the second annual "Start to Save Week," October 2 to 8.

A $24,000,000 divident was paid in the first half of the year and another $26,000,000 is expected for the second semi-annual period.

Savings increased in the first four months of this year, for example, by $100,000,000. This growth was equivalent to the increase of the entire year of 1950. The average saving account is about $1,800.00. (BB

Banker Given Award

Banks of Illinois were honored Wednesday for their outstanding service to the state's farmers when the Illinois bankers association was presented with the 1,000-point rating award of the agricultural commission of the American bankers association. The award was presented in Chicago at the 81st annual convention of the American bankers association.

The 1000-point rating award is presented each year to the state bankers associations of those states whose banks have been of notable service to agriculture during the preceding year. This is the 15th consecutive year that the Illinois bankers association has received the award. The IBA score was 1575. Points toward the award are given by the ABA for such activities as promotion of soil conservation and land management, sponsorship of short course scholarships for young farmers, support of farm youth groups, and other programs to strengthen banker-farmer relationships.

Key agriculture bankers for 1954-1955 in Illinois included Norman Dewey, Arlington Heights.

To Attend Conference

Dr. Charles A. Esser, veterinarian at Mt. Prospect, plans to attend the 36th annual Illinois conference and extension short course for veterinarians at the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine in Urbana October 13 and 14.

At the conference, visiting speakers, practicing veterinarians and staff members of the College of Veterinary Medicine will discuss many of the new techniques in fighting livestock and poultry diseases.

Veterinarians will hear about new diagnostic and surgical procedures, as well as methods for the prevention and control of animal and poultry disease. Television demonstrations, movies and illustrated talks ranging from dental examination of cattle to caesarian sections for sows are on the program.

Other conference events will include a banquet, class reunions and inspection of the college's new large animal clinic.

New Deal For Boys In Reserve Units

Army reserve units of the 85th infantry cadre division in Illinois expect their greatest flood of enlistments in history due to HR 7000, a bill enacted August 9.

For the first time, a provision in the law makes direct enlistments in the army reserve available with certain advantages for young men who desire not to "wait for the draft." For example, eight year enlistments call for only 3 to 6 months of active duty for training, and the remainder of the reservists' service is spent with an active unit such as the 85th infantry division.

The local commander of 85th division units in Des Plaines is Lieutenant Colonel Morris M. Hill, who resides at 9518 Britta ave., Franklin Park.

Six year enlistments are also available which include two years of active duty, three years in unit reserve training, and one year in the "standby" reserve.

Any young men, or parents, who desire further information can contact the first battalion, 337th infantry regiment, by phoning Vanderbilt 4-6130 on any Thursday night, or by going to its meeting place Thursday nights at 620 Lee Street, Des Plaines.

Major Prochaska at CLearbrook 3-2874, and Captain Soderstrom at CLearbrook 5-0918, both in Mt. Prospect, and Captain Frye at Palatine 484-M-1 in Palatine, may also be contacted.

In Hawaii

Army PFC Hubert E. Wouters, 21, son of Mrs. Ruth Nelson, 400 Hawthorne ave., Bensenville, recently took part in battalion training tests held by the 25th infantry division on the Island of Hawaii.

The two-day test was divided into three phases—defense, night withdrawal and attack. The island is about 200 miles from the unit's home station at Schofield Barracks on Oahu.

Wouters, an aidman with company B of the division's 14th regiment, entered the army in September, 1954, and received basic training at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

In California

Army PFC Godfrey D. Netherland, 22, whose wife, Carol Ann, lives at 8 S. Maple st., Mount Prospect, recently helped fight forest fires in the Klamath national forest near Yreka, Calif.

Netherland, a member of the 2d infantry division at Fort Lewis, Wash., was convoyed to the fire in the mountainous area near the California-Oregon border. He fought the fires for five days before rain rell, allowing his unit to go to rear rest areas.

Netherland, son of Mrs. Viola Netherland, rte 1, Prairie View, is a member of the 2d military police company. (WUS

What Do School Kids Require For Spending?

Back-to-school days are here again. When school begins, children need to have some money to spend for such things as lunches and school supplies.

Now is a good time to start your child's allowance if you haven't already done so, says Margueritte Briggs, assistant professor of child development and parent education at the University of Illinois.

When the child first starts school, you probably have a better idea of what his allowance should cover than he does. Help him set up a system of spending. Labeled containers for school, movies and church will be helpful. In this way he can easily see how his money is divided.

IF HE CONTINUALLY asks for more money, check with him to see where and how he's spending his money. In this way you may both help to solve the problem.

Paying a child for good grades is usually a mistake. He needs to think of this as one of his responsibilities. It's not a task that should carry a money reward.

Let your school age youngsters earn money by doing odd jobs that you would pay someone else to do. This is better than paying them for drying dishes, making beds or doing similar tasks they ought to consider their share of the family tasks.

For more information write for Circular 741, "Your child and his money," agricultural information office, Mumford hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, or drop in and pick it up at the extension office located at farm bureau building, 201 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

At St. Mary's

Named to the honor roll at Saint Mary's college, Notre Dame, during the first convocation of the 1955-56 school year was Joan Mette of Arlington Heights.

Recognition was based on work done during the second semester of the last school year. A total of 104 students were singled out for achieving a minimum B grade in their courses for the term.

Since the convocation recognized last year's work, 20 June graduates are included in the list.

Joan, a senior at the college, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Mette of 641 S. State rd., Arlington Heights. She earned a total of 46 honor points for 12 hours of A and 5 hours of B.

To Dedicate New Dorms At Northwestern

Formal dedication ceremonies for two new freshman men's dormitories at Northwestern University will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 6, on the Evanston campus.

The buildings—both $1 million structures—are Dwight St. John Bobb memorial building and Mc Culloch hall. The ceremonies will take place in front of the Bobb building.

At Wisconsin

Wardena Klingler, Mount Prospect, is among 318 students at the University of Wisconsin recently pledged to Wisconsin chapters of 15 sororities on the UW campus.

Wardena was pledged to Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. (CC

At Arizona

Margot J. Mates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Mates, 415 S. Bristol lane, Arlington Heights, has pledged Delta Gamma sorority. Margot, who graduated from Arlington Heights high school in June, is enrolled as a freshman this fall at the University of Arizona in Tucson. She was also chosen to model for her sorority in a recent campus style show.

At Iowa State

Robert E. Burgess, a recent graduate of Arlington Heights high school has been ordered to Iowa State college as a midshipman in the naval reserve officers training corps.

Burgess was among the 30,000 high school students who participated in the nation-wide navy college aptitude test last December. His high academic standing in this test qualified him for further processing, and he was eventually selected for an appointment to the committee. Upon successful completion of this college training, he will be commissioned as an ensign in the regular navy, or a second lieutenant in the marine corps.

At Northwestern

Northwestern university chapter of Delta Upsilon fraternity has announced the pledging of James R. Laughlin, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Laughlin, 635 S. Pine, Arlington Heights. Jim enrolled in Northwestern university's technological institute this September, after being graduated last June from AHHS.

During the next 3 months' pledgeship, in addition to extensive studying, Jim will join his 22 pledge brothers in service projects at the Illinois celebral palsy home, Illinois orphan's home, and Evanston hospital in replacing DU's hell weeks with help weeks.

Building - Remodeling - Improving

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

One of the controversial books of the year has been a book on education. Most of us have an idea that books on education are quite a good thing—for educators, but rather dull reading for "normal" people.

Rudolph Flesch has tackled the subject "Why Johnny Can't Read," and the arguments have been raging. Briefly, Johnny's trouble is that he does not learn to read: he learns to recognize words, and the ones he does not recognize, he guesses. "We have decided to forget that we write with letters and learn to read English as if it were Chinese."

DR. FLESCH maintains that children should learn the alphabet and phonics principles early. The present practice apparently is to withhold the use of these principles until the child becomes old enough to require remedial reading training. "Try to teach a child to run before he walks. After he has fallen down sufficiently often that it becomes obvious he needs 'remedial work,' then teach him to take one step at a time." At the time I was in Baltimore, this summer, Gloria Lockerman was "the big story" in Baltimore papers. Her spelling, her sense of phonics, was coupled with Flesch's principles, although I don't recall that I saw a detailed analysis of the method by which she learned to read and spell.

IF YOU DEAL with groups of children regularly, you meet some fantastic methods of spelling, reading, and writing. When I worked in settlement houses, I saw larger groups of children who attended various schools; so this is not necessarily a judgment on the school my children attend.

On the other hand, one of our children learned to read by recognition, in the Chicago schools; another learned to read with some phonics training, in our local school. So what happens? The recognizer is the more efficient reader at present. Does this prove the method? Not to us. There are a great many individual differences involved.

IF THERE were one simple way to learn to read which would work with everybody and which would have personality benefits for all, educators would "climb on the bandwagon" all over the world. But if we were all able to learn to read in the same way, it might follow that we would all be equipped to think approximately the same way. And that would be a bad thing.

As the Frenchmen said, when an ardent feminist maintained that there was very little difference between men and women, "Vive la difference." Individual differences are the truly great necessities of human beings. Personality cannot be stamped out on an assembly line. We should be doing everything we can to assist personalities to develop to their greatest potentialities; and discussion of how we learn to read is all to the good. But there is no single easy road to reading skill — nor to reading understanding.

Cancer Quacks Take Their Toll

"In this 20th century atmosphere of great scientific and medical advancement, it has been estimated that cancer quacks cause many thousands of needless deaths each year and mulct the American public to the extent of millions of dollars annually."

This statement was made to over 250 American Cancer society volunteers from Cook, Lake and DuPage counties Thursday, September 22 at the society's metropolitan area meeting at the Sheraton hotel in Chicago. The speaker was Oliver Field, director of the American Medical Association's bureau of investigation, who spoke on the subject, "Cancer Quackery — Todays's Black Art."

"THE TYPES of persons attracted by quacks fall into four categories," said Field. "Those who are suffering from cancer and cannot be saved through proven methods. The naive — who are taken in by shining promises. The uninformed — who do not know that so far the two methods of treating cancer are radiation and surgery. There is another group who have received extensive radiation therapy and go to the quack while feeling the untoward effect of such drastic treatment, the beneficial actions of which are not immediately discernable."

In his work with the bureau, Field has investigated many "cures" ranging from colored tap water to "electronic" devices. In his files are the tragic stories of thousands of men and women who lost their lives because of these and other "cures." The files also contain testimonials from people convinced they were cured of cancer, which are used by the quack to advertise his alleged ability. Field pointed out that testimonials are not reliable and usually investigation discloses that the true story has not been told.

In the Shadow of The Steeple

by William O. McGill

One of the controversial books of the year has been a book on education. Most of us have an idea that books on education are quite a good thing—for educators, but rather dull reading for "normal" people.

Rudolph Flesch has tackled the subject "Why Johnny Can't Read," and the arguments have been raging. Briefly, Johnny's trouble is that he does not learn to read: he learns to recognize words, and the ones he does not recognize, he guesses. "We have decided to forget that we write with letters and learn to read English as if it were Chinese."

DR. FLESCH maintains that children should learn the alphabet and phonics principles early. The present practice apparently is to withhold the use of these principles until the child becomes old enough to require remedial reading training. "Try to teach a child to run before he walks. After he has fallen down sufficiently often that it becomes obvious he needs 'remedial work,' then teach him to take one step at a time." At the time I was in Baltimore, this summer, Gloria Lockerman was "the big story" in Baltimore papers. Her spelling, her sense of phonics, was coupled with Flesch's principles, although I don't recall that I saw a detailed analysis of the method by which she learned to read and spell.

IF YOU DEAL with groups of children regularly, you meet some fantastic methods of spelling, reading, and writing. When I worked in settlement houses, I saw larger groups of children who attended various schools; so this is not necessarily a judgment on the school my children attend.

On the other hand, one of our children learned to read by recognition, in the Chicago schools; another learned to read with some phonics training, in our local school. So what happens? The recognizer is the more efficient reader at present. Does this prove the method? Not to us. There are a great many individual differences involved.

IF THERE were one simple way to learn to read which would work with everybody and which would have personality benefits for all, educators would "climb on the bandwagon" all over the world. But if we were all able to learn to read in the same way, it might follow that we would all be equipped to think approximately the same way. And that would be a bad thing.

As the Frenchmen said, when an ardent feminist maintained that there was very little difference between men and women, "Vive la difference." Individual differences are the truly great necessities of human beings. Personality cannot be stamped out on an assembly line. We should be doing everything we can to assist personalities to develop to their greatest potentialities; and discussion of how we learn to read is all to the good. But there is no single easy road to reading skill — nor to reading understanding.

Cancer Quacks Take Their Toll

"In this 20th century atmosphere of great scientific and medical advancement, it has been estimated that cancer quacks cause many thousands of needless deaths each year and mulct the American public to the extent of millions of dollars annually."

This statement was made to over 250 American Cancer society volunteers from Cook, Lake and DuPage counties Thursday, September 22 at the society's metropolitan area meeting at the Sheraton hotel in Chicago. The speaker was Oliver Field, director of the American Medical Association's bureau of investigation, who spoke on the subject, "Cancer Quackery — Todays's Black Art."

"THE TYPES of persons attracted by quacks fall into four categories," said Field. "Those who are suffering from cancer and cannot be saved through proven methods. The naive — who are taken in by shining promises. The uninformed — who do not know that so far the two methods of treating cancer are radiation and surgery. There is another group who have received extensive radiation therapy and go to the quack while feeling the untoward effect of such drastic treatment, the beneficial actions of which are not immediately discernable."

In his work with the bureau, Field has investigated many "cures" ranging from colored tap water to "electronic" devices. In his files are the tragic stories of thousands of men and women who lost their lives because of these and other "cures." The files also contain testimonials from people convinced they were cured of cancer, which are used by the quack to advertise his alleged ability. Field pointed out that testimonials are not reliable and usually investigation discloses that the true story has not been told.

Fake Stradivarius Violins Catching The Eyes Of Americans At Record Rate

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Duped Americans have almost cleaned Europe out of its supply of phoney Stradivarius violins. As one arrested salesman remarked: "I found Americans to be the most musical-minded people in the world!"

Business has been so good for Stradivarius "agents" in Europe that at the close of the tourist season there is hardly an old fiddle to be found between Madrid and Hamburg.

Of the European police, the Swiss have been the most energetic in tracking down these illegal dealers. A number of famous people in the music world are included in the long list of duped purchasers. The value of a bogus Stradivarius runs to around two-hundred dollars, but a good salesman in contact with a gullible purchaser can earn several thousand dollars for "a quick sale."

IT IS ESTIMATED that there are between two and three hundred genuine Stradivarius violins in the world, and of these only about forty or fifty are in good condition. An instrument such as this which is well preserved can bring the seller between fifty and eighty thousand dollars! But at that price, a violin would have to be accompanied by testimonials from numerous experts.

This recent war against violin falsifications has been initiated by the large number of complaints from Americans, plus the pride of a certain Italian who is connected with the Italian trade commission in Switzerland. It is considered a national disgrace that the name of Antonio Stradivari should be brought into doubt by so many police cases.

SWISS POLICE, leaders in the battle against these frauds, made an interesting statement regarding their work. They pointed out that a violin player who buys what he thinks to be a Stravarius and later wants it tested, rarely is influenced in his purchase by listening to the instrument's tone. He seems more concerned with the violin's markings than with its ability to perform, indicating the presence of certain musical snobbery.

If people bought their violins on the basis of how they sound instead of how they looked to friends, Swiss agents grumbled, an entire police section and a long list of complaints would completely disappear.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Norm Granz, who has begun his annual tour with a galaxy of jazz greats whose work you can hear on Norm's spectacular hi-fi Norgran and Clef platters, has just released three 12-inchers under the Norgran label which represent some of the finest jazz these inured ears have heard in a month of Sundays. Norm's discs always have the effect of a "live" concert, which makes for much more listenable entertainment and getting into the mood than a straight commercial waxing. In fact, many of his platters are made at actual jazz sessions, and the cheers and whistles of the crowd act as infectious background.

Well, our first platter is "A Tal Farlow Recital," and when you hear it, you will be listening to just about the best jazz guitarist who ever plucked a fret. Backed by the fine combo of Bob Enevoldsen on valve trombone, Bob Gordon on baritone sax, Bill Perkins on tenor sax, Monty Budwig on bass, and Lawrence Marable on the drums, Tal gives us beautifully styled and smoothly paced renditions of "You Came Along From Out of Nowhere," "Walkin'," "Moonlight Becomes You," "On the Alamo," "Will You Still Be Mine," "Bye Bye Baby" and his own very smart and perky "Lorinesque." Superlatively realistic sound!

"SING AND SWING with Buddy Rich" is another super-terrific Norgran 12-incher highlighting a magnificent stylist on the drums. His combo has such greats as Oscar Peterson at the piano, Ray Brown on bass, Ben Webster's mellow tenor sax and Thad Jones' trumpet. Buddy is not a bad vocalizer either. His tunes are very aptly chosen: "Over the Rainbow," "My Heart Stood Still, "You've Changed," "Time after Time," "This Is Always," and "I Hadn't Anyone Till You." There are some beautiful balladeering in these, and the way Ben Webster takes tenor solos is worth the price of the disc alone, to say nothing of Buddy's pulsing beat.

Last but far from least is "West Coast Jazz," and what a cast it has! Stan Getz, Shelly Manne at the drums (borrowed from Contemporary Records), LeRoy Vinnegar and Conte Candoli (both Bethlehem Record artists), and Lou Levy. "East of the Sun," "Four," "Suddenly It's Spring," "Night in Tunisia" (our favorite, for its socking rhythm!), "Summertime" (superbly styled with all that haunting brass and pace) and the jaunty "Shine." A gorgeous jazz platter, given stunning hi-fi sound!

Air Travel 36 Times Pre-War Rate

In the United States some 85 per cent of all who use the common carriers—air, rail, bus—to travel 1,500 miles or more, take the "high road." In 1954 this country's scheduled airlines carried a record 35,184,000 revenue passengers. Last year, for the second straight year, passenger revenues of these lines and local service carriers topped rail passenger revenues, excluding commutation.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has estimated that by 1960 domestic air carriers alone will be carrying 50 million passengers yearly and flying in excess of 23.7 billion passenger miles.

Worldwide air traffic has expanded 36 times in terms of passengers and 70 times in terms of cargo, over prewar levels.

Villa d'Este

A Gracious Background of Country Estate Luxury and Old World Charm for the Serving of Continental Cuisine

Picturesquely centered in the heart of what was once the palatial estate of John Hertz and later the famous Curtiss Farms and home of Otto Schnering, Villa d'Este presents a rare combination of country estate elegance and old world charm plus a cuisine one would expect to find only in the most exclusive continental restaurants. And although but a short drive from Chicago's Loop and a matter of minutes from North Shore and Western Suburbs, Villa d'Este retains an almost untouched natural setting. Rolling wooded hills outline the winding half-mile approach. While from the dining rooms the Fox River Valley presents an ever-changing panorama.

Announcing
The Opening of
Villa d'Este

A Gracious Background of Country Estate Luxury and Old World Charm for the Serving of Continental Cuisine

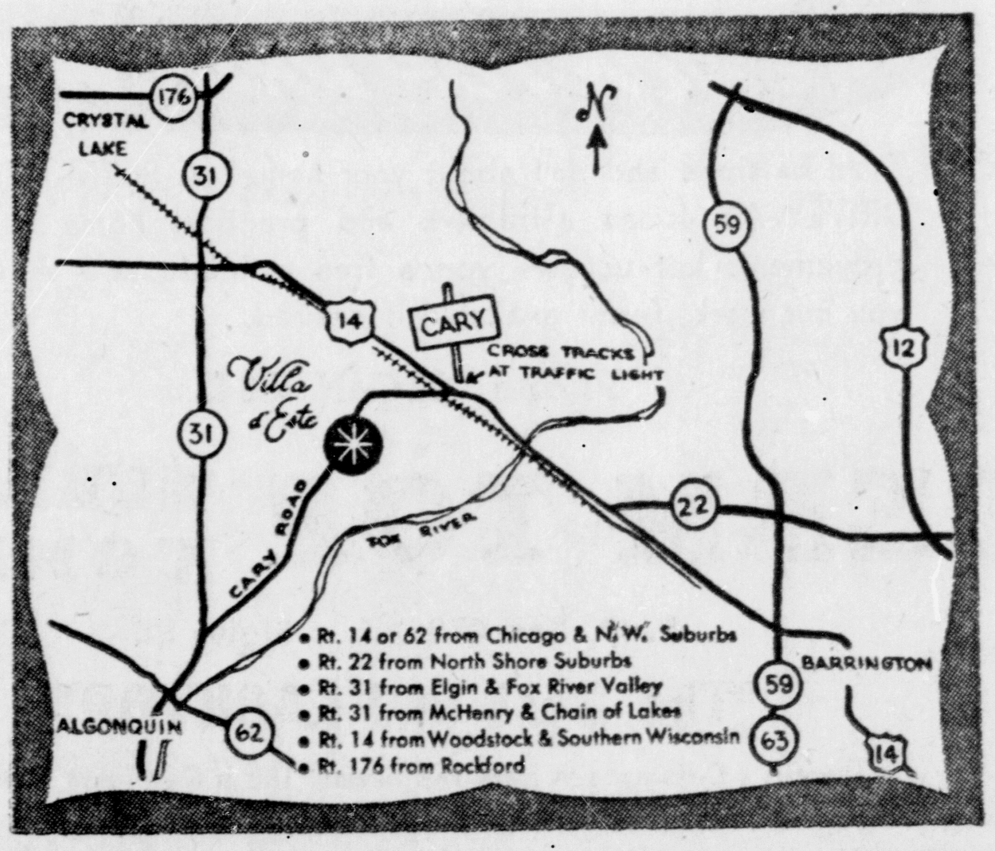
Picturesquely centered in the heart of what was once the palatial estate of John Hertz and later the famous Curtiss Farms and home of Otto Schnering, Villa d'Este presents a rare combination of country estate elegance and old world charm plus a cuisine one would expect to find only in the most exclusive continental restaurants. And although but a short drive from Chicago's Loop and a matter of minutes from North Shore and Western Suburbs, Villa d'Este retains an almost untouched natural setting. Rolling wooded hills outline the winding half-mile approach. While from the dining rooms the Fox River Valley presents an ever-changing panorama.

Cocktails and Dinner. Open Tuesday thru Sunday.
Weekdays 4 P.M. to 1 A.M. Sunday 3 P.M. to 12 P.M.

"On the Cary Road", Cary, Ill., Mercury 9-2271.
Refer to Map at right for Location and Routes.

Reservations Recommended



- Rt. 14 or 62 from Chicago & N. W. Suburbs
- Rt. 22 from North Shore Suburbs
- Rt. 31 from Elgin & Fox River Valley
- Rt. 31 from McHenry & Chain of Lakes
- Rt. 14 from Woodstock & Southern Wisconsin
- Rt. 176 from Rockford

More Than Half Of '55 Graduates Now In College

A total 174 members of the class of 1955 at Arlington Heights high school have enrolled in college, nursing school, or business school for the current year.

This is 58 per cent of the 298 members of the class.

Six of the class have joined the service.

Most students chose colleges in Illinois and adjacent states, but a few students will go long distances. Included are such distant schools as The Citadel, University of Colorado, Yale University, Florida Southern College, and Harding College, Searcy, Ark.

Scholarships will help 26 members of the class, and 1 has received in grant-in-aid.

As it has for several years, the University of Illinois drew the largest number, 12, from the graduating class. Northwestern is close behind with 10.

Arlington Citizens Aid Trial Catastrophe Run At Resurrection Hospital

by MARGUERITE DIETRICH

The wail of a siren carries far its message of fear and dread. Is it the common automobile accident—a bus loaded with school children—a train wreck—an airplane crash? No matter what, there are probably more names to be listed under the heading "And Sudden Death."

If the thread of life continues, no matter how tenuous, the ambulances rush to the nearest hospital so that the skilled hands of a doctor may strengthen that thread quickly.

But if there are many hurt—if it is a catastrophe—how can the hospital be sure it will give the right sort of aid, first to those who need it most, that there will be no lost time from the confusion of the tragic accident?

TO FIND the answers to these questions, Resurrection hospital in Chicago, September 27, had its first trial run of the catastrophe team after the trauma committee, headed by Dr. Keith Wurtz, and Dr. Theodore E. Kretschmer, chief of civil defense for the hospital, worked out the details of a catastrophe plan.

Twenty-five patients were the victims in a supposed accident. Since well over 5 were seriously injured it was designated as "catastrophe" and the plan went into effect. The telephone operator called the team from a prepared roster to come to the hospital as quickly as possible.

A directing officer, 2 general surgeons, 1 doctor on the shock and resuscitation team, 1 orthopedic surgeon, 2 of the minor injury team were among the first contacted. X-ray and laboratory techtacted. X-ray and laboratory technicians were reached. Special surgeons were called by the directing officer as he decided.

CATASTROPHE victims were seen by the directing officer who had them tagged and identified, decided whether they needed immediate treatment, hospital but not immediate treatment, or first aid only. Then patients were sent, according to type of injury, to certain pre-designated rooms. The lobby was used for minor injuries. Treatment was carried out.

"Patients" in the mock catastrophe recovered dramatically and had coffee and cake in the hospital cafeteria and Dr. Wurtz asked for their lay suggestions for improvement of plan.

Findings of the doctors will be considered later so that the plan may be improved. It was thought by the hospital that this was the first time in the area that such a project had been planned and carried out.

Groups who supplied patients were: Park Ridge Junior Chamber of Commerce, Des Plaines, Optimists, Arlington Heights Lions, 56th U. S. Air Force Infirmary, O'Hare field and the Resurrection hospital men's foundation, who also carried patients.

Ambulances who rushed the patients in were from Blacks in Arlington Hts.; Oehler's, Des Plaines; Parke Ryan, Park Ridge; Mercy, Chicago; and 56th U. S. Air Force at O'Hare. Chicago, Cook county, state highway and Park Ridge police assisted in the trial run.

Navy Sets December 10 For Annual NROTC Exams

The tenth annual competitive examination for high school seniors who desire to attend college and train for careers as naval officers will be held throughout the nation December 10, the navy announced today. Applications for the NROTC are now available, but must be received by November 19, the announcement said.

Successful candidates will start their careers in colleges and universities across the country in 1956 with substantial assistance from the government. After a normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the regular navy or marine corps, for active duty with the fleet throughout the world.

Male citizens of the United States, between the ages of 17 and 21, are eligible to apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Persons who attain a qualifying score will be given the navy's rigid midshipman physical examination next February. From the pool of qualified candidates remaining in competition, approximately 1800 young men will be selected for appointment to the NROTC, and the college of their choice.

Students enrolled in the regular NROTC program will spend their summers on training cruises with the fleet, and will receive $600 annual retainer pay until commissioned. In addition to the normal college curriculum, the midshipman will study a planned course in naval science. All tuition, fees, and books will be furnished by the navy.

The college training program is also open to enlisted men on active duty in the navy and marine corps.

Applications are now available at all high schools, colleges and U.S. navy recruiting stations. Further information may be obtained locally from the U.S. navy recruiting station, village hall, Elmwood Parkway, Elmwood Park, Illinois, or direct from the chief of naval personnel, Washington 25, D.C.

TO FIND the answers to these questions, Resurrection hospital in Chicago, September 27, had its first trial run of the catastrophe team after the trauma committee, headed by Dr. Keith Wurtz, and Dr. Theodore E. Kretschmer, chief of civil defense for the hospital, worked out the details of a catastrophe plan.

Twenty-five patients were the victims in a supposed accident. Since well over 5 were seriously injured it was designated as "catastrophe" and the plan went into effect. The telephone operator called the team from a prepared roster to come to the hospital as quickly as possible.

A directing officer, 2 general surgeons, 1 doctor on the shock and resuscitation team, 1 orthopedic surgeon, 2 of the minor injury team were among the first contacted. X-ray and laboratory technicians were reached. Special surgeons were called by the directing officer as he decided.

CATASTROPHE victims were seen by the directing officer who had them tagged and identified, decided whether they needed immediate treatment, hospital but not immediate treatment, or first aid only. Then patients were sent, according to type of injury, to certain pre-designated rooms. The lobby was used for minor injuries. Treatment was carried out.

"Patients" in the mock catastrophe recovered dramatically and had coffee and cake in the hospital cafeteria and Dr. Wurtz asked for their lay suggestions for improvement of plan.

Findings of the doctors will be considered later so that the plan may be improved. It was thought by the hospital that this was the first time in the area that such a project had been planned and carried out.

Groups who supplied patients were: Park Ridge Junior Chamber of Commerce, Des Plaines, Optimists, Arlington Heights Lions, 56th U. S. Air Force Infirmary, O'Hare field and the Resurrection hospital men's foundation, who also carried patients.

Ambulances who rushed the patients in were from Blacks in Arlington Hts.; Oehler's, Des Plaines; Parke Ryan, Park Ridge; Mercy, Chicago; and 56th U. S. Air Force at O'Hare. Chicago, Cook county, state highway and Park Ridge police assisted in the trial run.

Navy Sets December 10 For Annual NROTC Exams

The tenth annual competitive examination for high school seniors who desire to attend college and train for careers as naval officers will be held throughout the nation December 10, the navy announced today. Applications for the NROTC are now available, but must be received by November 19, the announcement said.

Successful candidates will start their careers in colleges and universities across the country in 1956 with substantial assistance from the government. After a normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the regular navy or marine corps, for active duty with the fleet throughout the world.

Male citizens of the United States, between the ages of 17 and 21, are eligible to apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Persons who attain a qualifying score will be given the navy's rigid midshipman physical examination next February. From the pool of qualified candidates remaining in competition, approximately 1800 young men will be selected for appointment to the NROTC, and the college of their choice.

Students enrolled in the regular NROTC program will spend their summers on training cruises with the fleet, and will receive $600 annual retainer pay until commissioned. In addition to the normal college curriculum, the midshipman will study a planned course in naval science. All tuition, fees, and books will be furnished by the navy.

The college training program is also open to enlisted men on active duty in the navy and marine corps.

Applications are now available at all high schools, colleges and U.S. navy recruiting stations. Further information may be obtained locally from the U.S. navy recruiting station, village hall, Elmwood Parkway, Elmwood Park, Illinois, or direct from the chief of naval personnel, Washington 25, D.C.

Happenings 10, 20, 30, 40, And 50 Years Ago This Week

Fifty Years Ago

October 6, 1905

Bensenville will lay a lot of cement walks this fall.

About 30 witnesses were called before the grand jury at Wheaton Tuesday to tell what they knew about Itasca saloons being open on Sunday.

Herman Staib, Hanover, says Palatine is a fine town, lots more sporty than Bartlett. He must be sparking a girl over there.

Ald. C. W. Ost, Palatine, is convalescing rapidly from his many injuries the past week.

Mr. Henay Bolte and son, Ed, of Arlington Heights have been hustling this past week, preparing to lay a cement walk 9 ft. wide on the north and west sides of his brick block and 4 ft. 8 in. the rest of the way. They have already tramped down over a carload of cinders and John Schulenburg will lay the cement top dressing next week. That's what we call hustling.

Wheeling steel concrete bridge is nearing completion. It will be the finest in Cook county.

Forty Years Ago

October 1, 1915

Charles O. Peterson, the popular blacksmith and skilled mechanic and his worthy wife, who is highly esteemed by all who have the pleasure of her acquaintance entertained the Men's Bible Class and their ladies in a very delightful manner at their handsome new home on Chestnut st., Arlington Heights, Tuesday evening, the occasion being the regular monthly meeting of the class.

The Cook County Fair that was postponed on account of the Foot and Mouth Disease will be held October 14, 15, and 16 at Palatine.

Mt. Prospect is certainly a booming town. Nine new houses will soon be finished and there are prospects for more yet this season.

Palatine will have a football team this year if the plans of some of the old timers meet with success.

Mr. William Heide and Miss Alma Nebel were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Schaumburg, at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 25, 1915.

William Hanke, Itasca, is suffering from lumbago.

Mrs. H. J. Martens, Roselle, leaves Saturday for San Francisco where she intends to spend 3 months visiting her daughters and seeing the Exposition.

Thirty Years Ago

October 9, 1925

The 25 gallons of alcohol that was discovered in a garage near the Young soft drink parlor at Palatine recently has been dumped into the sewer.

The congregation of the Palatine Lutheran church held a meeting recently when a committee was authorized to secure plans and figures for the erection of a school building.

What's the matter with the Bensenville water system? Last week every little while the faucets refused to yield water. The new automatic engine at the pumping station is said to be in a bad condition because it was not given proper care.

Arlington Heights football squad travels in style, as it should. The trip to Antioch was made in a gayly painted motor coach, especially hired for the occasion. This means of transportation is superior to traveling in smaller cars as it keeps the team together. There is no fear of tire trouble or of anyone getting lost on the way. The boys can celebrate their victories together on the way home or cheer each other after a defeat as the case may be.

They do say Roberta Beaty is the most popular little Miss in Arlington Heights since she came into possesion of that pretty prize pony and cart.

Twenty Years Ago

October 4, 1935

In the final play-off Sunday for the 1935 championship of the Arlington Heights softball league, the Schimming-Sachs emerged the victors over Roehler Motors in a loosely played game. The score was 10 to 4.

Mr. ard Mrs. Erick Wenslaff motored to St. Louis last Wednesday where they saw the Cubs tighten their grip on the National League pennant.

We are all glad to learn that Bill, Palatine high school janitor, is out of the hospital and will soon be well enough to sweep our floors once more.

Everything comes to him who kicks hard enough and those residents of Arlington Heights whose homes are on W. Euclid, N. Dwyer, and W. Campbell now receive their mail by rural carrier. As that part of the town is sparsely settled and is without sidewalks, village delivery is not possible.

The damage done by a fire of unknown origin which broke at the Itasca Country club last Saturday is now estimated at $45,000.

Ten Years Ago

October 5, 1945

Arlington Heights plan commission has placed its OK on 3 subdivision plats: Arlington Ridge, the Reed Farm tract, and the William A. Pfluger tract.

R. H. Jahn, superintendent of Arlington Seating co., resigned that position Oct. 1. He had been with the company 43 years.

If the village of Arlington Heights needs funds for the purpose for plans, specifications and studies for specific post war public works projects, there is $2,832 awaiting the municipality in the state treasury.

Ray Lesch has taken up his duties as police chief of Wheeling again.

Mrs. E. P. Steinbrinck and Mrs. G. M. Sanborn were the guests Tuesday afternoon at the Elgin PEO meeting. They are from Palatine.

Henry Hanke, 83, of Addison township, died Wednesday afternoon.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

If you want to be a venerable parent in your retiring years, it's up to you to see that your children learn responsiblity and loyalty at home. Junior will have little love for the parent who gives everything with a free hand, and expects nothing in return. Children should be taught that they owe their parents something in return for their care, and be encouraged to pay their way in work about the home, to carry their share of the load.

Ask any employer who his best employee is and he will give you the answer quickly; the employee who has learned responsiblility and loyalty at home. It's the child who grows up thinking that the world owes him a living because everything was handed him on a silver platter at home who finds it hard to adjust in the business world. And if he doesn't learn to be loyal to his home and his parents as a child, he won't be loyal to his employer on the job.

FOR THE EMPLOYER takes over where the parent leaves off. Most of us need supervision throughout life, and most of us also transfer to our employers and supervisors the responsibility for our welfare in the workaday world. That employers are taking this to heart is witnessed by the all out effort most of them are taking to make their factories like a home.

Not only do many of them provide for their employees social life through clubs, bowling teams, golf clubs, handball courts and tennis courts on their own grounds, but they are providing family and employee counseling on such things as home life, financial problems and legal matters.

THE YOUNG MAN or woman who goes out into the world on his own with a well developed sense of responsibility and loyalty will forge rapidly ahead of the ones who want things handed to them for employers are always seeking responsible employees, and are quick to recognize and reward them.

And the parent who has taught his child to respect him and realize what he owes his parent will have that child's loving care in his old age. It's as simple as that.

Newspaper Week

Once again, it is my pleasure to extend congratulations and best wishes to you on the occasion of National Newspaper Week, October 1 to 8.

I want also to thank you for the generous amount of space you have devoted to news stories coming from this office. The average citizen of our state has probably more direct contact with the secretary of state's office than with any other state agency, because of our duties in the fields of motor vehicle licensing, driver licensing, election requirements and so on. Without your cooperation it would be practically an insurmountable task to keep him informed about the deadlines he must meet and the procedures to follow to obtain his fair share of the services available through state government.

Area High School Students Face A Tough Assignment

So said Dr. Rollin B. Posey, former head of Northwestern university's political science department.

Referring to a new law requiring all junior and senior high school students to pass a test on the state constitution before graduation, Dr. Posey explained that the 1871 document contains legal terminology difficult even for lawyers to puzzle out.

"This is the reason why I felt it desirable to re-word the document in a simplified form," he said. "The longest sentence in the Illinois constitution contains 481 words and 7 separate ideas.

This sentence may well hold the record for length among the various state constitions, added Posey.

The professor's new volume, "The Constitution of Illinois, Simplified and Explained," contains in 3 parallel columns the actual constitution, a paraphrase of it in easy-to-understand language, and notes on the significance of each section.

Rand Road

I have read the several news items in last weeks Roselle Register regarding the disregarding motorists who drive along Rand rd., Route 12, between County Line rd. and Mannheim rd. at a speed greater than reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and use of the way, so as to endanger the life, limb or property of any person and mostly school children. Having been a law enforcement officer for several years, it is my duty to be interested in the welfare of my boss, the people.

If there are people who are interested in the safety of their children, and I believe all of them are. may I suggest they contact their township board or district school board and have them either hire a constable for an hour or more on school days to patrol Rand rd.

As most of us know, Rand road between County Line road and Mannheim rd. is located partly in Palatine, Wheeling or Maine townships. All or most of these townships have five (5) Constables, some of them members of local police departments who may be at your service for a short time daily.

Some time ago, I rendered such service to a school board and district where Route 50 passed thru. It is preferable the school district or districts, through its school board, do the hiring, inasmuch as your township board has the justice of the peace as most of its members and who may be accused of a speed-trap. The office of constable is not a one with a salary, and may be considered piece work or a fee office. We have and demand home rule; now here is the chance to use it.

EYE-WITNESS REPORT

Arabs Confined to Rock Caves Could Win Palestine for Reds

(This is the third in a series of reports on Palestine by Rev. Dahl of Arlington Heights. He recently returned from a 44-week tour of the Near East.)

by BIRGER DAHL

Some refugee families live in caves. A young man in his late teens invited me to his home in Ild Jerusalem, near Dung Gate.

A narrow street led us to a stone court yard 20 ft. in diameter. There were 8 caves within the rock wall where little light penetrated each dwelling place.

The boy's cave-home furnished shelter for a family of 5. This single space was 9x12 ft. The floor was stone, walls solid rock.

Meager furnishings consisted of an oil burner for cooking, several dishes, 2 pans, a few blankets, and a small bundle of clothes.

HIS NEIGHBORS, a family of 10, lived in a cave slightly larger. Above these 8 family units was another tier of caves, housing a total of 75 people about this small courtyard.

Many refugee camps lined the way in Lebanon, Syria and Jordan. They varied in size. Some have less than 800 people, others more than 20,000.

Most of these unfortunate people live in tents used during World War II. Their tattered rags are the only shelter from the blazing sun and winter storms.

Most of these Arabs were accustomed to good living conditions in cities or small villages. Among them are doctors, lawyers, and men and women trained in good universities.

They are not thinking, however, of erecting permanent dwelling places. They are dominated by the thought of their right to go back home.

UNRWA is doing an excellent job with limited means. The quality of food is acceptable. My refugee friend appreciated any kind of food—it kept him alive.

It costs less than $2 a month to feed a person on a daily diet of 1500 calories. Current figures for monthly rations consist of 22 pounds of flour, little more than a pound of sugar, 1 pound 5 ounces of dried beans, peas, etc., 1 pound 2 ounces of oil, and 3½ ounces of soap.

Because of limited funds, UNRWA is not able to provide clothing for refugees. They must rely on various organizations such as Lutheran World federation, Church World service, American Middle East Relief, inc.

Refugees told me food and clothing rations have not been increased for the newly born. However, up to the age of 2, some of the larger camps have a special milk and rice ration.

UNRWA DOCTORS have done a noble job with a small staff in warding off epidemics such as cholera, typhus or bubonic plague. The real scourge of the East for thousands of years has been eye disease. About 50% are suffering from trachoma or conjunctivitis. One little girl, 4 years old, had 20 or more flies about her eyes. Because both diseases are primarily transmitted by flies, much is being done to eliminate them.

Such conditions breed communism. These people at heart are not in sympathy with communism; but destitution among 800,000 refugees could force them to turn blindly to any country or system for help.

One observer, a graduate of Northwestern university, worked in Egypt as managing editor of a Middle East magazine. He said: "Every day that passes before a just solution of the refugee problem has been achieved, is a day won for the Soviets, and lost for the Western Powers."

(Next week: "The Mind of Israel in the Middle East.")

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

I wrote to you last week about Nell and I starting our nursery school and said that I'd tell you more about the adventure this week. Just in case you're thinking of starting something like this, let me say first of all that you REALLY have to want to do it to have enough courage to meet all the obstacles waiting for you. You see, one just can't start a nursery school — one must get permission first and that means permission from the fire chief, permission from the health inspector, permission from the city council and an inspection and license from the state welfare department! There is also the matter of an increase in insurance — both on house and car (as I pick up and take the children home).

It sometimes seems as though all these people are deliberately trying to prevent you from going through with your idea of a nursery school. I've been told this isn't true and that actually all these permits are for our own protection as well as that of the children, but I still say don't consider going into business until you're ready to plow through all the red tape.

BY THE TIME our nursery school opened two weeks ago, we had nine children enrolled. Although we need about twice that many to make it profitable, we didn't feel that it was too poor a showing since the first notice of the school appeared only two weeks before our opening. We are also receiving phone calls now for information and enrollments in our second session. The reason we run the school in four week sessions is to enable parents to enroll their children and pay for a comparatively short time.

If a child is absent or attends only three weeks and then drops out, no refund is given. However, a child can attend as few as three days a week — as long as they are specific days. We do prefer to have the child come five days a week. If the child attends five days a week, from 9 to 11:30 the fee is $25.00 for four weeks (transportation included). If the child attends only three days a week the fee is $1.50 per morning.

THE FIRST DAY was a riot. I had no idea it would take 45 minutes to pick up nine children in our station wagon — as a consequence I was 25 minutes late picking up the last child and of course the mother thought I had forgotten her little girl. Since then, I have managed to pick up every child before 9 o'clock, with the exception of the one time I actually did forget to stop for a child (this is very poor business — best to be mysterious and suggest vaguely that you had some unusual problem that morning).

From the very first day, the children have been thrilled with their lovely, large play room, the many toys, the doll house, the doll beds and baby buggies. They also love to pull up their little individual benches to the small tables and model clay, or work a puzzle, color or have their morning snack. The routine is much the same every day: first a good morning prayer, then about a half hour of free play, then either a story or organized game. At 10 we have a snack of fruit juice and cookies followed by whatever story record the children would like to hear. If the weather is nice we go outside for such games as London Bridge, Farmer in the Dell, Ring-Around-the-Rosy and Follow the Leader or play in the sand box and on the swings. On birthdays we have a cake and a balloon and lollipop for everyone, and a present for the birthday child.

So far, it has been worth all the obstacles we had to overcome while getting started. The children love it! They hurry to the car when I "toot" every morning, smiling and happy to be going to nursery school. As long as the children are this eager, the job will be an easy and happy one.

My love,
Patty.

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Junior High School

Editor's column several weeks ago mentioned the need for a junior high school in Palatine. I have since learned the location for this building is to be northeast of town and that there is also planning going on for a grade school southwest of town. All this information gives rise to several questions which can only be resolved by consideration and participation of the entire community.

That more classrooms are immediately needed is clear; what is not so obvious is: (1) the kind of space most urgently required, (2) the education parents feel the elementary school should provide, and (3) the amount of money the district can afford to spend.

APPROXIMATELY two-thirds to three-fourths of the present grade school population is made up of children in kindergarten through fourth grade, and the majority of the children moving into the district will fall into this group. Therefore our greatest immediate need is for classrooms for primary and intermediate grades.

It is desirable, furthermore, that children of this age group attend school within walking distance of their homes for two reasons — one, if children attend neighborhood schools, they will not have heavily-traveled streets to cross, and two, neighborhood schools do not require the expense of a cafeteria and bus transportation.

THE KIND of education parents want the elementary school to provide is the first and most important subject which deserves consideration of everyone, because the kind of housing required depends upon the kind of education requested. And to reach agreement on the kind of education, we need to consider what we, as parents, expect the school to teach our children, to decide how much should be taught in grade school and how much should be left for high school. It is only after we agree on these issues that we can decide what kind of school buildings we need.

Before, for instance, Palatine citizens could vote intelligently on the advisability of a junior high school, we would have to agree among other things on the answers to the following questions. What is a junior high school designed to do? What course of study is desirable? What grade levels should be included? We would need to know why educators disagree as to the advisability of establishing junior high schools. Is the disagreement based on differences of opinion as to the course of study, as to the grade levels included, or as to both?

IF WE SHOULD agree that a junior high school includes the seventh through ninth grades, we would need to solve the existing situation of having one board responsible for the seventh and eighth grades and another responsible for the ninth. Should the present districts be dissolved and a new one encompassing both be created? Should the two present boards retain their respective entities as taxing bodies but meet as one group with common responsibility? Should one board assume responsibility for a junior high school and receive per capita payment from the other for operating those grades not within its taxing jurisdication?

If, on the other hand, we should agree that a junior high school includes the sixth through eighth grades, or the seventh and eighth grades alone, and thus not be faced with making the decisions above, we would still need to decide on the housing and equipment needed for these grade levels.

WHAT EQUIPMENT do we already have? What is the best compromise between an ideal situation and the amount of money available? Should we take advantage of present housing with its two cafeterias, two gymnasiums, both expensive parts of a school building, build outlying neighborhood schools for kindergartens through fifth or sixth grades to relieve the pressure on Oak Street and Paddock, and then use our present facilities primarily for upper grades?

What is the most desirable location for a junior high school? Should Oak Street, with its proximity to the park, to the probable future site of the village library, and the possibility of using the shop and home economics equipment of the high school, be enlarged as it was designed to be and become the junior high school for the district? Should we build one new neighborhood school and one new junior high school or should we build two new neighborhood schools?

ALL OF THESE questions should be considered and resolved by the entire community. It is unfair to the boards of education, to the children in the district, and to the general public to expect a handful of our people to assume responsibility for decisions that morally and legally are the responsibility of every person — especially of parents. Just as we assume responsibility for the operation of our village, so, it seems to me, we should assume responsibility for our schools.

Gripes And Grudges

It looks like the "Fence Post" should be renamed "Gripes and Grudges." Since your headlines were quite clear, was it necessary to print such chowder about our fair "Regressive Party" and several others. When we consider the vast distribution of our paper, is there no other way of adjusting ones problems since the editor had done such a splendid job of stating the issues.

Perhaps the association of commerce in California is not too far wrong in not permitting mud slinging in their fair country.

RJR
Chicago

P. S. Print if you like — since this, too, is a gripe.

Full Speed Ahead

Your recent editorial, "There are a number of community projects in this area that need doing. Those projects have been with us a long time. Public officials are prone to sidestep public improvements that need doing. They hesitate to cram the 'doing' down the throats of the taxpayer. Some of those jobs were with us five years ago, last year and will be with us next year awaiting for men big enough to force us to open our mouths and swallow.", seems to me requires some comment.

It is very evident that at the present, this community has no man big enough to force us to epen our mouths and swallow anything. All we have is a group of little men, some of them, maybe all, doing the best they can. That seems to be a big problem in a lot of communities as well as our own.

I am sure that will continue to be our problem as long as the only newspaper we have continues to be only a reporter and, even then, only reporting some things and not all things that happen. It is the duty of your paper, I believe, to search out those problems that need doing, tell us why they have not been done, who is responsible, etc. At the best, only a small percentage of the people in this community, typical of the country as a whole, are interested in their government.

YOU ARE IN a position to do your community a great service, using your paper to stir up this community by continually hitting hard on those things which you believe in, whether you be right or wrong. The important thing is to get the people interested in their government so it will be discussed and those issues can be settled by the people with the largest possible percentage of the people taking part in those decisions whether they be for you or against you. The coming election to decide for or against a village manager is your first opportunity Let's see you shake this village to its very foundation. No more of these meek little questions such as "Where do we go from here"!

If you think I don't know what I am talking about, let me tell you that during World War II, while serving aboard a mine sweeper in the Central Pacific with a crew of 30 men and 4 officers, I published a newspaper daily. At the beginning of the Presidential campaign in 1944, I discovered that about half of the crew had no intention of voting and were completely disinterested in who won. A typical American neighborhood!

AS I STARTED my campaign to get out the vote, I discovered that a vast majority of those voting were going to vote for the "other" candidate. But I kept fighting. There were discussions almost nightly in my office, until late hours. We solved the world's problems many times over. The result? One hundred per cent. Every man on that ship, eligible to vote, voted in that election. I doubt if any newspaper in existence can equal that record; certainly there isn't one that can better the record. And I have a suspicion that the vote was about 10 to 1 against my candidate. But that was unimportant. The important thing; they all voted even though some did not intend to.

Of course, I will grant you one thing that seems to favor my paper over yours. I had no advertisers to please. It didn't make any difference whose toes I stepped on. Does that make any difference to you?

Take It Easy

Let's be a little less harsh in our criticism of our trustees! One of many nasty letters in last week's Fence Post decries the action of the Trustees in the village manager matter, complaining of "Sneaky political maneuvering similar to that which influenced their leaving Chicago." It would seem to me that some of these tactics followed these folks from Chicago, else they would have hesitated before writing as they did.

Do these folks know that our trustees are paid no salary; get a "token payment" for two meetings a month and that often three and four meetings are held, the additional ones not even paying this small stipend? Also, that an agenda is prepared for each meeting and that an effort is made to complete each item of business scheduled for that meeting? Hence it often grows late before all matters are reached and voted on.

Now, as to the village manager matter, over which there has been controversy since it's inception: the four trustees who seem to be under fire at the moment were elected by an overwhelming majority, and one of their campaign planks was to have a referendum on this matter; thus, they are merely fulfilling one of the pledges on which they were elected.

So why all the hue and cry about the matter? The voters indicated a referendum should be held and that's the opportunity that is going to be given to them, which, incidentally, they are entitled to, considering that they are footing the bill!

Here's a suggestion to our trustees: lately I have heard it stated several times that Arlington Heights is being run by the real estate agents and builders, the latter especially, with their complaints and petitions which take up the major portion of the village meetings; hence the trustees in order to legislate important village problems are often forced to continue meetings until the wee small hours.

Why not designate one meeting per month as a "special meeting" when builders only will be allowed to present their petitions, etc., thus reserving regularly scheduled meetings for the many existing village problems?

Bensenville will lay a lot of cement walks this fall.

About 30 witnesses were called before the grand jury at Wheaton Tuesday to tell what they knew about Itasca saloons being open on Sunday.

Herman Staib, Hanover, says Palatine is a fine town, lots more sporty than Bartlett. He must be sparking a girl over there.

Ald. C. W. Ost, Palatine, is convalescing rapidly from his many injuries the past week.

Mr. Henay Bolte and son, Ed, of Arlington Heights have been hustling this past week, preparing to lay a cement walk 9 ft. wide on the north and west sides of his brick block and 4 ft. 8 in. the rest of the way. They have already tramped down over a carload of cinders and John Schulenburg will lay the cement top dressing next week. That's what we call hustling.

Wheeling steel concrete bridge is nearing completion. It will be the finest in Cook county.

A grand dance and raffle for a good carriage horse will be held at the Chicago House Hall, Wheeling, Saturday evening, Oct. 21. Music by first-class Chicago orchestra. Tickets 50 cents.

Charles O. Peterson, the popular blacksmith and skilled mechanic and his worthy wife, who is highly esteemed by all who have the pleasure of her acquaintance entertained the Men's Bible Class and their ladies in a very delightful manner at their handsome new home on Chestnut st., Arlington Heights, Tuesday evening, the occasion being the regular monthly meeting of the class.

The Cook County Fair that was postponed on account of the Foot and Mouth Disease will be held October 14, 15, and 16 at Palatine.

Mt. Prospect is certainly a booming town. Nine new houses will soon be finished and there are prospects for more yet this season.

Palatine will have a football team this year if the plans of some of the old timers meet with success.

Mr. William Heide and Miss Alma Nebel were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Schaumburg, at 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 25, 1915.

William Schmidt of Quentin Corners died suddenly of heart trouble at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when seated in his chair at his home.

William Hanke, Itasca, is suffering from lumbago.

Mrs. H. J. Martens, Roselle, leaves Saturday for San Francisco where she intends to spend 3 months visiting her daughters and seeing the Exposition.

The 25 gallons of alcohol that was discovered in a garage near the Young soft drink parlor at Palatine recently has been dumped into the sewer.

The congregation of the Palatine Lutheran church held a meeting recently when a committee was authorized to secure plans and figures for the erection of a school building.

What's the matter with the Bensenville water system? Last week every little while the faucets refused to yield water. The new automatic engine at the pumping station is said to be in a bad condition because it was not given proper care.

Arlington Heights football squad travels in style, as it should. The trip to Antioch was made in a gayly painted motor coach, especially hired for the occasion. This means of transportation is superior to traveling in smaller cars as it keeps the team together. There is no fear of tire trouble or of anyone getting lost on the way. The boys can celebrate their victories together on the way home or cheer each other after a defeat as the case may be.

They do say Roberta Beaty is the most popular little Miss in Arlington Heights since she came into possesion of that pretty prize pony and cart.

In the final play-off Sunday for the 1935 championship of the Arlington Heights softball league, the Schimming-Sachs emerged the victors over Roehler Motors in a loosely played game. The score was 10 to 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Wenslaff motored to St. Louis last Wednesday where they saw the Cubs tighten their grip on the National League pennant.

We are all glad to learn that Bill, Palatine high school janitor, is out of the hospital and will soon be well enough to sweep our floors once more.

Everything comes to him who kicks hard enough and those residents of Arlington Heights whose homes are on W. Euclid, N. Dwyer, and W. Campbell now receive their mail by rural carrier. As that part of the town is sparsely settled and is without sidewalks, village delivery is not possible.

The damage done by a fire of unknown origin which broke at the Itasca Country club last Saturday is now estimated at $45,000.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

If you want to be a venerable parent in your retiring years, it's up to you to see that your children learn responsiblity and loyalty at home. Junior will have little love for the parent who gives everything with a free hand, and expects nothing in return. Children should be taught that they owe their parents something in return for their care, and be encouraged to pay their way in work about the home, to carry their share of the load.

Ask any employer who his best employee is and he will give you the answer quickly; the employee who has learned responsiblility and loyalty at home. It's the child who grows up thinking that the world owes him a living because everything was handed him on a silver platter at home who finds it hard to adjust in the business world. And if he doesn't learn to be loyal to his home and his parents as a child, he won't be loyal to his employer on the job.

FOR THE EMPLOYER takes over where the parent leaves off. Most of us need supervision throughout life, and most of us also transfer to our employers and supervisors the responsibility for our welfare in the workaday world. That employers are taking this to heart is witnessed by the all out effort most of them are taking to make their factories like a home.

Not only do many of them provide for their employees social life through clubs, bowling teams, golf clubs, handball courts and tennis courts on their own grounds, but they are providing family and employee counseling on such things as home life, financial problems and legal matters.

THE YOUNG MAN or woman who goes out into the world on his own with a well developed sense of responsibility and loyalty will forge rapidly ahead of the ones who want things handed to them for employers are always seeking responsible employees, and are quick to recognize and reward them.

And the parent who has taught his child to respect him and realize what he owes his parent will have that child's loving care in his old age. It's as simple as that.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

I wrote to you last week about Nell and I starting our nursery school and said that I'd tell you more about the adventure this week. Just in case you're thinking of starting something like this, let me say first of all that you REALLY have to want to do it to have enough courage to meet all the obstacles waiting for you. You see, one just can't start a nursery school — one must get permission first and that means permission from the fire chief, permission from the health inspector, permission from the city council and an inspection and license from the state welfare department! There is also the matter of an increase in insurance — both on house and car (as I pick up and take the children home).

It sometimes seems as though all these people are deliberately trying to prevent you from going through with your idea of a nursery school. I've been told this isn't true and that actually all these permits are for our own protection as well as that of the children, but I still say don't consider going into business until you're ready to plow through all the red tape.

BY THE TIME our nursery school opened two weeks ago, we had nine children enrolled. Although we need about twice that many to make it profitable, we didn't feel that it was too poor a showing since the first notice of the school appeared only two weeks before our opening. We are also receiving phone calls now for information and enrollments in our second session. The reason we run the school in four week sessions is to enable parents to enroll their children and pay for a comparatively short time.

If a child is absent or attends only three weeks and then drops out, no refund is given. However, a child can attend as few as three days a week — as long as they are specific days. We do prefer to have the child come five days a week. If the child attends five days a week, from 9 to 11:30 the fee is $25.00 for four weeks (transportation included). If the child attends only three days a week the fee is $1.50 per morning.

THE FIRST DAY was a riot. I had no idea it would take 45 minutes to pick up nine children in our station wagon — as a consequence I was 25 minutes late picking up the last child and of course the mother thought I had forgotten her little girl. Since then, I have managed to pick up every child before 9 o'clock, with the exception of the one time I actually did forget to stop for a child (this is very poor business — best to be mysterious and suggest vaguely that you had some unusual problem that morning).

From the very first day, the children have been thrilled with their lovely, large play room, the many toys, the doll house, the doll beds and baby buggies. They also love to pull up their little individual benches to the small tables and model clay, or work a puzzle, color or have their morning snack. The routine is much the same every day: first a good morning prayer, then about a half hour of free play, then either a story or organized game. At 10 we have a snack of fruit juice and cookies followed by whatever story record the children would like to hear. If the weather is nice we go outside for such games as London Bridge, Farmer in the Dell, Ring-Around-the-Rosy and Follow the Leader or play in the sand box and on the swings. On birthdays we have a cake and a balloon and lollipop for everyone, and a present for the birthday child.

So far, it has been worth all the obstacles we had to overcome while getting started. The children love it! They hurry to the car when I "toot" every morning, smiling and happy to be going to nursery school. As long as the children are this eager, the job will be an easy and happy one.

My love,
Patty.

Profits of the bake sale held by the Arlington Greens Community Association, Arlington Heights, were turned over to S. R. Paddock Sr., member of the hospital board, by Mrs. Paul George, chairman of the sale. The check totaled $163 and will be added to the rapidly growing fund for the proposed Northwest Community hospital Center that will serve residents of Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine, Barrington and Schaumburg townships. —Staff Photo

Newspaper Week

Once again, it is my pleasure to extend congratulations and best wishes to you on the occasion of National Newspaper Week, October 1 to 8.

I want also to thank you for the generous amount of space you have devoted to news stories coming from this office. The average citizen of our state has probably more direct contact with the secretary of state's office than with any other state agency, because of our duties in the fields of motor vehicle licensing, driver licensing, election requirements and so on. Without your cooperation it would be practically an insurmountable task to keep him informed about the deadlines he must meet and the procedures to follow to obtain his fair share of the services available through state government.

Area High School Students Face A Tough Assignment

The Illinois legislature has handed out one of the toughest student assignments in the history of the state.

So said Dr. Rollin B. Posey, former head of Northwestern university's political science department.

Referring to a new law requiring all junior and senior high school students to pass a test on the state constitution before graduation, Dr. Posey explained that the 1871 document contains legal terminology difficult even for lawyers to puzzle out.

"This is the reason why I felt it desirable to re-word the document in a simplified form," he said. "The longest sentence in the Illinois constitution contains 481 words and 7 separate ideas.

This sentence may well hold the record for length among the various state constitions, added Posey.

The professor's new volume, "The Constitution of Illinois, Simplified and Explained," contains in 3 parallel columns the actual constitution, a paraphrase of it in easy-to-understand language, and notes on the significance of each section.

Rand Road

I have read the several news items in last weeks Roselle Register regarding the disregarding motorists who drive along Rand rd., Route 12, between County Line rd. and Mannheim rd. at a speed greater than reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and use of the way, so as to endanger the life, limb or property of any person and mostly school children. Having been a law enforcement officer for several years, it is my duty to be interested in the welfare of my boss, the people.

If there are people who are interested in the safety of their children, and I believe all of them are. may I suggest they contact their township board or district school board and have them either hire a constable for an hour or more on school days to patrol Rand rd.

As most of us know, Rand road between County Line road and Mannheim rd. is located partly in Palatine, Wheeling or Maine townships. All or most of these townships have five (5) Constables, some of them members of local police departments who may be at your service for a short time daily.

Some time ago, I rendered such service to a school board and district where Route 50 passed thru. It is preferable the school district or districts, through its school board, do the hiring, inasmuch as your township board has the justice of the peace as most of its members and who may be accused of a speed-trap. The office of constable is not a one with a salary, and may be considered piece work or a fee office. We have and demand home rule; now here is the chance to use it.

EYE-WITNESS REPORT

Arabs Confined to Rock Caves Could Win Palestine for Reds

(This is the third in a series of reports on Palestine by Rev. Dahl of Arlington Heights. He recently returned from a 44-week tour of the Near East.)

by BIRGER DAHL

Some refugee families live in caves. A young man in his late teens invited me to his home in Ild Jerusalem, near Dung Gate.

A narrow street led us to a stone court yard 20 ft. in diameter. There were 8 caves within the rock wall where little light penetrated each dwelling place.

The boy's cave-home furnished shelter for a family of 5. This single space was 9x12 ft. The floor was stone, walls solid rock.

Meager furnishings consisted of an oil burner for cooking, several dishes, 2 pans, a few blankets, and a small bundle of clothes.

HIS NEIGHBORS, a family of 10, lived in a cave slightly larger. Above these 8 family units was another tier of caves, housing a total of 75 people about this small courtyard.

Many refugee camps lined the way in Lebanon, Syria and Jordan. They varied in size. Some have less than 800 people, others more than 20,000.

Most of these unfortunate people live in tents used during World War II. Their tattered rags are the only shelter from the blazing sun and winter storms.

Most of these Arabs were accustomed to good living conditions in cities or small villages. Among them are doctors, lawyers, and men and women trained in good universities.

They are not thinking, however, of erecting permanent dwelling places. They are dominated by the thought of their right to go back home.

UNRWA is doing an excellent job with limited means. The quality of food is acceptable. My refugee friend appreciated any kind of food—it kept him alive.

It costs less than $2 a month to feed a person on a daily diet of 1500 calories. Current figures for monthly rations consist of 22 pounds of flour, little more than a pound of sugar, 1 pound 5 ounces of dried beans, peas, etc., 1 pound 2 ounces of oil, and 3½ ounces of soap.

Because of limited funds, UNRWA is not able to provide clothing for refugees. They must rely on various organizations such as Lutheran World federation, Church World service, American Middle East Relief, inc.

Refugees told me food and clothing rations have not been increased for the newly born. However, up to the age of 2, some of the larger camps have a special milk and rice ration.

UNRWA DOCTORS have done a noble job with a small staff in warding off epidemics such as cholera, typhus or bubonic plague. The real scourge of the East for thousands of years has been eye disease. About 50% are suffering from trachoma or conjunctivitis. One little girl, 4 years old, had 20 or more flies about her eyes. Because both diseases are primarily transmitted by flies, much is being done to eliminate them.

Such conditions breed communism. These people at heart are not in sympathy with communism; but destitution among 800,000 refugees could force them to turn blindly to any country or system for help.

One observer, a graduate of Northwestern university, worked in Egypt as managing editor of a Middle East magazine. He said: "Every day that passes before a just solution of the refugee problem has been achieved, is a day won for the Soviets, and lost for the Western Powers."

(Next week: "The Mind of Israel in the Middle East.")

Junior High School

Editor's column several weeks ago mentioned the need for a junior high school in Palatine. I have since learned the location for this building is to be northeast of town and that there is also planning going on for a grade school southwest of town. All this information gives rise to several questions which can only be resolved by consideration and participation of the entire community.

That more classrooms are immediately needed is clear; what is not so obvious is: (1) the kind of space most urgently required, (2) the education parents feel the elementary school should provide, and (3) the amount of money the district can afford to spend.

APPROXIMATELY two-thirds to three-fourths of the present grade school population is made up of children in kindergarten through fourth grade, and the majority of the children moving into the district will fall into this group. Therefore our greatest immediate need is for classrooms for primary and intermediate grades.

It is desirable, furthermore, that children of this age group attend school within walking distance of their homes for two reasons — one, if children attend neighborhood schools, they will not have heavily-traveled streets to cross, and two, neighborhood schools do not require the expense of a cafeteria and bus transportation.

THE KIND of education parents want the elementary school to provide is the first and most important subject which deserves consideration of everyone, because the kind of housing required depends upon the kind of education requested. And to reach agreement on the kind of education, we need to consider what we, as parents, expect the school to teach our children, to decide how much should be taught in grade school and how much should be left for high school. It is only after we agree on these issues that we can decide what kind of school buildings we need.

Before, for instance, Palatine citizens could vote intelligently on the advisability of a junior high school, we would have to agree among other things on the answers to the following questions. What is a junior high school designed to do? What course of study is desirable? What grade levels should be included? We would need to know why educators disagree as to the advisability of establishing junior high schools. Is the disagreement based on differences of opinion as to the course of study, as to the grade levels included, or as to both?

IF WE SHOULD agree that a junior high school includes the seventh through ninth grades, we would need to solve the existing situation of having one board responsible for the seventh and eighth grades and another responsible for the ninth. Should the present districts be dissolved and a new one encompassing both be created? Should the two present boards retain their respective entities as taxing bodies but meet as one group with common responsibility? Should one board assume responsibility for a junior high school and receive per capita payment from the other for operating those grades not within its taxing jurisdication?

If, on the other hand, we should agree that a junior high school includes the sixth through eighth grades, or the seventh and eighth grades alone, and thus not be faced with making the decisions above, we would still need to decide on the housing and equipment needed for these grade levels.

WHAT EQUIPMENT do we already have? What is the best compromise between an ideal situation and the amount of money available? Should we take advantage of present housing with its two cafeterias, two gymnasiums, both expensive parts of a school building, build outlying neighborhood schools for kindergartens through fifth or sixth grades to relieve the pressure on Oak Street and Paddock, and then use our present facilities primarily for upper grades?

What is the most desirable location for a junior high school? Should Oak Street, with its proximity to the park, to the probable future site of the village library, and the possibility of using the shop and home economics equipment of the high school, be enlarged as it was designed to be and become the junior high school for the district? Should we build one new neighborhood school and one new junior high school or should we build two new neighborhood schools?

ALL OF THESE questions should be considered and resolved by the entire community. It is unfair to the boards of education, to the children in the district, and to the general public to expect a handful of our people to assume responsibility for decisions that morally and legally are the responsibility of every person — especially of parents. Just as we assume responsibility for the operation of our village, so, it seems to me, we should assume responsibility for our schools.

Gripes And Grudges

It looks like the "Fence Post" should be renamed "Gripes and Grudges." Since your headlines were quite clear, was it necessary to print such chowder about our fair "Regressive Party" and several others. When we consider the vast distribution of our paper, is there no other way of adjusting ones problems since the editor had done such a splendid job of stating the issues.

Perhaps the association of commerce in California is not too far wrong in not permitting mud slinging in their fair country.

RJR

P. S. Print if you like — since this, too, is a gripe.

Full Speed Ahead

Your recent editorial, "There are a number of community projects in this area that need doing. Those projects have been with us a long time. Public officials are prone to sidestep public improvements that need doing. They hesitate to cram the 'doing' down the throats of the taxpayer. Some of those jobs were with us five years ago, last year and will be with us next year awaiting for men big enough to force us to open our mouths and swallow.", seems to me requires some comment.

It is very evident that at the present, this community has no man big enough to force us to epen our mouths and swallow anything. All we have is a group of little men, some of them, maybe all, doing the best they can. That seems to be a big problem in a lot of communities as well as our own.

I am sure that will continue to be our problem as long as the only newspaper we have continues to be only a reporter and, even then, only reporting some things and not all things that happen. It is the duty of your paper, I believe, to search out those problems that need doing, tell us why they have not been done, who is responsible, etc. At the best, only a small percentage of the people in this community, typical of the country as a whole, are interested in their government.

YOU ARE IN a position to do your community a great service, using your paper to stir up this community by continually hitting hard on those things which you believe in, whether you be right or wrong. The important thing is to get the people interested in their government so it will be discussed and those issues can be settled by the people with the largest possible percentage of the people taking part in those decisions whether they be for you or against you. The coming election to decide for or against a village manager is your first opportunity Let's see you shake this village to its very foundation. No more of these meek little questions such as "Where do we go from here"!

If you think I don't know what I am talking about, let me tell you that during World War II, while serving aboard a mine sweeper in the Central Pacific with a crew of 30 men and 4 officers, I published a newspaper daily. At the beginning of the Presidential campaign in 1944, I discovered that about half of the crew had no intention of voting and were completely disinterested in who won. A typical American neighborhood!

AS I STARTED my campaign to get out the vote, I discovered that a vast majority of those voting were going to vote for the "other" candidate. But I kept fighting. There were discussions almost nightly in my office, until late hours. We solved the world's problems many times over. The result? One hundred per cent. Every man on that ship, eligible to vote, voted in that election. I doubt if any newspaper in existence can equal that record; certainly there isn't one that can better the record. And I have a suspicion that the vote was about 10 to 1 against my candidate. But that was unimportant. The important thing; they all voted even though some did not intend to.

Of course, I will grant you one thing that seems to favor my paper over yours. I had no advertisers to please. It didn't make any difference whose toes I stepped on. Does that make any difference to you?

Take It Easy

Let's be a little less harsh in our criticism of our trustees! One of many nasty letters in last week's Fence Post decries the action of the Trustees in the village manager matter, complaining of "Sneaky political maneuvering similar to that which influenced their leaving Chicago." It would seem to me that some of these tactics followed these folks from Chicago, else they would have hesitated before writing as they did.

Do these folks know that our trustees are paid no salary; get a "token payment" for two meetings a month and that often three and four meetings are held, the additional ones not even paying this small stipend? Also, that an agenda is prepared for each meeting and that an effort is made to complete each item of business scheduled for that meeting? Hence it often grows late before all matters are reached and voted on.

Now, as to the village manager matter, over which there has been controversy since it's inception: the four trustees who seem to be under fire at the moment were elected by an overwhelming majority, and one of their campaign planks was to have a referendum on this matter; thus, they are merely fulfilling one of the pledges on which they were elected.

So why all the hue and cry about the matter? The voters indicated a referendum should be held and that's the opportunity that is going to be given to them, which, incidentally, they are entitled to, considering that they are footing the bill!

Here's a suggestion to our trustees: lately I have heard it stated several times that Arlington Heights is being run by the real estate agents and builders, the latter especially, with their complaints and petitions which take up the major portion of the village meetings; hence the trustees in order to legislate important village problems are often forced to continue meetings until the wee small hours.

Why not designate one meeting per month as a "special meeting" when builders only will be allowed to present their petitions, etc., thus reserving regularly scheduled meetings for the many existing village problems?

Mrs. Walter Stumpf,
513 S. Highland ave.
Arlington Heights

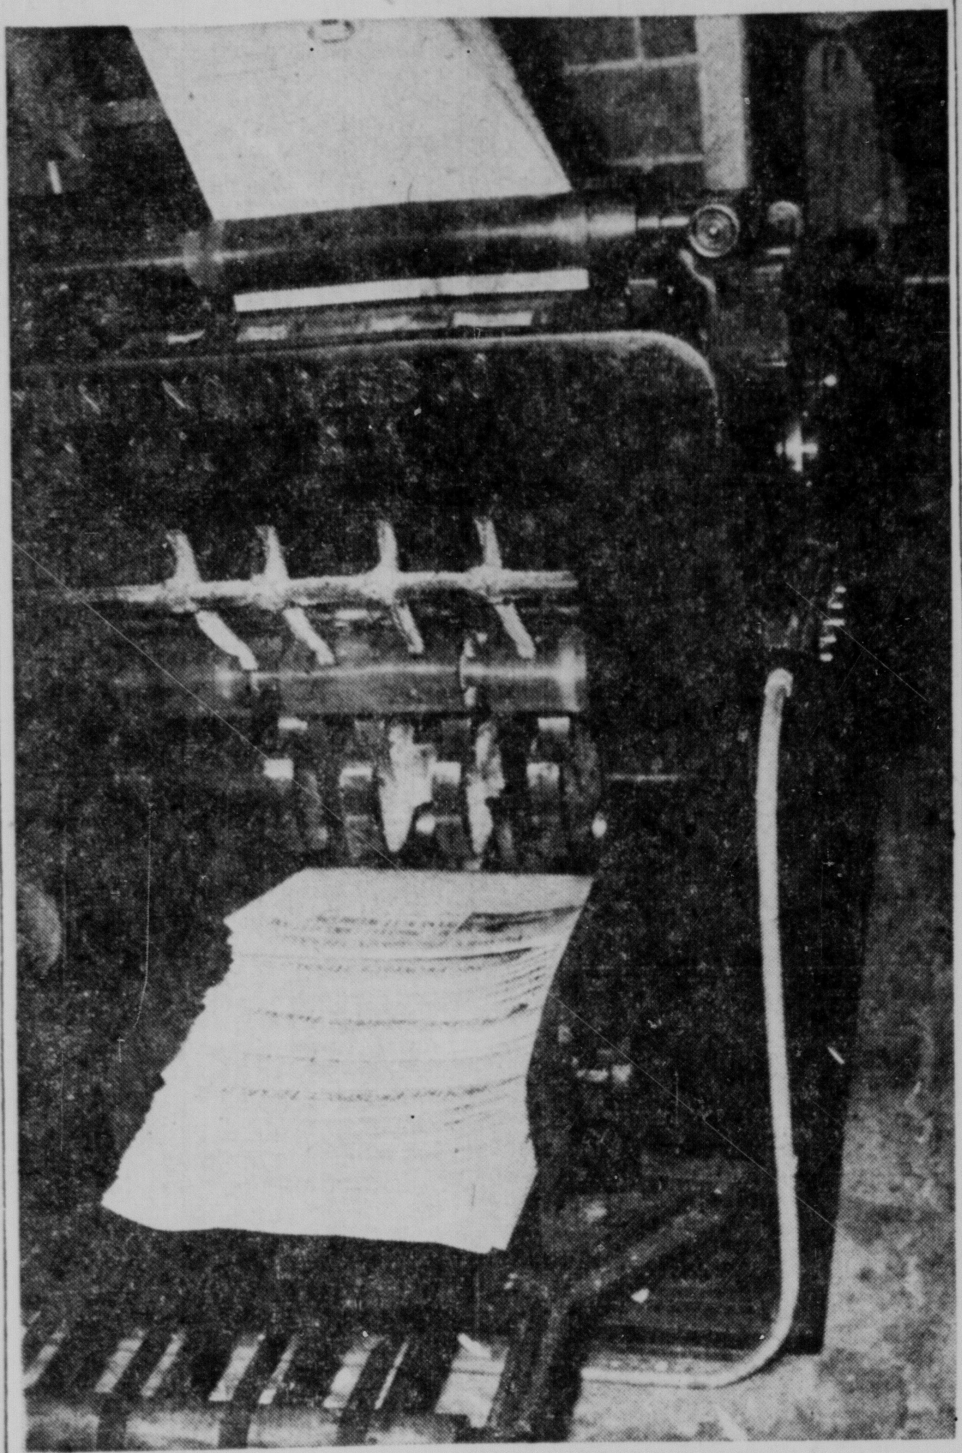
Stop The Press!



Start the press! That's the cry every Wednesday at Paddock Publications when all 6 Cook county editions are printed. The 3 DuPage county editions are printed Thursday morning, with 20,000 copies going to homes within the 36 community area served by Paddock Publications each week.

The Goss rotary runs at speeds varying from 10,000 to 20,000 per hour. With an edition the size of the Palatine centennial issue recently, 80,000 impressions were necessary, sending 9 tons of newsprint to readers.

Mirror Landings For Aircraft Carriers

A new system of landing aircraft at sea with mirrors and colored lights underwent its first tests last month on the navy attack aircraft carrier USS Bennington.

Based on an idea developed by the British navy, the new landing system consists of a large concave mirror and banks of green and amber lights mounted on the port side of a carrier's angled flight deck.

As the pilot approaches the flight deck for a landing, the position of the lights and an image in the mirror indicate whether his glide path, speed and altitude are in proper relation to each other for a safe landing.

Here's How Man Lived, Died In Illinois 2,000 Years Ago

(This is the second of 2 articles on the Illinois Valley Exposition, which unearthed an Indian village and burial mound in downstate Illinois. Telling the story is Donald McNellis, 19, of Palatine, a member of the archaeological team.)

by DONALD McNELLIS

The most important discovery in the village was a pattern of 7 deer antlers placed on a prepared gravel platform.

More than 3 feet below the ground level, they probably represented a Hopewill religious ceremony. It is generally belivieved that these primitive people worshipped gods presonified in elk, deer, buffalo, and other naimals important to their existence.

In digging for these relics, earth was shoveled from 5-foot squares into fine mesh screens, where it was sifted. Digging was done 6 inches at a time and relics from each layer were kept separate in order to give some idea how the material was deposited from early to late stages in the civilization.

THE RULE in digging is to vary speed according to what is found.

Thus, an entire day might be spent digging out a large cooking pot and on another layers of arrowheads and bone might be speedily unearthed.

But excavation is only half of archaeology.

When all the artifacts are collected, it remains for scientists to analyze every find and reconstruct the life of these people.

For example, the discovery of grinding stones for grain indicated a settled, agricultural people as opposed to nomadic hunters. Other Hopewell excavations confirm this.

THE BURIAL MOUND of these people was about one-half mile south of the village site. It was on top of a high hill which commanded a fine view of the river valley.

The artificiality of the mound was indicated by the sharp rise it took from the natural slope of the hill. Another indication was the alternating layers of sand, gravel, and clay, placed there by ancient workers as the mound was slowly built up.

Excavators found several "bundle" burials which are small packets of human bone, usually the skull and long bones placed in no special pattern in small pits within the mound.

This suggests that they might have been the remains of Hopewellians originally buried in the general village cemetery and later, through some tribal practice, reburied in the mound. This explains why the skulls in all these burials are collapsed from the pressure of earth on the empty skull.

ALSO FOUND was a Hopewell skeleton buried in the flexed position. In the top of the skull had been drilled 3 round holes, one-half inch in diameter.

Here was one of man's first attempts at brain surgery, and it seems to have been a success because the holes show evidence of beginning to grow back together. Found with the skeleton were 2 arrowheads, perhaps the cause of death, and 2 pieces of human armbone, carved as neck ornaments.

A large cremation pit was also uncovered in the mound in which were found piles of burnt human bone and ashes of many cremations.

The technique of digging in the mound was somewhat different from the village. Ten ft. wide trenches were dug into it and the earth not screened. As soon as a burial was discovered, however, the utmost care was exercised by digging around each bone with a grapefruit knife and paint brush until the entire skeleton was uncovered safely.

THE MOST important thing I got from my brief experience with archaeology this summer is that it is a test of how long a person can stay with something.

It's assumed you have interest and enthusiasm in the subject to start with, but to keep those qualities through weeks of 100-degree temperatures and hard, cement-like ground which sometimes must be chipped away with picks, that is a real challenge.

Some days you feel like giving up and admitting that the Hopewell man was a better man than you.

But something called modern progress makes you think again—and take another shovel full.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. How is all service made at a dinner table, from the right or left?

A. From the left, and using the left hand. Glasses are refilled from the right, and without being picked up or moved. The dishes may be removed, however, from either right or left, whichever is more convenient, and they should not be stacked, but removed singly.

Q. Should the first page of a social letter be numbered?

A. No; this is neither necessary nor proper. You may number the succeeding pages, if you wish.

Q. On which arm of her father should be bride proceed down the aisle of the church?

A. On his right arm.

Q. When the brief form of introduction is used, as, "Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Smith," in what way can it be made apparent who is being introduced to whom?

A. The more important person's name should be accentuated so that it will be as clear as though the words, "May I present," were used.

Q. When attending a formal dinner, is it all right for a guest to leave before the last course is served?

A. No; a guest should never leave before the dinner is finished, unless, of course, it is for some very urgent reason, such as illness.

Q. To whom should wedding anoucements be mailed?

A. Only to those people who did not receive invitations to the wedding.

Q. What is the proper time for the host and hostess to take their seats at the dinner table?

A. The hostess always seats herself first, this being the signal for the guests to seat themsleves. The host is always the last to seat himself.

Q. When visiting in the home of a friend, and a box of candy is open on the table, is a guest privileged to help himself without a invitation?

A. No. To do so would be presumptuous.

Q. Is it considered proper, when dining alone in a public place, to read a book or newspaper at the table?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it all right for a left-handed person to hold his knife in his left hand at the dinner table?

A. No. In many cases, this would prove awkward, especially to the person seated at his left. He can easily learn to use his knife in his right hand.

Q. Is it considered necessary to repeat a person's name when being introduced?

A. Just "How do you do" is sufficient, but it is always nicer if you do repeat the other person's name after this greeting. It seems to indicate that you have really paid attention to the introduction.

Q. When eating a baked potato, is it correct to take the potato from the skin and mash it on the plate?

A: No; the proper way is to split the potato and then eat it directly from the skin.

Q. Whose place is it to set the date of the wedding, the bride or the bridegroom?

A. After the prospective bride and bridegroom have decided between themselves that circumstances are favorable for their wedding, it is up to the bride and her mother to decide the exact date.

Q. Should asparagus be eaten with the fingers?

A. No. It is ill-bred to take up this dripping vegetable with the fingers. It is properly eaten with the fork.

Dear Mr. Domeier:

A huge package arrived here in Paris for my four-year-old son, Alexander, sent by his Aunt Aileen in the States. To our amazement it was a healthy-looking "red pig"......a savings bank from the Oak Park Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Close on the heels of the "red pig" came a letter from my sister, who is a teacher, suggesting that Alexander start saving his francs. It would appear that it will take Alexander until almost college days to fill this bank, so his father had better give him a bit of a start.

Inclosed you will find my check to start his education fund.

Yours very truly,

Mirror Landings For Aircraft Carriers

A new system of landing aircraft at sea with mirrors and colored lights underwent its first tests last month on the navy attack aircraft carrier USS Bennington.

Based on an idea developed by the British navy, the new landing system consists of a large concave mirror and banks of green and amber lights mounted on the port side of a carrier's angled flight deck.

As the pilot approaches the flight deck for a landing, the position of the lights and an image in the mirror indicate whether his glide path, speed and altitude are in proper relation to each other for a safe landing.

Q. Should the first page of a social letter be numbered?

A. No; this is neither necessary nor proper. You may number the succeeding pages, if you wish.

Q. On which arm of her father should be bride proceed down the aisle of the church?

A. On his right arm.

Q. When the brief form of introduction is used, as, "Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Smith," in what way can it be made apparent who is being introduced to whom?

A. The more important person's name should be accentuated so that it will be as clear as though the words, "May I present," were used.

Q. When attending a formal dinner, is it all right for a guest to leave before the last course is served?

A. No; a guest should never leave before the dinner is finished, unless, of course, it is for some very urgent reason, such as illness.

Q. To whom should wedding anoucements be mailed?

A. Only to those people who did not receive invitations to the wedding.

Q. What is the proper time for the host and hostess to take their seats at the dinner table?

A. The hostess always seats herself first, this being the signal for the guests to seat themsleves. The host is always the last to seat himself.

Q. When visiting in the home of a friend, and a box of candy is open on the table, is a guest privileged to help himself without a invitation?

A. No. To do so would be presumptuous.

Q. Is it considered proper, when dining alone in a public place, to read a book or newspaper at the table?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it all right for a left-handed person to hold his knife in his left hand at the dinner table?

A. No. In many cases, this would prove awkward, especially to the person seated at his left. He can easily learn to use his knife in his right hand.

Q. Is it considered necessary to repeat a person's name when being introduced?

A. Just "How do you do" is sufficient, but it is always nicer if you do repeat the other person's name after this greeting. It seems to indicate that you have really paid attention to the introduction.

Q. When eating a baked potato, is it correct to take the potato from the skin and mash it on the plate?

A. No; the proper way is to split the potato and then eat it directly from the skin.

Q. Whose place is it to set the date of the wedding, the bride or the bridegroom?

A. After the prospective bride and bridegroom have decided between themselves that circumstances are favorable for their wedding, it is up to the bride and her mother to decide the exact date.

Q. Should asparagus be eaten with the fingers?

A. No. It is ill-bred to take up this dripping vegetable with the fingers. It is properly eaten with the fork.

Here's How Man Lived, Died In Illinois 2,000 Years Ago

(This is the second of 2 articles on the Illinois Valley Exposition, which unearthed an Indian village and burial mound in downstate Illinois. Telling the story is Donald McNellis, 19, of Palatine, a member of the archaeological team.)

by DONALD McNELLIS

The most important discovery in the village was a pattern of 7 deer antlers placed on a prepared gravel platform.

More than 3 feet below the ground level, they probably represented a Hopewill religious ceremony. It is generally belivieved that these primitive people worshipped gods presonified in elk, deer, buffalo, and other naimals important to their existence.

In digging for these relics, earth was shoveled from 5-foot squares into fine mesh screens, where it was sifted. Digging was done 6 inches at a time and relics from each layer were kept separate in order to give some idea how the material was deposited from early to late stages in the civilization.

THE RULE in digging is to vary speed according to what is found.

Thus, an entire day might be spent digging out a large cooking pot and on another layers of arrowheads and bone might be speedily unearthed.

But excavation is only half of archaeology.

When all the artifacts are collected, it remains for scientists to analyze every find and reconstruct the life of these people.

For example, the discovery of grinding stones for grain indicated a settled, agricultural people as opposed to nomadic hunters. Other Hopewell excavations confirm this.

THE BURIAL MOUND of these people was about one-half mile south of the village site. It was on top of a high hill which commanded a fine view of the river valley.

The artificiality of the mound was indicated by the sharp rise it took from the natural slope of the hill. Another indication was the alternating layers of sand, gravel, and clay, placed there by ancient workers as the mound was slowly built up.

Excavators found several "bundle" burials which are small packets of human bone, usually the skull and long bones placed in no special pattern in small pits within the mound.

This suggests that they might have been the remains of Hopewellians originally buried in the general village cemetery and later, through some tribal practice, reburied in the mound. This explains why the skulls in all these burials are collapsed from the pressure of earth on the empty skull.

ALSO FOUND was a Hopewell skeleton buried in the flexed position. In the top of the skull had been drilled 3 round holes, one-half inch in diameter.

Here was one of man's first attempts at brain surgery, and it seems to have been a success because the holes show evidence of beginning to grow back together. Found with the skeleton were 2 arrowheads, perhaps the cause of death, and 2 pieces of human armbone, carved as neck ornaments.

A large cremation pit was also uncovered in the mound in which were found piles of burnt human bone and ashes of many cremations.

The technique of digging in the mound was somewhat different from the village. Ten ft. wide trenches were dug into it and the earth not screened. As soon as a burial was discovered, however, the utmost care was exercised by digging around each bone with a grapefruit knife and paint brush until the entire skeleton was uncovered safely.

THE MOST important thing I got from my brief experience with archaeology this summer is that it is a test of how long a person can stay with something.

It's assumed you have interest and enthusiasm in the subject to start with, but to keep those qualities through weeks of 100-degree temperatures and hard, cement-like ground which sometimes must be chipped away with picks, that is a real challenge.

Some days you feel like giving up and admitting that the Hopewell man was a better man than you.

But something called modern progress makes you think again—and take another shovel full.

Dear Mr. Domeier:

A huge package arrived here in Paris for my four-year-old son, Alexander, sent by his Aunt Aileen in the States. To our amazement it was a healthy-looking "red pig"....a savings bank from the Oak Park Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Close on the heels of the "red pig" came a letter from my sister, who is a teacher, suggesting that Alexander start saving his francs. It would appear that it will take Alexander until almost college days to fill this bank, so his father had better give him a bit of a start.

Inclosed you will find my check to start his education fund.

Yours very truly,
Loren Carroll
